He'll wish he had ne'er been born.

Like the flower of the field vain man Goeth forth at the break of day, But when he shall feel my grip on his heel Like the stubble he fadeth away; For I lift him high up in the air,

With his heels where his head ought to With a down-coming crash he maketh his

Has oft made the cellar doors creak. I'm a blood-red republican born, And a nihilist fearless I be: Though the head wear a crown, I would bring its pride down, If it set its proud heel upon me.

POLITICAL POINTS.

-Harper's.

- I had one of the largest funerals on record, anyhow. - Folger.

- "To what do you consider the Democratic victory in Indiana attributa-ble?" "Votes! Votes!"—From an Interrien with Senator Voorhees.

- The necessity for immediate reduction of revenues is, emphasized by the unmistakable declaration of the people against liberal expenditures for public works. - Wash. Post, Dem.

- Although the President is in Washington the Cabinet has not yet been pulled together. It takes a little time, however, to recover from a thing like that of ast week .- Phil. Times, Ind. - Until we have some mightier issue than the slops of patronage and the bitten apples of office, we cannot resume business at the old stand with any hope of success .- Wash. Republican, Stahvart. - It is said that Folger has been made the scapegoat of his party. The load he has to carry, however, is too heavy for one man. There are enough "sins" to go round the administration family. Several scapegoats are necessary to pack them all off.—Cincinnati Commercial, Rep.

-It is estimated that there are about 22,000 houses in New York each containing from four to forty families, and 3,000 more with two to three families each.

-"What are you always thinking about, Ida?" "I'm always thinking about nothing, auntie. I never think about anything, unless I happen to think of something to think about

-Ball dresses will come quite low this season.—London Queen. Den't go off now and order a half dozen; the above statement does not refer to the price. - Cininnuti Saturday Night.

-Hamlet, of the Sun, speaks today of a journalism which "bends the supple hinges of the knee that thrift may follow fawning." Hamlet, as Shakespeare pictures him, speaks of those who "crook the pregnant hinges of the knee, where thrift may follow fawning." The revised version is not an improvement.

-Importance of the Legislature : 'Cheer up, Don," said the venerable head of the house, passing the bottle of Monongahela to his despondent son. "Father," returned the Senator, "there isn't a cheer in me. We've even lost the Legislature. "But why do you lay any stress on the loss of the Legislature?" "Because," replied Don, "I had intended to petition it to change my name."-Brooklyn Eagle.

army" is Gen. George. MacDonald, now in his ninety-ninth year, with sound health and faculties unimpaired.

- President Arthur treated himself to a novelty yesterday in a visit to the White House. He must have found some familiar things which the lapse of time has not impaired .- Philadelphia Times.

- The will of John C. Hamilton, son of Alexander Hamilton, was admitted to probate in New York yesterday. Mr. Hamilton was worth several million dollars. His daughters, Charlotte, Adelaide and Alice, receive all the large bequests.

-Louis Kossuth, the patriot, writes that unless the governments of Europe cease to drain the life-sweat of the people to sustain the armies "the tottering structure of social organization cannot long escape the catastrophe of an almighty smash

FASHION NOTES.

- Venetian point lace is the most elegant garniture for velvet dresses. - Terra-cotta silk handkerchiefs are worn in the outside pocket of cloth redingotes.

- As the fashion for untrimmed tight sleeves has come. in, over-cuffs of white linen are again worn. - Low frocks of cashmere are revived for little girls, and are worn over white embroidered guimpes. - The newest wraps are padded on the shoulders to elevate them in the way that dress sleeves are raised. - Soft round felt hats, with Alpine crown and narrow brim, are trimmed with cock's feathers, a small head of a cock, and folds of velvet the color of the felt, — Red cashmere pelisses for little | This company continues to write po girls are pleated from the neck down, tied at the waist with a belt ribbon, and have a pelerine cape so long that it nearly conceals the garment under it. - The climax of the fancy for red shades is found in a strawberry red velvet mantle, trimmed with Turkish embroidery of many colors and chenille fringe that embodies all these colors.

Bright's Disease, Diabetes. Beware of the stuff that pretends to cure these diseases or other serious Kidney, Urinary or Liver Diseases, as they only relieve for a time and make you ten times worse afterwards, but rely solely on Hop Bitters, the only remedy that will surely and per-manently cure you. It destroys and re-moves the cause of disease so effectually that it never returns.

A Delightful Novelty. Ladies prefer Floreston Cologne because they find this lasting combination of exquisite perfumes a delightful novelty.

Regarded by Scholars in both America and Eng. Contains thousands of words not to be found in any other Dictionary. Excels all other works in the completeness of its vocabulary. Supplementary to the general vocabulary are valuable Articles, Lists, Rules, Tables, etc. The Pronunciation, Etymology and Definition of words are correctly given.

Embraces 2,058 royal quarte pages, with over 1,100 illustrations and four illuminated plates. Recommended in the strongest terms by the most competent judges as the best Dictionary of the English Language. Students of all classes will find the special addi-tional matter of great value and practical use. Decidedly the most satisfactory and reliable work of its kind. Illustrations are introduced liberally throughout the work.

Challenge comparison with any work of like character. The Supplement places it in advance of all other similar works. Is independent of all sects, parties, and idiosyncracies of every kind. Omits nothing that is essential to a Standard Unabridged Dictionary. New Words to the extent of thousands can be found explained only in its pages. A vocabulary of Synonymes of 35,000 words is a feature of the new edition. Reviewers have uniformly commended the new edition in the highest terms.

When you read of a medicine that will cure all diseases, beware of it, for every scientific physician on earth knows how fallacious such state can on earth knows how fallacions such state-ments are. But when you lead of a medicine compounded by a regular physician and surgeon of high standing, that claims to cure only a ser tain disease, and furnishes high proof that it does that it will cure you. DR V. R. STONE, late physician and surgeon of the U.S.A., has placed before the public a preparation called.
