- Goldsboro Messenger: Death emoved from our midst yesterday one of Goldsboro's oldest citizens, Mrs. Sarah Adams, widow of the late Mr. Nathan Adams. — The North Carolina Ameleur Press Association will hold its annual session, on Tuesday, Angust 14th, Rev. J. N. Stallings, of the Clinton Caucasian, will address them.

- Scientific American: An improved bran or flour packer has been pat ented by Mr. Henry G. Hall, of Fayette C. The invention consists of plungers for forcing the bran or other ground material into the barrel, bag, or package. Means are providing for the escape of the air from between the particles of the substance being packed, to enable it to pack more closely than is possible by the common methods of packing.

- Raleigh Recorder: As an evidence of the growth of public opinion in our section on the subject of education, we have to say that Elder T. K. Brown, of Buncombe county, has arranged to enter himself and six of his children in Judson College at the opening of the session in September next. — Died, in Hendersonville, on the 26th ult., Peter Stradley, in the 87th year of his age. This departed maint was for 30 years the Superintendent of the Hendersonville Baptist Sunday

- Asheville Citizen : Fine rains fell here on Thursday, and we believe they have been somewhat general through the county. At all events farmers begin to speak more cheerily of their crops which had begun to feel the effects of the dry - By the kind attention of Mr. J. M. Ray, we had the opportunity of seeing a box of tobacco prepared for the Boston exhibit, and which was shipped on Tuesday. The box contains fifty pounds of Buncombe county "brights," bought at an average of one dollar a pound, which are really handsome specimens of the fine tobaccos of this section.

— Statesville Landmark: On Sunday last P. B. Kennepy, Esq., of Eagle Mills township, drove his wife, daughter and a Miss Young, of Salisbury, who was on a visit to the family, to Tabor Church, and had just taken the bridles off the horses and was putting on the halters, when the borses took fright at a cow and ran away. Mrs. Kennedy and the little girls were still in the vehicle, one wheel of which was dashed violently against a stump, throwing the occupants out. Mr. Kennedy's daughter had an arm broken, and her companion was painfully injured by being thrown against a log. Mrs. Kennedy, we believe, escaped being hurt. -Simonton Female College has been rented for the next year to Miss Fannie Everitt, of Goldsboro, and the school will open on September 10th

An additional tax of $50,000 has been voted, making the whole amount subscribed by that county to be $100,000.

- Morganton Mountaineer: The fall session of Rutherford College, in this county, commenced last Wednesday. We understand that the prospects for a large attendance are bright. - A terrific hall storm prevailed in the valley of Lower Creek; just this side of Lenoir on the Morganton road, last Saturday. Orchards and vineyards were stripped of fruit, and in Dr. Beall's yard chickens that had taken refuge in the trees were killed by the hailstones — On Tuesday, July 24th, the wife of Thomas Powell, of Burke county, died and a few days after Mr. Powell was jailed on the charge of her murder. The only ground for suspicion disclosed was the fact that those who prepared the body for burial had discovered a discolored spot on the left shoulder of the deceased, apparent ly a bruise, but which Dr. Laxton said was not and after a hearing before Judge Avery, Mr Powell was discharged.

- Clinton Caucasian: A meeting of fine interest was closed at Brown's M. H. on Sunday. Nine converts were baptized on that morning in the Great Coharie at Stephen's Bridge. Others will be baptized hereafter, - Our esteemed friend. Thos. H. - Whiteville Enterprise: Here is question for the solution of the students of natural history. Some years ago Mr. S. C. Potts, at Flemington, caught a large rattlesnake with eight rattles and a button. He put this snake in a cage and kept it from one spring until the following winter. During this time the snake did not eat one mouthful and drank water only twice. Upon one occasion a black bird was caught and placed in the cage. He struck the bird, which immediately died. The snake partially swallowed this bird and then threw it up again. After this time and again rats were placed in in the eage with it, when it would evince fear. Being made angry it would strike the rate, but they were never known to die, though kept in the cage for days and days, sometimes being struck time and again. The rat, too, became angry and poumed upon the snake, caught it by the rattles and bit them off. There is no doubt but that the rat was struck, for the blood would flow from the places, and the two points at which the fangs entered were plainly visible. Now, the question arises, why did not the rate die?

A Strange Beath in Sampson. A terrible affair occurred in Sampson county on Monday last. Mr. John Matthews. a very worthy citizen, residing about fifteen miles from Clinton, was returning home from the latter place, when it is supposed that his horse ran away and caused his death. Parties passing along the road about four or five miles from Clinton, on Monday night, discovered the unfortunate man lying across the front axle, with his head caught in one of the wheels of his buggy and his neck broken; and it is taken for granted that he fell from the vehicle. Deceased was a man of many fine qualities and was much esteemed by all who knew him. He leaves a family, who have the profound sympathy of a large circle of friends in their sad bereavement.
