OUTLINES.

The barque Sparta, from Coosaw, S. C., for Liverpool, was abandoned at sea; crew saved. The court house and all the private records of Northport, Mich., were burned yesterday. Mr. Scoville filed his papers upon which he bases his motion for a new trial in the Guiteau case; no day has yet been fixed for hearing the argument. The Western North Carolina Railroad was completed yesterday to Paint Rock. The Woman's Christian Temperance Union call attention to the fact that it is not the same as the Woman's Evangelical Temperance Union. De Freycinet has undertaken the formation of a new French Cabinet. Rigby, a shoe merchant of Augusta, Ga., failed for $10,000. A young Pennsylvanian, on a hunting excursion, shot two young ladies of his acquaintance, and then, to avoid arrest, blew his brains out. N. Y. markets: Money @ 2 1/2 per cent; cotton firm at 12 @ 12 1/2; southern flour dull and unchanged at $5.50 @ $6.00; wheat lower, ungraded spring $1.27 @ $1.30; corn lower and unsettled, ungraded 67 @ 71 1/2; rosin dull at $2.37 1/2 @ 2.42 1/2; spirits turpentine dull and drooping at 54c.

District Attorney Corkhill said recently that Guiteau would be sentenced on Saturday (yesterday) and be hanged about the 1st of July.

Pennsylvania has a town called Gratz, and said town has a postmaster, and said postmaster has the small-pox, and the result is the people can get no mails.

Secretary of State Frelinghuysen makes the preliminary confession that the United States is in no condition to cope with Chili in case of a difficulty. A great country this!

Leon Gambetta was in office scarcely two months. He is not the man to lead it seems, although a great popular orator. France will still have his services as Tribune if not as Premier.

Rev. Dr. Mayo thinks the Goldboro graded school of remarkable excellence. He has never known a school in the North to make so much progress in the same length of time—only five months.

Gen. Wyatt M. Elliott, President of the Virginia Senate, resigned because of some reflection upon him in a resolution that was passed. He was reelected unanimously, but he refused the office from a sense of proper self-respect.

We said recently that it was not improbable that the Greek plays would be acted often on the modern stage. We notice that the "Antigoné" of Sophocles is to be produced next March by the students of University College, Toronto, Canada.

Austria has forbidden newspaper correspondents to tell anything about the movements of troops, etc. The New York Sun says: "The result will probably be that other countries will receive and publish the news of the war, and the Austrians, who are most interested in it, will know little or nothing except what the Government allows."

In Minnesota fifteen highly respectable citizens have been stricken down from eating raw ham. They had what is known as trichina spiralis. An entire family, consisting of Mr. and Mrs. Cushman, their sons, William, aged 22; Nicholas, aged 14; Jacob, aged 12; and a daughter, Annie, aged 18, were poisoned—Mr. Cushman fatally, dying on Thursday. Fritz Progger and Jacob Wilfart have died from the same cause. All the others are at the point of death or in a precarious condition.

Guiteau, in his appeals to the public, asks for money to help him before the Court, and he appeals to the ladies especially. Towards the close he says, in his usual blasphemous style:

"I am God's man in this matter just as truly as the despised Gallien was God's man. They said he was a blasphemer, and a glutton, etc., and it seemed a small thing for his acquaintances to kill him; but his death stirred the wrath of the Almighty and he got even with them forty years later at the destruction of Jerusalem, A. D. 70, and he will get even with the American people if a hair of my head is harmed. God will vindicate me if the nation rolls in blood. Mere physical death is nothing to me. Under the law I cannot be executed in any event until July. I may die a dozen times before then, so I have no trouble about that. I shall not go before my time. My friends need not be ashamed of me. Some people think I am the greatest man of this age, and that my name will go into history as a patriot by the side of Washington and Grant."

Col. Wm. Johnston, of Charlotte, has published a card in the Southern

Home, in which he goes for all papers that criticized him, and says:

"They state that I sought office of the President; that I said 'We desire to see the Democracy of North Carolina defeated at the next election'; and that I had 'joined the Radical camp.' etc. I pronounce these and all such statements utterly false. Such charges are unworthy of notice to those who know me, but others may be misled by my silence."

Now this looks as if he were still a Democrat and not a Radical. But is he? What does he mean by the following?

"If a private citizen, who is neither a candidate or aspirant for office, is to be denounced as unpopular, dishonest and a traitor for exercising independence of thought and action, such party will soon disintegrate. And if with the unfortunate legislation and management in both State and Federal politics there is not some improvement, the party will disband itself, and reorganize under the banner of economy, retrenchment, reform, and popular rights."

The news from Washington from both sides told the same story concerning Mr. Price. We await further developments. If he chooses to work with the Democrats then the better for him. If he undertakes to play the part of Mahone on a swell scale he will be criticized and censured by his former allies. It is now in order to hear from the "Mahaj." As a private citizen the papers would treat Col. Johnston with silence. But if he aspires to leadership and to overturn and destroy the grand old party he may look out.

Lecture on Educational Subjects by Rev. Dr. Mayo, of Boston.

Dr. A. D. Mayo, of Boston, Massachusetts, will deliver a lecture this (Sunday) evening, at 8 o'clock, in Christ church (Congregational) on "The Education of the Heart."

Mr. Mayo will deliver two additional lectures in Memorial Hall, on evenings during the week, on "The Education of the Head" and "The Education of the Hand."

Notice will be given of these lectures, which will be free to all. Dr. Mayo has been lecturing in the South for the greater part of the past two years, and bears references from the best sources, including the President; Commissioner Eaton, of the National Bureau of Education; Rev. Dr. Ruffner, of the Department of Public Instruction, of Virginia; J. P. Wickersham, Superintendent of Public Instruction, of Pennsylvania; Thomas B. Stockwell, Commissioner of Public Schools, of Rhode Island; M. A. Newell, Superintendent of Public Instruction, of Maryland, etc. He has been lecturing in Raleigh to fine houses and with much acceptability—once before the people when the Governor of the State presided—and is evidently accomplishing much good in the cause of education in the South. He has achieved a high reputation as a lecturer on educational topics, and it is said that on the platform he is never dry or dull, his style being, in fact, remarkable for its vivacity.

The Rev. gentleman has been in the State but about two weeks, lecturing only at Raleigh and Greensboro, and yet he has received enough letters to keep him employed until summer, which shows a very encouraging state of feeling among the people in reference to the important subject which is engaging his attention and efforts.

In this connection we would state that Dr. Mayo will also be pleased to deliver a lecture before the people if arrangements can be made to that effect, and to this end he invites the co-operation of the public.

MORTUARY. There were two interments—both infants—in Oakdale Cemetery during the week closing yesterday.

Bellevue Cemetery reports one interment—a child—for the past week.

In Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery there were five interments—two adults and three children—during the week.

Local Notes.

— Another warm day. — Fourth Sunday after Epiphany. — Day's length 10 hours and 21 minutes. — The receipts of cotton yesterday footed up 629 bales.

— A private letter from Durham says it sleeted there on Friday. Here the weather was like spring.

— We are glad to learn that Judge French rested well Friday night and that his condition is still encouraging.

— A baptizing will take place this afternoon, at half-past 4 o'clock, at the foot of Princess street, conducted by Rev. A. M. Conway.

— Mr. N. Jacobi, Deputy Supreme Commander of the State, instituted a Council of the Legion of Honor at Bladenboro during the past week.

— Chief of Police Brock and the Health officers of the city are emphatic in the avowal that there is not—nor has there been this season—a case of small-pox in the city.

— Rev. J. B. Taylor, who has been in attendance for two days past at the Masonboro meeting, has returned to the city, and will occupy his pulpit as usual today.

— Rev. A. D. Mayo will preach at Tleston Upper Room this evening at 3 o'clock. The public are invited. Mr. Mayo visited this city last winter, as many will remember.

— Thanks for a ticket, with the compliments of Mr. C. T. Willis, Proprietor, to the grand opening of Willis' Mamona Opera House, Wilson, N. C., Feb. 2nd and 3rd, to wind up with a grand ball on the night of Friday, the 3rd.

— The Register of Deeds did not issue a single marriage license, to white or colored, during the past week. There is always a calm after a storm, but this is a case of total suspension—not a breath to cause so much as a ripple upon the sea of matrimony.

— A "postal" from Gen. Manning, en route for Maine, announces the death of his wife's father, Hon. Timothy Walker, at Rumford, in that State, and that his interment would take place yesterday. The General was doubtful as to his ability to get there in time to be present at the ceremonies.

"Fresh, the American." Mr. John T. Raymond will appear at the Opera House to-morrow (Monday) evening in Guter's new play of "Fresh, the American," supported, it is claimed, by an excellent company. The Charleston News and Courier of Friday says: "The play is described as a fantastic comedy, and it deserves the name, but its manifold absurdities are very diverting and serve to set off effectively Mr. Raymond's personation of the eccentric American who fills the central role. The quality of Mr. Raymond's humor is well known to Charleston play-goers. It is quiet and unforced, with a simplicity which is the perfection of the art, and is full of delicate touches and subtle hints. He has evidently made a careful study of this new part, and he plays it with his accustomed fidelity, and with that restraint which is one of the best features of his dramatic method. But the part itself lacks the humanity which distinguishes his Colonel Sellers and which gives to that remarkable personation its curious attractiveness. Mr. Fresh is funny but he is not suggestive; his humor lacks that hint of pathos which the highest humor always holds, and the lines upon which the character are drawn are narrower than those in which Mr. Raymond's genius is wont to move, yet he makes the part intensely amusing. 'The house last night was crowded, and the applause was uproarious. The dresses of the ladies in the harem scene were very gorgeous, and altogether the play was well presented.'"

A New Contrivance for Supplying Vessels with Water. The latest improvement in connection with our harbor facilities, and one which will doubtless prove a great convenience to the shipping, is in the shape of what is known as a water boat, constructed for the purpose of supplying vessels with pure water at a trifling cost, to take with them on their voyages. This is an institution which has for some time been in vogue at all the larger commercial cities, but has never been introduced here until now. The one in question, which we examined yesterday, was built for the New York Water Company and purchased from them by Messrs. Hanson & Co., of this city. It is built of oak and has a tank inside with a capacity of one thousand eight hundred gallons. A filter will be located on the wharf near their place, with a pipe leading into the tank, by which a supply of pure water will be constantly ready for vessels desiring the same, relieving them of the necessity of obtaining their water direct from the river, with its immediate impurities, as heretofore.

Mayor's Court.

Frank Baker and Jordan Baker, two young colored men, who were arrested Friday night on suspicion, the former having a bag of cotton in his possession, were arraigned before Mayor Smith yesterday morning. They declared that the cotton had been picked up at intervals during the past two or three weeks, where it was blowing about the streets, and as there was no one to make claim to it and no evidence that the cotton was stolen, the parties were discharged, though subject to re-arrest if future developments should warrant such action. In the meantime the bag of cotton is held at the City Hall to await results.

— The steamship Regulator, hence, arrived at New York yesterday.

A Case of Wife-Beating on Shipboard.

James Bland, a colored seaman, belonging on the brigantine Nellie Tristed, from Martinique, which put in here some weeks ago in distress, loaded with logwood, was arrested by the police, yesterday morning, on the complaint of his wife, charged with beating her. Mayor Smith was notified and had the case brought before him at once. Bland is nearly black, while his wife is a mulatto, and both talk in broken English not easily understood. The latter, a woman of rather small stature and quite young, came into court with her face considerably disfigured and swollen. She gave in her testimony, detailing the circumstances of the difficulty which led to her receiving the unlucky blow from her husband, and then defendant took the stand. He supplemented his oath and the kissing of the good book by assuming a tragic attitude and calling upon heaven to witness that what he should say would be the truth. He then, in his broken way, attempted to justify his action, accusing his wife of having a quick temper, which, he said, was usually the cause of their misunderstandings, etc. The Mayor finally said something about sending the defendant to jail, when the wife set in to begging that no such punishment should be inflicted upon her dusky adorer, who, she said was the "very essence of politeness," etc. His Honor then remarked that it was but the old story; the husband, with brute force, inflicts punishment upon his frail and delicate wife, and she in turn pleads for mercy upon her recreant lord. However, as they were strangers in the place, and she had no one to look after her, he would suspend judgment in his case upon the payment of costs, with the understanding that if the offense should be repeated, or he should hear of any more trouble between them, the penalty in such cases made and provided should be enforced.

The difficulty occurred on board the vessel above alluded to. Unavailable Matter. The following is the unavailable matter remaining in the city postoffice: Miss Alice M. Roberson, Monroe, N. C.; Mr. Nicholas Moore, Young's Hotel, Boston, Mass.; Wm. Smith, Georgetown, N. C.; Jos. Piner, Sumner, N. C.
