A young Pole, son of Count Mourdosky, is at Pottsville, Pa., seeking work in the coal mines. He is accompanied by a serf. He was educated at the University of Warsaw and imbibing Nihilistic notions he had to flee the country.

It was owing to the novels of the great Russian novelist, Tourgenoff, that the Russian serfs were liberated. The Philadelphia Press, in an editorial discussing him, showing true critical insight, says:

Ivan Sergueyevitch Tourgenoff will rank in literature among the few who could see life as it is and find enough in fact for the elements of the dramatic novel. Not that he lacked imagination, for his imagination reforms every situation and gives every page of his works, but so subtle is the use and so vivid are his pictures that the stamp of reality is impressed upon the minutest details of his scenes.

Our North Carolina enthusiast, Hinton Rowan Helper, is still trying to work up his grand railroad scheme.

of which we have made mention before.

He is said to have the indorsement of ex-Secretary Evarts, Hon. James B. Bodford, M. C., from Colorado; Prof. Bartlett, of the Mutual Life Insurance Company; Col. H. N. Fisher, Chilean Consul at Boston; ex-Collector Hiram Barney, of New York, and President Thomas Nickerson, of the Mexican Central Railway.

We are pleased to see a statement in the conservative Baltimore Sun to the effect that the Democrats of Maryland do not intend to give the Republicans the victory by a serious split among themselves. Noticing the campaign arrangements of the friends of Gov. Hamilton it says:

When the issues are fully made up the struggle will probably be sharp, but there was yesterday a general expression of satisfaction that all who are concerned have pronounced in favor of leaving the matter to the State primaries for settlement. The new York Times Republicans, on the basis of the temper of the Maryland Democrats, both Hamilton men and the reverse, when it assumes that either element is disposed to see the party defeated if their united votes can prevent.

A negro on the Virginia Midland endeavored to drag a lady from her seat. He had occupied it and had gone into another car. A lady came in and took the empty seat. The negro returned, demanded it, and was forcibly dragged from her from it when W. W. Sharp, of Mississippi, knocked him down, and upon his rising, repeated it. Other colored men started to the negro's assistance. Sharp stopped them with a revolver. Other passengers appeared and the matter was quieted.

We open the Philadelphia Times of the 5th and its first page furnishes us with the following items of crime in the North, and the returns were not in by a great deal: James Donohue, at Cleveland, Ohio, murdered his stepfather; two dead infants found in the cesspool of a Philadelphia public school; Daniel Burns killed Chas. Kline at Pottsville, Pa.; a party of people in a stage robbed by highwaymen as they were returning to Boston; a gang of young thieves discovered living together in Boston, and so on.

Mount Airy News: The Green Hill woollen mills are turning out a first-class article of socks, etc. This is another new feature added to their extensive business.

Greensboro Workman: The important case of Davis against the Kernersville News for libel comes up in the Superior Court here this evening. It is an important case and elicits much interest.

Kernersville News: Walter E. Warren, of Prospect Hill, Caswell county, came on the train last week, expecting to attend this session of Oak Ridge Institute. He is scarcely nineteen and tips the beam at 300.

Stanley Observer: Rev. T. Page Ricard, of the North Carolina Conference M. E. Church South, was in Albemarle last week. He is now in his sixty-second year and is looking quite vigorous.

The Grand Jury called for a public meeting of the citizens of Henderson to take steps to induce the Christian church to locate there the college proposed to be built.

New Bern Journal: Six persons were added to the church at Tranter's Creek. Mr. A. Latham, conductor of the Kingston College, Dr. R. H. Lewis President, opened last Monday with 70 students.

Clinton Graded School, Prof. Claxton Principal, began its fall session with 214 pupils. Rev. Mr. Redding, of the M. E. Church, immediately opened at Galesville's bridge on Tuesday last. Seventeen were added to the church at Mt. Zion on that day.

Oxford Torchlight: We understand that $4,000 worth of improvements are now under contract in the town of Henderson. One of North Carolina's contributions to the Boston Exposition is a stalk of cotton from Littleton containing 335 bolls. Dr. N. M. Ferris, U. S. N., left last week for New York where he will soon embark on a three years cruise to China and other points.

The Grand Jury calls for a public meeting of the citizens of Henderson to take steps to induce the Christian church to locate there the college proposed to be built.

New Bern News Sheet: One cargo of 1,700 Bogus Soud watermelons was brought to Market yesterday by Capt. R. C. Bell, on his sharp, named "Davis."

This morning Mr. W. H. Pearce called on Mrs. Polly Chadwick at an early hour and informed her that he dreamed last night $300 in bonds, which she had been keeping in a trunk in her bed room, had been stolen. The matter alarmed Mrs. Chadwick and she at once examined the trunk, when lo! the bonds were gone—they had been stolen since she last examined them, six months ago, when they were all right.

Raleigh News-Observer: Acting Governor Robinson is today preparing a proclamation calling for an election for a Congressman from the first District, November 7th, to fill the vacancy caused by the death of Hon. W. F. Pool.

A pessimist who was at Lenoirburg, Monday, says the crops there are in a terrible condition, as a result of the long drought. Cotton knee-high, and corn waist-high may be seen anywhere there.—There are about one hundred and sixty students at Chapel Hill. This is about the same number of students as last year this time, but there are more old students and fewer new ones.

Durham Recorder: We learn that R. I. Rogers has bought out the Fullerton Brown Stone Quarry, which is said to be the finest Brown Stone in the United States for building and all other purposes. There is not less than $50,000 deposited in our Durham Banks, by Alliance and Coalwell farmers. This speaks well for that section.—Prof. R. P. Peil, formerly Professor at Chapel Hill, has accepted a position in the Asheville Graduate School, and has been elected to the Durham Tobacco Manufacturing Company finding their business increasing rapidly, will soon erect a large addition to their mammoth establishment, to cost $30,000. Their trade is now much larger than ever before, and they continue to make improvements.

Tarboro Southern: We have information to the effect that while the pupils in a public school near Williamson, to the number of sixty, were at their studies on Thursday, they were frightened nearly to death by the crashing of glass, and the next moment through the broken window sprang Abner Eaton, a deranged man. He was armed with a club and swore he would kill the teacher. Several of the female pupils fainted, but the teacher attacked the man, and after a desperate struggle overpowered him. Eaton was taken home. The next day he escaped from there, and going to the house of Mr. James Lanier, broke in while the family were at supper, and attacked the entire family. He had to be knocked senseless ere he was subdued.

Charlotte Journal Observer: The Superior Court was unexpectedly adjourned yesterday morning on account of the absence of Judge Gilmer, who had been called to Greensboro the night previous by a telegram requesting his attendance at the bedside of his son, who is dangerously ill.—From a private letter received in the city yesterday we learn that a very serious wreck occurred near Chester, on the Chester & Lenoir Narrow-Gauge Railroad, day before yesterday, in which the engineer and two or three colored railroad hands were very seriously hurt. Important movements in railroad circles are expected to result from the meeting of the Richmond & Danville men on the 15th of this month, when it will be seen what effect the Seely syndicate will have upon the management of the road. New developments are also expected in the affairs of the East Tennessee, Virginia & Georgia Railroad. E. H. R. Lyman, of A. A. Low & Bros., and John T. Master, the Brooklyn capitalist, will enter the board of directors next week.

Raleigh Farmer and Mechanic.

Raleigh reports 540 babies as the growing crop for the city limits. Mr. Philip W. Wiley is to follow his profession, and on the public printing, a position heretofore held by Mr. John Spelman.—Asheboro Courier expresses faith in the High Point & Randalman Railroad. It says the grading is nearly completed and Brown's X Roads, and President Snow has gone North to buy rolling stock.—P. H. Winston, Jr., Esq., of Winston, promptly and emphatically nails the report that he would edit the new Republican daily. He says he means to follow his profession, and in Winston, without any thought of change.—Ex-Gov. Holden yesterday issued a card denying that he had either joined the Democratic party, or had any intention of editing the new Observer. He agrees with the Democrats on the Tariff question, the race question, and the injustice which which the South has been treated since 1860, in regard to an equitable distribution of public offices, and so on. He also favors the restoration of the unjustly collected cotton tax.

Local Notes.

Receipts of cotton yesterday 160 bales.

The Champion Compress was at work yesterday.

No cases for the Mayor's Court yesterday morning.

Mr. F. H. Darby has just returned from a trip to New York and the watering places.

Our correspondent, "A Poor Man," is reminded that we do not print anonymous communications.

By a letter received from Rev. Dr. J. B. Taylor, by a friend in this city, dated about the 18th or 20th of August, we learn that he was at that time in Paris, but was expected to leave very shortly for Italy.

The tax books for the year 1883 are in the hands of the Sheriff for collection, and he urges promptness upon taxpayers. He also calls the attention of poll-tax payers to an important matter in which they are somewhat vitally concerned.

No duels yet been obtained to the discredit who attempted to murder Mr. A. J. Swinson, last week; an account of which appeared in the STAR. It was thought the officers were on his track at one time, but it was found that they were mistaken.

In the article about the Metahe Life-Boat, yesterday, we wrote that she had two air-tight tanks, one forward and the other aft. The word "forward" was transposed into "ward." In the paragraph headed "The New Steamship Line" we wrote "certain contingencies." It appeared "such contingencies."

The Cotton Market.

A correspondent of the Savannah Morning News, replying to some strictures regarding the local cotton market of that city under date of Tuesday, September 4th, makes use of certain facts which may be of interest hereabouts, as middling cotton in this market has been quoted for several days past at 94 cents, and all the receipts of new cotton have been sold at the quotations, while Wilmington cotton is graded the same as Savannah and compares very favorably with any of the Southern ports.

Middling cotton yesterday was quoted—At Galveston..... 99-10c At New Orleans..... 94c At Mobile..... 94c At Savannah..... 94c At Charleston..... 94c At Norfolk..... 94c

Quotations at Galveston and New Orleans are higher than in Savannah, being for cotton of superior staple, which constitutes the bulk of their receipts, and are not obtainable for upland cotton. In Mobile, although the market is quoted higher than in Savannah, it is reported nominal—sales none.

Charleston classification is one-half to three-quarters of a grade stricter than Savannah class, hence the quotation there is higher. Norfolk's quotation of 94c, is for old cotton, which Eastern spinners prefer to new crops, and for which they pay higher prices. Norfolk has carried a stock of 15,000 bales through the summer, and receipts of new cotton at that point so far amount to only a few hundred bales. Besides the actual rate of freight by steamer from Savannah to New York is $1.50, from Norfolk to New York 50c a bale. Hence cotton is intrinsically worth 3-16c more in Norfolk than in Savannah.

The above embraces a cogent and comprehensive explanation of a fact that has worked no little disadvantage to Wilmington, and that is the difference in the classification of cotton, which is from one-half to three-quarters of a grade stricter in Charleston than in Savannah and Wilmington, and consequently leads to the impression that cotton is bringing a better price in Charleston than in the other places named, which is not the case.

Police Report for August.

During the month of August there were thirty-five police arrests for the following offenses: Affray, 1 white male; 1 colored male. Nuisance, 1 white male. Disorderly conduct, 6 white males; 9 colored males; 5 colored females. Drunk and down, 2 white males; 1 colored male. Larceny, 2 white males; 1 colored male. Throwing rocks, 1 colored male. Vagrancy, 1 colored male; 1 colored female. Violating market ordinance, 2 colored males. Violating tax ordinance, 1 white male. The nationalities represented were as follows: American, white 9, colored 22; English 1; Irish 1; German 2.

Applied for lodgings, 1 white male and 1 colored male.

Amount of fines collected, $76; amount of pound fees, $19.90.

Six places of business were found open at night by the police.

Number of dogs impounded and killed 9.

Snakes.

Mr. J. H. Savage, Superintendent of the County Poor House, captured a young rattlesnake yesterday morning. The beautiful but dangerous reptile was found enjoying a siesta under the shadow of a pepper plant inside the garden, near the cook-house. He procured a box, seized his snakeship by the tail and popped him in, and when we saw him the box had been furnished with a glass cover, so that the snake could be seen at an advantage. He has four rattles and a button. A large one has been seen about the premises, and Mr. Savage will next try to make a prisoner of him also.

Cape Fear Academy.

We found on our table yesterday a neat pamphlet, which, upon examination, we discovered to be the Catalogue of the Cape Fear Academy, of Wilmington, for the session of 1883-'84, under the management of Capt. Washington Catlett, with Prof. Wm. A. Law as assistant and Prof. E. VanLaer as teacher of Modern Languages.

Badly Hurt.

A Mr. Baldwin, in the employ of Messrs. Chadbourne & Co., was engaged in chopping a piece of timber near Abbottsburg, on Wednesday, when the axe missed its aim and entered his left foot, splitting it open from the toes to the instep, inflicting a terrible wound. At last accounts he was suffering intensely.

Magistrate's Court.

Tucker Townsend, colored, was arraigned before Justice Millia, yesterday, charged with assault and battery upon Samuel Larkins. Judgment was suspended upon the payment of costs. Peter Davis, colored, for failure to list his poll-tax for 1883, submitted and paid the costs.

Sick and Destitute.

A colored man named Peter Cowan, living in Parsley's Alley, north of the railroad, was sent to the County Poor House yesterday. He is reported to have been suffering not only from a complication of diseases, but from the lack of food and nourishment. It is thought he cannot recover.

RIVER AND MARINE.

Barque Hattie, II, sailed from Hamburg on the 5th inst, for this port.

A dispatch from the Signal Office, at Washington, D. C., dated 6:10 P. M., yesterday, says that there are indications that a storm is developing on the southeast coast of Florida; and that vessels about to sail should be detained in port until further notice.
