Da. W. G. Budington, surgeon of the steamship Colon, contradicts flatly the testimony of Mowry as to the conduct of Mrs. Christiancy in her trip to Aspinwall. - No cases for the Mayor's Court vesterday morning. - A beautiful rainbow spanned the southeastern heavens yesterday after-

- Up to yesterday afternoon 2,663 persons had listed their taxes. Next Friday s the last day of grace, and those who are behind should come up to the front.

houses on the wharf at 5 P. M., was readily adopted, and for the first week has been fully acquiesced in by all. The steady business strain from 9 A. M. to 5 P. M., as matter of course necessitated a lunch about 1 o'clock, and for a few days the dinner seekers were put to their trumps to give the "inner man" a stay to bridge them over until the postponed dinner hour, new about 5.30 P- M. Necessary expedients were soon hit upon. Some of the younger boys came down in the early morning with sandwiches or cold biscuits, eating their lunch in silence, with copious draughts of "Adam's ale" to wash it down, but not so with their seniors; waiters were seen wending their way to the different offices, and if you had dropped in between 1 and 2 o'clock you would have found a little coterie, equal to an evening tea party, a number of friends having been called in, and you will discover an ample spread of sandwiches, cake, peaches and cream, coffee, milk and ice cream. These good things are sure to generate conviviality, and an atmosphere of good feeling is diffused, coupled with no little merriment. Just think of it, ladies; a Water street broker serving the coffee, and hitting the exact quantity of cream and sugar! We shall not speak of the health-giving virtue of eating the frugal meal in peace, with a dash of good humor to savor it, and the beneficial result of quiet and rest after luncheon, that our doctors have discussed and decided upon. We leave that for the the pleasant family circle at home. Seriously, we trust all will find the change beneficial, and that the full measure of business requirements may be met.

Excitement on Market Street Yesterday Afternoon. Considerable excitement was created on Market street yesterday afternoon on account of a difficulty between a white man and a colored man. It appears that the white man owed the colored man some money-or at least the latter claimed that he did-who asked him for it, when some words passed between them, and the white man struck the other. This was the signal for the gathering together of a large crowd of colored people, and finally quite a sprinkling of whites, and the fact that the white man was arrested and put under bond for his appearance to answer to the charge of assault and battery upon the colored man, had no perceptible effect in abating the excitement, Chief of Police Brock and a squad of policemen being kept busy for some time in efforts to disperse the crowds, which would gather wherever the man that was stricken would station himself and commence reciting the circumstances of the alleged assault. For tunately no serious breach of the peace occurred and the excitement, which is easily started on that particular thoroughfare of a Saturday afternoon, finally sub-

Excursion Next Thursday. There will be a family excursion down the river on Thursday next, on the steamer Passport, under the auspices of the ladies of Fifth Street M. E. Church, the boat to leave her wharf at 9 o'clock sharp. The ladies of the Fifth Street Church have always been very successful with their excursions, and there need be no fear thathis will prove an exception. Their art rangement in fact, preclude any such possibility-or, at least, probability.

Two errors occurred in Mr. Darby's letter, second paragraph occurs this sentence: 'And I would sooner be defeated than say I would not run if elected under such circumstances." The word "run" should be serve. In another place he is quoted as being opposed to county government. He says it should have read "present county government."

The work on the "Little Bridge" is progressing rapidly under the supervision of Mr. R. H. Beery. All the defective material is being taken out and a new bend introduced to add to the strength of the structure, which will be in perfect order in a few days.

Magistrate's Court.

George Spicer, colored, was arraigned before Justice Gardner, yesterday morning, on the charge of assault and battery upon Thos. T. Beatty with a stick. Defendant was found guilty and required to pay one penny

Isaac Spicer, colored, charged with the same offence, inasmuch as he seemed to have aided and abetted his brother, even to the extent of drawing a knife and standing ready to take part in the fight, was found guilty and subjected to the same penalty as

Richard Holmes, colored, charged with false pretense, had a hearing before Justice Millis, who discharged him on account of the insufficiency of the evidence, and one Thomas Moore, the prosecutor, had to pay

Thomas T. Beatty, charged with assault and battery upon Isaac Spicer, Jr., was found guilty, but judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs.

The same defendant was next arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by James Spicer, and was required to give bond in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for ninety days and pay the costs.

An Old Coin. A gentleman showed us a very old coin which we are requested to correct. In the yesterday which was picked up on the streets by a colored boy. Its date is 1652, and the inscriptions are "Bristol Farthing" on one side and "The Arms of Bristol" on the other, the "arms" being the representation of a vessel and a fort. It is very little worn considering its extreme age.

> Are we to Have a Race. We were informed a few days since that a movement was on foot looking to a yacht race over the Wrightsville course on the 4th of July, under the auspices of the Carolina Yacht Club. Has the project been abandoned? The countenance of mortal man or woman cannot be celestially pure and radiant, but with Dr. Benson's Skin Cure it can be made smooth and free from tetter, scaly eruptions, freckles and climatic discoloration. A lovely toilet dressing.

The County Jail-Water Arrange-

We went to jail yesterday; but with our own free will and accord, to inspect the water arrangements under the new system. the supply now being furnished by the water works. Any one who ever visited the jail before the present system was introduced cannot fail to detect an improvement as soon as they get within the walls, the disagreeable odor which formerly prevailed, having entirely desappeared. The water apparatus is arranged with a special view to cleanliness and the absence of disagreeable odors, and in this respect the object has been attained to perfection. There are now only five inmates (all colored) of the jail, and one of these-James Aldenman-is an old man from Pender. The others are Eliza Green, for larceny of jewelry; Sophia Swain, for fighting, and Frank Mott and Alexander Johnson, for larceny of brass. Sophia Swain is cofined for costs. This is a pretty good showing for the county of New Hanover and city of Wilmington.

How They Do It.

The New York Police Gazette does up in style the fatal encounter that took place a week or two ago between two colored women of bad repute in Robeson county, in which Jame McNair stabbed Jane Mc-Keller, causing her death, picturing the dusky damsels as two lovely white girls in apparently affluent circumstanles.
