OUTLINES.

The soldiers guarding the Ashland (Ky.) murders. Neal and Craft, fired with provocation on a crowd of citizens, killing five and wounding twenty; among the killed was an infant in its mother's arms. — Dick Liddell, one of the James gang, on trial at Huntsville, Ala., for complicity in the Muscles Shoals robbery, was found guilty. — Louis H. Zeig & Co., leading bull operators in cotton, New York City, have failed. — The Alhambra theatre, New York, burned; there was no performance in the theatre. — An exposé of a conspiracy of the administration to bulldoze North Carolina by Northern men, as Deputy Marshals, who are to attend the polls in doubtful districts on the day of election, is telegraphed from Washington. — The public is cautioned against one Geo. Hoey, who is endeavoring to procure money on worthless drafts on relations at the North. — A large flour mill burned at Knoxville, Tenn.; loss $250,000. — Extensive frauds and irregularities have been discovered in the registration of voters in Philadelphia. — N. Y. markets: Money 6@10 per cent; cotton steady at 10@11 1/16; southern flour about steady and fairly active at $4 65 @ 70; wheat—cash lots firmly held, ungraded red 84c@81 1/4; corn—cash lots 2 1/2c higher, ungraded 85c@87c; resin steady at $1 87 1/2 @ 95; spirits turpentine easier at 54 1/2.

Have you registered? If not, do so without delay. Do your duty just here. The great sensation in New York just now is—Patti. New York generally has a sensation.

There is not a ship at Mobile loading with cotton and none on the way. Mobile is undoubtedly in decadence.

Let every good Democrat be on hand to-night. Waddell and Shackelford will speak at the Third street stand. The fiftieth anniversary of the consecration of Bishop Smith, of Kentucky, was celebrated in New York on Tuesday. The Mañon (S. C.) Star is now a large and handsome paper. It has just donned a new dress. We like to see the Stars shining brightly.

The Massini Theatre at Barcelona, Spain, was burned on Monday night, the same on which the Park in New York was consumed. Fortunately no one was killed by either fire.

The Philadelphia Press is very unhappy because Judge Presley, of South Carolina, has decided that stealing disfranchises. It hurts, is the reason of the profound sorrow.

Mrs. Seville was two smart for the lawyers. She is now in Canada and is probably more bent on a new matrimonial alliance than in going to an insane asylum. But she is a "crank" all the same.

Big calculations are some times disappointed. Democrats do not let New Hanover go Radical by a larger majority than it did in 1876. If you do your duty such will not be the case. Rally for Green.

Nettie Abbott, with the Ada Gray troupe, eloped with a drummer named A. Simmonds when at Chattanooga. She left between the scenes and her baggage besides. Why the mysterious stealing away does not appear.

Col. Tom Buford, put in the Kentucky asylum for insanity, but who murdered Judge John Elliott, has escaped and is now in Indiana. Several North Carolina wife-murderers, sent to the asylum at Raleigh, has escaped also.

THE WASHINGTON SPECIAL.

The Washington special to the STAR shows what devilment the dirty Radical set in Washington is hatching for this quiet, law abiding, peaceable old State. All such attempts we trust will prove a boomerang to hit them much harder than the Democrats of North Carolina. What must be the desperation of a party when such villainy can be concocted deliberately. The Democrats must foil them. Forewarned, forearmed.

A great oil syndicate has been formed. Every leading oil producer in the country is interested in the movement. It is a huge "bull" movement. The drills are to stop for six months. There is no doubt of this, says the Philadelphia Press, and that paper publishes some of the leading producers concerned. This will be good news to the gas men, for as oil goes up the consumption of gas will increase.

O. Wilde went for the interviewers the other night in a speech before some club in New York. He said he had been "interviewed" by men "whose ideas of painting had been evidently derived from the chromos in the stationers' shop windows, their ideas of structure from the figures in front of the tobacconists' shops, and their ideas of architecture from the local gaol." Score one for O. W.

We warn Democrats to scrutinize their ballots carefully. We have just received a telegram from Raleigh informing us that the Radicals are circulating bogus tickets for Representative-at-Large that read "Risdien Tyler Bennett." This is a fraud well calculated to deceive the unwary. Col. Bennett's name is Risdien Tyler Bennett. Democrats, see that his name is correctly spelled on your tickets.

Mrs. Langtry has got a good kind heart. She was sorely disappointed by the burning of the Park Theatre and lost considerably, but she is not cast down. A special to the Times says: "Mrs. Langtry makes the best of the misfortune. She sent fruit to the injured men at the hospital and volunteered her services for the benefit of the families of the injured, and this will be given within two weeks. She will resume her rehearsals to-morrow at the Grand Opera House."

In the United States, since 1870, 355 fire insurance companies have gone out of business. They represented a capital of $101,800,000. Most of the companies "busted!" The Philadelphia Press says: "Of the companies which have failed or retired Pennsylvania has furnished thirty-two, with a capital of $8,000,000; New York has sixty-two, with a capital of $22,000,000, and the other States in proportion, the Chicago fire giving Illinois thirty-seven companies, with a capital of $10,000,000."

The Philadelphia Press, Radical organ, says that "Massachusetts appears to be more and more held to be a doubtful State." What, Massachusetts with its enormous Radical majority? What can have caused such a tremendous revolution among the voters?

Thus far the two largest sweet potatoes reported was a 14-pounder raised by some man whose name we have forgotten and reported in one of our exchanges, and an 11-pounder raised by Mr. Eli Hinson, of Mecklenburg, and reported in the Charlotte Journal.

"Big" Richmond had a grand time on October 31. Its splendid trade procession is said to have been witnessed by seventy-five thousand people, of whom 15,000 were strangers. It took three hours for the procession to pass a given point. Rah! for the South.

In Kentucky the negroes tell when it is going to be a hard or soft winter by the thickness of the skin on the belly of a catfish. Let our weather prognosticators examine the Cape Fear catfish at once. If it is thick there will be a cold winter.

George W. Gunnell, of Fairfax, Va., is hunting one Ragland, because when Cameron was speaking he was hit by Ragland because he cheered for the "toe-nail Governor." It is thought a duel or a fight will follow.

The Statesville Democracy sent word that they are going to make the meeting there on the 3rd, Friday, the biggest meeting which has shaken up old Ireland and adjoining counties since the days of '76. Bennett, Vance, a mounted street conjobber and a basket dinner are the combined attractions. —Charlotte Journal.

THE STATE CAMPAIGN.

The campaign news in Rutherford is favorable to the Democrats, who will gain as many old Republicans as they have lost by the assistant Republicans, the Liberals. —Shelby Aurora.

Dr. Mott passed through last night; heading for the 7th district. He wore an anxious look that discredited the hopeful and confident feeling he expressed about the election. —Greensboro Patriot.

The saying of Governor Vance that the "Liberal" movement in North Carolina had the worst pedigree in the world, being born of a negro and sired by a revenue officer, promises to become a part of campaign literature. —Petersburg Index Appeal.

The speaking was well attended at the depot on Saturday last. There were some able speeches made by Col. Hall, of Wilmington; Mr. D. W. Lewis, of W. M. Baldwin, Rev. J. W. Dickson and Sheriff McCollum, of Whiteville. —Whiteville Enterprise.

Dare county sends greetings to Cherokee. We do not intend to be misrepresented in the Legislature of North Carolina again. Hon. L. C. Leatham will not only sweep this county, but the 1st district with an increased majority. —Raleigh Observer Correspondence.

Dr. C. L. Cook spoke in the court house last Tuesday night, and was followed by a preacher from Guilford by the name of Lively. Cook spoke for about an hour and a half and was vociferously cheered by the anti-revenue men and negroes. —Winston Leader.

We have seen a private letter from Senator Ransom, in which he says: "We must do everything in our power—our very utmost—to save the Legislature from the preferences of any candidate for Senator. The Legislature, the State is everything. The Senator is secondary. I would not see the Legislature imperilled to be Senator for life." —Greensboro Patriot.

Mr. David Coleman is actively canvassing the Western counties. He made a powerful speech in Franklin Monday night, and was accompanied by Lieut. Gov. Robinson, who will continue with him, working as his health will permit. The latter gentleman has been detained from an active canvass by serious illness, and is still a great sufferer, but as he can be well put in good looks until the day of election. —Asheville City.

Our correspondent telegraphs us that there were 4,000 people at Louisville, and that Gen. Cox, Col. Isaac Young and Gov. Jarvis all made good speeches. But Col. Young will hardly undertake so big a job as speaking against Cox and Jarvis again in a hurry. —Greensboro Patriot. We are glad to hear good news from Gaston county. Several prominent men as set that Gaston will give 200 majority for Democracy. Treasurer D. Jenkins will carry 150 votes for the Democrats. Liberalism is growing weaker every day. —Raleigh News-Observer.

The new candidate for Mr. Chas. A. Carson, of Polk county, who is to be run out and voted for on the day of election against Mr. Frank I. Osborne, the Democratic candidate for Sheriff. —Greensboro Patriot. Governor Vance, who has been doing worlds of good for the party in this campaign, spoke at Collins store yesterday, a crowd of 800. He was met on the way by a tremendous horseback procession, headed by Tom McCord on a mule. His speech did the people good, and when he got through it was the most enthusiastic crowd that ever assembled in Mecklenburg. Messrs. W. H. Bailey and F. I. Osborne also addressed the crowd. At night there was a big rally at Stoner Lanesome, in Steel Creek townships. About 300 people were present. —Charlotte Observer.

Spirits Turpentine.

—Mr. John H. Wheeler is said to be beyond recovery. —The Tarboro Southerner is published daily during the Fair. —Floating item: In Cherokee county, N. C., 60,000 acres of land have been sold to a large colony of Mennonites from Russia. The members of the colony are expected to reach North Carolina in a few weeks. —At the last moment Gen. Seales has been compelled by physical inability to decline to deliver the address at the reunion of the Army of Northern Virginia, which takes place in Richmond on Thursday next. —Religious revivals reported in Raleigh Advocate: Cokesberry circuit, 7 converts; Guilford circuit, 12 professions, 9 additions; Carteret circuit, during the year 130 professions, 105 additions; Tarbover circuit, 29 professions; Person circuit, 37 professions. —Charlotte Journal: Senator Vance states that the Senate committee of which he is chairman, will resume its sittings on the 18th of this month at Morganton, and will continue its inquiries regarding the administration of the affairs of the Sixth International Revenue District of North Carolina. Senators Mitchell, of Pennsylvania, and McDill, of Iowa, are the two other members of this committee. —New Bern Journal: The New Bern market is pretty well stocked with the "sneak apple." Wholesale price 75 cents per bushel. —Jones letter: I could not realize that there were such magnificent farms in eastern North Carolina, as there are in the Richlands section of Onslow county, until I passed through that section. The plantations of Messrs. E. L. Fanks, David Sandlin, Frank Thomas, Elias Walters, C. Stephens and others are as fine and productive as there are in the State, and all that section needs is transportation facilities. —Charlotte Journal: Gen. Mallett, who is now 86 years old, is one of the three surviving members of the class of 1818, at Chapel Hill—the other two being the Rev. Dr. Morrison, of Mecklenburg county, and Bishop Green, of Mississippi—and this class was the most remarkable one. Perhaps, that ever graduated at our State University. Among its twenty-eight members was one who became President of the United States (Polk), two who became Governors, two members of Congress, two Episcopal Bishops; two D.D.s in the Presbyterian church; two Judges and one Consul General, with several others less distinguished. —Charlotte Observer: The bullion assays in this city during the month of October amounted to $3,378,891. Last day morning a young man named Mizo Jenkins, who works at McCadden's factory, arrived in the city, having just about got well enough to leave his home after the cutting scrape he got into nearly two weeks ago with a man named Jim Long, at the factory. The young man carried his arm in a sling, and what was left of his nose was plastered over. The knife cut on one half

POLITICAL EXCITEMENT.

No such bitterness has existed in political circles in Wilmington in some time as is being developed between the two "factions" of the Republican party in the race for the Sheriffalty of this county. As a result there has been a good many hard things said and a good many left-handed compliments exchanged between them, both on the hustings and on the public streets, and if one-half of the charges they have preferred against each other, when the vials of their wrath have been fully opened, are really true, then it is reduced to a certainty that we have some perfectly awful characters in our midst. For the reputation of our city it is to be hoped that there is some mistake about it, and that the hot headed fellows have only been blowing off a little of the extra head of steam which they had on at the time, and that their utterances were only the meaningless vapors of an overheated imagination. So worked up were some of the colored champions of the respective candidates that they were hunting for each other on the streets a portion of the day, last Wednesday, one of them being credited with having a cowhide concealed under his coat, with which he was sworn to wear his antagonist (one Jones from Boston) to a frazzle upon the first sight. The cowardice, we understand, did not take place, but Wednesday night a very exciting demonstration occurred in the neighborhood of Princess and Second streets, and it was thought at one time that a regular war would ensue, but the crowd finally dispersed without any more serious breach of the peace than such a demonstration on the public streets must necessarily cause.

THE DEMOCRATIC MEETING AT MASONBORO—Barbecue, Oyster Roast, &c.

The Democratic meeting in Masonboro Township yesterday was largely attended, and persons who were present state that it was one of the most harmonious and enthusiastic gatherings of the sort they ever saw. First in order came the splendid oyster roast, after which the meeting came to order and was addressed by John D. Stanford, Esq., of Duplin, Cois. E. D. Hall, Roger Moore and W. B. McKoy, Esq., in words which were well calculated to arouse and enthrall the crowd. After the speaking had come to an end, followed by applause and cheers, the barbecue dinner was announced, and was partaken of with that zest and enjoyment inspired by keen appetites, cheerful surroundings and a table well-filled with delicious food. The whole affair passed off with the most perfect ease, and its influence will be felt on the 7th of November.

Judge Bond to Hold Court Here.

We understand that Judge Hugh L. Bond, of the U. S. Circuit Court, will hold court in Chambers here on Monday, the 13th of November, for the purpose of hearing argument in the somewhat celebrated case of Mrs. Virginia Matthews, of New York, against certain officials of the Carolina Central Railroad.

Young Men's Progressive Democratic Club.

Some twenty-five or thirty young Democrats attended the call for the meeting at Hook and Ladder Hall last night, the inclement weather and other meetings in progress preventing a larger attendance. After a temporary organization the meeting adjourned until Friday evening, the 10th inst.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for to-day: For the South Atlantic and Gulf States partly cloudy weather and local rains, variable winds, mostly northeasterly, stationary or lower temperature and generally higher pressure.

Registration in the First Ward up to Wednesday night footed up as follows: First Division, 100 whites, 387 colored. Second Division, 89 whites, 351 colored. Third Division, 27 whites, 218 colored. Total, 216 whites, 956 colored.

In the Fifth Ward up to the same time the footings were as follows: First Division, 158 whites, 282 colored. Second Division, 59 whites, 277 colored. Total 217 whites, 559 colored.

Magistrate's Court.

Charles Peterson was arraigned before Justice Mills, yesterday afternoon, charged with assault and battery upon Lena Pearson, colored. Defendant submitted and judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs. —Capt. Green, of the steamer North State, reports only four feet of water on the shoals between here and Fayetteville, showing a rapid falling off, which was contrary to general expectation. There is still enough water for all practical purposes, however. —For the State.

OFFICE-SEEKERS VS. OFFICEHOLDERS.

Mr. W. P. Canaday, the Republican aspirant for Congressional honors, would have the ignorant whites who were compelled by their many friends to run for office regardless of his unwillingness to do so. He claims that there is a fight going on between the officeholders and the people. He gives you the names of all the State officers, thirty-four in all, including Gov. Jarvis and Treasurer Worth's son. He thinks it is very remarkable that they should draw their pay from the people. He says it will be seen that the crowd of suckers are drawing $150,000 per annum, and yet are not satisfied, adding to it the amount paid to the 475 county Commissioners $28,500 more, making $178,500 per annum paid out to these Bourbon officials, to fight and prevent the people from getting back their rights to govern themselves; and he would have the poor negro believe it an outrage for an officeholder to be paid for his services and that if he should be elected, and his Radical friends, they would perform the duties free, and this $178,500 that you now pay to officeholders would be saved and you would be allowed to elect your own magistrates, which would be the grandest honor that could be conferred on a citizen, as well as the greatest saving to this country. He says there is desperate fight to continue to suck at the public teat, regardless of the wishes of the people. He has himself been fed from the public teat so long he feels like he has a life-long estate in the public crib, and is very indignant to see another getting a taste. He would have the public believe he would be perfectly satisfied to serve his friends for nothing, only the honor.

We will undertake here to show what Mr. W. P. Canaday has received from the City of Wilmington in the shape of public pay:

He was elected City Marshal January 18th, 1869, and served four years, three months and twenty-four days at $125 per month, making $7,760.

He was elected Mayor May 12th, 1873, and served over four years, at a salary of $1,800 per annum, and this was increased to $2,000.

February 9th, 1877, he received $945.05 extra for magistrate's courts in 46 cases, in 1876.

January 10th, 1877, the Radical city officials passed a resolution allowing W. P. Canaday, Mayor, T. C. Servoss, Clerk and Collector, G. W. Price, Marshal, and W. K. Price, Alder, to be very indignant about $1,000 extra. Out of this Mr. Canaday got for his share $308.33.

Add together what he has drawn from the City, as shown from the books at the City Hall, and you will have the sum of $16,513.38. In addition to what he got from the city he drew $5,322 as salary from the Custom House, besides fees that we could not arrive at, making the round sum $21,835.38 he has drawn from the city and government. Yet he thinks it awful for Gov. Jarvis and the State officers to draw pay for their services at the State.

HON. A. M. WADDELL AND J. W. SHACKELFORD.

Will speak in this city FRIDAY NIGHT, third November, at the Third street stand. Turn out fellow-citizens and greet them. G. J. BONEY, Chairman.
