FORTY-SEVENTH CONGRESS FIRST SESSION.

An Unimportant Day in Both Houses -But Little Business in the Senate-The Deadlock in the House Con-

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] SENATE.

WASHINGTON, May 25,-Mr. Harris called up Senate bill to attach the county of Hardemon to the Eastern Division of the Western District of Tenn. Passed. An Executive session was held and the Senate then adjourned.

The day in the Senate was not more productive of results than in the House, the better part of the time having been consumed in discussing the Japanese Indemnity Fund bill, without reaching a vote on

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES.

No time was lost by the House this morning in resuming the struggle over the Mackey-Dibble contested election case, which was called up by Mr. Calkins, of Indiana. Immediately after the reading of the journal, Mr. Randall, of Pa., as usual, raised the question of consideration, and Mr. Kenna, of West Va., interjected a motion to adjourn, on which Mr. Randall demanded the ayes and nays. Lost-yeas none, nays 133.

On several motions a bare quorum was obtained—Messrs, Ben. Wood, of N. Y., and Phelps, of Conn., both Democrats, voting-the former with the Republicansbut this did not avail. Roll call followed roll call upon dilatory motions until 4.45 P. M., when the quorum was again broken. Then, after another call of the House, 5 P. M. having arrived, the House took a recess Pending the announcement of a recess the Speaker laid before the House a message from the President transmitting a letter from the Secretary of State concerning awards made against Venezuela by the mixed commission under the convention of April 26, 1866. The President says: "I earnestly invite the attention of Congress to this communication and the accompanying enclosures. In case neither House takes action on it during the present Congress, I shall feel it my duty to direct that this prolonged discussion be definitely terminated by recognizing the absolute validity of all awards." Referred.

The House met in evening session at 8 o'clock. There was not a quorum of Republicans present and after several calls and various motions made, the House at 10 o'clock adjourned until to-morrow.

Ex-Treasury Agent Curtis Found Guilty of Receiving Money from Officeholders for Political Purposes. [By Telegraph to the Morning Star.]

NEW YORK, May 25 .- The case of Gen. Curtis, ex-special Treasury agent, who has been on trial for the past few days, for receiving money from officeholders for political purposes, was concluded this morning in the U.S. Circuit Court by the jury bringing in a scaled verdict. It finds the accused guilty on the first and eighth other counts, and not guilty on all other counts of the indictment. Counsel for defence gave notice of a motion in arrest of judgment, and the 2d of June was fixed for argument of the motion. The first count recites that the accused, as a government employe, received money from Peter Vogel, also a government employe, for the Republican State Committee, and the eighth count charges a like accusation, but the money was received from Charles Frechel, a government employe. The District Attorney said he would allow Gen. Curtis to stand on his own recognizance in $500.

Confirmations - Probable Prolongation of the Dead-Lock in the House.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] Washington, May 25.-The Senate today confirmed a number of nominations to office, among which was that of Miss Ada C. Sweet, to be Pension Agent at Chicago. She is a daughter of the late Pension Agent at Chicago. The committee of seven on the order of business last night determined to maintain the position which has been taken by the Republicans relative to the election case of Mackey vs. O'Connor, and to persist in demanding its consideration before any other business is disposed of. They also decided to take a recess from 5 o'clock until 7 on Tuesday and Thursday, for the purpose of holding night sessions The Democrats assert an equal determination to adhere to their position, and present indications point to an indefinite prolongation of the struggle.

Drunken Railroad Laborers Attacking Mexicans-Numbers Killed and Wounded on Both Sides.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] SAN FRANCISCO, May 25.-The Tombstone Epitaph publishes an account of a fight at Igna's Ranche, on the line of the Arizona & New Mexico Railroad, near the Sonora border. Mescal is smuggled across the line and much ill-feeling is engendered between the American railroad laborers and the Mexicans. A few evenings ago a number of Mexicans, with their families, camped near Igna's Ranche. The American laborers being drunk attempted to force the Mexicans to give up their women. This was resisted and an affray followed, in which seven Mexicans were killed and several wounded. A number of Americans were wounded, and it is thought three will Irish Affairs-Davitt's Letter to the Bishop of Meath-Parliament Debate on the Repression Bill - A French Duel-The Egyptian Difficulty-Repression of Jewish Outrages in Russia.

[By Cable to the Morning Star.] LONDON, May 25 .- The Standard, discussing the correspondence between Messrs.

Lowell and Frelinghuysen, touching Irish suspects, says: "It is a pitiable spectacle to witness the Foreign Office of a nation to which Story, Wheaton and Kent belonged, repudiating the elementary principles of in-ternational law at the bidding of a few Irish rowdies in New York and electioneering wire-pullers."

Princess Louise, Marchioness of Lorne, sailed to-day in the steamer Sarmatian for

A letter from Mr. Davitt to the Most Rev. Thomas Nultz, Bishop of Meath, violently denouncing landlords and demanding home rule, has been published. Bishop Nultz read the letter to the assembled clergy of his Diocese, who received it with enthusiasm and applause.

Mr. Davitt says that the Irish have been accused of not giving the Land act a fair trial, but the truth is they refuse to give landlordism any more trials. He says the Repression bill is an act for the better encouragement of secret societies.

The Times says that it cannot be doubted that the speech of Mr. Dillon in the House of Commons, yesterday, was intended to prove to his disaffected countrymen that he is no party to the Kılmainham compact. Lord Salisbury, speaking at Stafford last night, dwelt upon the importance of constituents preparing for a general elec-tion, which he says must speedily oc-cur. He severely censured the Kilmainham compact, and described the Arrears of Rent bill as a measure for paying the debts of persons from a fund on which they have no

Mr. Gladstone stated that he would propose that the House adjourn to-morrow until Thursday. Mr. Parnell resumed debate on the Repression bill. He said that he believed that the inferences drawn from Mr. Dillon's speech were unwarranted. He regretted that the Government had not confined itself to the Arrears of Rent bill, which would have brought about a settle-ment of Irish affairs. He defended boycotting to a limited extent, as practiced by English workmen. The feelings of the Irish people before the Phœnix Park murders were calming, but all is now upset by the fresh coercion, which will simply play into the hands of secret societies. His speech was very moderate and almost apologetic. Mr. Parnell said that he and his friends in prison had certainly never thought that a transfer of land to the occuspiers could be effected by any other mean than by purchase. He entreated the Government, even at the last moment, not to shut the door of conciliation.

Jesse Collings, Liberal, predicted that there would be a great outery in England if anybody should be hanged in Ireland on judgment arrived at without the verdict of Mr. Trevelyan, Chief Secretary for Ireland, admitted that the Government sent simultaneously messages of conciliation and coercion, but said that the messages were not adverse. He said that Earl Spencer had determined that all cases of interference with huts for the shelter of evicted persons should be submitted to him before the police were allowed to intervene. Mr. Trevelyan stated that Clifford Lloyd would not sit in any court under the bill. [Cheers by the Irish members.] As the powers of the act could only be exercised by special magistrates, the powers granted in regard to public meetings would only be exercised when the meetings were part of the machinery of violence and disorder.

Mr. Cowen's amendment, declaring that while the House is desirous of aiding the government in the detection of crime, it disapproves of restrictions upon a free ex-pression of public opinion in Ireland, was rejected by a vote of 344 to 47.

The House then went formally into committee on the bill.

Chas. Russell, Liberal, though sympahizing with Irish aspirations, cordially approved the provisions of the bill for the abolition of juries, the levying of fines on districts, the right of search, and against the importation of abominable literature

DUBLIN, May 25 .- Lord Spencer, Lord Lieutenant of Ireland, replying to a deputation of the corporation of Cork, said that he earnestly hoped that the improvement discernable in the condition of the country would continue, and that the application of the serverer powers of the Repression bill the blood is Brown's Iron Bitters.

would consequently be unnecessary. St. Petersburg, May 25.—Gen. D'Venlelen, Governor of Kieff, has issued a proclamation to the inhabitants of Balta, declaring that the authors and instigators of Jewish outrages will be tried by court martial. If the number of police is insufficient to prevent outrages the military will be used. The chief of the Balta police has recommended the Jews to remain calm. and assured them of the immediate repression of attempts at outrage. Paris, May 25.—A duel took place last evening near Menden, between M. Pallain, Chief of the Department of Central Administration in the Ministry of Finance, and M. Dreyfus, Private Secretary to M. Wilsen, Under Minister of Finance. Both were wounded, but peither seriously. It is said that M. Dreyfus is responsible for violent articles in the Lanterne against the Finance Department. London, May 25 .- A dispatch to the Times, from Cairo, states that lamentable accounts are received from the interior of disastrous results from the absence of an administrative government, the neglect of all precautions for insuring water for crops. and the absence of labor owing to conscription. Natives come to Cairo and entreat the protection of Mr. Malett, British Consul General, against the soldiery. CAIRO, May 25.—Agents of England and France have declared the following ultimatum to Mahmoud Beroudi: "Whereas, the President of the Chamber of Notables has proposed to Mahmoud Beroudi, as the only means of putting an end to the disturbance of the country, the temporary removal of Arabi Bey from Egypt, with retention of rank and pay, and the resignation of the Ministry; and whereas these conditions can prevent the misfortune menacing Europe, we recommend them to the serious attention of the Ministry, and if necessary the Government will exact their due fulfilment. CITY ITEMS.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW:—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do rise up and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are dally sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No Mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup. Try it, mothers—try it now.—Ladies' Visitor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 cts. a bottle.

St. Joseph Volksblatt, Aug. 22, 1881. WHAT A GERMAN NEWSPAPER SAYS. WHAT A GERMAN NEWSPAPER SAYS.

We Germans are in general not inclined to believe at once in great announcements and puffs; we are rather suspicious, and often with perfect right, of exaggerations and humbugs. Our motto is, "What the eye sees the heart believes," and we therefore desire to see and examine ourselves before we speak about things and praise them. This was our idea when we heard and read so much about Dr. S. A. Richmond's justly celebrated World's Epileptic Institute, and we therefore sent a reporter to the building. We are now able to give the best information on the subject, based on a personal review and examination of the premises.

based on a personal review and examination of the premises.

Our reporter found Dr. Richmond in his office.
The doctor kindly received him, and not only answered all his questions, but showed and ex-plained-everything about the place to him. His office is on the first floor of the building, and its walls are covered with thousands of photographs of gentlemen and ladies restored to health by the of gentiemen and ladies restored to health by the use of Samaritan Mervine, among whom our reporter recognized many of his own countrymen, and its glass cases contain innumerable certificates of cures and letters in praise of this world.

and its glass cases contain innumerable certificates of cures and letters in praise of this world. famous remedy.

About ten years ago Dr. Richmond came to St. Joseph. He was then a poor young man, with but little money, and no friends to assist him. He rented a small office on Francis street, and commenced the struggle for success single-handed and alone. He has achieved a grand triumph, in the face of stubborn opposition on every hand, and is to-day one of the wealthiest men in our midst. This fact alone is amply sufficient to show the merits of his invaluable preparation, even though there were no other sources from which to procure valid and reliable testimony.

But besides the money which this great medicine has been the means of bringing to the inventor, the doctor receives daily the blessings of thousands of patients restored to health and happiness through his instrumentality. These letters are open for inspection at his office, and it requires two clerks to attend to this branch of the business.

Dr. Richmond is a living example to be imitted.
