When the Robt, E. Lee family get the money due them from the U.S. Government it is said they will have $150,000 more than they have now.

Rumor credits Senator Hampton with the purpose of soon retiring from the Senate. He says he will never be a candidate for office again.

There was some talk in Washington of a duel between Haskell and Townsend-both Northern men. There is not the slightest danger of any powder being burned. They are not brimstone factories but wind-

Robert Giffen, President of the Statistical Society of London, estimates that in 100 years, by 1992, there will be in the United States 800,000,000, inhabitants. In 75 years there will be 400,000,000. In 25 years 100,000,000. "Vat a country and vat a peebles."

It is believed in Washington that the Republicans in the Congress have a very satisfactory understanding with the monopolists. The New York World thus states it:

The consideration promised by the tariff will be whatever money may be needed for the exigencies of the Republican cam-

We said the other day that the Queen's speech from the throne was written by Premier Gladstone. We take it all back. The first sentence is as follows:

"I have summoned you later than usual, because of the lateness of the last session. Wales must have performed that thetorical and grammatical feat.

The excitement in London over the evidence in the Irish assassin cases is intense. Steadily the uncovering of the great crime is progressing. Another informer in the person of Joseph Smith is found. There are now twenty-one prisoners who are charged with the murders in Phornix Park.

Haskell, Republican, attempted to gag the Democrats in the House. Great excitement followed. The purpose was to allow one hour to debate 60 pages of the tariff report. One Republican, Robinson, of Mass., said that Haskell's motion was not in order. The Richmond Dispatch's letter from Washington says:

A Republican who knows said to night that the Speaker would have decided to-day in favor of Haskell, but was deterred by Robinson's opposition."

Press. It has one column headed "Crimes of the Day." It records among others the following instructive incidents reflecting Northern civilization and love for crime: At Utica Henry Sheldon murders his wife and takes his own life; in Indiana Martin Parker stabs one Lebke; the wife of one of the Star Route thieves takes her own life in Kansas; and three cases of defaulting are given. So bad are men becoming in New York State a bill has been introduced to establish a whipping post for wife-beaters. This is only a glimpse at one day's crime in the rich and boastful North. — Laurinburg Exchange: Mrs. Sarah Shaw, widow of the late Alexander Shaw, departed this life at her residence a few miles from this place on Tuesday last, at the advanced age of 81 years. Petersburg Index-Appeal: Wm. Jenkins, a young man well known in this city, and for the past year or so employed as night clerk at the Bollingbrook Hotel, died rather suddenly at the residence of Mr. Wm. Long, on High street, night before last. He was a native of Jackson, N. C., but had been living in Petersburg for quite a number of years. - Raleigh News-Observer: The Shaw University has a brass band, whose members are students. — Two weeks ago a white man named Lloyd, living in Granville county, is said to have whipped his wife in a most cruel and brutal manner. He fled and efforts were made to capture him, warrants f or his arrest having been sent to all the counties in this section. Lloyd when he left took with him his three children, two girls, aged 3 and 5 years, and a boy aged 8. Yesterday evening officer Lewellyn, in company with Mr. Belvin, arrested Lloy. He was placed in jail, while the three children were sent to

- Greensboro Patriot: Mrs. Dr. Worth is again very ill at Randleman. -It is conceded that Senator Linney made very able speech in opposition to the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad bill. -It is said that more charters have been granted by this Legislature than ever before known in the history of legislation. County commissioners could do the same work just as well and much cheaper. -Wilmington's six per cent. bonds are selling at par. An honest, economical Democratic administration has done the work. From an empty name the city sinking fund has become a solid reality. — Code Commissioner Henderson passed through last night going to his home in Salisbury. He thinks the code will be ready for the Legislature in a few days, and that it will pass both Houses without material amendment. - Charlotte Observer: A perfect gold fever is raging in Polk county, and the yellow metal is being brought to the surface in great quantities. - There is a big mad dog excitement at Eldorado, in Polk county, and the people are killing their dogs right and left. —Horace Kellogg, who in 1880 was general revenue agent for North and South Carolina, with headquarters at Charlotte, but who was transferred to California, arrived in the city yesterday after an absence of three vears. He has been reappointed general agent for the two States, and succeeds Gen. Grimison, —Mr. Wm. Neill, of Granite Hill, Iredell county, who was in the city yesterday, reports the loss by fire, on last Wednesday, of his dwelling house and kitchen. The fire was accidental and originated in the kitchen. Most of the furniture was saved, but the dwelling, a two story frame building, was entirely destroyed. Mr. Neill had no insuranc.

- New Berne Journal: There are four hundred and eighty-four scholars in the graded school enpolled up to this date. - Mrs. Kinsey, consort of John A. Kinsey, of Jones county, departed this life at the home of her husband Thursday evening, Feb. 15th. — D. L. Burgess, a well known citizen of Hyde, died a few days ago. - Nine steamers at the wharfs vesterday morning, at one time. One of our merchants said it reminded him somewhat of Baltimore. - Seven cases of pneumonia in one family: that of Mr. Buck, near Swift Creek Bridge. — Capt. W. B. Dixon arrived from Portsmouth, N C., yesterday evening and 'tells that there was quite an excitement on the Island on Wednesday over the killing of a large bear by E. G. Dixon and others, which measured seven feet in length from tip to tip.

Beaufort item: Quite a number of our law-makers came down last Saturday. That kind treatment given them by the Cotton Exchange in your city was visible even when they arrived. The water down here continued to affect some of them.

- Tarboro Guide: The STAR has proven incontestibly, that "Cousin Sallie Dillard" was an old story revamped and dressed by Ham Jones. - Shad are being caught in the Tar River at this place, but oh, oh!!! $1.50 per pair. —Judge Gilliam mentions the instance of the failure of Mr. Simmons, of Edenton, before the war, for $900,000. Simmons was an extensive ship owner. Judge G. drew the instrument. —On Friday of last week, George Bennett, a shingle man, was killed by a falling tree in Coky swamp. —At a meeting of the creditors of W. S. Battle, held at Rocky Mount yesterday, it was agreed that the trustees should run the farms until next Fall. The mills will be run for 90 days, when the trustees are to report. —We are informed that the assignment of Mr. W. S. Battle was not the sole cause of the failure of Hon. K. P. Battle, as reported in the State press: - The Wilmington STAR and Greensboro Patrio don't take stock in a $40,000 Governor's Palace. The Legislature thinks we are all rich, with no poor kin, and our school fund too big. Next, a $10,000 salary. - Charlotte Journal: The ginhouse of Mr. J. R. Cuthbertson, who lives near the village of Matthews, was destroyed early yesterday morning by fire.

Intelligence reached the city yesterday that small pox had made its appearance in Burke county, about eight miles from Morganton ganton. —Only yesterday, Mr. Turner Barber, a merchant of Lancaster Co., S. C., Barber, a merchant of Lancaster Co., S. C., bought a large stock of goods from the merchants here after having tried the Charleston market in every line. ——Rev. J. F. Lattimer, Ph. D., Professor of Greek in Davidson College, has received a call to the pastorate of the Presbyterian church of Lexington, Virginia. —The roof of the new Baptist Church, on Northeast Tryon street, has been finished.

Before us lies the Philadelphia It is made of a fine quality of slate and is modeled after the latest style for churches.

No better evidence of the progress of house-building is wanted than the fact that one Charlotte hardware house alone sold during the past week more than four hundred kegs of nails, being on an average about seventy kegs per day. ——For some days past that part of Mecklenburg county lying between Huntersville and Catawba river, has been fluttering with the wings of robins which have recently migrated in great numbers to our latitude. A eliable gentleman who lives at a point midway between Huntersville and the river estimates their number at not less than 50,000, 000 and says they are about to cover the face of all creation in that neighborhood. Mr. Harry Davis, of the Yadkin Chlorination Works, has gone back North to live, carrying back with him unpleasant recollections of the South. The truth is, that Mr. Davis associated exclusively with negroes and after a four years stay, leaves absolutely without the crudest knowledge of what Southern people are like. — Shelby item: The female college building which is just receiving the finishing touch, is soon to be enclosed by a substantial wire fence. The college is a magnificent and commodious structure.

- The birthday item of George Washington and Rev. F. W. E. Peschau formed a sort of copartnership in Sunday's paper, and we were sorry to see that the 'father of his country" got three lines that didn't belong to him, but to the Rev. Mr. P. and his good lady. That was not fair of George, but a certain printer is implicated in the transaction, and will have to bear the blame.

Robbers on the Rampage.

The Club Rooms of Mr. F. W. Ortman, on Second, between Market and Princess street, were entered on Sunday night last and robbed of a quantity of fine liquors and cigars. The thief also rifled the money draw of its contents, which happened to be only fifty cents. Entrance was effected through the front door, one of the large plates of glass in the middle of the same having been broken and the fragments carefully removed and laid to one side of the door. The thief then crawled through the aperture, or put an accomplice through.

Another establishment was entered in a similar manner the same night.

Foreign Exports. The foreign shipments yesterday were as follows: The British brig Alaska, Capt. Halcrow, for Liverpool, by Messrs. DeRosset & Co. and Eugene McDonnell, with 1,800 bales of cotton, 224 barrels of tar, 50 barrels of crude turpentine and 201 bargum thus, valued at $87, 594; and the Norwegian barque Windsor, Captain Walloe, for Liverpool, by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co., with 3,038 barrels of tar, valued at $6,835. Total value of foreign exports for the day

Phosphates Near Wilmington.

An immense bed of phosphates has been discovered in Brunswick county, on the line of the Carolina Central Railroad and about eleven miles from the city. It is also near Hood's Creek, and therefore convenient to market either by water or rail. Dr. D. M. Buie, who has been up there twice during the past week, has analyzed the phosphates and pronounces it of the best.

Two gentlemen went from this city to Lilliput plantation, a short distance down the river, and burnt off some of the old fields, on Thursday. The net result of the sport was twenty-seven rabbits, twelve coons and two wild cats, Sudden Death in a Church. Quite a consternation was created at St. Stephen's A. M. E. Church, corner of Fifth and Red Cross streets. Sunday night, by a sudden death which occurred in the congregation. The pastor had taken his text and had proceeded with his discourse a few minutes when a commotion commenced and it was ascertained that a colored woman named Rachel Martin had fallen in a fit of some kind. Water was procured and thrown in her face and other simple remedies applied without success, until finally Dr. McDonald, who had been summoned came in, examined the patient and announced that she was dead, being in all probability a victim of heart disease.

Deceased, who was about fifty years of age, was removed to the house of her son, C. M. Martin, in the neighborhood of Fourth and Brunswick streets, where she had resided. An inquest was not deemed

The "Liverpool Cotton Merchant." "Dr." J. W. Wilbourn, the so-called cotton merchant, who flourished so extensively here a few months ago and then as suddenly collapsed, came to the surface again for a short time last week. It will be remembered that at a term of the Criminal Court in the latter part of last year he was convicted of false pretense and sentenced to five years' imprisonment in the penitentiary. From this judgment he appealed to the Supreme Court, which granted him a new trial on some technicality. The new hearing came off on Saturday last, and the jury, after a short absence, returned a verdict of guilty, whereupon he was re-sentenced to the penitentiary for the term of five years.

Mr. Jno. C. Davis assisted Solicitor Moore in the prosecution and Mr. E. H.

King appeared for the cotton merchant. Yesterday the "Doctor" showed his appreciation of his counsel's efforts in his behalf by sending for him and telling him not to feel badly because he had failed to get him off, but to bring him a blank draft and he would do him handsome. The material was produced and the gentleman from Liverpool proceeded to fill out a draft on the Bank of Victoria, in British Columbia, for $2,000, stating that he had $4,000 on deposit in that bank. He subsequently sent for his counsel, however, and informed him that upon reflection he believed he did not have as much as $2,000 in the bank referred to. The "Doctor" is evidently a crank, or a knave without the brains to successfully carry out his nefarious pro-

Mayor's Court.

Several boys were arraigned before Mayor Smith, yesterday morning, charged with rocking houses on the evening of St. Valentine's Day, and two of them were required to pay a fine of $5 each, the others being discharged.
