The Washington Republican puts down North Carolina and Virginia the Radicals in 1884.

Mr. Dorman B. Eaton, one of the regularly qualified for that position, the Northern papers say.

Governor Jarvis, of North Carolina, has been offered the presidency of Trinity college, in that State, and has the matter under consideration. - Northern Exchange.

Can that statement be true?

Gov. Stephens, of Georgia, promises to be a popular Executive in spite of a tendency to a too free use of the pardoning power. It is said he inquires carefully into the reasons of all matters calling for his decision.

According to the Washington letter in the Richmond Dispatch the Protectionists in the House do not like the Senate bill and will defeat it if they can. This must be because its provisions are not understood. It is believed by many that the Protectionists have gained by the bill. Some of the House tariff reformers favor it. Things appear mixed.

The arrest of Dr. Richard Anderson, of Stanly county, for the murder of young Charlie Cox, an account of which was copied in the STAR, causes much excitement in that county. There was bad feeling between the Cox family and Anderson. The Charlotte Observer says:

"The shot that killed young Cox was fired from Dr. Anderson's house, so the neighbors claim, and it is further claimed that on the day before the murder Dr. Anderson bought some cartridges of a certain calibre, and the bullet extracted from the murdered man's body was of the exact calibre of the cartridges bought by Dr. Anderson. These and other circumstances went to excite the suspicion of the people against Dr. Anderson, and resulted in his arrest vesterday morning."

A Western legislator opposed the bill to incorporate the North Carolina Fish Oil and Guano Company upon the ground that the shad would all be turned into manure and the West would never again see a shad. This is touching. The New Berne Journal, commenting upon this objection, says the remarks, however "silly," had force enough to defeat the bill. By this refusal, it says, "the company, which has spent fifteen or twenty thousand dollars in trying to develop an industry in the State, is denied the benefits of a corporate existence simply because some members of the Legislature don't know the difference in a fat-back and a shad."

Logan, in the Senate, and Beltzhoover, in the House, went heavily for Gen. Hazen, of the Signal Bureau, bringing very grave charges against him. An account of Logan's speech, in the Philadelphia Times,

He said he wanted to break up the fat thing thing enjoyed by army officers. His picture of how an adjutant in the War Depicture of how an adjutant in the War Department held the government up by the tail for eighteen years was a graphic one, and was relished exceedingly by full galleries. He showed how Hazen's corps had been writing editorials in various newspapers attacking him. During his remarks he snubbed Secretary Chandler, Rollins and other Senators, who annoyed him by loud conversation in his vicinity, by turning around and bluntly observing. When the Secretaries and Senator get through I will go on.' This created quite a diversion for the moment, but it had the intended effect."

VOL. XXXI.--NO. 131. WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 24, 1883.

It seems there has been going on in Washington society for a long time, ever since Arthur was President of the Senate, a scandalous story associating his name with the wife of J. Bancroft Davis. The following may be the size of it. We copy from the Washington letter in the Petersburg Mail ..

"His decided preference for that lady's society, despite the fact that she had a husband by the name of John Bancroft Davis, has only been continued with more kindly attentions. High social life admits of many little things that would be strongly denounced if they occurred among the middle classes. Why, bless me! Did not a New York paper remark when Mr. Davis was appointed by Chet as Assistant Secretary of State, that "the husband of Mrs. John B. Davis had been appointed Assis. John B. Davis had been appointed Assistant Secretary of State." Nothing further was said about the matter, but to use Rob Ingersoll's words, "A h—l of a lot was inferred." All kind of sensational stories are extant concerning the scandal, but they all agree on one fact—that the President has been a little indiscreet."

The venerable Philo White, at one time well known to the leading men of the State, is dead. He edited a paper at Salisbury as far back as 1820. He was a man of high character, of good abilities, and was a warm friend of North Carolina. The Utica (N. Y.) Morning Herald says: "Hon. Philo White, so long one of the oldest residents of Whitestown, died at his home there Thursday evening, 15th inst. He has not been in good health for some $1 27; coru, ungraded mixed 60@724c; time, and was 85 years old. He was born in Whitestown, June 23, 1796, the son of a man of the same name, and was grandson of Hugh White, the founder of the place. The family was of Connecticut and originally English stock. Philo received his education at home in Canada and in the seminary at Utica. Upon leaving school he became a printer on the Columbian Gazette, and while learning the trade, and subper. After a brief connection with another newspaper in Manlius, N. Y., he went to Salisbury, N. C., and in 1820 became the editor and owner of the Western Carolinian, which he conducted for ten years.

- Raleigh Visitor: The lecture of Rev. Dr. M. D. Hoge, of Richmond, at Tucker Hall last night was an emphatic sucsess. Dr. Hoge is an exceedingly strong and magnetic speaker. He got control of his audience last night in five minutes after he began to speak, and he held them until he closed. He is a man of robust intellectual powers, eloquent, logical and wonderfully pathetic.

- Raleigh News-Observer: Judge Advocate S. C. Lemly, of the U. S. Navy, who made the report of the court of enquiry in the Jeannette case, is a Salem boy.

The passage of the bill to sell the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad through the House, with some amendments, carries it back to the Senate for concurrence. Died, at the residence of Mr. J. Ruffin Williams, yesterday morning, Miss Eliza Tur near, aged 75 years.

- Fayetteville Observer: A Moore county boy, between sixteen and seventeen years of age, is six feet four inches high, finely proportioned, and is still growing. — Wild geese have been flying over from south to north within the past few days. - You may walk from one end of the town to the other and you will hardly pass a closed store, and as for dwelling houses they are always at a premium. — The Baptist congregation are erecting a new and handsome Sunday school room in rear

- Charlotte Journal: Three sporting gentlemen of Charlotte on hearing of a great crow roost near the residence of Baxter H. Moore, Esq., about one mile from the suburbs of the city, repaired to the spot on Tuesday night, armed with shot guns and pistols. Every pine tree to be seen was bending to the ground with a load of crows, and our informant says they were there by the millions. The gunners shot until they were tired and brought so many of the kirds to the ground no account could be kept of their number. Last night about 25 sportsmen went to the place to shoot.

- New Berne Journal: There is no question before the General Assembly of North Carolina of more importance to the masses of the people, save that of edu-cation, than that of keeping up public roads. At every meeting of the Legislature there is more or less legislation on the subject, but there is no perceptible improvement in the condition of the roads. FROM TRENTON. -The small-pox patient at McDaniels has been out in the garden airing himself for a few days, a short while at a time. Miss Hattie Pritchett, another one, is convalescing rapidly. - Greensboro Patriot: New Salem and Randleman Academy now num-bers nearly one hundred on its rolls. — In the negro Holt's case, the revolting de-tails of which have already been published, the jury found a verdict of guilty. He will be sentenced to-day, and no legal technicality should stand in the way of his execution. It was a most diabolical crime and nothing but the galllows can atone for it.

- Gastonia Gazette : Mr. William Richards, of Brevard, was here on a visit to elatives this week. Mr. Richards enjoys relatives this week. Mr. Richards enjoys the distinction of being the only citizen of Gaston county who ever bought a railroad. Some months ago a cow belonging to William Skidmore, of this county, was killed by a train on the Carolina Central Railroad. The authorities of the road refused to pay for the cow and Skidmore brought suit against them in the Superior Court and got judgment. That part of the Carolina Central (about fourteen miles) lying in Gaston county was accordingly levied on and sold by the sheriff. Mr. Richards became the purchaser at $20—about $1.50 per mile. purchaser at $20—about $1.50 per mile.
This is the cheapest railroad ever bought in the United States.

— A Caswell county correspondent tells the Raleigh News-Observer of a case in that county of colored Ku-Klux. He says: "A party of five persons, masked, went to the house of a colored woman who had a grown daughter, and after frightening them as much as they could, assaulted the mother with an axe, but did not inflict a blow; but did strike her with a stick several blows, and afterwards dragged the daughter from the house and whipped her pretty severely, bruising and cutting the skin. The leader was identified, a warrant was sued out and the party arrested and tried before a magis-trate, and after an ineffectual effort to prove an alibi, was bound over in a heavy bond to appear at the next Superior Court for Cas-

— Charlotte Observer: Dr. Talmage will lecture in the opera house in this city on the 6th of March and his subject will be the "Bright Side of Things."

Dr. W. B. Withers, a young physician of Dewese township, this county dropped dead ou his plantation near Davidson College, last Tuesday, 20th inst.

Sometime ago Mr. W. D. McAdoo, proprietor of the popular McAdoo House, in Greensboro, wanted a plate of glass in size 22x32 inches, and wrote to a New York house to send it to him, and draw on him house to send it to him, and draw on him at sight for the pay. New, it might have been all right, but Mr. McAdoo wrote "feet" instead of Inches." The immense piece of glass, carefully boxed, was carried across the ocean on the steamer's deck and was laid on the wharf at Norfolk, where it now remains. There is no possible way of transporting it overland by rail, as it would not pass through the cuts along the railroad, nor could it go through the covered bridges. It cost him $3,100. The last acquisition to Master Frank Adams's show case of mineral curiosities at the Central Hotel, is a mad stone, the property of a gentleman of this city, who put it there for exhibition before a curious public.

Mr. Augustus F. Graber public. — Mr. Augustus F. Graber, a citizen of Litaker's township, Rowan county, was found last Tuesday evening lying in a field near the roadside, with his throat cut from ear to ear, but still alive. Mr. Graber left his home on Tuesday, telling his wife that he was going to Salisbury.

Proceeding a short distance he hung his coat on a fence by the roadside, with a note in the pocket stating that his body would be found in the field near by. A passer-by discovered the coat, and on reading the note made search at once for the body. He found Mr. Cheber weltering in his own found Mr. Graber weltering in his own blood, with a ghastly cut across his throat. Medical aid was at once summoned, when it was found that life was not extinct, and at last accounts the would-be suicide was still alive, having, as is usual in such cases, cut his throat too high up. -Mr. Alfred Northcutt, a boss in one of the cotton mills at Rockingham, was terribly cut with a knife in the hands of a white man named John Zimmerman, a few nights ago. Zimmerman went to Mr. Northcutt's house and without warning pulled out a knife and gave a slash at Mr. Northcutt. The blade of the knife struck Mr. N. on his lip, severing it in twain, splitting his chin and thence striking his breast, cutting a gash three inches deep and twice as long, in the region of the right nipple. Zimmerman, on leaving Mr. North-cutt, went to his own home and tried to cut his wife, giving a lick at her hand, through the crack of the door as she closed it against him. Zimmerman was arrested and in charge of special deputy Sinclair, was taken to Robeson county jail for safe keep-ing, the fail at Rockingham being in an insecure condition.

Accidental Shooting.

On Thursday, the 22d, Messrs. B. G. Empie, Dawson Durham and Braswell Durham, the latter a cousin of Mr. Dawson Durham, were out gunning in the neighborhood of Rocky Point, when Mr. Dawson Durham fired upon a bird which suddealy flew up from a cover, the shot taking effect in the face of his cousin, the two at the time of the shooting being on opposite sides of a small thicket and therefore not seen by each other. Seven shot penetrated the skin of Mr. Braswell Durham's face, one going entirely through the lobe of one of his ears and making as perfect a hole as if it had been bored for an ear-ring. The wounds were quite painful, but of course

A Porpolee Taken in a Net. Messrs. W. E. Davis & Son had a porpoise on exhibition at their fish house, below the new market, yesterday afternoon, which was taken from one of their nets at Keg Island, about ten miles down the river, yesterday morning. He was not a very large one only a 800 pounder—but attracted a great deal of attention, being the first one that many had seen out of the water. Some of the visitors counted his teeth, which numbered one hundred and four, and they were small and beautiful, being as white and transparent as ivory, and it is said that the way they can chop up the small fish with them is a caution.

The evidence was to the effect that Burgess was about leaving the house, between 12 and 1 o'clock yesterday morning, when Clark interfered to prevent his doing so, he having shipped, and an altercation ensued, which Officers Mints and O'Brien nipped in the bud, arresting and taking the parties to the guard house. Magistrate's Court.

Alonzo Durant was arraigned before Justice Millis, yesterday, on a peace warrant sworn out by Solomon Anderson, who was sent to jail a day or two ago for costs. The defendant was required to pay the costs and give bond in the sum of $25 to keep the peace for sixty days.

Henderson Evans, colored, was next arraigned on the affidavit of William Newkirk, colored, charged with assault and battery upon Lizzie Sellers, colored. It appears that Newkirk came into Justice Millis' office in a big hurry and said Evans was fighting the woman, had already cut her badly on the hand and arm with a knife, and that if the magistrate didn't hurry up the warrant and send an officer to serve it the poor woman would be murdered. The warrant was issued with all possible dispatch and Evans was arrested and taken before Justice Millis. The witnesses were examined and there was not a particle of evidence to show that there had been any such fight as described in the affidavit; the woman could show no wounds, and in fact stated that she had received none, and the result was that the case was dismissed and the prosecuting witness was adjudged to pay the costs.

The Wilmington Library Association -Dr. Deems' Forthcoming Lecture.

The many admirers and friends of Dr. Charles F. Deems will be glad to learn that the Lecture Committee of the Wilmington Library Association have received a letter from him, in which he accepts an invitation to lecture here under the auspices of the Association on Tuesday, the 13th of March, ensuing. His subject will be "Trifles." Dr. Deems is so well known and so highly appreciated, both as a pulpit orator and a lecturer, to say nothing of the great personal esteem in which he is held in this community, that it would indeed be a work of supererogation in us to attempt to impress upon the minds of our readers that a treat is in store for them. They know that as well as we do and will govern themselves accordingly. In other words, they will let no "Trifles" keep them away from the Opera House on that occasion.

THE FLORENCE NIGHTINGALE OF THE NURSERY.—The following is an extract from a letter written to the German Reformed Messenger, at Chambersburgh, Penn.: A Benefactress, Just open the door for her, and Mrs. Winslow will prove the American Florence Nightingale of the Nursery. Of this we are so sure, that we will teach our "Susy" to say, "A blessing on Mrs. Winslow" for helping her to survive and escape the griping, collecting, and teething slege. Mrs. Winslow's Southing Syrup relieves the child from pain, and ourse dysentery and diarrhosa. It softens the guins, reduces inflammation, cures wind colle, and carries the infant safely through the teething period. It performs precisely what it professes to perform, every part of it—nothing less. We have never seen Mrs. Winslow—know her only through the preparation of her "Soothing Syrup for Children Teething." If we had the power we would make her, as she is, a physical saviour to the infant race. Sold by all druggists.
