MORNING EDITION. OUTLINES.

The Episcopal Convention of Alabama in session at Montgomery; Bishop Quintard, of Tennessee, delivered the semi-annual address... A bill appropriating $150,000 to continue improvements on Charleston (S. C.) harbor passed the Senate yesterday... more, looking to a uniting of the two bodies. Of the former church there were present Bishops D. A. Payne, of Ohio; A. W. Waymon, of Maryland; J. P. Campbell, of Pennsylvania; J. A. Shorter, of Ohio; T. M. D. Ward and J. M. Brown, District of Columbia; R. H. Cane, of Texas; H. M. Turner, of Georgia, and W. F. Dickerson, of South Carolina...

Judge Lynch held court at Minneapolis yesterday. He had a grand jury numbering 60, who assembled at 2 o'clock A. M., went to the jail, found their man, and after he confessed the horrible crime with which he was charged, hanged him to an oak tree. It may be best to await the slow process of the law and the chances of escape, but the people of this country seem to have made up their minds that the punishment for a certain class of crimes shall be both swift and terrible.

In the Malley trial the undertaker testified as to the body of Jennie Cramer. There was no arsenic used in preserving the body for the autopsy. Samuel L. Marsden, who first saw the body floating at 5.20 A. M., Aug. 6, said he did not believe she was drowned. He had examined ten bodies that had been drowned and Jennie Cramer's showed none of the peculiarities that marked these.

Spirits Turpentine.

—Warsaw Brief Mention: Clark or Robbins are as good as the best. We would be satisfied with either, our preference being for Clark, because he is in the Second district.

—Henderson Gold Leaf: We do not know that Warren tobacco is any better than that raised in Granville, but we do know that a very fine grade of tobacco is made in Warren county.

—Kinston Free Press: Two of the survey corps employed by the Best Syndicate were in town this week making arrangements to begin the survey of the proposed railroad from Kinston via Snow Hill to Greenville at an early date.

—Greensboro News: Mr. Wm. Huston, living near Mt. Pleasant, was thrown from his wagon last Friday and fatally injured.

—Tarboro Southern: A Superior Court has been held here and there was not a single trial for larceny; no one goes to the penitentiary from this term of the court. There are only four occupants of the jail, and two of them were sentenced by the last inferior court.

—Winston Leader: In September last Messrs. Cox, Peck & Co. started their shuttle and spoke factory in our midst, and we are glad to know that the enterprise has proved a success. They have made five shipments since they began operations.

—Elizabeth City Carolinian: We have cheering reports from the most of our neighboring counties. The farmers are all busy and the prospects are that large crops of corn, cotton and rice will be planted this season.

—Greensboro Bugle: The North Carolina National is the title of a new National (or Greenback) paper which will make its appearance on Thursday, May 4, 1882, with G. L. Greeson as managing editor.

—Elizabeth City Economist: A plan is on foot among our citizens to establish a National Bank in Elizabeth City. The fish have taken up the Chowan river this spring and the fishermen are doing well up there.

—Winston Sentinel: The fruit crop in this section is still unimpaired. Elder Richard Poindexter, of the Church of Christ, closed a meeting at Old Muddy Creek meeting house, last evening, with thirty-six additions to the church.

The University has been presented with 200 specimens of woods by Professor C. S. Sargent, special agent for the tenth census of the United States on Forestry. Many iron ores, minerals, coals from Tennessee, Georgia and Alabama, and tropical fruits from Florida were obtained at the Atlanta Exposition...

—New Bern Journal: Mr. G. N. Ives received a roe shad a few days ago which weighed 74 pounds. He says it was the largest he had ever seen in this market.

—Pittsboro Record: We are informed by Mr. Thomas N. Womble, of Gulf township, that Mr. Nat. Lloyd was plowing in his field, five days ago, and found a bunch of "black-snake root," which he picked up, and soon thereafter seeing a black snake coiled up, he dropped the bunch of roots on it.

—Weldon News: On Wednesday night of last week Capt. Slocum's train was approaching Mt. Olive, some persons threw four or five stones at one of the passenger cars, breaking two or three windows; fortunately no one was injured.

—The Lumber Business. The lumber business has become one of the most important articles of trade and export among the numerous industries which are giving Wilmington her rightful place among the prosperous and thriving commercial cities on the Atlantic coast.

—Raleigh News Observer: Adam Hill, colored, from Union county, was one of a gang of convicts employed at the penitentiary farm, that is he was such yesterday, but to-day he breathes free air, having in some way contrived to make his escape.

—James McIntire, colored, had a hearing before Justice Gardner, yesterday, on the charge of assault and battery, in that he went before a magistrate and made affidavits to the effect that one English Owens, colored, had not listed his taxes, when it was subsequently proven by the said Owens that he had listed his taxes and fully complied with the law in that respect.

—Several of the sufferers from the recent tornado, which played such havoc in this and the surrounding counties, were here yesterday soliciting aid.

—The Greek brig Bliss, Capt. Autric, arrived here last evening from Boston, consigned to Mr. C. P. Mebane. It is a rare thing for a vessel of this nationality to be seen in this section of the country.

—The schooner Mary E. Van Cleef, Capt. Thorndike, was cleared from this port for St. John's, Porto Rico, yesterday, by Messrs. Edward Kidder & Son, with 168,411 feet of lumber, valued at $2,693.40.

—An adjourned meeting of the stockholders of the Wilmington Market Company was held at the hall of the company yesterday afternoon, at 5 o'clock, when a Board of Directors was elected, as follows: C. H. Robinson, H. A. Burr, S. P. Collier, L. Vollers, Alfred Martin.

The Port of Wilmington. The New York Maritime Register of April 19th has an editorial in reference to this port, a portion of which we reproduce, as follows:

"Among the ports on our South Atlantic seaboard none seem more prosperous than Wilmington, N. C. Already the principal seaport of North Carolina, it gives promise of assuming a prominent position in the ranks of our principal ports. Its trade in naval stores has made it famous, but now other products are exported thence in increasing quantities.

The article then refers to the largely increased business for the past year, as demonstrated by the published statistics, much of which it quotes, and then continues: "Railway combinations have overlooked this port to a great extent, but the advantages which are to be found in its neighborhood will well repay enterprise. The back country wants developing. This is being done probably on a small scale every year, but there needs to be more railroads and small manufacturing started. As we said above, the port itself has been improved, and the Government is not yet through with its work at the mouth of the river."

—The following are the indications for to-day: Middle Atlantic States, fair weather, southwest to northwest winds, stationary or higher barometer and stationary or lower temperature.

Test of Hose Under the Direction of the Chief of the Fire Department. One thousand feet of new hose were tested yesterday afternoon; five hundred feet of which belong to the Cape Fear engine.

A sort of informal test was next had with two hundred and fifty feet of hose each, the water works using a 1 1/2 inch nozzle and the Cape Fear a 1-inch nozzle, when the latter threw a stream ten feet further than the former.

The test of the hose was entirely satisfactory. A preliminary hearing was had in the U. S. Court in New Bern on Wednesday in the case of certain claimants for salvage for assisting the Norwegian bark Guldbringa, which went ashore in Beaufort harbor some weeks since, laden with steel rails for the Midland Railway.

Fire in Pender County. A barn belonging to the Messrs. Westbrook Bros., near Rocky Point, Pender county, was destroyed by fire a night or two since, together with its contents, consisting of fifteen hundred bushels of peanuts. The loss is estimated at $2,500, to cover which there was insurance on the barn to the extent of $500 and on the peanuts $1,500.

Guano Monkeys. Mr. Edward Bryson, who keeps a boarding house on Nutt street, has on exhibition in his back yard two animals known as guano monkeys, which are said to be peculiar to Navassa Island, where much of the material for fertilizers is obtained. They have very little the appearance of monkeys, reminding one more of young alligators.

Masonboro Turnpike. A meeting of the friends of the Masonboro Branch Turnpike was held at the Bank of New Hanover yesterday evening. A committee, consisting of Messrs. Geo. A. Peck, W. L. Smith, Jr., and Dr. W. W. Harris, was appointed to obtain estimates as to the cost of completion and to decide upon the best plan for constructing the road.

Special Term of the Criminal Court. Hon. O. P. Moore, Judge of the Criminal Court, has issued his proclamation convening said Court in special session on Monday, the 29th of May, in consequence of the fact that the Superior Court for this county will convene on the 1st Monday in June, being the fifth day of the month, which would be the regular time for the meeting of the Criminal Court.

SAMARITAN NERVEINE. Considering the harassing and depressing nature of the functional diseases of the day, and the woman is subject, is it not astonishing that any invalid of the feebleness should hesitate to seek the certain relief afforded in such cases by the general operation of SAMARITAN NERVEINE.
