Richmond, Virginia, is pining for Oscar Wilde and he has been invited to come. Ah! me.

By repudiation in Virginia the Peabody Fund will lose $127,000 and by repudiation in Tennessee $364,000. A half million dollars lost to the children.

The Legislature of Virginia has passed a stringent anti-duelling bill But what is the use? The next Legislature will pass a general annesty bill and the shooters will be all right again.

Governor Cameron signed the Riddleberger Repudiation bill for the non-payment of the Virginia State debt. Repudiation is now law in that State and by the grace of the Arthur Administration.

Buffalo, New York, was once a healthy city. It is now one of the sickliest in the country. Its death rate is 39 in the 1,000 inhabitants, which is more than double what it should be. Something is to pay, bad sanitation probably.

The New York Herald says there is scarcely a Frenchman, an Italian or a Spaniard to be found in all Utah. The Mormon recruits are mainly English, Scotch, Welsh and Danish. In other words, people of Anglo-Saxon stock supply the recruits mainly.

Dr. Carver has just defeated two Englishmen in a three-handed game, for $500 each. He shot at 31 yards, killing 74 pigeons out of 100. Mr. Graham shot at 29 yards, killing 64, and Mr. Fowler at 28 yards, killing .65 birds. Is that extraordinary shooting, and does Carver sustain his former scores ?

Mr. William Young has written a play for Mr. Barrett, the actor, that has been tried in New York with fine success, the leading character being taken by Barrett himself. It is called "Pendragon," and Tennysonian readers will understand at once that it is all about the remote past, and has to do with King Arthur,

- The Oxford Orphan's Friend is publishing Dr. Eugene Grissom's Masonic Address delivered in this city on the 27th of December last, and a very handsome effort it is.

- Gen. J. M. Leach, who headed the Hancock-English electoral ticket in North Carolina, is now helping on the Independent movement in that State.-Phil. Press, Rep. Probably a mistake, as Gen. Jeemes has not so proclaimed it.

- Raleigh Visitor: Mr. Joel Mc-Rary, brother of Mr. J. N. McRary, of this city was killed near Lexington, on Sunday night last. — Mrs. Ransom Jones, a highly esteemed lady living near Cary, committed suicide by drowning in a mill pond. Her mind was said to be impaired.

-Statesville Landmark: An agent of the Richmond & Danville Railroad has had the deed of the Western North Carolina Railroad registered in the counties through which the road passes. The measure is a precautionary one, and it is not unlikely that the suit recently brought by T. D. Carter has something to do with it. - Alamance Gleaner: We learn that John P. Albright and some others have formed a partnership for the manufacture of shuttle blocks, etc. They have purchased a steam engine and machinery for the work, which will arrive in a few days. Operations will begin as soon as the machinery can be put in place.

- Charlotte Observer: It is understood that a proposition has been made by two prominent capitalists of the city to certain gentleman who is familiar with the business of running a cotton factory that if he would take the management of such an enterprise they would invest a sufficient sum to erect another cotton factory in this city.

- Elizabeth City Falcon: The funeral of the late Dr. R. C. Jenkins took place yesterday, the services being conducted at the grave by Rev. John Kiernan. - We are told that a colored boy was drowned in the Perquimans river, at Hertford, yesterday. Two boys were enjoying a sail, when the boat capsized. One of hem was saved.

- Statesville Landmark: The collections in this internal revenue district for the month of January, amounted to 39,768.89. — There is in this district an who has received probably twenty checks for salary, some of these as much as four years ago. Not one of them has ever been presented for payment.

- Mr. C. W. Raney, of Kittrell, writes that Messrs. S. R. Hunt & Co., of Vance county, (formerly Granville) took $51 in premiums at Atlanta, on native wines, and Col. W. J. Green took $40. He adds; "Col. Green's wine has achieved an enviable reputation in this country, and Messrs. S. R. Hunt & Co. knowing its very great excellence, justly felt proud that their wines came out so well in the contest at Atlanta.' Morehead City, Feb. 14th, The was brought about and who owned it then and now. Is anybody scared? Florida has room yet!

- Norfolk Virginian: On Wednes-day evening last Mr. Matthew White, who hails from Hertford, N. C., took dinner at the Mansion House, and there made the acquaintance of a pseudo Philadelphia drummer of engaging manners. The par-ties went up to a house on Church, between Cove and Holt streets, where the North Carolinian was stopping. Shortly after an elderly man, who turned out to be an accomplice of the supposed drummer, came in with a long story about having made a fortune out West and coming here to help his brother out of difficulties, and that he had come to the room where they were thinking that it was a real estate office, as he wanted to buy a farm for his brother. The elderly stranger then did a little threecard-monte business, and Mr. White showed a roll of bills amounting to $670. The strangers grabbed it, and a man who professed to be the proprietor of the house, appeared on the scene and intimidated Mr. White by a threat of having him arrested for gambling. Mr. White left the house, but returned shortly afterward, by which

Arrest of an Absconding State's Witness,

Henry McNeill, colored, who was implicated in a certain cotton stealing scrape, here, but who was bound over for his appearance as a State's witness at court, to testify against others who were concerned in the transaction, and who ran away before the court convened, was brought here by Sheriff Grantham, of Wayne county, on Wednesday evening, and turned over to the authorities. It seems that he was concerned in some disreputable transaction at Goldsboro', similar to that for which Nat. Hill and Dick Boston have just been sentenced by Judge Meares to six years each in the Penitentiary, and was arrested and ports of the weather. According to the Signal officer here they are as follows: South Atlantic States-North Carolina, South Carolina, Georgia and the Northeastern part of

was greeted by a national salute and the ringing of bells. At an early hour the troops paraded. A precession was formed on Front street at half-past eight o'clock in the morning, under command of Col. Mc-Rae, Marshal of the Day, and marched to the Presbyterian church. The services were opened by a prayer from Rev. Mr. Jennett; Gen. Marsteller read the Declaration of Independence, and was followed by Mr. Talcott Burr, Jr., afterwards editor of the Wilmington Herald, with an address suited to the occasion, and the paper says he "acquitted himself well-excellently well," the address being "altogether a performance affording high promise of the youthful orator." Rev. Mr. Battle closed the services with prayer. In the afternoon a large number of citizens went on an excursion to Smithville in the steamer Gladiator, and had a good time.

The only other items of interest are the statement of the Raleigh Register that Judge Gaston had so far recovered from the effects of his recent injury as to be able to take his seat on the bench. "He is still compelled, however," continues the paper, "to use his crutches;" and the fact that "at a recent examination of midshipmen before a Board of Navy officers, thirty-nine were passed, at the head of whom stands Archibald McRae, of this town." The Chronicle was a weekly and published by A. A. Brown.

In the Wilmington Gazette of April, 1811, the following advertigers set forth their claims:

"Wm. B. Meares offers 700 bushels seed ice-the white kind; Wm. L. Pitts 'feels ndebted to the liberal custom he has received, and hopes that the kindness of his customers will not stop at the fact of having purchased from him, but will extend itself to an immediats payment for the articles purchased;' Miles Knight was jailor; J. G. Blount may be found at Wilmington Book-store; Benj. B. Smith will beat rice on toll, at Orton mill-can clean from 500 to 600 pounds per day; Dugald Stewart will hire a good flat, with hatch, that can carry 1,000 bushels rough rice; John Nelson, in a card, presents his warm thanks to Capt. Samuel Potter, and also to Capt. Brock; the officers and crew of the revenue cutter, for timely assistance, &c. ; C. Walker advertises money found; John Foote will sell 39 hogsheads of molasses, on a credit of sixty days; Perrin & Harrison call 'once! twice! thrice! for debtors to pay up, or, failing, must adjust with an attorney-at-law;' at auction, 'that very convenient and well planned house, corner of Dock and Second streets,' and the furniture, including 'a pair superb lookingglasses, one do. mirror, handsome table china and white gilt tes, paintings, busts and engravings of the most celebrated artistcopies from Raphael and Claude de Lorraine;' Talcot Burr advertises schooner Hope, for New York; Hanson Kelley & Co. 'have vessels up for London, Liverpool, New York and Philadelphia; for sale, an elegant and convenient Philadelphia-built coach and harness-almost new." Mayor's Court.

Amelia Bradley, colored, an old offender, was arraigned on the charge of being drunk and disorderly on the streets in Brooklyn, on Wednesday night, for which she was ordered to pay a fine of $5 or be locked up

State vs. Emanuel Haggett, charged with forcible trespass. Continued to next term of the Court.

State vs. Mary Ann Giles, charged with slander of women. Defendant found guilty. State vs. Thomas Nixon, charged with larceny. Case continued, and defendant, with security, recognized in the sum of $200 for appearance at next term of Court State vs. Rufus Robinson, charged with injury to personal property. Defendant found guilty. Motion in arrest of judgment. Argument to be heard hereafter. [This is the case of an attempt to burn cot ton on the platform of the Champion Compress Company some weeks ago.] State vs. Warrock Perry, charged with assault and battery. Case on trial. Clinton and Point Caswell Railroad.

The meeting to be held at Clinton on Thursday, the 2nd of March, of the Clinton and Point Caswell Railroad, promises to be largely attended. Col. A. M. Waddell, we learn, has already accepted an invitation to address the people on that occasion, and it is expected that Maj. Stedman will also accept. To-morrow there will be a meeting at Lisbon, which will be addressed by Judge McKoy and others.

- Schooner Jennie Morton left this port for Baltimore on the 2d of February, and had fine weather until the 4th. Then a gale struck her which had sprung up from the southwest, and shook the vessel terribly, Sail was shortened and everything done to hold the craft in spite of the storm, but all effort was unavailing. William Ives had his arm broken while stowing the jib, and some of the other seamon were knocked about very considerably. Soon the ship sprang aleak, and though the pumps were kept at work they showed four feet of water in the well. The barometer was then down to 29.30. About half-past 6 o'clock in the evening the wind moderated and hauled to the westward. The vessel fell off in the trough of the sea, lurched heavily and turned over on her side. The captain and crew had then to lash themselves to chain plaiting outside the vessel. Ives, having a broken arm, was helpless and was drowned. The sea swept over the men in this condition, knocked them together and injured them severely They were in that
