A report comes from Raleigh that the election laws will be changed that bull-dozing and cheating at the polls will not be so easy of accomplishment. Every voter can vote as he pleases. The following from a letter in the Richmond Dispatch from Raleigh explains it :

This is to be done by means of isolating the voter while casting his ballot, and permitting no one but officials near the permitting no one but officials near the boxes during the voting. The voter is to put his own vote in the box, and is to receive no aid from poll-holders. It is thought that in this way the brutle watch that is kept on negroes by the local bosses at election precincts can be deprived of its terror, and that they can exercise a reasonable degree of independence."

WILMINGTON, N. C., SATURDAY, MARCH 3, 1883.

WHOLE NO. 4842

The Senate has another Railroad Commission bill before it. A proposition to make members of the Legislature ineligible was voted down This was more than the hungry fellows could stand. Why should they not create offices and fill them? Say. Everybody else is laughing at their "cheek." Jim Harris could not vote for a bill that excluded legislators. Oh, no! not he. He did not believe that they had "so bemeaned themselves as to disqualify themselves" from holding such nice fat offices. James has never taken any bribe. Oh, no. He is fully qualified, therefore. Bully, for the Senator from Wake! By the way, what does James mean by "so bemeaned.

Gov. Cameron, of Virginia, is again cruising in search of the offending oyster pirates. He says he will extirpate them this year. The rascals caught last year were put in the penitentiary but pardoned out. A dispatch from West Point, Va., of the 28th ult., says:

"These forces have been swelled by the addition of reckless volunteers from New York, Philadelphia and Baltimore, ready to run all risks for the price of oysters, which command higher prices this year than ever before. These men are desperate and have frequently sworn they would not be taken alive. The full pirate fleet numbers about 100 vessels, divided up into the fleets of the Potomac, Rappahannock and Pian-katank. Each vessel is armed with two swivel guns fore and aft, and every man has a long range Enfield rifle.'

When last heard from the Governor had captured one schooner and eight men.

Mysterious Disappearance.

Junius Bell, a colored cooper, living with his mother on Princess, between Eighth and Ninth streets, went down the street on Saturday evening last to make some purchases, and nothing has since been seen or heard of him by his family or friends, who have finally been forced to the conclusion that some accident has befallen him or that he has been foully dealt with. The last seen of him he was in a public house on Water street.

- We have omitted to chronicle the appearance among us, on a brief visit, of Mr. Berry Gleaves, who still retains his residence here, but is connected with the extensive hardware establishment of Charles & Fulton, of Baltimore. His delicate frame has not been perceptibly affected by the change of base.

ville. Chief of Police Brock received a telegram from a party in Fayetteville, on Thursday evening, requesting the arrest of one Joe Williams, colored, upon the arrival here of the steamer Gov. Worth, he being charged with resisting and cutting a Deputy Sheriff at that place, with the further request that if captured he should be put in charge of Capt. Worth and sent back to Favetleville. Accordingly Sergeaut Davis was at the boat when she arrived, which was not until yesterday, about 12 o'clock, when upon inquiring, no one knew of the presence of such an individual on the boat. Finally, however, a light was procured and the officer and others proceeded into the hold of the steamer, where, stowed away in a very small space, they found the object of their search. He was taken out and carried to the guard house, but was subsequently carried back to the boat and delivered to Capt. Worth, a warrant for his arrest having meanwhile arrived from Fayetteville by mail.

Magistrate's Court. Moses Divine, colored, had a hearing before Justice Hall, yesterday morning, charged with assault and battery upon his wife, Edith Divine. Defendant was found guilty and judgment was suspended.

The same defendant was arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by Edith Divine, and was required to pay the costs and enter into bond in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for three months.

Robert Hines, colored, also had a hearing before the same magistrate, on the charge of committing assault and battery upon his wife, Laura Hines. Defendant was found guilty and required to pay one penny and the costs.

He was then arraigned on a peace warrant sworn out by his wife, and was ordered to pay the costs and give bond in the sum of $50 to keep the peace for three

Bishop Northrop. Alluding to the arrival of Bishop Northrop in Charleston, on Tuesday evening last, the News and Courier states that Bishop Northrop has appointed Passover Sunday for this installation, and will invite Archbishop Gibbons and Bishops Keane of Richmond, Becker of Wilmington, Del., Kane of Wheeling, Moore of St. Augustine, and Gross of Savannah, to be present and take part in the ceremonies. The episcopal residence will be in Charleston. The Bishop received congratulatory calls from a number of distinguished priests and prelates who are on a visit to Charleston. He is expected here to-day.

Removed to Wilmington.

Under this head the Fayetteville Observer says: "Our community will greatly regret to lose Col. L. C. Jones, of the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad. He has accepted the Superintendency of the Carona Central Railroad, and will make Wilmington his future home. A native of Virginia, Col. Jones has been for many years identified with the interests of this section, as President, Engineer and Superintendent of the railroad; and, as a publicspirited citizen and courteous gentleman, his loss will be keenly felt."

Prof. Shepherd's Lecture. In the large and elegant hall at the Tileston School an audience numbering several hundreds assembled last evening to hear the Lecture of Professor Henry E. Shepherd, of Charleston, S. C., (but a native North Carolinian,) upon "Language." He was introduced by Col. James G. Burr, the President of the Wilmington Historical and Scientific Society, neatly and felicitously Prof. Shepherd has a good presence. He is above the medium height, is compactly built, has a fine open face, dark hair and eyes, and a noble, intellectual head. His voice is pleasant and his manner easy and colloquial. His lecture was scholarly throughout and excellently written. We expected from the subject a rather dry disquisition upon linguistic changes in our language, with a rich and perhaps tedious display of technical learning. But it was really a delightful and elegant literary discussion of the English language from the Elizabethan period to our own day as illustrated by the writings of the famous men who had glorified each epoch. There was just enough of linguistic criticism to furnish a background or substratum for a most engaging presentation of those "great and sceptred sovereigns who still rule us from their urns." He gave us in rapid survey a glimpse of a large body of writers, happily characterizing each in turn, and traced the progress and development of our tongue as manifested in the styles of the representative men of each era. Whilst much he said in the way of opinion must have impinged upon the diterary prejudices of many, we are pleased to sav that we were in hearty sympathy with his critical judgment throughout. He gave

More of such lectures in any communi ty could not fail to be a source of pure pleasure and of intellectual elevation. They serve both as educators and stimulants. Writing hurriedly, we attempt no scientific analysis or precise criticism. We hope to see Prof. Shepherd among us again. Miss Bradley very kindly tendered the Hall, so admirably adapted to lectures, and will be pleased to hear other literary or scientific lectures delivered there. Comic Opera at the Opera House. The first production of "Iolanthe," the beautiful and charming work of the most distinguished masters of English Comic Opera that the present century has produced, will take place in Wilmington, on Wednesday evening, March 7th. "Iolanthe" will be given with the full strength of Chas. E. Ford's English Comic Opera Company, led by the famous Blanche Chapman and Marie Bockel, and supported by the distinguished American comedian, Mr. George W. Denham, and a score of other artists. A critic of Cincinnati in writing of Mr. Ford's first presentation of "Iolanthe," in the Queen City of the West, after bearing testimony to the beautiful manner in which it was rendered, says in speaking of some of the members of this excellent operatic organization, that "Phillip Branson, the tenor, is what Castle was in his young and better days," and "Chas. W. Dungan is a most delightful actor, and has a delicious baritone voice, full of manly and tender tones, etc."

The sale of reserved seats for "Iolanthe, will begin on Monday morning, March 5th. at Dyer's.

What is Diphtheria?

The name is comparatively new, but the disease is as old as sin itself. It is a condition of the throat something like croup, only worse, because it attacks the sufferer with such rapidity and in such a way as to stop the air passages. The throat is vio-lently inflamed, and a tough membrane, like leather, is very rapidly formed. PER-RY DAVIS'S PAIN KILLER has cured thousands of cases of diphtheria. It acts so promptly and so efficiently that no family can afford to be without it.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do nize ur and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DALLY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No Mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Try it, mothers—ray it now.—Ladies' Vistor, New York City. Sold by all druggists. 25 ets. a bottle.
