MORNING EDITION. OUTLINES.

C. H. Ross, a successful merchant at Lampasas, Texas, and his wife, both committed suicide, and with the same pistol. Gov. Hubbard was renominated by Republicans for Governor of Minnesota. One hundred and thirteen deaths occurred at Danietta on the 27th from cholera. The Pope of Rome is indisposed; he is much disturbed at the state of affairs in Ireland and France. D. B. Parker declines the appointment of postmaster at Washington, D. C. Chicago markets again excited; heavy declines took place in pork and wheat, and two failures were announced. The Bessemer Steel Works at Bethlehem, Pa. have shut down. Stockholders of the Atlantic & North Carolina R. R. met at Morehead, the Yadin Valley R. R. Company, and two other syndicates submitted propositions to lease the road. By an accident to the fast express train from Summerville to Charleston, S. C., the engineer and fireman were both killed; it was caused by a careless section master who left a switch open. New York markets: Money 2 1/2@3 per cent; cotton quiet at 10 1/2@10 3/4; southern flour quiet and weak at $4 20@5 15; wheat ungraded red 85c@91 16; corn, ungraded 45c@46 16; rosin dull; spirits turpentine steady.

The last spike in the Northern Pacific Railroad will be driven at an early day.

Judge Hoady is 53 years old and was born in Connecticut. That explains the "cuteness" of that tariff plank.

Maj. Nickerson is believed in Washington to have fled the country. The authorities were not anxious to stop him.

All of the American Archbishops have been summoned to Rome by the Pope. Cardinal McCloskey will not attend.

Ten thousand people viewed the remains of Archbishop Wood. Archbishop Gibbons pronounced a touching tribute.

Gen. James Conner was born in Charleston in 1829. He was graduated at the South Carolina College and read law under Hon. J. L. Pettigru.

The Louisville Courier-Journal is certainly a very enterprising paper. Its last Saturday's issue contained full twenty columns of Chicago news and advertisements.

Out of a class of thirty students in Moral Philosophy at the University of Virginia only six were graduated. Among the graduates in Latin was L. M. Patterson, of North Carolina. Among the M. D.'s are Joseph E. Grimley, of Snow Hill, James A. Hodges, of Fayetteville, Louis L. Sasser, of Goldsboro, N. C. So there was but one graduate from North Carolina in any literary school.

Mr. Clay was the great leader of the tariff men in 1844. If he were to return to earth and make his old speech for protection so low tariff was he that, we do not hesitate to say he would be at once accused by the protection organs in the North of being a Free Trader. What was high tariff forty or fifty years ago would be exceeding low tariff now.

The Boston press describes the drunkenness and rioting in Boston on the occasion of the visiting of the New Orleans military as disgraceful beyond anything that ever occurred there before. The mob took possession of the tables and guzzled all the liquor and devoured all the edibles. The liquor bill alone was about $4,000, and the Southern visitors hardly got a taste of anything to drink. All of which is fine and high-bred.

At the meeting of the Alumni Association of Washington and Lee University a touching tribute to the memory of Surgeon James R. Ambler, a distinguished alumnus of the institution, who, it will be remembered, was one of the victims of the Jeannette Arctic expedition, was paid by Professor William T. Thom, of Hollins Institute. Dr. Ambler was a cousin of our esteemed citizen, Rev. T. M. Ambler, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal Church.

The President revised the revenue department and made changes in accordance with his purpose to Mahoneise North Carolina if he can.

The Washington correspondent of the New York Times writes on the 28th:

"The disposition to encourage a break-up of Bourbonism is detected by a Southern gentleman in the President's arrangement of districts and appointment of Collectors in North Carolina. Col. I. J. Young, who is made collector of the new Fourth District, has been a coalitionist. Dr. William H. Wheeler, who was a 'straight-out,' is made collector of the Fifth. He will favor coalition hereafter, while his predecessor, G. R. Everitt, who was a coalitionist, is to be made a Registrar of Public Lands at Mitchell, Dakota. Col. Thomas N. Cooper, collector of the Sixth District, is retained in his place. He is strongly in favor of a coalition party in the State. It may be stated, as perhaps indicating the earnestness of the leading Republicans in the coalition movement, that ex-Collector John J. Mott, formerly of the Sixth District, who has been in Washington for two or three weeks and has seen the President, has written about to start an Administration and coalition journal at Raleigh.

"One prominent North Carolina Republican, who has always been opposed to a coalition in his State, said to-day that he was assured that the President was desirous that such a movement should be encouraged, and that he should adopt the President's views."

So the hope of Republican success in North Carolina is to break up the Democratic party by allying away the hungry, the disconsolate and the disgruntled. The Baltimore Sun's special regards Wheeler's triumph as owing to the Grant element.

The hunt after the Richmond duellists has been pertinacious but unsuccessful. The Dispatch of Wednesday said:

"As is well known, Mr. Beirne escaped from the officer at Hanover Junction he took the train for Greenbrier county, West Va. Great efforts have been made to arrest him. The New York Herald says that on Saturday night a railroad official in West Virginia made an affidavit that Beirne was there for the purpose of fighting a duel, and obtained a warrant for his arrest. An officer armed with this authority started to Lewisburg, but a friend of Beirne's had preceded him, and upon the arrival of the latter Beirne could not be found."

Beirne is so large it will be difficult for him to escape detection if he travels by rail however disguised unless he can be secreted from public observation. Elam's concealment has been well kept. A week has passed but it is thought to be certain that a fight will occur and just as soon as the belligerents can meet.

The following States and Territories are affected by the reduction in the internal revenue districts: Alabama 1, Nevada 1, Connecticut 1, Georgia 1, Dakota 1, Wyoming 1, Arizona 1, Pennsylvania 4, Virginia 2, North Carolina 1, Tennessee 1, Kentucky 2, Ohio 4, Indiana 3, Illinois 2, Michigan 2, Wisconsin 2, Iowa 1, Missouri 2, Minnesota 1, West Virginia 1, Maryland 1, Massachusetts 1, New York 5, Washington Territory 1, New Jersey 1, Idaho 1, Montana 1; total 46.

It was Mr. Julius H. Wilcox, formerly of Warrenton, who has been lecturing in Norfolk, Va. The accomplished editor of the Landmark said of the last lecture delivered on Wednesday night:

"He achieved a success, indeed, of which any man in the community might have been proud, and the applause which greeted his appearance followed him throughout his address. The best and most compact criticism I heard was that of Mr. Wilcox. Hurrah! for our young North Carolinian."

Spirits Turpentine.

The three revenue bosses in North Carolina now are Young, Wheeler, and Cooper.

The University Normal School is in session, and there is a good attendance. It opened with the usual speech-making.

Dr. Kemp P. Battle, Jr., has accepted a professorship in the medical college of Shaw University, says the Tarboro Guide.

We regret to learn that Mr. Carey D. Grandy, late Professor in the University of North Carolina, is lying at the point of death at his father's home at Oxford.

Whiteville Enterprise: Crops all over the county are looking well. A workman at the Chadbourn mill was badly cut by one of the saws on Thursday last. On last Wednesday night the Farmers Cornet Club, of Williams township, gave an entertainment in the court house.

Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic: Considering that there are Normal Schools conducted by excellent instructors, simultaneously in session at Elizabeth City, Wilson, Newton, and Franklin, (west of the Ridge), it was a good showing for the Normal School at Chapel Hill when above 100 teachers from 24 counties reported for instruction.

Raleigh Visitor: About half-past five o'clock this morning a well developed new born colored baby was found in the front porch of the house occupied by Jesse Taylor, colored, in the fourth ward. We regret to have to announce the death of Mrs. Katie Hamlet, wife of Mr. C. O. Hamlet, which sad event occurred at her residence, corner of Dawson and Martin streets, this city, at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

The new syndicate met in New Bern. We copy from the Journal: In accordance with the report of the committee on lease the chair appointed the following committee to draw up and prepare a proposition to submit to the stockholders of the A. & W. G. R. R., at their meeting to-morrow, for the purpose of leasing said road; Judge W. T. Faircloth, J. C. Woodson, W. F. Kerney, J. F. Jones, T. A. Green, and H. W. ...

A row at Lincolnton among some negroes, caused by mean whiskey at a saloon, resulted as follows according to the Charlotte Journal-Observer: "Bill Leason's hand came in contact with a razor in the hands of another darkey, and three of his fingers, with part of his hand fell to the floor, cut off 'naked as a whorl.' Another darkey named Zimmerman was knocked on the head with an iron crowbar, and his skull was badly smashed. Several others were cut and there was another broken head, but it was not fractured so badly as Zimmerman's, who was being taken to the hospital, but for the moment left. The parties were arrested and are in the hands of the law.

New Bern Journal: On yesterday a negro boy tumbled in the river at the Hughes wharf where the schooner American Eagle was unloading ice. He fell between the wharf and the schooner and would have been drowned but for the timely aid of Frank Clifford, who, being a good swimmer, jumped into the water and rescued him. Vanceboro item: Crops are considerably set back by the heavy rains, but are improving. The last potato crop was shipped. Contentment Neck dot: The corn crop will be cut short this year. The bud worms have cut it down till there is not over two-thirds of a stand. R. M. Abbott has a large tract of land that made twelve barrels of corn to the acre last year. He has planted it three times this year but has not a good stand on it yet. La Grange points: The cry of farmers is scarce labor and that in fact. The wheat crop, at one time thought to be extra good, is now believed to be only tolerable.

Raleigh News-Observer: In the Arrington divorce suit, tried at Vance Court last week, there was a mistrial. The case will be tried over again. F. H. Busbee, Esq., will deliver an address at the laying of the cornerstone of the new church at Burgaw, Pender county, July 4th.

Near Wakefield, Wake county, on the evening of Sunday, June 24th, Mr. David C. Dudley, Sr., was united in marriage to Miss Eviline Strickland. The groom is one of the oldest printers in the country, being 70 years old. The bride is 60 years of age. The Hon. James M. Leach, an ex-Democrat of North Carolina, is the latest representative Republican from the South who has appeared in Washington, and Mr. Leach has no doubt of course that North Carolina can be induced to desert the Democrats by proper means. One of these proper means is to take the case of Leach. The first man convicted and sentenced in the new court-house was Henry Williams alias Ransom Sloucomb, colored, who was yesterday convicted for forging the name of Henry Williams on a check for $100.00. The first man convicted and sentenced in the new court-house was Henry Williams alias Ransom Sloucomb, colored, who was yesterday convicted for forging the name of Henry Williams on a check for $100.00.

The Goldsboro Messenger: A sudden quarrel took place among the hands at Mr. N. O'Brien's saw mill, about three miles from this city, last Monday evening, in which pistols, axes, knives, etc., were used. One negro sustained a very severe cut about the head, and was carried to the hospital in the city. Capt. J. J. Robinson came near having a costly experience last Saturday evening experimenting with a quantity of gasoline that had been stolen from the stores in the city. The Captain threw a lighted match into it to see if it would blaze, when, to his astonishment, it flared up with a vengeance, and devoured his chicken-coop with all its contents in less time than it takes to tell it. In fact, the fire was so great that it was a serious conflagration was prevented.

A cotton and corn stalk chopper, the invention of Mr. L. B. Still of this county, has been in use by some of our leading farmers for a year or two. The factory will be located in Goldsboro and the sale of the chopper and of county and State rights is to be vigorously pushed in all the Southern States. FAISON, N. C., June 28. The Masonic Convention at Salisbury last was largely attended and a most enjoyable affair. The address of the Rev. Geo. W. Dams, of your city, was listened to with utmost attention. The speech occupied about an hour and was well received with the most undivided attention by between 500 and 600 people. The barbecue and many good things spread for the occasion added to the pleasure of the day.

Charlotte Journal-Observer: Some of the stockholders of the Ore Knob copper mine, who live in Baltimore, have been growing anxious about the affairs of the mine, and have been holding meetings to investigate matters. Gen. Thomas F. Drayton has returned the city from West Point, where he attended a reunion of the association of graduates, Gen. Drayton being in the class of 1828, and there are about five of his fellow graduates living, and but one (Ivins T. Austin, of Boston), besides Gen. Drayton, attended the reunion. One of the graduates, Capt. J. M. Davis is laid up by wounds received long ago in the battle of Shiloh. Mr. Jefferson Davis is the fifth member of the class. At the banquet was a 90 year-old cadet, Joshua Baker, of Centerville, La., who graduated in the class of 1816. Gen. Drayton says the reunion was a magnificent affair.

Rev. G. G. Bernheim, D. D., who returned yesterday from Philadelphia, N. J., expresses himself as delighted with the North and its enterprising people. He will move, with a portion of his family, to the above named city in about two weeks, and will locate there permanently. He was unanimously elected pastor of Grace church at Philadelphia, which position he has accepted. A sleeper is now run on the evening train for Statesville and Henry Station. The first sleeper was put on Monday, and carried out a large crowd.

Rev. Luther M. Taylor, of the Presbyterian Church in Concord, has received a call to the Presbyterian Church at Columbia, S. C., and the pastor of that place, seems to like it. It is a settled fact that Mr. Taylor will accept. The salary is $3,100. The annual meeting of the Sportsman's Association of the Carolina will be held at Warm Springs, N. C., from July 29th to 14th, inclusive. On the opening day there will be a team race for the championship and a handsome gold medal to the successful team. During the tournament there will be twelve regulation team matches, a number of special matches for valuable prizes, individual contests and sweep-stake shooting. The Executive committee of the Association is as follows: Col. Walter L. Steele, President, Rockingham; Spaulding, B. H. H. Thompson, Vice President, Spartanburg; T. H. Gibbs, Secretary and Treasurer, Columbia, S. C.; D. E. Smoak, Orangeburg, S. C.; D. C. Waddell, Asheville, N. C.; B. Van Gilder, Asheville, N. C.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HINSHBERGER-Check books. NOTICE-To county tax-payers. CROMLY & MORRIS-Lot for sale. M. S. WILLARD-Life insurance. JOHN J. HEDRICK-White goods. R. H. MCKOY & Co.-Dissolution. MUMSON-Suits and trousseaus. NOTICE-Closing Front street market.

Local Items. Receipts of cotton yesterday 7 bales. There were no cases for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning. Messrs. Holmes & Watters have leased the store now occupied by Messrs. Brown & Roddick, and will occupy it on the 1st of October next.

Among the acknowledgments of contributions to the proposed Memorial Baptist Church at Greenville, N. C., we notice $40 from Wilmington.

The addition to Capt. Southernland's livery stables on Second street, making an entrance and exit to the same on Princess street, on the old jail lot, is going up.

The telegraph operators of the Carolina Central Railroad, with their families, are making excursions to this city during the present week, taking it by turns.

The Front street market house will be closed to-day from 9 A. M. until 4 P. M., in order to allow the butchers and others an opportunity of attending the funeral of the late L. M. Williams.

The Goldsboro Messenger says: "The Orphan Musical Society, of Wilmington, composed of excellent musical talent, and including Mrs. D. B. Kahweller and Mr. N. Mayer, contemplate giving a concert at the Opera House in this city about the 1st of August. They will receive a rousing greeting."

S. H. Bennett, a colored man who lives on Eighth between Campbell and Hanover streets, informs us that some 'bad man' threw two dead chickens in his well last Wednesday night. Such wanton mischief is greatly to be deprecated and indicates the want of a missionary in the Bennett neighborhood.

The Biblical Recorder pays the following compliment to a former Wilmington minister: "One of the most graceful and gracious acts of christian kindness of our experience, was the tender of the Methodist church at Shelby by the pastor, Rev. B. R. Hall, to the Baptists during the Sunday School Convention. We could not help wishing there were more Methodists in North Carolina, if all of them are like the Shelby Methodists."

Assault with a Deadly Weapon-A Woman the Victim. Thomas Hawkins, colored, was arrested a few days ago on the charge of committing assault and battery with a deadly weapon upon one Rachel Pugh, at Rock Hill, about eight miles from Wilmington, on Sunday night last. He was committed to jail, in default of security, until yesterday morning, when he was taken before Justice Gardner for preliminary examination.

The evidence was to the effect that a difficulty occurred between the two, when Hawkins seized a brick and hurled it at the woman striking her in the side and breaking one of her ribs. The wound proved to be a severe one, and the woman, who had to be brought here to a doctor, is still suffering to an extent that rendered it impossible for her to be present at the investigation, and even to suggest the possibility of a fatal result.

The defendant, Hawkins, was required to enter into a justified bond in the sum of $300 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, failing in which he was lodged in jail.

The Crops. Farmers from some of the surrounding counties represent the crops as looking fine, but state that the grass is difficult to get under control on account of the wet weather. In the low lands much damage has been caused by the heavy and frequent rains.

Since the above was written an intelligent Pender farmer informs us that there has been an increased acreage planted this year, and that the farmers are making up by hard work and persistence for the disadvantages of the lateness of the season and other drawbacks. He says the crops in the low lands have been injured to some considerable extent by the wet weather, but that those in more elevated localities have not been hurt.

Foalsing Horses. We learn that Mr. Samuel J. Davis lost a fine horse on Monday night last and Messrs. W. T. Davis and J. F. Post, Jr., one on the Tuesday night following, and that it is supposed both animals were poisoned. They were worked on what is known as the High Hill farm, about eight miles from the city. The opinion that they were foals dealt with is founded on the fact that the horses were in a stupor from which they could not be aroused from the time they were attacked until they died.

Personal. Rev. F. W. Eason, of New Bern, who is returning home from the Sunday School Convention at Shelby, after spending some time among his old friends at Fayetteville, arrived here Wednesday night, on the steamer Ware, and was the guest of Mr. Geo. R. French, Sr. He leaves for New Bern this morning.

CAROLINA YACHT CLUB.

Re-Organization of the Club-The Old Officers Re-elected-Club House to be Built-Sixty-Four Applications-The Club Booming, &c.

At a regular meeting of the Carolina Yacht Club, held yesterday afternoon, after the usual preliminary proceedings, the old officers were re-elected, as follows: Commodore-O. A. Wiggins. Fleet Captain-Clayton Giles. Flag Captain-E. E. Burruss. Purser-W. L. Parsley. Governing Board-Norwood Giles, Chairman. Marshal-Berry Gleaves.

The committee entrusted with the matter reported that they had succeeded in effecting a lease of a portion of the beach opposite Wrightsville Sound for a term of five years, with the privilege of renewal to ten years; whereupon a committee was appointed to have prepared the necessary plans and specifications for the erection of a neat and substantial club house, with cupola, together with the necessary landings, etc., the same to be enclosed with nice wire fence.

The reception of applications for membership was announced as next in order, when the names of sixty-four persons were handed in.

This at once places the club on a substantial basis, and gives it a boom, the results of which will speedily be seen and felt, in the revival of the regattas and races which have hitherto added such attractions to the sound resorts, and on a scale commensurate with the increased facilities which are now assured. We are glad to see such an interest taken in the matter, as it bodes good to our seaside resorts and holds out visions of many pleasant hours in the future to those who are partial to the exciting sport incident to hotly contested boat racing.

THE SCHOOLS. Annual Commencement of the Academy of the Incarnation.

The parents and a few of the friends of the pupils assembled in the spacious hall of the Academy of the Incarnation on Tuesday morning, the 26th inst., to witness the closing exercises of the session. The programme was read by Mr. Chas. Price, and the premiums awarded by the Rev. P. Moore, who closed the pleasant entertainment by a few appropriate remarks. The following is the programme:

Table with columns: DISTRICTS, Max. Temp., Min. Temp., Rain Fall. Rows include Wilmington, Charleston, Augusta, Savannah, Atlanta, Montgomery, Mobile, New Orleans, Galveston, Vicksburg, Little Rock, Memphis.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for to-day: For the Middle Atlantic States, partly cloudy and slightly warmer weather, followed by local rains, southeast to southwest winds, and slight changes in pressure.

For the South Atlantic States, partly cloudy weather, light local rains, south to west winds, stationary or slight rise in barometer and temperature.

For the Gulf States, Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, local rains, partly cloudy weather, light variable winds, stationary or slight rise in temperature and pressure.

The 4th at Burgaw. Our Pender county friends are making extensive preparations for the entertainment and accommodation for the large crowd expected there on the 4th of July, in attendance upon the ceremonies incident to the laying of the corner stone to the new court house. It will be a grand affair, and many visitors are expected to be present from this city.

RIVER AND MARINE. Capt. Robeson, of the steamer Ware, reports a rise of about four or five feet in the river from the effects of recent rains. The river is in good boating order.

The new side-wheel steamer River Queen made a trial trip down the river yesterday afternoon. She is built especially as a light draught steamer, and makes up what she may lack in speed in increased capacity for freight, her engine taking up very little room. Those familiar with such matters pronounce her a success. She was built for Messrs. James Bagley and James C. Stewart, and will run on the Northeast river.
