Blaine is in Washington among the members of the Grand Old Party.

The Hoadly did not pan out well. Intelligent voters are not much affected by personal detraction.

Bryant's Weekly warns the Republicans to look to capturing the New York Legislature. Ohio will manage that game.

A Democratic ticket composed of both whites and negroes voting with the latter carried the day in Nashville, Tenn., municipal election.

The General Convention assented to the consecration of Rev. Dr. Dudleigh, as assistant bishop of Virginia, the agitation of a division of the diocese will probably cease.

A prize fight was stopped after forty rounds at Farmington, N. H., between Dennis Delaf'y and Denis Canon. Time one hour and forty minutes. The police broke up the fight.

The Western Union has absorbed fifteen telegraph companies in seventeen years. It is a monster mail-eater. Its nominal capital is $80,000,000. What is its real capital is no matter of record.

The Gulf Mail of the Mist has made a second time safely through the rapids of the Niagara River. It arrived up the 10th. Four thousand people gathered to see the performance of the little boat.

An old miser by the name of Walker died recently at Walden, N. Y. He was a stone mason and worked at his trade, never losing a day. He lived in extreme poverty, sponging wherever he could. He left $50,000 and gave it all to a young girl who took him in.

Butler was showing the North Carolina editors through the State House in Boston when this happened, according to the Springfield Republican:

When the sacred codfish suspended in the House was reached the Governor explained that it had a dual significance—first and best of all, it was symbolical of one of the State's peculiar and important interests, the fisheries; for the other meaning it typified an equally peculiar but much less important element in the growth of the commonwealth, a certain caste of Boston aristocracy.

The Charleston News and Courier tells of a small estate of $1,500 in personal property and 800 acres of land left by Mr. Wilson Miller in Mecklenburg county, N. C. He had eleven brothers. There are 150 heirs at law, three descendants. Some are of the fifth generation. The shares of that generation will be extremely small—not more than one-seven-hundred-and-forty-second part of the estate.

The pistol was used with effect in Baltimore on the 11th—cause politics. An account says:

"Two of the most widely known Democratic politicians of Baltimore, James F. Bussey and William F. Harig, became involved in a quarrel this afternoon at the main entrance of the City Hall over yesterday's Democratic primaries and opened fire upon each other with revolvers in the midst of a crowd. A dozen shots were exchanged and hostilities were only suspended when Bussey was borne away with a bullet in his abdomen and both arms shattered. Harig was untouched. William A. Flannigan, a bystander, was shot."

—Uncomfortably warm yesterday.

A Pig that Would Go to Church.

A gentleman who attended the late meeting of the Eastern Baptist Association, in Pender county, informs us of an incident that came to his knowledge while there. A Mr. R. P. Allen, who lives about fifteen miles distant from Bethlehem Church, in Caintuck township, where the meeting was held, started to attend the same, but had not proceeded very far on his journey, when he discovered that he was being followed by a pet hog that he thought a great deal of. As it is no more in accordance with the prevailing fashion for hogs (of that particular species) to go to meeting in the country than it is in town, Mr. Allen halted at the first house he came to and got permission to put up his favorite "porker" there until his return, but he had not gone any considerable distance before he was surprised to hear again what sounded like the peculiar grunt of his pet on the road behind him, and a look to the rear confirmed his suspicion, for there was no doubting his identity. At the next house he secured temporary quarters for him again; but, upon Mr. Allen's arrival at the church, one of the first grunts of satisfaction which greeted his appearance came from his own pet pig, who had followed him the entire fifteen miles, apparently determined that no put up pig-stye or anything else should deprive him of the privilege of attending meeting with the "boss" that time.

Grand Opera.

The greatest event of the season will be the appearance of Madame Minnie Hauk and her superb company of artists, on next Thursday night.

Hundreds of persons have been already enquiring for seats at Dyer's, and the event promises to be a grand affair. There will undoubtedly be the largest house we have had for years.

There has been considerable expense in bringing these fine artists to Wilmington, and the music loving people appear to appreciate the efforts displayed by the management, and will fill the house to overflowing.

See fourth page for other local news.

Present amount of policy	13,126

UNITED STATES OF AMERICA,
DISTRICT COURT OF UNITED STATES,
DISTRICT OF CAPE FEAR,
In the Eastern District of North Carolina.

Whereas a libel has been filed in the District Court of the United States, for the Cape Fear District, in Eastern District of North Carolina, on the 13th day of October, 1883, by Seth W. Davis, libellant, against the Barque Ganger Rolf, her tackle, apparel and furniture, alleging in substance that the Master of the said Barque, in violation of a charter party made with the libellant, failed and refused to take and receive on board of the said Barque fifty thousand feet of lumber, which the libellant was prepared to ship thereon, whereby the libellant was damaged to the extent of three hundred dollars; and the further sum of fifteen dollars lighterage on 10,000 feet of lumber tendered and refused. And alleging further that the Master of the said Barque wilfully, corruptly and dishonestly delayed proceeding upon his voyage, in accordance with the said charter party, for the space of sixteen days, and without the knowledge or consent of the libellant collected from the libellant's agents at Nassau the sum of $480—pretended demurrage sustained by the Master of the said Barque, whereby libellant was damaged to the extent of $480. And the further sum of fifteen dollars, also wrongfully and dishonestly collected from his said agents at Nassau, for towage, for which this libellant was in no way responsible—the whole of said damages aggregating eight hundred and ten dollars, and praying process against said vessel, and that said vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture may be condemned and sold to pay said damages, with costs, charges and expenses.

Now, therefore, in pursuance of the monition, under the seal of the said Court to me directed and delivered, I do hereby give public notice to all persons claiming the said vessel, her tackle, apparel and furniture, or in any manner interested therein, that they be and appear before the next District Court, to be held in the city of Wilmington, in the Cape Fear District, in the Eastern District of North Carolina, on the 1st Monday after the 4th Monday in October, 1883, then and there to interpose their claims, and to make their allegations in that behalf.

Dated 13th day of October, 1883.

A Public Benefactor.

A WEEK AGO TO-DAY A PARTY OF YOUNG gentlemen were standing on the corner of Market and Third Streets engaged in earnest conversation. An attentive ear would quickly reveal the fact that the subject which engrossed their undivided attention was not one of a religious or political point of view. "It's astonishing," remarked one, apparently the talker of the crowd, "since Otterbourg established the 'Men's Wear Depot' in our midst, I have actually saved fifty per cent. on the clothing I have bought since that time. Formerly," said he, not heeding in the least the interruption of his friends, "I had my garments made to order at a double cost. Unless I gave my measure a respectable fit otherwise could not be had. Observe the change. Now I can go to the popular Iron Front Store, and for half the money purchase a ready-made suit, possessing all the requisites of style, fit and finish, equal and in many respects better than those made to order. Otterbourg, you see, has been raised in the clothing business, and being a young man—naturally—can better and more successfully cater for the desires of his young fellow patrons. And for the older and more sedate class of customers, his practical experience of over fifteen years has taught him a lesson well calculated to satisfy their desires, etc. It's a positive fact," he continued, growing more enthusiastic, "OTTERBOURG'S CLOTHING BEATS THE WORLD. It possesses that peculiar snap which goes so far to the make up of style, general good appearance, &c. Otterbourg's stock is a subject of general comment. It contains all conceivable shades, and every style known to the fashion world. Otterbourg's tendency is upward and onward, and his marvellous reductions on former prices, and the introduction in our midst of the LATEST STYLES, establish him truly A PUBLIC BENEFACTOR."—Daily Reporter.
