WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, AUGUST 23, 1882.

By the way, England beats the whole world in getting up fights with weak tribes or nations. He is considered the best British living General. He is not the first Irishman who stood at the head. The Duke of Wellington was an Irishman.

Col. A. J. Ingersoll, an ex-Confederate of Mobile, was assaulted in Mulberry street near the Police headquarters by a lot of ruffians in open day. He thus describes the attack of one ruffian:

"He then hit me three blows in the face, while four or five other men attacked me from behind, cutting my head open and trying to stab me in the back. Fortunately the knife glanced off and did not penetrate the flesh. I would have been murdered had not the Irish women and children of the neighborhood come to my rescue with stones and bricks, and even a little girl of eleven years of age put a knife in my hand, as I had nothing but a slight cane to defend myself with. After the fight, which lasted five minutes, I felt so overcome with gratitude to those who came to my assistance that I distributed about $30 in silver among

The attack was caused by the Colonel's having attempted to rescue a young Mobilian the night before from the clutches of some thieves.

Among the deteriorated drugs sold in Philadelphia are atropia, salycilic and laudanum. Some druggists make citrate of magnesia of Epsom salts.

"The use of citrate made of Epsom salts after a case of typhoid fever, has been known to result fatally, the salts causing irritation, which the magnesia would not have done. Citric acid is the only expensive drug in the citrate of magnesia, and it is sometimes replaced by fast money makers with tartaric acid and oil of lemon. There is some danger in the use of calomel, as under certain conditions it turns to corrosive sublimate. Under the influence of light it may form a kind of sulphate of mercury, which is a deadly poison, but not so rapid in its effects as the corrosive sublimate."

Representative Singleton was de feated for renomination in Illinois. He has been a Democrat. He is announced as an Independent Republican. He must have heard of Gen. Chambers, of the "shoe-string" District, in Mississippi, and of Mr. L. C. Edwards, of Granville, a few weeks ago Democratic candidate for the nomination for Judge, but defeated, and now the Radical candidate for the same. Evil examples do a deal of injury.

The special U. S. Marshals, appointed in 1880 by the Radicals to secure an unfair and corrupt election, have never been paid for their very valuable (?) and patriotic (?) services. The Rads needed them but there were no funds with which to. pay them. At last they are to be paid, and $75,000 is the sum needed to meet this useless raide on the Treas-

We must use every effort to get this road, for if we fail in this we are doomed to live in sweet obscurity for many

The Republicans of Chowan county neld their convention about two weeks ago, and put out a ticket headed by E. H. Sutton for the Legislature. On Saturday last those opposed to his nomination met in what they called a mass meeting and nominated John A. Welch for the House.

- There was a big fire at Rockingham Monday. It commenced in Russell's warehouse and burned the entire block around to Tyson's carriage repository. Russells, Leak & Co., Holt & Watson's place were all burned; some of their goods were saved and all have insurance, but it is not known how much. It took hard work to save the Court House and other buildings in rear. There was no damage east of Russell's.

- Our Lincolnton correspondent 'wires" us under date of the 22nd inst. : Democrats nominated: For Senate, A. F. Brevard; House, W. L. Crouse, Sheriff, S. H. Lowe; Clerk, V. A. McBee; Register of Deeds, Capt. O. A. Ramsaur; Coronert J. P. Anthony, Sr. After the Convention adjourned a large crowd asssembled to hear the speaking. Col. Bennett made the ablest and most effective speech heard in this sec-tion for years, literally skinning the Mongrel set present, viz: Dockery, Norment, Johnston and a few others of the same stripe. "Kurnel" Johnston was especially peeled. It was a good day for us and a bad one for our opponents.

- An Anson correspondent (E R. L.) writes us that the Democrats nominated William A. Liles for the House. He was a Captain of Company "C" Fourteenth Regiment. Sheriff Hardison was renominated. Mr. McLauchlin was nominated for Clerk of Court, and Mr. Coppedge for Register of Deeds, Ed. D. Gaddy for County Treasurer. He is a "one-legged rebel" and "as good as they make." One of the Judges says Mr. McLauchlin "is the best Superior Court Clerk in the State.' By the accidental discharge of his gun, a well known colored man of Lilesville was killed. Billy Marshall was his name; he was about sixty years of age and a blacksmith by trade.

- A white man named Jones had fracas with a negro named Jim Harris at Charlotte. At night a crowd of negroes attacked Jones and very badly used him. Brave darkies! The Observer says: A shower of rocks came through the window, and about the same time the mob broke open the back door and entered, firing their pistols. About eleven shots were fired into the room. The crowd found Jones under the bed and dragged him out, giving him a severe beating at the same time. He at last managed to break from them and fled. His body is black and blue with bruises, his head badly cut up, and one of his feet lac-erated. His condition is not serious, but his wounds are painful. - Reidsville Times: Bennett is a good and true man. What he says he'll lo or as he vows die trying, That's his grit. True he has proven so far a most unequal speaker. In Raleigh almost a failure, but down east lashing like a storm king, and again in the sudden calm of reason and truth, like a sea at rest, the people in crowds anchoring to him. Then at Fay etteville another flat. But from there to Durham where he fairly roused the woods, lawvers, farmers, mechanics all agree that Bennett at Durham was glorious. Right from there- to Greensboro where another cold wave struck him. But what odds whether his stomeon is in order for a livery speech to-day or a labored one to-morrow The man's the same and R. T. Bennett is

A MAN. The people can safely trust him. - Newton Enterprise: Mr. Clayton Stevenson, who lives in Concord congregation, Iredell county, last Tuesday night heard a disturbance among his chickens, and taking his gun went out of one door to see what caused it, while his wife, without his knowledge, went out at another door about the same time. They met some where in the yard, and Mr. Stephenson, thinking her the thief, fired, hitting her in the side, from the effects of which she died in a few hours. - David Propst, a citizen of Conover, was walking through the woods on his farm and came across a very large snake. He stopped and watched the movements of the snake very closely, and shortly the reptile formed itself into the shape of a hoop, and struck a very large tree standing near him. The snake died shortly, and also the leaves of the tree soon began to wither. Mr. Propst drew the sword of the snake from the tree and carried it into town to show for itself, and anybody can see itt that comes to Conover.

The same defendants had a preliminary examination yesterday, before Justice Gardner, charged with defacing and injuring the First (colored) Baptist Church by nailing strips across the doors to prevent certain parties from entering, and were required to give bond in the sum of $50 each for their appearance at court.

A Prisoner from Pender.

A colored woman known by the name of Agnes Norwood was brought to this city yesterday, in charge of Deputy Sheriff Croom, under a commitment from Justice John D. She is said to be partially demented. or subject to crazy fits.

- Several convicts from this couny and vicinity have recently been discharged from the Penitentiary, including Thomas Weeks, who is up about Greensboro; James Spann, Paris Brown, and others whose names cannot be remembered.

- The excursion to the Blackfish Grounds yesterday, on the steamer Passport, proved a grand success. There was a good crowd, and the fishing was excellent from the "Rocks" to the Blackfish Grounds, all returning home with as many fish as they knew what to do with.

- As an evidence of the kind of table Capt. Perry spreads, we must mention that two of our citizens, who have en spending the summer at the Hotel Brunswick, have returned home with well developed cases of the gout, which they ascribe to "high living and plenty of it."

- The Young Catholic Friends Society will have their family excursion to Smithville and the forts on the steamer Passport to-day, the boat to leave the wharf at 9 A. M. If you want to have a good time now is your chance. There will be refreshments and music for dancing.

Mayor's Court. The Mayor had quite an interesting levee yesterday morning, taking it altogether. Walter Shaw violated the law by acting disorderly at the W. & W. R. R. depot on Monday. He was discharged. John Swinson and John Foster, two white seamen who were arrested for being engaged in an altercation at a sailor boarding house on the wharf, on Monday night, were ordered to be kept locked up until called for by their captain. James Gilmartin, a seaman, charged with assaulting and trying to trip up a colored woman on the streets, Monday night, was ordered to be locked up in the city prison for five days. Mary Eliza Lively, whose cheerful countenance is not a stranger to the habitues of the court room, was arraigned for disorderly conduct. It seems that the police heard the report of a pistol, and upon investigation it was as certained that she discharged the weapon, whereupon she was arrested and locked up about 3 o'clock yesterday morning. The evidence was conflicting, her own version of the matter being that she fired the pistol to frighten away the intruder upon her premises in the person of one J. H. Cowan, colored, who appeared from his own testi mony to have been considerably mixed up in the affair. The excessive modesty of Mary Eliza, who seemed to fully realize the delicacy of her trying position, was an argument in her favor, and she was discharged, while the unlucky Cowan was ordered to pay a fine of $5 or go below for ten days. This ended the first act, and as the curtain dropped upon the scene another actress appeared upon the stage in the person of Cowan's wife, who was so very pointed in her remarks to her truant lord, as she gesticulated and flourished her fingers in a threatening manner in the neighborhood of his scalp, that Chief Brock finally deemed it necessary to interfere to prevent a disturbance in the court room. The second act will come on later, and promises to be interesting and thoroughly sensa-

Submitted and then Appealed. A colored woman named Mary Robinson was before Justice Millis, some weeks ago, on the charge of assault and battery. She submitted and judgment was rendered, when she craved an appeal. The case came up at the late term of the Criminal Court, and it was decided that it was not legally before the Court, whereupon it was sent back to the magistrate, the defendant giving bond with security for her appearance before Justice Millis yesterday morning at 10 o'clock; but both parties failed to put in their appearance, and now another writ will have to be issued to secure the attendance of the principal and surety.

Hand Mashed. John Rann, a son of Mr. Thomas Rann, had his right hand badly mashed yesterday afternoon by getting it caught in the gearing of the machinery. He was taken to his

GRAND RAPIDS, MICH., AUG. 19TH, 1889. the New Furniture Store of BEHRENDS & MUNROE, S. E. corner Market and 2nd Sta. MUNROE, S. E. corner Market and End Sta., Wilmington, N. C.:

I have made arrangements with the largest manufacturers of Furniture in the West and they will supply us with their products. They desire a Southern outlet. Black Walnut and other Lumber is more pientiful, better and cheaper here than in the North, as this is the main door of the lumber country. Their goods are of better quality, and as they mean to force the introduction of their goods, they have left it to our option how to do it. I therefore instruct you to undersell all: let cash be your object.
