Longfellow said:

The ladies are now wearing ewelled garters. We gain this information from the press, and so state upon our oath aforesaid. It seems to us that this is rather a peculiar move, but it may be all right. What effect it may have upon the fall elections we cannot say at this moment, nor what the result will be, looking at it from a social standpoint. We mean, of course, looking at the question under discussion, not the garter itself. Probably the next grand stride in the fashion line will be artificial rats scattered around in covenient places, so that the wearers of moss-agate garters can jump upon a chair and howl. This is about the only way we can see for the public to be benefited by the prevailing style of garter. Diameter and traded genters might be bung mond-studded garters might be hung on the hat rack in the hall, where visitors can peruse them at their leisure, but, after all, that would be a kind of hollow mockery. It would be like attending a ballet where the performers wore ulster overcoats and

Peace in her chamber, wheresoe'er The thought still brings my soul such grace As morning meadows wear. Whether it still be small and light,

Or whether in a shadow dense . As nuptial hymns invoke, innocent maidenhood awoke To married innocence:

A maid's who dreams alone,

Its ceiling showed at night:

As from her orchard gate the moon

There still the thanks unheard await The unconscious gift bequeathed; For there my soul this hour has breathed An air inviolate.

GIRLS.

Bill Arps Opinion of the Feminine Gender.

A nice, pretty, sweet girl can toll a man a long way off sometimes, and make him sacrifice a power of time, and comfort and money; and when she does it all a purpose and then throws him off, I shall always think she hadn't orter. I never was in favor of a young girl turning up her nose at a clever fellow who was raised in her neighborhood and running off after an airy chap from away yonder; but when he does come I think she ought to let him go back quick and cheap or take him. I've always noticed that when young men go slipping away to parts unknown for a wife it's because those girls he was raised with know him too well and don't want him. I didn't go half a mile for my pard and that showed my good sense, and she didn't go no further than I did, and that showed hern, and if I was a sensible young girl and was waiting for a husband, I would set my cap for somebody I had not known a long time, but if I was a young fool I wouldent. The happiest marriages I know of are those where the folks knowd all about one another for a good while, and nary one was fooled. Romance in love affairs is mighty pretty, and a solitary horseman getting thrown from his horse is just splendid, but all this plays out in a few months, and then comes the facts-the hardpan. The earth that is earthy, and the heavenly vanishes, and the baby has to be nursed of nights, and the sugar gets low, and the diamond wedding ring won't bring color to the poor wife's cheeks, and she is away off from her mother and wants sympathy and love and kind attention, and a good deal of it. As Mr.

> Life is real, life is earnest, And the baby wants a nurse.

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year—as good a paper as any people should want.

—Charlotte Democrat.

The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register. The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.-Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington Star has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best pa pers in the South, in every department from typo-graphy up to editorial ability and independence. Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appea. We like the STAR because it is thoroughly relia ble, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect newspaper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor. Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magnitude. May its lustre never wane.—

The Free Will Baptist. The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a model newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carelinian, we are proud of it .-

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the South.—Robesonian. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dallies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the pa-per surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner. The Wilmington STAB is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter.

The Stan is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot'e The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it,—Reids-

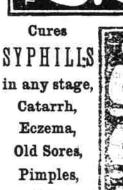

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) STAR, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State. The Wilmington Star, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

The Morning Star, one of the best dailies we know, and as a newspaper, in our opinion, the very best, has entered upon its twelfth year. In every particular the Star comes fully up to the mark as the principle daily in our chief commercial city. Long may it twinkle.—Alamance Glean-

The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAB very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial de-aartment is conducted with much ability.—Mor-

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for-tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAB has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newspaper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepta-

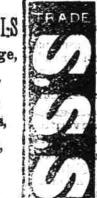

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered up! on the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the STAR is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the STAR (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in townslive. ly too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. The King's Mountain All-Healing Springs Co. Will open for the season of 1882, on the 15th day of May. They have enlarged their hotels to accommodate 200 guests, and have added every amuse ment calculated to promote health and comfort. These wonderful Waters cure Dyspepsis, Sick Headache, Constipation and all Derangements of the Digestive Organs. All Skin Diseases and Ulcers of every kind, Scrofula, Catarrh and all Kidney Affections yield to their healing virtues. Syphilitic patients who had visited Hot Springs of Arkansas without relief, found it here last season. The Waters have a peculiarly beneficial effect upon Female Complaints, and many distressing cases were cured last season. The owners intend to make this the most complete Health Resort in the United States. Besides a Table d'hote they will open a Restaurant, and visitors may suit their tastes and their purses. Excursion tickets will be issued from all points to Ling's Moun-

my 27 D&W1m

APEPSIA : THE GREAT SCIENTIFIC PREPARATION WILL positively cure old chronic cases of Dyspepsia, Dyspeptic Fits, Dyspeptic Vertigo and Dyspeptic Consumption, where every other known medicine has falled to even give rollef. I refer to a few of the cases pronounced incurable that have been cured with APEPSIA: Miss Katle Hoffman, 872 Randolph street, Philadelphia, was a case of Dyspeptic Consumption; had not been out of her house for one year, or her room for six months; a living skeleton given up to die by our most eminent physicians, but cured with four bottles of Apepsia. Matthew Robinson, No. 303 Train 43 stops at all Stations.
So. 40 stops only at Flemington, Whiteville,
For Bluff and Marion.

This was an old chronic case of Dyspepsia Vertigo of long standing but cured with only two bottles of Apepsia. Mr. H. A. Clark, firm Clark Bros. & Co., Philadelphia, was an old chronic case of twenty years stand ing; paid out one thousand dollars; was pronounced incurable; but cured with three bottles of similar testimonials can be seen at our office. similar testimonials can be seen at our office. I refer with pleasure to the following gentlemen of Savannah, whose characters are irreproachable: Dr. J. R. Haltiwanger, Clarence S. Connerat, Capt. George M.
