EVENING EDITION

THURSDAY EVENING, JULY 6, 1882.

THE GOOD WORK AT RALEIGH. The work of the Convention will give general satisfaction, we have no doubt. We do not think that all of the nominations made are the most judicious possible, but, with one or two exceptions, it is a very strong ticket. The meeting appears to have been marked throughout with the utmost good feeling and harmony of purpose.

The appointing of fifteen lawyers to lay their opinion before the Governor and his Council relative to the question of an extra session of the Legislature will be a general surprise. It will be remembered by the readers of this paper that it was strongly urged again and again in these columns that an extra session of the Legislature was a necessity in view of the new Congressional apportionment. We urged that the necessary machinery was lacking, and that the U.S. House was not competent to provide it. But these views were not regarded, and it was announced in the public prints that the North Carolina delegation in the Congress (and we mean both Houses when ever we use the word Congress), were a unit in opposition to an extra session. "A change has come over the spirit of their" convictions it seems, and now they are represented as being very anxious that Dockery shall not obtain his seat, though beaten at the polls, by any defect of machinery. Our "old editorials," as Jo Turner was wont to refer to his many discussions of the same old theme in the Sentinel, would be instructive reading just here. They would show, if reproduced, that unprofessional men were able to come nearer the necessity of the hour than lawyers who were Congressmen.

But by all means call an extra session of the Legislature if there is any danger of Col. Bennett's being ousted by a technical plea to be urged by the Radicals. It is manifest that a Democrat has no claim whatever of retaining his seat, or indeed of obtaining it, if the Radicals in the House can by any political hocuspocus relieve him of it and thereby give his place to a brother contesting Radical who was never elected. "Be sure you are right, then go ahead."

The abstract of the platform of principles adopted, which is all we have seen, enables us to say that in the main it strikes us as judicious and wise. We do not see any special wisdom in insisting upon a repeal of all internal revenues as long as the present high protective and prohibitory tariff is in operation without any abatement, and as long as the remorseless pension law lives to draw unnumbered and unknown hundreds people. As an abstract question internal taxation is of dangerous utiliof the people. They would rather five dollars than to be taxed directly one dollar under the revenue system. Not all, but a majority are of this way of thinking. We do not pretend to understand such preference.

The STAR has seen no reason to alter its convictions in the matter of internal taxation. It is dangerous to abolish it unless the country means henceforth to retain a high protective tariff. It is very certain that a tariff that will raise sufficient revenue to meet the demands of our extravagant and wasteful General Government will be high enough to meet all of the requirements of the most pronounced protectionist in the land. Our plan is to readjust thoroughly the tariff and cut down the internal taxes just as rapidly as the exigencies of the country and the extravagances of the Congress and the Ad ministration will allow.

We are glad to know that the Democrats in State Convention assembled were true to their convictions of right and were determined that the Eastern whites should not be placed in bondage under their task-masters, the negroes.

The declaration of the Convention as to the prohibition question is true and fair. That question was never a party question in North Carolina. There was a division of opinion among Republicans in every town and village as there was a division among Democrats. The ablest Republicans in the State were the most active friends of prohibition. Most of the strong men of the Democratic party antagonized it. In households and even in editorial offices there was a disagreement on this question. It is simply a piece of miserable demagogism to try to make it a party question. There are Republican candidates now before the people who were the sworn allies of the prohi-

Altogether the work at Raleigh is full of encouragement. The leaders have been chosen, and good ones they are. The enemy is in the field. Let the Democratic forces be marshalled. Let all discords disappear. Let the people of every county organize for victory at once.

There has never been in North Carolina such a thing as thorough and general organization, in the strict sense of that word. The main thing to be done is first to effect a thorough organization. Let the Jarvis plan of organizing, as adopted in Pitt county, be adopted and worked thoroughly in every county, and we will have no fears of the result in November. If the State Committee should issue a circular setting forth the plan adopted some years ago in Pitt county by Capt. Jarvis (now Governor) for organizing the Democrats, it would do a useful thing we have no

There is a small cotton factory at Elizabeth City that uses the celebrated "Clement Attachment." It runs but 612 spindles. A reporter of the New Berne Journal has been through the establishment, and from his account we extract some items of interest. The building, he says, is 45x65, the lower floor being occupied by the spindles, engine room, office, etc. About one-fourth of the upper floor is occupied by the gins and cotton cleaner, the balance being used for storing seed cotton. There is plenty of room to hold all the stock necessary. The entire outfit cost $15,000. To buy stock took another $8,000. It employs from 15 to 20 hands, nearly all girls. It spins 350 pounds of coarse yarns daily. It makes also net twine. The fishermen prefer it to all other makes. The mill is paying fairly in spite of adverse causes. "The hands were all green, and by the time we got fairly started the price of yarns dropped off from three to four cents in the

The manager, Mr. Jones, said of the advantages of the "Clement:

"It dispenses with the machinery to tear the cotton to pieces; the lint passes direct from the gin to the carder; the yarns are bound to be better, because no waste nor scraps can be thrown in; they have to be bundled up and sold."

It is confidently believed that 16% per cent. profit will be made on the capital invested.

One of the "cheekiest" manifestations that have occurred in the history of the U.S. Congress was "Secor" Robeson's charge against the Democrats that they had expended $73,000,000 on the navy and without building a vessel or casting a gun, when it is remembered that this fellow is openly accused in leading.

misapplied, or stolen some $150,000,-000 of the public moneys that were ty, and is repugnant to the prejudices intended for the construction, and maintenance of an efficient navv. be taxed under the tariff indirectly. The reply of Mr. Whitthorne, of Tennessee, was sufficient. It was to the effect that Robeson himself was in charge of the navy during twenty months of Democratic control of the Congress, "and that he left a deficiency of over seven million dollars, and that during all of that time the Navy Department was under the control of a Republican Secretary."

Attorney General Brewster is in a fix-a quandary. He has been asked to give his opinion about Hubbell's black-mail levy on the office-holders. If Hubbell is right in his bulldozing methods of "raising the wind," then Brewster must say so. But, unfortunately, the Attorney General is on record as against such procedures in politics. He is against Cameron's bossism. What will he do now? The Petersburg Index-Appeal, in a clever discussion of the embarrassments,

"As the matter now stands, if Brewster shall follow out the reforming course he has always pursued, the President will be compelled to denounce the 'assessments' of Hubbell. This would be Falstaff decrying sack, or Grant objecting to gift-taking, but we do not see how Arthur could escape. The Attorney General has a great opportunity, which we hope he will prove equal

We have thought for some time that there was a good chance of a difficulty between "the fighting editors" of the Macon (Ga.) Telegraph and the Atlanta Constitution. They have been slinging brickbats at each other's head for some weeks in the shape of stinging personal paragraphs. "Let us have peace." Here is a specimen of the amenities that passed. The Constitution said:

"Sampson killed the Philistines with one jawbone of an ass; why shouldn't Albert Lamar have killed Alec. Stephens? He's

The sense of the business communities of the country was that a general uniform bankrupt law was a necessity. It seems that this important measure will have to go over to another session of the Congress. In fact it has been deferred until December, 1882. There is too much demagogism and wind among some of the members for the most effective and needed legislation.

North Carloina secures $250,000 additional for the improvement of its rivers and harbors. Our members have been unusually successful in obtaining government appropriations. We hope every dollar will be judiciously and economically expended so that the greatest possible good may be derived from it.

CURRENT COMMENT.

- It is interesting to observe the extreme sensitiveness of the protectionists to the candid statement of facts. It is the truth which these people dread, and if the truth about the system of protecting duty taxes is told, the protection organs immediately cry out that the protected set are getting villified and grossly misrepresented. This attitude of injured innocence will not deceive any reflecting person, nor will it abate in any measure the truth-telling of the newspapers which are on the popular side, and against the tribute gatherers and bounty beggars, who want to perpetuate the intolerable burdens imposed by the war tariff, which now curses the country in a time of peace.-Louisville Courier-Journal.

— The Democratic party is the party of the people, the party that in reality and sincerity sympathizes with down-trodden and suffering humanity, the party that has been true to the Constitution and the fundamental doctrines of popular government. When in power it governed with wisdom and integrity. Why has it been excluded from power, and been beaten in every great national contest for the last twenty-four years? The causes have been various. We will not here attempt to enumerate them. But the facts are sufficient to inspire scrutiny, circumspection, wisdom and foresight in the future. The cause of the Democratic party is the cause of human rights and liberty. It is a deathless struggle, and will never be given up.-American Register.

AN ARKANSAS SNAKE

CHARMER.

Union County (Ark.) Times. Mr. Black, who regides in Hillsboro, Ark., exhibits a control and influence over the reptile family astonishingly mysterious. In the woods, creeks, or wherever he finds a snake, it matters not of what type, of deadly poison or venom it may be, he succeeds in capturing it alive and suffering as little from the clasp of its fangs as if it were an ordinary pin scratch. He handles and fondles them about his person as if they were so many harmless toys. He will allow the largest rattlesnake to deliberately strike and bury its fangs into his flesh, and apparently suffer no inconvenience or serious consequences from the tragic risk. By a certain weed or growth of vegetation he olaims to destroy the effect of the of millions from the pockets of the Northern papers with having wasted, bite. When bitten he chews and swallows the juice of the weed, which acts like a charm.

STATE GLEANINGS.

Asheboro Courier: The Frank linsville Manufacturing Company is going ahead with the new addition to the factory. -Mr. Ferree has purchased $25,000 worth of new machinery for the Randleman Manufacturing Company, which is now being put in. Two ponderous engines are now going up which will move things during the summer. — Naomi factory now runs 4,608 spindles, 28 F. & P. carde and 118 looms, which make 137,080 yards per month.

- Raleigh News-Observer: As a part of the current political history of the day, we print the letter of acceptance writ-ten by Col. Dockery to Col. William Johnston. It contains but one notable sentence -the assertion that Col. Dockery favors the total and unconditional repeal of the whole revenue system. This is not in the Republican platform. — Mr. John Scott, one of the oldest residents of the county, died Saturday at his home, near Green Level, aged 86 years. - Gov. Holden was out on Fayetteville street, yesterday, for the first time in three months, since he was paralyzed. - About sunset fire was discovered in the finishing room of the Union Carriage Company's shops, at Carthage, which soon caught the work shops, enveloping the whole building in flames and burning it to the ground, a complete loss. Nothing was saved. The large store of H. J. & A. D. Muse, adjoining the company's shops, was also soon in flames, and was burned to the ground. About $400 worth of goods were saved out of an immense stock. The flames soon caught the kitchen of Mr. Tyson, which was destroyed. The whole town was in great danger of being burned down, and but for the exertions and bravery of the people would have been destroyed. The fire is not out yet, but can do no more damage. The total loss is between $30,000 and age in small grain this season is far in excess of anything heretofore known. As a result of the revival in the Methodist church up to that time eleven members were added to that church and three to the Presbyterian church last Sunday. - We learn that during the thunder storm last Thursday evening the lightning struck a tenant house on the plantation of Col. E. T. Stackhouse, Little Rock, S. C., and killed a colored woman and two of her children, - On Saturday, the 24th inst., about 10 A. M., the barn and stables of Rev J. H. Cobb were burned. Nothing in the line of corn, fodder, &c., was saved. Also one horse was burned to death, well known by many as "old Charlie." The loss was very heavy, supposed to be $800 or $1000. No insurance. ---Editorial correspondence: "There is but little of historic or pecuniary interest on the Cape Fear river between Wilmington and Smithville. Among the former may be included old Brunswick church, located at what used to be Fort Anderson. Though pelted by the shot and shell of three wars, a portion of the walls six fect thick, by the way, are still standing. Of the latter class are the rice farms; and that some idea of this interest may be obtained I would instance two as worthy of special mention. One of these belongs to the estate of Mr. David R. Murchison, cost over $30,000, and is said to be the finest rice farm on the Atlantic coast. [Where is Fort Fisher ?-STAR.]

OUR STATE CONTEMPORARIES.

There are a few claimed to be Democrats in nearly every county, who wear a Demo-cratic face and say that they are in favor of Democratic principles and government but in every election they find some friend or good man (as they say) on the Republican ticket whom they must vote for in preference to the Democrat. Such men as these are neither Democrats nor Republi cans, they are standing on top of the fence ready to step down on the side which shall have the majority. They are without firmness, and are unworthy of Republican or Democratic honors. Be firm !— Warrenton Home Journal

The "unsavory mixture" of Democrats and Liberals, set before Republicans, by their party, and the inconsistency of candidates and platform, must be very humiliating to the Stalwarts who have been voting the Republican ticket. The Democrats are to be congratulated upon the fair field before them. Prohibition is a dead issue. Democracy don't need to sit down among the ashes and scrape with a potsherd .-Winston Leader.

The Bombardment of Alexandria by Admiral Seymour Momentarily Expected-The Egyptian Ministry Refuse to Abandon Work on the Fortifications—English Residents Taking Refuge on the Fleet. (By Cable to the Morning Star.)

LONDON, July 6 .- The Times' leading article confirms the report that Admiral Seymour will send a formal communication to the Egyptian Government to day requiring it forthwith to abandon the obnoxious works. If Arabi Pacha refuses Admiral Seymour will immediately open fire and bombard Alexandria. The Times says these instructions are entirely independent of the Conference and belong to a different category of action. They are an act of police rather than an act of war. They are not based on the general condition of Egypt, nor on the relations of the Khedive or Arabi Pacha, nor on any of the ques tions referred to the Conference, but simply on the paramount necessity of securing the safety of the British fleet, for which government is responsible to the country, and cannot submit its responsibility to the decision of any conference or the sanction of any single power.

ALEXANDRIA, July 6.-Ragheb Pacha, President of the Council, has received a telegram from the Sultan announcing that the British fleet would bombard the forts unless work on the construction of earthworks was stopped. The Sultan holds the Khedive and Ministry responsible for the consequences. Ragheb Pacha replied that the Ministry had already telegraphed to Constantinople that a demonstration has been made, in consequence of which the Sultan's permission to resume the work was asked. Pending the Sultan's reply no defi-nite resolution will be adopted. Despite all denials to the contrary work on the fortifications continues. Admiral Seymour delays formally demanding a cessation of the work until all of the British residents are on board of the vessels in the harbor. They are now hastily engaged in embarkation. It is reported that Arabi Pacha is supplying arms to the natives.
