THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXIX.---NO. 135.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, MARCH 5, 1882.

WHOLE NO. 5075

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The river at Helena, Ark., is still rising and the city is overflowed; at Memphis yesterday morning the high water was receding...

Some of the English cotton mills have stopped for a short time. Indictments were presented yesterday in the Star Route cases against Brady, Dorsey and others.

Let us examine the vital statistics of 1881. There were 376 deaths. Of these 104 were whites; 272 colored. Giving Wilmington 17,800 inhabitants...

MacLean, the would-be assassin of the Queen, is 27 years old, and the doctors pronounce him sane.

Edmunds is opposed bitterly to placing Grant on the retired list. But then some Southern Senators are on the other side.

The finding of the court martial in the case of Flipper was a dismissal from the service. It is said he will not be punished that way, if at all.

Miss Venie Clancy, the actress, sister of Miss Laura Clancy, who played Ophelia so exquisitely with the Frank Mayo troupe in this city, is dead, aged 22.

Arthur has announced that the term of official mourning has ended, and that he will give a dinner next week at the White House to certain friends in the Congress.

The New York Herald is poor authority in poetry, but it hits the nail squarely in this part of an otherwise very poor criticism:

Tennyson's poem has much of the old cavalry ring. Its metre is skilfully varied to describe the fortunes of the combatants, galloping in dactyls, charging in anapests, saluting in spondee.

The New York merchants complain bitterly that the merchants of the Southwest do not pay up. They say those from the South Atlantic States are prompt enough.

We said to a friend days ago that we did not credit Mr. Blaine's statement about Garfield's brilliant victory over Gen. Humphrey Marshall.

The trial of Mason is ended and the proceedings of the court martial have been sent to Gen. Whipple, Assistant Adjutant General of the Department of the East.

Senator Ingalls, of Kansas, has introduced a bill to place Maj. Gen. Alfred Pleasanton, on the retired list. He made a brilliant record in the late war, and also in the Mexican war.

Ex-President Davis's book may be disappointing and yet among thoughtful men in the South, in the North, in England it must do good. It vindicates the principles of the Federal Constitution and makes good the cause of the South.

Constitutional skin diseases of a scorbic character are successfully treated with Dr. Benson's Skin Cure, internal and external treatment, both pleasant. It certainly removes scurf, eruptions, dandruff and tan and makes the skin smooth and healthy.

Local Dots.

Representative S. S. Cox, a Democrat, one of the fullest, wittiest and ablest men of the House, has just delivered a lecture in Washington on African wit and humor.

While on his tour in that once favored land he witnessed the disinterment of a Pharaoh, so thoroughly ripe with age that upon his mummyship's brow there settled the dust of thousands of years.

How well do I remember, said Mr. Cox, 'but I refused to shake hands with him out of respect for Mr. Douglass, simply because he would not let these people go.'

Humor is sympathetic, and in the African it is so to a high degree; nearly all this humor takes hold of the unseen, but in doing so it lays no tribute to ribaldry at the expense of holy things.

Let us examine the vital statistics of 1881. There were 376 deaths. Of these 104 were whites; 272 colored.

The first three months showed 65 deaths. "second" " " 91 " " " " 87 " " " " 132 "

The first quarter showed 84 deaths. "second" " " 124 " " " " 164 "

The healthiest season is the first quarter, the sickliest the last quarter.

There were four interments—all adults—in Oakdale Cemetery during the week closing yesterday; the parties being aged respectively 58 years, 44 years, 25 years and 62 years.

Bellevue Cemetery and St. Thomas' Catholic Cemetery report no interments for the week.

Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery reports three interments—two adults and one child—for the week.

Forty years' trial has proved "BLACK-DRAUGHT" the best liver medicine in the world.
