The Wholesale Robbery Case.

The cases of Robert Robinson alias Robert Roberts, an account of whose thieving exploits was given in our last, came up for preliminary examination before Justice Gardner, yesterday morning. Four different cases were made out of the affair, separate articles in the lot of stolen goods found on his premises being identified as the property respectively of Mrs. Lucy A. Jewett, Mr. W. L. Jewett, Mr. Richard Chapman and the late Allen Evans, deceased, and the judgment announced by the Court was that he give bond with good security in the sum of $100 in each case for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed to jail. The prisoner is a mulatto, is quite a young man, and, previous to suspicion beng aroused against him in connection with this affair, enjoyed the fullest confidence of his employers. He had been engaged in the chemical department of the Navassa Guano Works for about seventeen months, and was regarded by Mr. Chapman, the gentleman in charge, as a first-rate hand, with whose services he can illy dispense.

Good Man Gone.

The Charleston News and Courier says he funeral services of Mr. R. H. Cantwell, whose death was recorded in our paper a few days since, were held at the Cathedral Chapel and were attended by a large number of friends, among whom were the veterans of the Washington Light Infantry, in which command he served with courage and fidelity from the commencement of the war until its disastrous close, and the members of the Charleston Branch of the Catholic Knights of America. He was warm-hearted, generous and good, and was as faithful in his friendship as he was ardent in his attachment to the domestic circle. His remains were buried in the St. Lawrence Cemetery. Mr. Cantwell was a brother of Col. John L. Cantwell, of this city, and of Hon. Edward Cantwell, formerly of Wilmington, but now of the city of Charleston.

Man's Inhumanity to Man.

Steamboatmen report that the remains of drowned man have been noticed for nearly two months past just below Donaldson, about nine miles up the Cape Fear river, and supposed to be on Brunswick county territory. The legs are hanging over a log, with the head down, and decomposition has so far progressed, coupled with the ravages of birds of prey, that it would probably be impossible to form any idea as to whether the body is that of a white or colored man. It is a terrible shame for the body to remain in its present condition, uncared for and exposed to the action of the elements and the birds of the

The vessel has been discharged from quarantine and is now loading lumber at the Messrs. Kidder's mill. The officers and crew were all vaccinated and there have been no indications of another case.

Board of Health. At a meeting of the Board of Health, held Wednesday evening, it was resolved, as the opinion of the Board, that the excavation of the streets for the laying of pipes for water works be permitted to progress until the 1st of June; provided, that if during the progress of the work within the time named, in the judgment of the Superintendent of Health it be dangerous to the public health, he shall require the work to cease,

OPERA HOUSE.

Lecture by the Rev. T. DeWitt Tal-

The audience at the Opera House last night was the largest we have ever seen assembled in Wilmington to hear a lecture; nor do we remember to have known any crowd more uniformly pleased and delighted with a similar entertainment.

Dr. Talmage lectured under the auspices of the Wilmington Library Association, and the audience were introduced, instead of the speaker, very happily by Dr. Jos. R. Wilson, who heartily welcomed the famous divine to our city. Commencing his lecture, Dr. Talmage alluded pleasantly to the warm reception he had met with in the South, and at once placed himself on fa miliar and intimate terms with his hearers. who were quick to respond to his genial and cordial manner. He announced that he had quit delivering profound lectures, because he had found that the audience rarely understood what he was saying, and he often hardly knew himself. His discourse, eloquently and graphically written, was replete with wholesome truths, effective and striking points, anecdotes, good humor and cheerfulness, and was repeatedly applauded. His delivery is dramatic, forceful and pleasing; his voice loud, well controlled and penetrating, and his mobility of countenance wonderful and admirable. The lecture was entitled "The Bright Side of Things," and is a plain, practical common sense discussion of every day affairs and the advantage of always looking on the sunny side of life in all of its phases. He spoke for upwards of an hour, and yet so thoroughly amused and entertained were the audience that they reluctantly left their seats when he had concluded, regretting that there was not more. No one could hear this lecture and fail to be favorably impressed with the speaker and the view of things he so interestingly advocated, and his words will long be treasured and remembered. A Southern Lady. Miss Bigbie is in our city. She contemplates giving a reading entertainment next week. She has had six years' experience and was trained by the celebrated Murdock, so well known to old Wilmingtonians. Miss Bigbie is a Southern young woman of distinguished connection, is very charming and admirably cultivated. SLe is the granddaughter of Rev. William Breckenridge, of Kentucky, niece of Gen. John C. Breckenridge, and a grand-niece of the very able and distinguished Rev. Dr. Robert J. Breckenridge. She comes well indorsed by many leading journals of the country as an accomplished and delightful reader. Her father was a Colonel in the Confederate Army, and fell at the head of his regiment in the bloody battle of Murfreesboro. Her only sister died during the yellow fever epidemic in Memphis. To provide for two motherless children and for herself she gives her very engaging readings. We hope Wilmington will turn out in force to hear this accomplished lady.

A Bear Excitement.

A large bear has been creating considerable excitement in the neighborhood of Long Creek, Pender county, recently. On Sunday night last a colored man named Williams heard a commotion at his pig pen and went out to see what was the matter, when he found what he supposed to be, in his own words, "a man a pestering along o" his pigs," and he sung out to him two or three times to "let dem ar pigs alone!" When he got to the pen, however, and saw that it was a big black bear instead of a man, and that he had made a meal upon one pig and had thrown the old sow and the remaining portion of her offspring into a state of wildest consternation, he got further. The next morning early a large party went in search of the bear, and found his tracks, which were very large; but they could not come up with the ani-

Third North Carolina Infantry. The sixteenth anniversary of the Association of the Officers of the Third North Carolina Infantry comes off on the 16th of May, and notices to that effect are being sent out to the various members, active and honorary. They are pretty well scattered; 38 being resident in North Carolina, of whom 13 live in Wilmington; 2 in New York city; 2 in Texas; 3 in Maryland; 2 in South Carolina: 1 in Florida: 1 in Mississippi; 1 in Kansas; 2 in Arkansas; and 1 in London, England; making 53 in all—the Association having lost two members by death during the year. It is supposed the anniversary will be celebrated by an excursion to the Sound, with the usual interesting programme after arriving there.

Dr. Talmage's Visit to Wilmington. Rev. Dr. Talmage arrived here from the South yesterday morning, and immediately retired to his room to get some needful rest and repose after his tedious journey. During the afternoon many prominent citizens called upon him at the Purcell House, where himself and daughter, Miss Mary, were registered, and later on, escorted by Rev. Mr. Payne, of the Second Presbyterian Church, Rev. Mr. Kirkland and Mr. John Colville, he took a drive around the city, visiting the Cemetery, Hilton and other places of interest.

Dr. Talmage leaves this morning direct for New York, and carries with him many pleasant impressions of his short Southern FARMERS' WIVES.

It is an evident fact that farmers' wives are afflicted with many diseases which are the result of overwork. They are constantly on one ceaseless routine of toil from daylight at morning until late at night. No change, no relaxation, no rest! Farmers should note this fact, and be forewarned before it is too late. It is astonishing what an amount of labor the wives of farmers perform. Many of them get up and have breakfast ready before their husbands are out of bed. Then it is work, work, work until near midnight, their minds during the time being constantly octheir minds during the time being constantly oc cupied with their duties, and with thinking of how the food is to be supplied, when the washing and ironing is to be done, when time can be spared to scrub the floor, how the children are to be clothed and kept tidy, and innumerable other things not necessary to mention, all of which combine to overwork and break down the strongest woman in the land. In no case is it safe to be continuously thinking upon any one thing and in cases where the brain has been weakened and in cases where the brain has been weakened by too great a strain upon it, thereby producing insanity, epilepsy, vertigo, hysterics, female weakness, general debility, and a multitude of other diseases, the remedy is Rest and a few bot-tles of Dr. S. A. Richmond & Co.'s Samaritan Nervine. It acts directly upon the nervous cen-tres and invigorates and strengthens the whole system. Many ladies have refrained from using Samaritan Nervine on account of an existing pre-Samaritan Nervine on account of an existing pro-Samaritan Nervine on account of an existing pre-judice against advertised medicines. Let us ask a question: Are you prejudiced against sewing machines because you have seen them advertised, or can you doubt the ingenuity and skill required in their invention? Again, would you refuse to insure your house because the company adver-tised that it had paid millions of dollars in losses and yet had a capital of several millions left? Do such advertisements shake your confidence and such advertisements snake your confidence and create prejudice? Then why refuse to credit the

Dr. Richmond—Dear Sir: This is to certify that my wife had fits for thirty-five years. They would last her for about one hour and sometimes longer.
