Mrs. Bennett, the novelist, has been very sick recently, but is convalescing.

Gen. Ord's body will not be brought to this country before cold weather.

Blandford leads among the candidates for the Georgia Supreme Court Judgeship.

Eddie Thurston, the lost boy of Richmond, has turned up, and he did not get a good thrashing either.

Lord Wolseley made a speech in Dublin that pleased his countrymen to a little. He expressed pride in the fact that he was born in Ireland.

The Aiken (S. C.) Journal says very emphatically that if Representative Tillman votes for Randall that vote will not be sustained by his constituents.

Hoxgate is said to be living at Piney Point, Va. He is in convenient distance of Washington, so he can draw any thing due him from the Government.

During the first six months of 1882, 1,979 persons died in New Orleans of small pox. Who says the people ought not to be compelled to be vaccinated?

When a Democratic office holder in Washington reads an attack on Mr. Sam Randall in a Democratic paper, visions of trouble appear before him and down he sits and writes sundry patent, cast-iron editorials and sends them off to the press to boost his favorite. The dodge is thin but common.

Austin F. Pike, the newly elected Senator from New Hampshire, is 64 years of age. He has been Speaker of both Houses of the Legislature. He is a lawyer, of course. The Philadelphia Times says:

"His election signalizes the overthrow of the little bosses of the Rollins Chandler stripe and opens the way for the development of some real statesmen in New Hampshire if the State has any material left out of which statesmen can be made."

When did you ever read of any thing more exciting than the following, that occurred on the 2nd inst., at Erie, Pennsylvania:

Daniel Conroy, whose reason was dethroned three years ago over the fifteen puzzle and who was released from the asylum later, had another attack while working at the top of the Cathedral spire today. Dropping his tools he seized a fellow-workman, John Growdon, and attempted to fling him over. For full five minutes the men rolled over and struggled at the top of the tower. Both men were saved from death by laborers who ascended to the rescue.

According to Mr. Erskine M. Phelps, a prominent Democrat in Chicago, the Tariff Reform movement is popular in New England. He says it will be the main issue in the next Presidential campaign. We quote:

"I have spent considerable time during the last month in New England and have been brought in contact with many leading manufacturers, and I must say that I was really surprised to see such a generally full and unanimous expression on this subject. I think—yes, I firmly believe—that the Democratic theory of a tariff for revenue only will be accepted as warmly in the heretofore protection States of New England as it will be in the rest."

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXII.—NO. 116. WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, AUGUST 5, 1883. WHOLE NO. 4972

A Lynching case has occurred in Des Moins, Iowa, and the best citizens took a hand. The following should be but under the head of "choice reading":

"They were of the best and most highly-esteemed residents of Cass, Audubon, and Shelby counties—good citizens, indulgent fathers, and kind husbands—men who would not have taken the step had they believed, under the Iowa laws, that sufficient evidence could have been produced, with the dying declaration of Crawford to the contrary, to have made the judges sentence Hardy to be hanged after a verdict of murder in the first degree."

And all this happened in the land of free schools and "high civilization!"

The Republican papers in the North for a week or so have been reporting some awful Ku-klux outrages in Georgia. But it is not the whites but convicts who are perpetrating the deviltry. The following special to the Philadelphia Times explains it:

"ATLANTA, Aug. 2.—The Ku-klux outrages in the neighborhood of Maysville, Banks county, still continue and the citizens are entirely powerless to check the reign of terror that has been started. Reports received from Maysville to-day state that Robert Sansern was fatally shot and two other men killed. It is supposed that the band who are thus terrorizing the country consists of about thirty escaped convicts and desperadoes, who live in caves in the mountains."

Mrs. Anna Green, daughter-in-law of Major General Nathaniel Green, second in command of the Continental Army, and mother of Dr. Nathaniel R. Green of Newport, R. I., will complete her one hundredth year on the 8th of November next.—Phil. Times.

General Greene spelt his name with a e.

Gen. Early contradicts the statement of the Richmond State that Gen. Ewell was so disrespectful to Gen. Lee as to use "cuss words" in a dispatch announcing a victory. He shows how this was impossible.

The Benevolent Society and the Needy Poor.

We are requested by Mrs. C. G. Kennedy President of the Female Benevolent Society, to tender her thanks to those who responded to her late appeal for funds for the needy poor. She received $12.25 in contributions for that purpose, and though the sum is inadequate and will go but a little ways in relieving the urgent necessities of many in the community, she is none the less thankful to those who did their part in the good work. It is to be hoped that the good ladies of the Society will not continue to be hampered in their efforts to alleviate the sufferings and distress to be found in our midst, but that they may be furnished with the means so necessary in the progress of the good work.

Auld Lang Syne.

One of our old citizens pointed out to us yesterday a building near the northwest corner of Dock and Second streets in which he went to school fifty-six years ago. Mrs. Junius Moore was the teacher. But two or three of those who were the companions of our friend in his pursuit after knowledge in those old days are now among the living. Quite a number of the pupils attained to eminence in their respective callings, and one continues still to add lustre to his profession despite the encroachments of time.

Personals.

Mr. Orin T. Thomas leaves for New York to-day, where he is to remain about three months, perfecting himself in his beautiful art.

We regret to learn that Mr. R. W. Chadwick, formerly of this city but now of the Beaufort Telephone, is very sick.

Mr. W. J. Pogue, of the firm of E. H. Pogue & Son, tobacco manufacturers, of Durham, and Mr. W. H. Muse, of the same place, are here on a short visit.

Local Dots.

— Eleventh Sunday after Trinity.

— Receipts of cotton yesterday 10 bales.

Day's length 13 hours and 48 minutes.

— Eggs are selling at 16¾ cents per dozen.

— Thanks to Hon. M. W. Ransom for public documents.

— The Board of Audit and Finance meets to-morrow afternoon at 5 o'clock.

— The Board of Aldermen meet in regular monthly session to-morrow afternoon at 4 o'clock.

— Mrs. D. L. Gore and children are spending the summer with Mrs. Gore's father in Robeson county.

— The Register of Deeds issued only two marriage licenses during the past week, and they were both for colored couples.

— Mrs. S. A. Hughes, Evangelist of the North Carolina Conference of the A. M. E. Church, will preach at Mt. Zion Church at 11 o'clock this morning.

— Mr. Lyman B. May has been assigned to duty as Superintendent of the National Cemetery in place of Mr. R. C. Taylor, transferred to Annapolis, Maryland.

— We learn that the store recently occupied by Mr. H. M. Bowden, on South Market street, between Front and Second, is to be opened by Mr. B. Solomon as a clothing store.

— The annual meeting of the Board of Magistrates and County Commissioners for this county, for the purpose of levying taxes, &c., will be held at the Court House to-morrow, at 10 o'clock.

— There will be no services in the First Baptist Church to-day, the Rev. Mr. Sanders being prevented by other engagements from being present. It is thought he will be here during the coming week, however.

— There are said to be a great many paradise trees about town, and the odor from them is anything but pleasant and healthful. Several old ones have been cut down at the corner of Fourth and Chestnut streets.

— Messrs. Geo. N. Harriss and Samuel G. Hall announce their intention of publishing a daily paper during the session of the Fair of the Fruit Grower's Association, to be the organ of the Association and to be styled the Pomologist. It will be for free distribution.

A South Carolina Abductor of Females Comes to Grief.

Information was received by a prominent business firm of this city, a few days ago, to the effect that a man named John D. Lynch had trifled with the affections of a young girl at Sumter, S. C., and had finally abducted her from the home of her parents and that the couple were known to have come in this direction. Upon application a warrant was issued by Mayor Hall, acting in the capacity of a justice of the peace, and placed in the hands of a judicious and expert officer, who took with him an assistant and started out on the track of the man and his misguided victim.

They finally traced them into the midst of the Green Swamp, about eleven miles from Brinkley Station, in Brunswick county. In the meantime the officer had his paper endorsed by Justice Forme, at Cronly, in that county, and, having procured a wagon from a Mr. Applewhite who showed a willingness to afford them all the facilities possible, they proceeded to explore the intricate recesses of the swamp in question and finally came upon the couple occupying a room in a certain house. They were taken into custody and brought to this city, when the man Lynch was lodged in jail and the girl was taken care of.

It is said that Lynch has a wife and two children in Sumter. The girl is about 16 years of age.

Since writing the above we learn that an officer was to leave for Sumter with the young girl yesterday evening. Lynch (very significant name under the circumstances) will remain in jail here until Tuesday, when the sheriff of the county is expected to arrive here with the proper papers and take him to Sumter.

Trapped at Last.

One Archie Simms, colored, was arrested by Officer Joe Whitney, yesterday, charged with stealing a copper still from Mr. A. H. Paddison. The arrest was made on a warrant issued by Justice Gardner in September, 1881, and the defendant has succeeded in eluding the officers ever since. It seems that he got into a fight with a woman on Friday, and a warrant was issued for his arrest for assault and battery. In serving the warrant Officer Whitney thought he recognized in his capture the man who had successfully avoided arrest for a more serious crime, and subsequent investigation proved the correctness of his surmises. When the assault and battery case is finally disposed of he will be held for preliminary examination on the charge of larceny.

Mortuary.

There was one interment—an adult—in Oakdale Cemetery during the week closing yesterday, the subject having been brought here for burial.

Bellevue Cemetery reports one interment—a child—for the week.

In Pine Forest (colored) Cemetery there were three interments—two adults and one child—during the week.

The Fire Last Night.

Shortly after 12 o'clock, last night, a fire broke out in the store-room of Mr. John H. Strauss, dealer in groceries, northeast corner of Chesnut and Water streets, and a lusty alarm soon brought the engines and firemen to the scene. Several streams of water were soon poured into the store room, and although the flames had made considerable progress they were soon extinguished. There is much valuable property in the immediate vicinity, and it was feared at one time that there would be an extensive conflagration, but the prompt work of the firemen kept the flames closely confined. We could not learn the extent of the damage, but the stock was almost entirely destroyed either by fire or water. The origin of the fire is not determined, but it is supposed to have originated from the bursting of a lamp which was left burning in the store room. The building is the property of Mr. John L. Holmes, and the damage is fully covered by insurance.

A Terrible Fall.

A party of colored boys were playing near the corner of Sixth and Queen streets, on Friday night, when one of them proposed to climb a very high oak tree situated in the vicinity, in the branches of which a large number of martins had congregated. The other boys helped him up the trunk of the tree as high as possible and he then made his way far up into the branches. Finally, when he was very near the top of the high oak, a sudden crash was heard and down tumbled the venturesome climber. It is said by eye-witnesses that the fall must have been from twenty-five to thirty feet, but it was considerably broken by the limbs and branchs with which he came in contact. He was picked up in a badly battered and bruised condition and taken to his home, where he received proper surgical attention. He is about 12 or 13 years old.

Getting Ready.

The city court convicts were engaged yesterday in cleaning up the court house park and whitewashing the walls preparatory to displaying upon the grounds a portion of the large amount of the products of the orchard, field and nursery, are expected to be on exhibition here at the approaching Fair. Among other things, it is expected that a practical demonstration of the modus operandi of manufacturing sugar from the sugar cane will be made.

Mayor's Court.

John Currie, Celia Sauls and Alex. Sauls, all colored, were arraigned before Mayor Hall yesterday morning on the charge of fighting and acting otherwise disorderly on the public streets, and were found guilty; the two males were fined each five dollars and the female was let off on the payment of three dollars.

C. H. Hill was called upon to answer to the charge of selling green corn outside the market limits, and was fined $3.

Magistrate's Court.

Archie Simms, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millis yesterday, charged with assault and battery upon Jane Melvin, colored. Defendant was found guilty and judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs.

Jane Melvin was next called upon to answer to the charge of assault and battery upon Archie Simms, but was adjudged not guilty and discharged, the prosecutor being required to pay the costs.

RIVER AND MARINE.

— The steamer Bladen arrived through from Fayetteville yesterday.

— It now turns out that the Norwegian barque Ovaar Odd, which arrived at the quarantine station from Rio Janeiro on Friday, lost a man with small pox, and not with yellow fever, during the passage.
