OUTLINES.

Gustave Dore, the well known artist, is dead. - Small-pox is increasing at Salem, Va., and business is demoralized. - The riots at Opelika, Ala., have been renewed; the military of Montgomery are under orders and ready to go there. -

Jno. Bailey chief clerk of the U. S. House of Representatives, it is charged, has been kept in position several years through the influence of the Washington Gas Co., for the purpose of influencing legislation in their interest. - Mercury 20 degrees below zero at Chicago yesterday morning; at Winnepeg It was 60 below. - The Senate considered the Tariff bill yesterday. Both houses of the New Jersey Legislature declared in favor of McPherson for re-election as U. S. Senator. - The wife of a laborer, at Milwaukee, Wis., killed her three children and attempted to hang herself. - The Montgomery Gravs restored order at Opelika, Ala., and assisted in arresting the leaders of the riot, --Ten houses burned at the town of Hertford N. C., Sunday; but little insurance. - The Princess Louise leaves Charleston today for Bermuda; the Marquis of Lorne returns to Canada. - The failure of the Chicago grocery firm of Boice, Foy & Co. is immonisced; liabilities about $450,000, as sels something less. - Four men killed by a railroad accident near Cumberland, Mil - The Legislature of West Virginia has chosen Representative Kenna for 1 S Senator. - New York markets: Money 34:014 per cent.: cotton quiet and firm at 104/2/104 cents; southern flour quiet and firm at $4 30@6 85; wheat, ungraded winter red 98c@$1 16; corn, ungraded 63 @7c. rosin steady and quiet at $1 60@ 1 67+; spirits turpentine firm at 524@53c

Mrs. Langtry played to rather thin louses at St. Louis. She is now in Memphis.

During 1882 the total foreign immigration was 712,542. Thus far there is a marked falling off.

The small-pox is gradually spreading in many directions and will continue to spread, we suppose.

Sarah Bernhardt has lost nearly all she owned by the failure of a bank in which was nearly all she had made.

Father Ryan is in Boston and is well treated. He preached to 3,000 people on the Sunday preceding the

The people of Opelika, Alabama, have begun their deviltry again. That little town ought to be sup-

It is said to be a fact that the Tariff Commission are so expert that they have got some articles both on the free and on the taxed lists. Gustave Dore, the greatest painter and designer in France, and perhaps in the world, is dead. His productions were of very extraordinary power, brilliancy and originality. There had not been a Democratic Governor of Pennsylvania for twenty-two years until Mr. Pattison took his seat. In other years there were many men of his party who filled the chair of Chief Executive, some ten or

In 1830, the wool clip of the world was 326 million pounds. It is now five times that sum. In 1878 the United States produced 208 million pounds, and consumed 250 million. In North Carolina the dogs consume the wool, or its equivalent.

"I have so thoroughly enjoyed this life," writes M. Renan in the Revue des Reux Mondes, "that I really have no right to claim a compensation on the other side of the grave, "- Erchange.

Just so, but old fellow you got it all on a credit and if you die in debt you will have to pay for it "on the other side of the grave" and don't F. L. Meares, N. F. Parker. you forget it.

The immediate cause of Mr. Shackelford's death was blood poisoning; the primary cause was pneumonia. In addition to his brother from this place, his wife' and Dr. Thompson, of Onslow, who were with him, there were also Col. L. W. Humphrey, of Goldsboro, his uncle, Miss Humphrey, and a brother from Baltimore.

A friend asks for a criticism on Christian Reid's last novel from our pen. We have not read it, and if we had read it, we would not review it. We have had quite enough of criticising North Caroliua books. We prefer to write about works from abroad, so we can be candid without offence. The only kind of North Carolina books we can discuss with safety are those of practical use.

- Hickory Press: A Mrs. Tisdale, an elderly lady living in the vicinity of Old Fort, committed suicide last Wednesday night about 11 o'clock. She had been afflicted with insanity for about 12 years.

- Boston Post: Senator Ransom. of North Carolina, prays the Almighty for strength to discharge his duty to his State and country. An Illinois Congressman would have sought strength at the hands

- Greensboro Patriot: The Legislature can take a long stride in the way of equalizing taxation in the State by anpointing a tax commission to revise the tax laws. — We remind the Legislature, in no spirit of "grumbling," however, that seventeen legislative days have passed, and only the most trivial local legislation has

- Raleigh News-Observer; No election will be ordered to fill the vacancy in Congress, caused by the death of Hon. J. W. Shackelford, from the Third District. — Capt. Stamps, in his report to the Legislature, says of the drowning of the convicts: That there was some water in the boat, perhaps from two to three inches in the centre of the boat. I think highly certain from the evidence, and that there were more in the boat than could safely be carried over, the terrible result makes conclusive; but that the accident never would have occurred had it not been for the panic among the men, is equally as certain. It was a most deplorable affair, one that is deeply regretted by every one in any way connected with it, but after as close and impartial an investigation as I am capable of making. I can fix no criminal negligence

That's right; North Carolina is the -Just after the war Col. Alfred Belo left Salem, N. C., for Texas, making the whole trip on horseback and having only ten dollars in his pocket. By energy and hard work he accumulated wealth and now he is the editor and principal proprietor of the Galveston Daily News, the leading and most prosperous journal in the Southwest. A few years ago Col. H. F. Hodges left Watauga county and pitched his tent in Paris, Lamar county, Texas. His single lucrative possession was a North Carolina license to practice law. He is standing up on the top rung, being considered the lead-ing criminal lawyer of Texas and possessing a law practice which yields him a large income. He refused the Democratic nomnation for Congress last year.

The Lost Cause-One of the Sufferers. There is a great sufferer in this city at the present time in the person of Mr. Benjamin Clark, who was wounded in the battle of Cedar Run, Virginia, in 1862, and has since been languishing under the severe infliction. He has recently been confined to his room, and yesterday we were informed that his condition was considered much worse. Mr. Clark was a private in Company I, 18th N. C. Troops, was a gallant soldier and was greatly esteemed by his comrades. Quite a number of these reside in Wilmington, and we learn that they propose some organized effort for his benefit. With this object in view a meeting of the surviving members of the Company will be held at Mr. B. F. White's store this evening, at 8 o'clock, and a full attendance is earnestly requested. The Literary Club.

Those who attended the meeting of the Literary Club last evening enjoyed a fine entertainment. Messrs. W. M. Cumming, E. H. Freeman, W. S. Briggs and G. P. Macindoe favored the club with very nice

Fell Down a Hatchway.

Albert Koch, a seaman, belonging on the German barque Edward Pens, accidentally fell down the hatchway of that vessel, while engaged at work, and fractured one or more of his ribs. He was taken to the Marine-Hospital, where it is supposed he will be confined for some weeks. He is a young man, only about 23 years of age.

Oscar Madisen, a deserter from the Norwegian brig Alaska, was committed to jail yesterday, on a warrant issued by Justice Gerdner, to await the pleasure of the masfer, Capt. Halcrow. He was before the Mayor in the morning for acting disorderly.

- The mercury in the STAR office thermometer was down to 31 at 6 A. M. yesterday. At 6 P. M. it stood at 39.

- Dr. Geo. H. West, formerly of this city, but now of Newton, Catawba county, is here on a visit to his relatives and friends.

- The sun shone out brightly and beautifully yesterday, and everybody fel like appreciating it after being under a cloud so many weary days. - The firm of Mallard & Houston, at Duplin Roads, has been dissolved, and Mr. Houston, we understand, will hereafter do business in Savannah. - The only case for the Mayor yesterday morning was that of Oscar Madisen, a seaman, charged with disorderly conduct, and he wasturned over to his captain. - Sarah Waters and Harry Winstead, both colored, were arrested yesterday on alias capias warrants for costs in Justice Millis' Court, and committed to the sheriff's custody.

- A colored man, name not ascertained, was reported sick and down at a store over Boney Bridge, yesterday afternoon, and the Chief of Police directed that he be taken to the City Hospital.

The Southern Ore Company's Works-A Visit to Them by a Committee of

Our Business Men. We understand that a number of our prominent citizens and business men, consisting of Messrs. Donald MacRae, Edward Kidder, Maj. C. M. Stedman, Col. C. L. Grafflin; Mr. Chamberlain, Capt. F. W. Clarke, and Mr. J. H. Thorpe, of the Carolina Central Railroad; Mr. Wm. Latimer, of Stedman & Latimer, and Mr. H. A. Burr, of Hart, Bailey & Co., and others, visited the works of the Southern Ore Company in this city, by invitation, yesterday, where they were met by Mr. J. Reno, chief of the firm, his metalurgist, Mr. Reese, and Assistant Manager, Mr. S. E. Bear, who demonstrated and explained to them the process of reducing the ore and determination of the value of the precious metals of the North Carolina sulphuretted gold ores, and at the close of the visit the party expressed their satisfaction at the evidence they had received of the entire feasibility of the enterprise-these gentlemen of the Southern Ore Company have undertaken. The works are now said to be complete and established, the Company have secured a charter from the Legislature, and we are informed that they will soon be in readiness o commence operations.

Baker and Farron.

Next Monday night Messrs. Bacon and Farron appear at our Opera House for the first time. As fun-makers and Dutch comedians they are said to have no equals. The Buffalo Telegraph says:

"That those clever character actors, Baker and Farron, and their 'Chris and Lena,' have not lost in popularity, is attested by the fact that last evening the Academy of Music was comfortably killed. The audience was kept in the best of humor, and laughed and applauded in a manner cheering to those on the stage. Baker and Farron are just as entertaining as ever; we don't know but what their acting and singing shows improvement. It is a genuine treat to hear and see them in 'Little Fraud, Muldoon Guards,' 'The Quarrelsome Lovers' and 'Tim Flaherty;' and the meeting between Chris and Tim is irresistibly

The carpenter of the Norwegian barque Germania stove an axe into one of his feet yesterday, cutting it badly. He was taken to the Marine Hospital for treatment.

RIVER AND MARINE.

- Capt. S. M. Rhodes was in to see us yesterday, and give us a correct version of the loss of his vessel, the Schr Julia Seldon, some misrepresentations in regard to which, he says, have appeared in some of the public prints. She was bound from Elizabeth City to Georgetown, S C., with a cargo of corn, and, having sprung a leak, and being in imminent danger of sinking, Capt. Rhodes run her ashore on the 29th ult., on Little River Bar, S. C., in order to prevent a more serious disaster than the mere loss of the vessel and the cargo, The schooner proved a total loss, as did also the cargo, with the exception of about one hundred and fifty bushels of corn, which were saved in a damaged condition through the intervention of Capt. Burns, of the Schr. Annie, who came to his assistance. Capt. Burns also aided Capt. Rhodes in saving part of the rigging and sails in damaged condition, which was accomplished in the midst of a high wind and heavy sea. The Julia Seldon was the property of C. W. Grandy & Son, of Norfolk, and D. M. Tate, of Kitty Hawk, N. C. Mr. W. E. Eads, Warrentown, N. C., The cargo was covered by insurance, but it is not known whether the schooner was inHONORS TO THE DEAD.

The Late Hon. John W. Shackelford. The remains of this much lamented gentleman reached Goldsboro on Friday night, at 10 o'clock, the train being delayed on the way. They were immediately transferred to the New Berne train, and placed in a car specially ordered for their occupation; a delegation from the State Legislature, the friends and relatives of the family and a portion of the delegation from Kinston meeting and transferring the remains to the said car. Of course every possible attention and honor was paid, and the sad ly-bereaved widow was greatly comforted by these manifestations of sympathy in her behalf, as well as by the evidence of the high estimation in which her husband

We are informed, in this connection, that the Congressional delegation from Washngton accompanying the remains were a noble-hearted set of men, and appeared to feel deeply the solemnity of the occasion. Their names are as follows; Senators Philetus Sawyer, of Wisconsin; Howell E. Jackson, of Tennessee, and our own Matt W. Ransom; and Representatives Mark L. De Motte, of Indiana; John P. Leedom, of Ohio; Orlando Hubbs, of North Carolina; L. C. Latham, of North Carolina; Deputy Sergeant-at-Arms Thomas [Cavanaugh, of New York, and Mr. Shackelford's devoted friend, G. R. Miller, Esq., formerly of this State, but now residing in Washington

Arriving at Kinston at midnight, the remains were placed in state at the Court House, and a guard of honor, composed of prominent citizens of Kinston, took charge for the night, a committee of gentlemen from Richlands, the home of the deceased, also sharing in this mark of respect.

Upon reaching Richlands, in Onslow county, the body was conveyed to the church, where addresses were delivered by Senator Jackson, Hon. M. L. DeMotte and Senator Ransom, and such was the character of the remarks that they will never be forgotten by those present.

Then followed the usual funeral services, conducted by the Rev. T. Page Ricaud, of this city, and then the remains of the deceased were consigned to their last earthly resting place.

The concourse of people, we learn, was very large, considering the state of the weather, being estimated at fully one thousand, and the manifestation of sympathy was universal. Men wept there that afternoon, we are told, that were never known to weep before

What is the lesson this solemn dispensation teaches us, is better described by ouoting from Gray's immortal elegy: 'The boast of heraldry, the pomp of power Or all that wealth or beauty e'er gave,

Await, alike, the inevitable hour-The path of glory leads but to the grave.

New Hanover and Her Taxes.

It was at first supposed that New Hanover county was third in the list of counties in the amount of taxes paid to the State, Wake and Mecklenburg leading her, but this proves to be a mistake, and Wake only exceeds New Hanover in the amount

By the way, New Hanover settled with the County Treasurer last week, which is something to boast of when it is understood that a settlement is not compelled to be made until the first Monday in February, and then the law allows an extension of some weeks, which is frequently taken advantage of by counties not prepared to settle promptly.
