the next House is overwhelmingly Demo-"He is beginning, not to repent that he has made the attempt, but to discover that he has made a mistake in trying to build up the disreputable elements of the South at the expense of its good citizens. The administration is not very happy over the Mahone movement, or the coalition in North Carolina, or that with Chalmers. The President himself and Secretary Folger have come to regard the rag-tag and bob-tail of Southern politics, who have been dragged into the Republican party, mainly by the efforts of such politicians as William E. Chandler and Frank Hatton as a serious load. Mr. Folger has never had any sympathy with this brace of patriots, and it the general impression that Secretary Frelinghuysen has agreed with him, and now Mr. Arthur is coming to the same - Asheville Citizen: It is a sinmind. - Charlotte Observer: Bishop H. P. Northrop will preach at St. James church near Concord, next Sunday. — In the event that the canvassing board to assemble in Raleigh on the 30th inst., declares Col. Bennett elected, as Congressman-at-Large from the State of North Carolina, it may be set down as a fact that Col. Dockery will contest for the place, first before the canvassing board, and failing there, before Congress itself. — As a result of the revival which has been in progress at Tryon street Methodist church in this city for the past week, forty-six persons connected themselves with the church last Sunday, and there was an additional accession of nineteen members last night, making a total of sixtyfive. - Six new large brick stores have been crected in Statesville during the past building season, and the old 'burg begins to put on metropolitan airs. —— It is now generally conceded that if Col. R. F. Armfield had been re-nominated for Congress Dr. York would not have run against him, and there would have been no Liberal victory in the seventh district. — A national bank with a capital of fifty thousand dollars is shortly to be established in Statesville. The project is being worked up by Mr. W. J. - Raleigh Neits-Observer : About a year ago the dwelling house of Mr. John Earp, near Dunnsville, was destroyed by fire, eaused by the explosion of a fire cracker. Early yesterday morning his saw mill, grist mill and cotton gin, all connected with each other and operated by waterpower, were found to be on fire and were entirely destroyed, causing quite a heavy loss. The fire bears every mark of the work of an incendiary. —— In North Carolina there are fifteen national banks, with a capital of $2,501,000, and a surplus fund of $474.956. The individual deposits amount to $2,889,789, and other deposits to $190,840. The loans and discounts are $4.738,012. Probably, adding the business of the State and private banks, the loans and discounts would reach $6,000,000. - Sunday morning at 10 o'clock Jesse Stewart a negro lad nincteen years of age, killed himself accidently at his home on Lenoir street, between Dawson and Mc-Dowell. He had been away from Raleigh three weeks at work and with part of his earnings had purchased a twenty-two cali bre revolver. He was showing this to a girl in a room and pointed it at her, and was about to pull the trigger, when she seized the pistol and looked at it, saying that two barrels were loaded. He then deliberately took the pistol, placed the muzzle within a few inches of his left breast and pulled the trigger, saying a second before, 'your see it can't hurt." The reputation Dr. Lafferty has achieved in this department of iterature is sufficient to insure him a full house on both occasions. The humorous vein which seems to predominate in his nature is bound to attract, while, at the same time, it is not of a nature to lower his standard of Christian piety.

Testimonial. We examined yesterday a very handsomely executed copy of resolutions, inclosed in an elegant gilt frame, passed at the fifteenth annual session of the M. W. District Grand Ledge North, L. O. B. B., held at Richmond, January 14th, 25th and 26th, 1882, expressive of the respect of the Grand Lodge for Mr. J. T. Macks, of this city, and of thanks for the "able, zealous and conscientious performance of his duties," etc., signed by M. J. Solomon, President, and L. B. Wolfe, Secretary.

The resolutions are very complimentary o the former presiding officer of the Grand an Island at Auction. The market for islands was not very strong yesterday, and only the largest sort were found to be at all saleable. For instance, "Big Island," about nine or ten miles down the river, was put up at auction and knocked down by Messrs. Cronly & Morris, auctionears, to Mr. ["Cash" for $355. The market closed weak, with a downward tendency. Mayor's Court.
