MORNING EDITION. OUTLINES.

Two members of Clara Louise Kellogg's Concert Company were drowned Friday in Lake Spofford, New Hampshire.

Quiteau don't "bank" on the court in banc any longer.

For affix in yesterday's reference to the name of a church read prefix.

Norfolk was carried by the Mahonites. Mayor Lamb was re-elected. He is our Fort Fisher man.

The Independent cyclone that is sweeping over Pennsylvania is knocking down a good many Stalwart fences.

Randall, Kenna, Carlisle and Blackburn are the captains who are to lead for six hours each during the deadlock. Calkins is bossing the other side.

At Albany, N. Y., the Arthur crowd have begun their crusade. Already two officials have been ousted to make room for Stalwarts and more are to follow. Go it.

Gen. Chalmers and Col. Hodgson are engaged in a word duel. The latter in his letter says: "I refuse to conciliate him, and I defy his utmost venom. He was an imbecile in war and is an imbecile in peace."

There is but little doubt that the Malleys will be cleared. The prosecution did not prove its case. The poor girl probably took her own life through remorse. The scoundrel that drove her to it ought to have his ears clipped and his back striped and be put in the penitentiary for life.

Local Notes.

To-day is Whit Sunday. The Criminal Court meets to-morrow.

Mr. Thomas Monk is said to be very sick. Rev. V. J. Millis will preach at the Fifth Street M. E. Church this (Sunday) evening.

Rev. W. T. Jones will preach at the First Baptist Church to-day, the pastor, Rev. Mr. Taylor, being absent. The Register of Deeds only issued one marriage license during the past week, and that was for a white couple.

There will be no services at St. Paul's (Lutheran) church to-day, the pastor being in attendance upon the General Synod. We learn that the steamer Vestas got ashore down the river yesterday and caused the camp meeting folks some trouble.

The Minnehaha, Capt. Bisbee's boat, got aground soon after leaving Boston, Mass., for this port, and had to put back for repairs. The Star-lights and the Moon-beams on the lake—two juvenile base ball clubs—played a match yesterday. The latter were the winners.

There will be baptism by immersion at the foot of Princess street this afternoon, at 5 o'clock, Rev. A. M. Conway, of the First (colored) Baptist church, officiating.

Rev. C. M. Payne will fill the pulpit of the First Presbyterian Church this afternoon, at 6 o'clock, Dr. Wilson not having returned from the General Assembly.

The ladies of the Dorcas Society of St. Paul's Evangelical Lutheran Church will give a lawn party at the parsonage on Wednesday evening, commencing at 5 o'clock.

No interments in Oakdale, Bellevue and St. Thomas' Catholic Cemeteries during the past week. In Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery there were three interments, all adults.

The only case for the consideration of the Mayor yesterday morning was that of a small colored boy, named Albert Walker, accused of playing ball on the street. He was discharged.

Section 19 of the act establishing the State Guard provides that the injuring, selling or secreting any arms or military property shall be punishable by either fine or imprisonment, or both.

Sue Langdon, the old colored woman referred to as having been badly injured by a fall at the camp meeting last week, was still alive at last accounts, but she was not expected to recover.

The barque Glacier, Capt. Crowley, was cleared from this port for Point-a-Petre, Gaudeloupe, yesterday, by Messrs. Northrop & Cumming, with 196-336 feet lumber and 50,000 shingles.

In consequence of the absence of the pastor, who is in attendance upon the session of the District Conference, there will be no morning or evening services at the Front Street Methodist Church to-day.

A correspondent of the Raleigh News and Observer, writing from Williams-ton, Martin county, mentions hearing a very fine sermon from Dr. Watson, of this city, and also one from the Bishop, at the consecration of St. Martin's church at that place recently.

See fourth page for other local news. "BLACK-DRAUGHT" makes chills and fever impossible. For sale by J. C. MUNDY.
