

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

A treaty of peace between Chili and Peru has been signed. — Schooner South-amer of Beaufort, N. C., for Charleston, is on her way to New River. — Ex-Congressman Albright, of Ohio, is dead. — The State Assistant Postmaster General recom-

Twenty-four diplomas and seven special prizes. A liberal share of medals is accorded to the United States Fish Commission, the United States National Museum, the United States Light-House Board and the United States Signal Service.

Senator Joe Brown, President of the State Railroad of Georgia, says the negroes shall have as good accommodations and full rights on the trains as the whites. A dispatch from Atlanta to the New York Times says:

"He says that colored people will not be permitted to go into a car intended for white ladies, nor to invade upon white people who do not desire their society, but that comfortable cars will be arranged on the Western and Atlantic for both races, where they can travel comfortably and safely. Conductors on his trains, under his orders, will no more permit white people to intrude upon colored than they will permit colored to intrude upon white people. His orders will be stringent to conductors to see that colored people pay the same price paid by whites shall have as comfortable accommodations, but they must take it in different cars. Senator Brown said a little common sense, with a desire to do what is just in the premises, would regulate this whole matter to the satisfaction of both races."

New York leading Republicans are opposed to stirring the Tariff question in the State campaign. They give a reason for their course. They say:

"Another advantage in favor of postponement is that the Democrats of Congress are likely to divide on Free trade and Protection, and whether Mr. Randall is elected to the Speakership or not, it is believed that the tariff question will be perpetuated to the end of the campaign."

It is always Democratic folly that is relied upon for Republican success.

There is one negro preacher who is on a rampage about the decision of the Supreme Court. He is terrific. He swears there will be "revolution" unless the Court changes its opinion.

The negro is a bishop but his name is not given. His blood and thunder talk was at a negro conference at Denver, Colorado, last Thursday.

Monsignor Capel is preparing a criticism of the debates in the Episcopal General Convention. It will be out this week and will be entitled: Catholicism: the Essential Quality and Necessary Mark of the True Church. An Appeal to the Good Sense of the Protestant Episcopal Convention now in session."

Spirits Turpentine —The Bulletin says there are seven cases of diphtheria at Goldsboro.

Gov. Vance was unable to accept the invitation to deliver the address at Tarboro Fair.

The Wadesboro Times has begun its fourth year. A large, well printed, interesting and well edited weekly and it is succeeding as it deserves to do.

Asheville Citizen: A number of tobacco buyers, representing large houses North and in England, are already in Asheville and will have information of others coming. The crop of Western Carolina is attracting great attention this winter.

Aspen Times: We regret to learn of the death of Mr. John Ruscoe, on the 20th inst., in Galveston, Texas. Mr. Ruscoe was the oldest son of Mrs. J. M. Ruscoe of this place, and brother of James H. D. Ruscoe, foreman of the Times office.

Wadesboro Intelligencer: The meeting in the Methodist Church closed last Sunday night with six additions to its membership. The sacred of the villainous incendiary was applied to the handsome new residence of Mr. N. J. Thompson, at Morven, on Friday morning last, about 2 o'clock. Mr. James Poplin, while tending the saw at Carter's mill, near Ansonville, one day last week, attempted to remove a slab, and in so doing brought one hand too near the saw. As a result two fingers were cut off.

Charlotte Observer: A correspondent writing from Charlotte to the State Chronicle, says that Col. W. M. Waddell, in a conversation the other day, said that he proposed to give somebody a lively tussle for the congressional nomination in the Carolina Central District. On Thursday night last Mr. James Morrison, a citizen of the Rocky River section, Cabarrus county, was burned out of house and home. His dwelling caught fire from some unknown cause and was burned to the ground. In the loss included all of his household and kitchen furniture and a lot of grain. — The announcement of the death of Mr. Hampton B. Hammond, which occurred at his home in this city yesterday morning at 8:30 o'clock, will be received with regret by the people of this community, among whom he was so well known and respected. Mr. Hammond was 77 years of age.

John Henderson, colored, who is familiarly known as the sheriff of Pinchburg, had another bout yesterday with two of his old enemies, John Barter and Fayette Paul, both white, and this time they came near finishing him, as the first made him drunk and the second stabbed him.

The Potomac Synod, of the Reformed Church, met in Newton on Wednesday evening, 17th inst. The Synod numbers about 140 ministers, covering parts of Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, Colorado and Oregon. Sixty delegates, clerical and lay, are present. Day, forty or more were detained at Baltimore on account of the steamer which was to convey them to West Point, springing a leak. The opening sermon was preached by Rev. H. H. Skyles, Boston, Md. Dr. G. W. Walker, of North Carolina, was elected President. Rev. Patrick, of Mercedburg, Pa., is stated clerk. The good people of Newton, of every denomination, opened their homes and are entertaining their Northern guests in genuine Southern hospitality.

Tarboro Guide: Several drunken negroes got in a row at a negro jury near Pasquot one night last week. One negro was completely scalped with a beer bottle. He didn't have two inches of skin left on his head. — Santee, Singleton, and Lawson, Hamilton, became involved in a dispute in a cotton field, words led to blows, and Hamilton was set upon by Singleton and wife and very dangerously cut. The wife has been arrested, but Singleton is yet at large. — Last Saturday night a store in Falkland, Mr. Timothy Harris and George W. Gray were tossing pennies for the track—five cents a crack. Of course they had a dispute over it, and before the meeting closed Mr. Harris had a lady cut arm and a fearful gash in his side, laying bare two ribs. — Sometime in July last Frank Rogers, a respectable and well to do farmer, living five miles from Greenville, disappeared from home. A few days previous to this, he had a small shot-gun difficulty with a neighbor about a common ditch. The neighbor took out a warrant for his arrest, but he could not be found. No attempt was made to find him, it being thought that he had gone away to evade the consequences of the difficulty, and his absence had the same price paid by whites shall have as comfortable accommodations, but they must take it in different cars. Senator Brown said a little common sense, with a desire to do what is just in the premises, would regulate this whole matter to the satisfaction of both races."

Kaleigh News-Observer: In the procession of old soldiers Wednesday was Sergeant W. H. Hamilton, 14th N. C. T., who marched all the way to the cemetery with his old comrades. Both of his eyes were shot out at Williamsburg. There was much talk yesterday about the crowd at the fair grounds Thursday. It is said to have been the largest since 1873, when there were over 16,000 persons present. Mr. Stevens, of Massachusetts, came to North Carolina with the members of the Press Convention, week before last. He is a member of one of the largest real estate agencies in the New England States, and his purpose in coming here is to look at the State. Until the past day or two he has been in the eastern part of the State looking at lands. Yesterday he came here to have a conference with Gov. Jarvis and Commissioner McGhee in regard to an arrangement for visiting various points in the State so as to see the many varieties of climate and soil. — State Board of Agriculture met at its office in the agricultural building Thursday, Present, Gov. Jarvis, Hon. Kemp P. Battle, Dr. A. G. Brooks, Col. R. W. Wharton, John A. Oakes, Esq., A. Learer, Esq., Burwell Blanton, Esq. Reports from Commissioner McGhee and Fish Commissioner Worth were read, giving statements in regard to the North Carolina exhibit at the Boston exposition. The price of "Kerr" map was reduced to $3 for the wall and $1.50 for the pocket edition.

The report of the meeting of the State Agricultural Society was read and the report of yesterday's issue. It was held Thursday evening, Col. Holt, the President, after calling the Society to order, vacated the chair, calling Col. Heck to preside. The annual election of officers was then held and the old officers being re-elected. Capt. J. R. Thigpen introduced a resolution to move the fair to Tarboro. A long debate ensued, and it participated in by Gen. W. H. Coker, J. J. Davis, Capt. Oct. Coke, Col. R. W. Wharton, and Capt. Thigpen, all save the last named gentleman opposing. The resolution was neither adopted nor defeated, but further consideration was deferred until Wednesday evening of next fall week. The question of sheep raising then came up, and Mr. T. Lovelock, of Gordonville, Va., Secretary of the "Federation Sheep-association," spoke by request. He gave an exceedingly interesting account of the methods of raising and marketing sheep as practiced by that Association.

An Auctioneer "Sold." — A good story is told on one of our auctioneers. He bought a new wheelbarrow a few days ago, for which he paid $2.50. Yesterday he was called upon to sell a lot of furniture, under execution, in front of the Court House, and in the meantime, while the sale was in progress, an employee of the auctioneer, who had brought the wheelbarrow down to the Court House for some purpose, rolled it up to the vicinity of the articles being sold, where it was left, temporarily. In the meantime the auctioneer, in the progress of the sale, came to the wheelbarrow, and thinking it was a part of the property embraced in the execution he put it up.

"How much am I offered for this splendid wheelbarrow?" cried he. The crowd responded until the bid on the barrow had reached $1.10, when it was knocked down, and as the terms of the sale were cash on delivery, and the delivery instant, the wheelbarrow was quickly paid for and taken away. It was not until the sale was closed, and inquiry was made for the wheelbarrow, that the auctioneer discovered that, in selling out somebody else, he had himself been "sold," and that to the tune of $1.40, the difference between the cost of the wheelbarrow and the price it realized when put up to the highest bidder.

Attempted incendiarism. — On Sunday morning last, about 4 o'clock, fire was discovered under a tenement house on the premises next north of the City Hall, occupied by colored people, by one Richard Stowe, who immediately gave the alarm at the Hall, when, with a few buckets of water, the fire was put out. It was an undoubted case of incendiarism. The floor is some two or three feet from the ground, and the fire was started under one corner of the house, with the aid of kerosene oil and shavings, and when discovered was blazing up as high as the window, and the weatherboarding was being rapidly ignited. The fire was started immediately under the bed occupied by Stowe. There was no general alarm.

Sudden Death. — Nancy Cowden, colored, was found dead in bed yesterday afternoon, at about 5 o'clock, at her residence on the corner of Ninth and Walnut streets. She was about 68 years old. She is supposed to have died from heart disease. Coroner Jacobs was notified, but no inquest was thought necessary.

Sermon to the Young. — Rev. F. W. E. Peschan preached an able and eloquent sermon at the First Baptist Church on Sunday last, principally addressed to young men. He was bold and incisive in his denunciation of vice, and attacked it in some of its most powerful strongholds. The congregation was very large.

Scarcity of Fish. — Fish continue very scarce, our fishermen being very unsuccessful in their efforts to catch them since the 15th of September. The continued prevalence of easterly winds has contributed very much to this state of affairs.

Weather Indications. — The following are the indications for today: For the Middle Atlantic States, partly cloudy weather and local rains, wind mostly northeasterly, stationary barometer and stationary or slightly rising temperature. For the South Atlantic States, cloudy weather, northeasterly winds, stationary barometer and slightly falling, followed by rising temperature. For the East Gulf States, partly cloudy weather and light local rains, falling barometer and slightly falling, followed by rising temperature and northeasterly winds. For the West Gulf States, partly cloudy weather and local rains, northeasterly winds, falling barometer and stationary or rising temperature. For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, partly cloudy weather and local rains slightly rising, followed by falling barometer and stationary or rising temperature, winds mostly northeasterly.

John F. Ward at the Opera House Last Night. — "Top 'O the Morning," as the name implies, is an Irish comedy, and one in which there are many good points. The play abounds in fun and the audience showed their thorough enjoyment of some parts of it by much enthusiastic applause. Mr. Ward, in his triple character, made a good impression and was well received. Miss Davenport, in impersonating the Twin Sisters, made a decided hit and divided the honors with Mr. Ward. Little Lillie Ward, as Kathleen, showed considerable aptitude in her different parts, and carried the house by storm. The Company on the whole is a good one, and while there are some weak characters, still, taking the troupe all in all, it will compare very favorably with any that has been here.

On the Cow-Catcher. — We learn that a young calf was taken up on the cow-catcher of a locomotive at Flemington a few days since, and landed at the depot in this city, without receiving so much as a scratch. "This seems incredible, but we have it from good authority."
