VOL. XXXII.-NO. 110.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, JULY 29, 1883.

We have said time and again in these columns that Virginia and North Carolina were the only two States that favor the abolition of internal taxes. We were, therefore, expecting that the Virgintans would do just as they have done. We print elsewhere some good reading from two able papers-one of each party. We will hereafter publish other views of the wisdom of the Virginia platform. North Carolina and Virginia Democrats are out of harmony with the party in the Union. That is what is the matter. They favor taxing the poor man's necessaries and are opposed to taxing those articles -palpable, unmistakable luxuries and nothing but luxuries whiskey and tobacco, beer and cigars. If every Democrat in the two States were to favor such a gross wrong we would never sanction it. We will stand by the party in the Union. We are opposed to narrow and selfish sectionalism. We favor distinctly and squarely keeping the tax on the hexuries. There are tens of thousands of it is announced in our advertising colsmus this morning that Unity Tent No. 60. Independent Order of Rechabites, will give an excursion to Smithville, the forts and the Blackfish grounds, on the steamer Passport, on Friday next, August 3d. There will be no dancing, but an organ will be provided to furnish music for the entertainment of the excursionists. The Tent is in its infancy, being only five months old, and the excursion is given to raise money to purchase regalia. The Committee are Messes. Thos. E. Skipper, Geo. W. Bishop and J. W. Branch.

Nick Cramer, a foreign sailor, was arrested yesterday on the charge of false protense, he having shipped on the schooner Hattie R. in June last, obtained a mouth's advance money from his boarding-house keeper and then deserted, since which time he has been working down at the mouth of the river and other places and cluding the officers. He was ordered to give bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance before Justice Millis on Mouday, at 3 o'clock p. m., in default of which he was committed to jail.

A Great Sufferer.

Miss Ida Oldham; daughter of the late W. Oldham, who has long been a great sufferer from rheumatism, which rendered her helpless, died at the residence of Mr. W. H. Stokley, at Wrightsville Sound, yesterday morning. The funeral will take piace at Wrightsville this afternoon, but the remains will be brought here for interment in Oakdale Cemetery.

Sampson Excursionists. The excursion party referred to in our last were from Clinton, Sampson county. and comprised about thirty ladies and gentiemen, who came to Point Caswell in carriages, and then embarked on the steamer John Downen for this city. We learn they | matter to an extent that will tend greatly to had a fine time at Wrightsville.

- There are 20 prisoners in the county jail, of which 3 are from Pender. Of this number all are colored except one from New Hanover and one from Pender.

- Archie Pigford and G. W Mitchell, the former for carrying a con cealed weapon and the latter under a peace warrant, were brought to this city from Pender and lodged in jail. They are both

- Rev. Oscar Miller, pastor of the Missionary Bantist Church, corner of Red Cross and Seventh streets, will administer the rite of baptism at Princess street dock this afternoon between 4 and 5

- Capt. L. S. Belden is putting up a fine frame dwelling on the corner of Cottage Lane and Fourth street, and the old building which stood there is being re moved to Fifth, between Princess and Chesnut streets.

- We learn that the ladies of the Front Street M. E. Church contemplate another of their popular excursions on the steamer Passport next Thursday, August 3d. If you anticipate going down the river wait until then. Their refreshments on board are always superior.

All About a Child.

Some months ago a colored woman named Cella Stewart let another colored woman named Jane Gray, have her little four years old child to raise. Jane Gray took the child home, and time passed on, when one day recently, the mother happened in the neighborhood where Jane Gray lived, where she discovered her child running at large, being at the time in the act of climbing up a well curb, with no one to look after him and the door of Jane's house locked, when her motherly justincts aserted themselves and she took her boy home. This was last Wednesday. On Thursday morning Jane went to Celia's house and demanded the child. The moth er told her the boy was not legally bound to her and she could not have him. They finally got into a fight over him, but Jane ultimately had to depart without the child. That evening the little one was missing, and when the mother went to Jane's house to seek the child, she was told that she (Jane) knew nothing of its whereabouts. Yesterday Deputy Sheriff J. W. Bryan went out to the neighborhood of "Jumping Run" to look for the woman, and at the house of one Alice Bryan he unexpectedly came upon the child, when he took possession of the little fellow and restored him to his distressed mother.

Maj. B. W. Cobb, of the Goldsboro' Messenger, who was in the city yesterday, reports the crops of corn and cotton in Darlington county and in the Pee Dee bottoms as looking very badly, the drought having had a serious effect upon them.

While this is the case to the south of us, we are informed by a gentleman who has returned from a trip through the upper part of Wayne, Greene, Johnston and Wilson counties, that the crops of both cotton and coon in those sections are looking fine and promising an excellent yield:

The Approaching Fair.

We learn from Capt. Paddison, Presi dent of the Fruit Growers' Association. that he has been corresponding with parties in different sections of the State, and that the prospects of a large attendance at the approaching Fruit Fair are very good indeed, and that the indications of a fine display of fruits, etc., are equally encouraging. We are glad to find that the various committees are interesting themselves in the the success of the affair.
