The Charleston News and Courier, Savannah News, Louisville Courier-Journal and other leading exchanges are opposed to abblishing the tax on whiskey and cigars, beer and tobacco.

He is a nice sort of statesman who in one breath will tell you that to tax bats and blankets and medicines is infamous - is robbery - is immoral, and then in the next breath will tell you that whiskey and tobacco should

We believe that nine-tenths of the leading Democratic papers in the South outside of Virginia and North Carolina favor a tax on whiskey and tobacco. We shall so believe until we have the facts to the contrary. Impudent assertion will not do. The proof must be forthcoming.

We have to converse with the first Democrat we have met in this section who favors the abolition of the tax on tobacco and whiskey. Furthermore, we recently talked with several educated and prominent gentlemen of Goldsboro, and to a man they were with the STAR in the opinion that whiskey and tobacco should

Rev. Dr. Charles F. Deems has become sole editor of the Journal of Philosophy. He is also President of the American Institute of Christian Philosophy. Articles from many of the ablest minds in the country are promised. E. B. Treat, No. 757 Broadway, New York, is the publisher, and the subscription price is $1.50 per annum.

"It is admitted that the Democratic party cannot maintain the internal revenue sys tem in North Cerolina and hold the State and yet when Senator Brown offered an amendment to the tariff bill abolishing the internal revenue, both North Carolina Senators voted against it."-Augusta (Ga.)

No Democrats in North Carolina desire to retain the present system of collectings but there are tens of thousands of voters who favor a tax on tobacco and whiskey, the tax to be collected through the States and by the sheriffs. Is not the Chronicle mistaken in saying that Ransom and Vance voted against abolishing?

The Baptists are holding their Anunal National Anniversary at Saratoga. The subject of a Baptist Bible occupies no little of their attention. A telegraphic report says:

"Dr. Lemuel Mors, of Indiana, spoke negatively. We do not need a distinctive Bible Society, because it is unnecessary. A great work should not be divided into parts. The American Bible Society of New York is doing more to hold our land, except what is done by the pulpit, than any other agency. Such a society as that proposed would be a source of weakness. I would as soon think of a Baptist lexicon as of a

We have never but once or twice copied anything from a letter concerning the STAR. "The STAR shines with a very steady radiance, and L den't know a paper which has so much work in it and of such uniform excellence outside the great cities. It will be a lasting monument to your industry, cultivation and ability.

In all of our journalistic experience nothing more grateful to us has been said. It in "projec from Sir Hubert."

The Augusta (Ga.) Chronicle advises the North Carolina people "to do all that is possible to abolish the internal revenue system, leaving tariff reform to future consideration. The protective tariff does not harm the people of North Carolina as the internal revenue system does." Just so. The Chronicle is a Protective Democratic paper and we can understand its advice. If we were a Protective advocate we would give the same advice. Protectionist papers prefer to put a heavy tax on shoes, hats and pocket knives rather than on whiskey, tobacco and eigars.

One of the Kentucky tariff resolutions reads thus:

Resolved. That the Democracy of Kentucky, in convention, reaffirm our unaltered confidence in and affection for the principles and policy embodied in the organic law of the Democratic party adopted at the National Democratic Convention held at St. Louis in 1878, and ratified at Cincinnati in Both of the Conventions referred to had a specific plank in which they declared for "a tariff for revenue only." Our Raleigh mentor is respectfully and affectionately and pressingly invited to consider.

One matter he struck that should be rung through the ears of all in the State. He said that a filthy, dirty jail was an offense, a shame. It should be examined and every jail made decent. At the meeting at Greensboro on the 9th, of the directors, contracts were made for steel rails which will lay one hundred miles of track, and one hundred tons are to be delivered in Wilmington in thirty days from date of contract. The money for the same was raised and deposited in the bank. The laying of the track is to begin at this place and the iron laid with all dispatch from here to Shoe Heel, and the entire line to Greens-boro to be completed within eight months.

- The birth-day of Queen Victoria, of England, who was born on the 24th of May, 1819, was celebrated, in a quiet way, at the residence of Mr. Wilkin Roddick on Thursday night; quite a number of Mr. Roddick's friends, who were born under the British flag, participating on the festive occasion.

- We are requested by Rev. D. Connell, pastor, to state that there will be preaching at Trinity Chapel M. E. Church on Sunday at 11 a, m., 3 p. m. and 7.30 p. m., and again on Wednesday night. On the first Sunday in June, at 3 p. m., there will be preaching by the Rev. A. Miller, of the Baptist Church. The second Sunday will be children's day. The quarterly conference will take place on the 11th of June, when Rev. L. B. Gibson will be present.

A Handsome Piece of Workmanship We saw yesterday in a glass case at the store of Messrs. Brown & Roddick, a miniature barquentine, which is about as neat a piece of workmanship as we have seen in a long time, and we were informed by Mr. Brown that it was the handiwork of Lieut. J. U. Rhodes, of the Revenue Cutter Colfax, who made it altogether by hand. The little craft is full-rigged from stem to stern, and Capt. Donne, of the steamship Regulator, who has examined it, says she is a perfect model, with spars, rigging and other appurtenances complete. The rigging is all of gold wire and the masts and spars, are made to appear like they were constructed of the precious metal. This beautiful specimen of ingenuity and skill has been presented to Mr Brown, who will no doubt highly prize it. The only thing not really handsome about the little craft is her name Jack-Pot.

The remains of the late C. M. VanOrsdell were consigned to their last earthly resting place in Oakdale Cometery yester day morning. The procession to the church and thence to the Cemetery embraced the Masonic fraternity, consisting of members of Wilmington Commandery No. 1, in their beautiful uniform; St. John's Lodge No. 1, of which deceased was a member; Wilmington Lodge No. 319; Concord Chapter No. 1, and Wilmington Council No. 4. together with a long line of carriages, containing relatives and friends of the deceased.

Mr. Meyer Bear, an old German resident of this city, died at his residence corner of Sixth and Chesnut streets, yesterday morning, after an illness of some two weeks' du ration. Mr. Bear was born in Bavaria and came to this country about 1836. He moved to Wilmington in 1847, having been doing business for some four or five years previously in Granville county. He continued merchandizing until about eight years ago, when his three sons took charge of the business. Deceased was a quiet, unobtrusive citizen, and was much respected in the community of which he had so long been a member. He was 71 years old.

Not Sustained. Morris Moore, colored, was arrested yes terday on the charge of the larceny of certain logs; one Jas. Capehart having made affidavit that the logs were his property. The case came up before Justice Millis when the evidence went to show that the property in question did not belong to Capehart, but to another party. The case was therefore dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor, who, upon failure to pay the same, was committed to the Sheriff.

Southern Telegraph Company. We learn from an officer of the Company that the lines of the Southern Telegraph Company are now being put up from Danville in the direction of Charlotte, Columbia and Augusta. The poles are up be tween Norfolk and Weldon, and we are informed that the line will be completed to Wilmington during the coming summer. Just for variety's sake, the business men of Wilmington will be glad to have a little competition in the telegraph business.

Mayor's Court. Robt. Watkins and J. L. Barker were before the Mayor yesterday morning on the charge of engaging in a fight on Fourth, between Church and Castle streets, about 7 o'clock Thursday evening, for which they were arrested by Officers Gafford and Mc-Call. The defendants were adjudged guilty and a fine of $5 was imposed on Watkins and one of $2 on Barker; the difference in amount being accounted for on the ground that the former resisted.

Peared a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Educeopathy. That right the child passed in suffering and the parents without sleep. Beturning home the day following, the tasher found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic suties and left the father with the child. During her ally sence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy.
