WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, NOVEMBER 22, 1882.

WHOLE NO. 4757

Mr. James A. Cowardin, founder and senior editor of the Dispatch, died in Richmond, yesterday, in his 72d year.

Democratic Governor-elect Pattison, of Pennsylvania, declines the use of the military at public cost when he is inaugurated.

"To my mind the solemnness of the act is marred by the intrusion of such needless and inopportune display.

The Western Associated Press and the New York Associated Press have consolidated with Charles A. Dana, of the New York Sun, as President.

Galloway's majority for Solicitor is 2,499.

The negro boy Cox, on trial for murder in Wayne, has been acquitted.

Bishop Merrill will preside at the Northern Methodist Conference to convene in Winston, N. C., January 21st, 1883.

The Methodists are beginning to discuss who shall be the successor of the late Dr. Craven as President of Trinity College.

Gen. Seales was elected two years ago by 2,043 majority. He is elected this year by 2,590--an increase of 547 votes.

The friends of ex-Representative Yeates will be glad to learn that he has recovered entirely from the recent mental attack that sent him to the asylum.

Gastonia Gazette: We are pleased to learn that Mr. C. J. Linberger has satisfactorily arranged with his creditors on a plan to pay his debts.

Raleigh Visitor: The cotton gin of Mrs. Gaston H. Wilder, who lives five miles east of this city, was entirely destroyed by fire about 5 o'clock this morning. Loss $2,000. No insurance.

New Berne Nat Shell: The Signal Corps station at Cape Hatteras, N. C., reports that a life boat twenty-six feet long, painted white, named Rotterdam, was found on the beach near Station 19, on the 8th inst., by a native.

Greenville Reflector: There will be a meeting in the Court House, in Greenville, on Saturday, November 25th, for the purpose of taking some steps towards building a railroad from some point on the W. & R. R., to Greenville.

Roxboro News: On Monday evening, about 4 o'clock, we discovered a crowd gathered in front of our office, and upon ascertaining the cause we learned the field--and we regret that we cannot vote to elect Zeb Vance over again! We would doubly elect him if we could.

Milton Chronicle: We are unfeared by "promises"--even as to our vote for U. S. Senator. But the gifted and courtly Ransom in the case against the field--and we regret that we cannot vote to elect Zeb Vance over again!

Winston Sentinel: On the 6th day of January, 1883, our time-honored sister town of Salem will have reached the age of 117 years, the first tree having been felled on that day, in the year 1766, for the erection of the first building.

The Baltimore American takes a just view of the Chalmers matter in this paragraph:

"There exists no power anywhere to alter a ballot, even though cast under a mistake. To admit that any such power exists would lead to far greater evils than it would cure."

It is decided by the Electoral Commission that even Congress could not go behind the returns; still less could it go behind the ballots. Chalmers has, of course, a strong equitable claim in contesting his seat in Congress, but a Democratic committee of elections will not be likely to count the Chalmers' vote for Chalmers."

The American is a Republican paper and a correct opinion in a question of this sort is, therefore, the more remarkable.

State for the noble and generous way in which you and your county have responded to the call of Democracy and Constitutional Government.

The off-shore storm signal was flying yesterday.

The sun set clear yesterday afternoon, which is said to be a certain indication of good weather.

A northeast storm prevailed all of Monday night, and yesterday the weather was cold and rainy.

The young folks are beginning to save up their dimes for Christmas, which will be a month off Saturday.

Judge Dillon, who was here in the Carolina Central Railroad case, registered in Washington on Saturday.

The magistrates have had very little to do lately, people generally having been on their good behavior since the election.

Mary Davis, the insane colored woman, mentioned several times in this column recently, is to be taken to the Goldsboro Asylum to-day.

Yesterday morning, the same as on the morning previous, there was only one case of "drunk and down" to claim the Mayor's consideration.

The ladies of St. Paul's Episcopal church are requested to meet at the rectory this morning at 11 o'clock. The young ladies are particularly requested to attend.

A colored man, sick and destitute, and who says he belongs on one of the sounds, was taken care of at the station house Monday night and yesterday sent to the City Hospital.

There were quite a number of Baltimoreans and others in the city yesterday, in attendance upon the railroad meetings. They were all expected to leave for their homes last evening.

The Board of Directors of the Wilmington & Weldon Railroad Company, at their meeting yesterday, declared a semi-annual dividend of 3 per cent., payable on or after the 15th of January, ensuing.

A scrimmage occurred between two colored men at the foot of Market street, yesterday afternoon, but after a tumble in the mud, and a few mutual poundings they were separated and adjourned to get a "smile."

City Improvements.

But few of our citizens really have any idea of the amount of improvement that has been going on in some portions of Wilmington right recently.

In order to become fully acquainted with it one must take a stroll, particularly through those sections bordering on the suburban. Not only have a great number of new dwellings been erected, many of them neat and handsome cottages, but a great many of the buildings have been enlarged and otherwise improved.

Another noticeable fact is, that more point is being used than for some time past, which has a powerful effect in rejuvenating things and giving a city a healthy and prosperous appearance.

Prisoners in the County Jail.

There are at present only twelve prisoners in the county jail, of which five are from Pender and one a United States prisoner, in for costs.

There are really, at the present writing, only three Criminal Court cases in jail, and but for the fact that there are quite a number of continuances to be disposed of there would be a very light docket for the approaching term, commencing next Monday.

A Fight, but Nobody Hurt.

Two colored men got into a fight at the corner of Dock and Front streets, yesterday afternoon, and broke a glass out of a show case. They were arrested and taken to the guard house, where they were recognized for their appearance before Mayor Smith this morning. There was nobody hurt.

Unavailable Matter.

The following is the unavailable matter remaining in the city postoffice:

Mrs. Mollie F. Bryant, New Milford; E. M. Kerman, Oregon Mills, South Creek; W. M. Jackson, Hampshire, Va.
