Blow with a Brickbat.

A young son of Rev. Dr. Wilson, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, was seriously cut on the face yesterday morning, about half past 10 o'clock, by a sharp piece of brick thrown by a colored boy unknown. It seems that the young man was engaged in throwing water into the flower garden with a hose attached to a water plug, when some of the water spattered upon the colored boy, who became incensed, and, after some words, picked up the brick and hurled it at young Wilson's head. It struck him immediately under the right cheek bone and cut a deep gash about one inch and a quarter long. The colored boy then ran off and made his escape.

Col. John N. Staples, who is to address the people from the stand on Third street to-night, arrived here yesterday and subsequently took a trip to the Sound.

Alluding to the appearance of Col. Staples at Magnolia on Monday the Greensboro Patriot (his home paper) said of him: "We commend John N. Staples to our Duplin friends and ask them to give him a rousing reception at Magnolia on the 18th. He has few equals in the State as a speaker and his Democracy is of that sort that obtains in Duplin. Hear the gifted orator from the center."

The campaign begins to wax warm. Mr. Elijah Hewlett announces himself an Independent candidate for Sheriff and will make things lively for Stephen H. Mr. Hewlett is a Republican, and is very popular. In 1880, with two opponents in the field-a Democrat and a Greenbacker-he received every vote cast in his own township except three for the office of County Treasurer.

Assaulted and Battered Each Other. Wm. Thomas and Wm. Bradley, two colored individuals, who got into a difficulty at the railroad yesterday and were pitching into each other pretty lively, were arrested and taken before Justice Millis, where they were arraigned on the charge of assault and battery, submitted and judgment was suspended on the payment of Death of a Former Wilmingtonian. Mr. W. B. Orr, formerly the well known Agent for Wheeler & Wilson's sewing machines in this city, died in Russell county, Alabama, on Saturday evening last. New Hotel at Smithville. Dropping in at the Purcell House vesterday we saw the design for a new hotel at Smithville, drawn by Mr. J. H. Vaughan, and which is proposed to be constructed for and leased for a number of years by Mr. B. L. Perry. It is to be a three-story building, with a front of 125 feet and two wings running out each 150 feet, and a ball room in the centre 90 by 120 feet. There will be one hundred rooms in the building, affording accommodations for several hundred people. There will be verandas around the building, and also in the ball room, so that spectators can overlook the room and view the dancing without getting in the way of the dancers. The building will be supplied with water and gas, elevators, and, in fact, all of the modern improvements and conveniences.

It is proposed in this connection to organize a joint stock company with a capital of about $40,000, and, as before stated, Mr. Perry has made arrangements to construct and lease the building, work upon which will commence about the first of November, and it is hoped to complete it and have it open for the reception of visitors on or about the first of May.

Judging from the plan the new hotel will be a very handsome and stylish building, and its erection will show that we are awaking to the importance of Smithville or its vicinity as a first-class watering place or summer resort. Another season and the accommodations will be ample in every respect for all who may visit our seaside re-

YOUNG THIEVES.

Two Colored Boys Caught Raiding Upon a Money Drawer - They are Armed and Equipped.

Mr. Fred Heyer, corner of Second and Market street, has been missing money from a drawer in the rear of his store recently and he finally concluded to set a trap for the thief. The drawer, located behind a counter, is hidden by a screen from persons in the front part of the store. He attached one end of a cord to the drawer and the other to a plowshare in another part of the room, arranged so that it (the cord) would not be readily discovered by an intruder. The plowshare was placed on a barrel in such a way that a sudden jerk would cause it to fall, and immediately under it were placed a number of glass bottles. The proprietor and others in the store yesterday morning, about 9 o'clock, were startled by a sudden fall and a jingling of glass, and J. W. Bryan, the colored deputy sheriff, who happened to be in the store at the time, in his hurry to see what was the matter, was just in time to discover a colored boy in the act of pulling himself across the counter, over which he had reached the money drawer, a pull at which jerked the ploughshare off the barrel, which fell upon the glass bottles and smashed them, and thus led to the discovery of the thief. Officer Bryan seized the boy, and a confederate who accompanied him into the store was captured by a

The two boys are named John Bryan and James Chavers, and are represented to be about 12 or 14 years of age. On the way to jail-to which they were sent in default of security in the sum of $50 each for their appearance before Justice Gardner this morning at 10 o'clock-the boys were no ticed making mysterious motions in the di rection of their pockets, and upon investigation it was found that each of the precocious youths had a seven-shooter concealed

WITH DISGUSTED PACES, EXCLAIM TO their husbands and sons, why did you buy that UGLY GAUDY SUIT, and look how shabby it looks—all faded out? Why you cannot recognize UGLY GAUDY SUIT, and look how shabity it looks—all faded out? Why you cannot recognize it as the same Suit, and you paid such an emormous price for it. Now there is H. W.; his cost him only $15.00 at Mr. DAVID'S, and it looks as good as new; and, what is more, he always looks neat. Why don't you try Mr. DAVID'? They say his Clothing, for Style and Make-up, can't be beat; and he has twice the amount of goods to select from, and he will sarely direct you to your own interest. And again I am going to buy School Suits for Harry and Willie, and you can look for a Suit for yourself. I won't go to any place but
