MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

Persons named Springfield, Mo., demolishing a number of residences and damaging other property. A Catholic Church was wrecked, seven persons were killed and many others injured. An earthquake shock at Cove Creek, Utah, Sunday. Up to noon yesterday the elections were progressing quietly, with the weather and disposition of a large vote. W. H. Smith, recently appointed postmaster at Virginia, Ga., resigned. Jacob Kipp, wealthy resident of Wisconsin, was robbed of $1,000 and murdered in Mexico; his wife in specie received at New York from Liverpool. The coal miners' strike which began July 1st, at Lenoire, N. C., ended, 400 men returning to work. The committee for the relief of suffering by the recent fire at Savannah, Ga., request sufficient funds to meet requirements, and ask the public to discontinue donations. Three negro children burned to death near Sanford, N. C. The committee of Boston, Mass., given Butler 221 majority, showing a loss for Butler which will probably give the State to the Republicans. Republican State Committee of New York claim the election of the State ticket and 90,000 majority for the Secretary of State. In Massachusetts indications point to Butler's defeat. It begins to look like Tilden now. South Carolina has also had a killing frost. Henry Irving only charges $3 for the privilege of seeing him perform. Mary Churchill, the St. Louis girl, known to be working under an assumed name in the laundry of an Indiana insane asylum. A. B. Johnson, a prominent politician and friend of Arthur and Cleveland, and a man of large wealth, took his own life at Utica, N. Y. The Norfolk Landmark of Sunday contained a long list of the disqualified voters because of crimes in Norfolk. It took about a half page to contain the names. There was tremendous excitement throughout Virginia over the Danville riot and no wonder. An army would have been raised within a few hours if it had been necessary. The Petersburg Index Appeal of Monday puts the Democratic majority at 14,000 in Virginia. It thinks they will have the Senate by 6 and the House by 16 majority, or 29 on joint ballot. Mayor Lamb's high-handed procedure causes him to catch it all around. We are glad that an injunction against him was granted by Judge Blaw of the Circuit Court of the city of Norfolk. A half million dollars reported spent in the Massachusetts campaign. The Philadelphia Press, Rep., has a long letter in its staff correspondent, F. A. Barr, dated Boston, November 4, in which he says "the result is balanced slightly on the Democratic side". Norfolk's new daily, the Meridian's Manifest, is real newsy and useful. It has been enlarged and otherwise improved. Its editorial and news departments show the practiced journalist who is too busy to stand at street corners or call in the town loafers to discuss "what next". The internal receipts for the fiscal year ending 30th June, 1883, were $144,553,344, or about two millions less than the preceding year; cost of collecting $5,113,734, or 3 1/2 per cent. It costs 9 per cent. to collect the Tax. 397 illicit stills were seized and 1,435 persons were arrested. 3,129 distilleries were operated. The falling off in gallons of whiskey is over 36 millions. Increase in tobacco and snuff 2,115,947 pounds, an increase of 186,234,977 cigars and an increase of 9,896,427 cigarettes. The estimate of the Commissioner is that the reduction of revenue will be $23,000,000 from tobacco. There was a decrease for the first three months of the fiscal year of internal taxes of over seven millions dollars. The tobacco tax amounted to 42 millions. Not one cent of this was paid by farmers or manufacturers. — Lexington Dispatch: North Carolina is the only State that sends a cargo to Chicago this year. He carries an Irish name, and he also carries a Collection of Internal Revenue in his pocket. He is a great man, and we feel honored about it.

GOLDSBORO.

We spent two days recently in Goldsboro. On Sunday Dr. Milburn, the world-wide famous lecturer and pulpit orator, preached two grand sermons to great crowds that more than overflowed the Methodist Church. His morning sermon was very persuasive, very thoughtful, very tender, very beautiful. His discourse at night was magnificent. In the sweep and grandeur of his thoughts and in the exquisite felicity, finish and art of his language it was a study and memory forever. We heard but one opinion. A Catholic lawyer said he had never heard anything like his night effort, and he never expected to hear anything like it again. The prospect of a large audience to hear his lecture on Monday night was very flattering when we left. Dr. Milburn has engagements at Durham, Rockingham, Shoe Heel (four lectures and two sermons at this appreciative little town,) and at Greensboro. New Berne has asked for him, and he will visit that attractive historic town after a few weeks. Goldsboro is improving steadily. It contains more substantial brick buildings, we suppose, than any other town of its size in the South. What a contrast between now and the one-story wooden tinder-boxes of 1871 or 1872! There is also a large number of handsome and attractive dwellings, some of them really elegant, and all modern and tasteful. Goldsboro is blessed with many good walks made out of native soil. The dust was rather excessive when we were there for satisfactory pedestrianism. We were shown by brother Bonitz, of the Messenger, his new opera house, and a really handsome and well arranged hall it is. Everything was neat and ship-shape with a sufficiency of scenery and most comfortable chairs. It is a credit to the growing, prosperous, pretty and very pleasant town. We visited the Messenger office and found everything showing activity and everybody on the stir. The Messenger flourishes. It has 7,000 subscribers and Mr. Bonitz is thinking of making his weekly edition eight pages. He has exhibited much energy and enterprise in building up so flourishing and large a paper as the Messenger is. We were under obligations both to him and his efficient and polite local editor, Mr. Robinson, for grateful acts of courtesy. We had set aside an hour in the afternoon for a visit to the Bulletin office, but our attentions upon "the blind man eloquent" were required and we were unable to carry out our plan, which we regret. Wayne Court was in session on Monday and the attendance of countrymen struck us as unusually large for the first day. Goldsboro is blessed with a very handsome grove in the midst of which stands the court house. We met many old friends and made some new ones, and but for a vile attack of asthma and bronchitis we would have had a most delightful visit, brief as it was. Our greatest pleasure was hearing Dr. Milburn and in spending many hours in walking and talking with him. Oh, those refreshing symposia—those ambrosial hours. The doctor was sixty years of age in September. May he live to be one hundred and then have the privilege of saying whether he will keep on or not. He is indeed a most extraordinary man. Preaching twice every Sabbath he is ready to lecture from one and a half to two hours five nights in the week. He does this for nine months of the twelve and is none the worse for his very severe labors. His reading is prodigious, his memory almost like Macaulay's. He committed to memory the whole of Tennyson's In Memoriam, the greatest elegiac poem in the world, and about the most difficult to commit, by having it read to him by three very incompetent readers who had to spell the words. — Tarboro Guide: On Friday night Mr. C. J. Austin was the victim of the most glaring outrage ever perpetrated in our community. On his way home after the close of his business, and when within one hundred yards of his home, he was fired upon by some ruffian with a shot gun. The ruffian was concealed on the opposite side of the street, and shot at a distance of thirty yards or more. Several shot took effect in Mr. Austin's face and shoulder, but with no dangerous effect.

Spirits Turpentine.

Dr. J. J. Mott has purchased the Statesville American. — Charlotte had 13 deaths in October—9 white and 10 colored. — Fourteen thousand acres of swamp lands valued at $2,850. — The Elizabeth City Economist only claims 400 majority for Skinner. — The "headless rooster" was at the Tarboro Fair and was doing well. — Raleigh fell off in September and October in its cotton receipts 4,835 bales. — New Berne Journal: Total sales of cotton to date this season 4,877 bales, against same time last year 5,930, showing a deficit of 1,053 bales. — Mr. Jos. P. Caldwell, editor of the Statesville Landmark, will publish a daily paper during the Annual Conference of the M. E. Church, South, in his town, beginning Nov. 28th. — Louisiana Times: A few—and only a few—of our subscribers paid us this week; but those who did remember us, we will not forget when we prepare our vote for the next President. — The Telegraph is the name of a new weekly paper just begun at Snow Hill by the Rev. W. C. Smith and Samuel C. Smith. They begin well and we hope they will be abundantly sustained. — Washington Watch Tower: Chas. I. Jackson, of Martin county, killed a large eagle last week. He measured eight feet from tip to tip of wing, nine inches from thumb claw to center claw in full expansion, and weighed 90 pounds. — Goldsboro Messenger: On last Monday a deed was recorded in the register's office from Mr. W. S. O'B. Robinson to Rt. Rev. H. P. Northrop, Roman Catholic Bishop of this State, conveying a half acre of land located on New Street near the graded school, on which a Catholic church and parsonage will be erected in the near future. — Salem Press: F. A. Tucker, of Washington, found a fine specimen of hiddenite somewhere in Ireland county. The Methodist Episcopal Church is making arrangements for a second church in Winston. They have purchased the Union Grove Chapel. — A Methodist meeting has been going on in Mt. Airy two weeks with great success. — Hickory Carolinian: It is said that Pat Winston, just before his political demise, made his will, in which there is this pathetic item: "I give and bequeath any right, title or interest I may die seized of in the Democratic party to Col. P. B. Means, of Cabarrus county." The side-show at the last fair was the most palatable fraud we have ever known. — Concord Times: The friends of Roanoke College will be glad to learn that that institution is in a flourishing condition. A resolution was adopted at a meeting with the appearance of Jack Frost, and, strange but true, we saw some ice. (There was ice in Wilmington on the morning of our first frost and yet the thermometer in the porch of our office at Raleigh registered degrees—six degrees above freezing.—STAR.) — The nomination of Mr. William Shepard Bryan for the vacant judgeship of the Court of Appeals was regarded by the part of the Democrats and meets with general approbation. Mr. Bryan is an acknowledged leader of the Baltimore bar, standing in the front rank of able, clear-headed, learned lawyers, and he is no doubt of his election. — Baltimore Daily News: (Mr. B. is a son of the late Hon. John H. Bryan, of Raleigh, and is a native of New Berne.—STAR.) — The business men of Raleigh held a meeting to raise funds for the entertainment of the expected Northern visitors. A resolution was adopted to hold a State Exposition at Raleigh in the Fall of 1884. It is a bad year, as the whole country will be excited over the Presidential election. A resolution was adopted at a meeting held at Raleigh next fall, and that a committee of twenty-one be appointed to take all the steps necessary to secure a magnificent display of products of the State. — Asheville Citizen: We were shown this week some green peas and beans in the garden of Mr. Richardson Pearson, which made us feel that winter was not actually upon us. — The Rev. Solomon Pool and Mr. J. P. Ware left on Wednesday afternoon for Tallahassee, Fla., to go to take charge of the Leon Hotel. — Mr. F. P. Love has just secured letters patent for an invention of inestimable importance to tobacco planters. No practical general plan has been devised before his invention, for protection against the fly, and year after year the plant beds have been ravaged by that pest, and in many instances swept clean. Mr. Love's invention offers a perfect security which he is ready to guarantee not only against the fly, but against frost. — Greensboro State: The Methodist Female College in this city has now about 120 boarders, and still they continue to come. — Prof. English, principal of the graded school in this city, resigned on account of ill health. — A colored man, named James Thompson, was arrested at the depot in this city on Thursday morning last, charged with robbing a small colored boy, named William Walker. It is said that the thief drugged the boy on the train between Greensboro and Danville, and took him to a closet on the car, where he took from him his earnings, amounting to $7. Thompson was lodged in jail to await trial. — Shipments of fruit trees have recently been made to many of the States in the far southwest, and orders from Alabama, Mississippi, Arkansas, Texas and other States are daily received. — Shelby Aurora: As an evidence of thrift and progress of Cleveland County, we have recently built a fine iron bridge and have no fences. The farmers and landowners are glad to be free from the useless expense of heavy drains upon labor and money in the building of miles of fences. — Lieutenant Calvin D. Cowles of the 23rd Regiment of United States Infantry, has been detailed by the War Department and ordered to report to Capt. Bell at "Commandant of Cadets" of King's Mountain High School. — Mr. John Hoyle and George White, each armed with rifle, went hunting for turkeys on Saturday. They saw a drove of turkeys which they scattered in the chase. The two hunters became separated in the pursuit. George White soon heard a noise in the woods, saw an object—a turkey he supposed and shot. The supposed turkey fell to the ground with a groan. His friend, John Hoyle, was shot in the thigh and bowels and dangerously wounded instead of a turkey.

THE CITY.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. HARRIS—Ask Mr. MURPHY—Imperial shirt. HANSEN—School books. J. T. SCHONWALD—Best cigars. CROWLEY & MORRIS—Auction sale. TAYLOR'S BAZAAR—To the ladies. C. F. CAS & WIL. R. R.—Bids solicited. MUNDY BROS. & DE ROSSET.—Druggists. Local Box. — Receipts of cotton yesterday footed up 782 bales. — There is very little timber coming in just now. — The Madison Square Esmeralda Company are expected here about the middle of the present month. — Yesterday was an "off-day" in naval stores and cotton. Everybody was taking election and the "incidentals." — We regret to learn that Mr. Richard Meadows had a stroke of paralysis Monday night, and at last accounts he was in a critical condition. — The following unmailable letters remain at the postoffice: Miss Chloé Davis, 196 S. Portland street; Lizzie Minter, Allgoods, N. C. — The colored firemen were out yesterday afternoon for parade and practice, the latter taking place in the vicinity of Front and Market streets. — We learn that Rev. Dr. Milburn has promised to deliver one lecture for the benefit of the Women's Missionary Society, when he visits this city. — A meeting of the Veterans of the Mexican War will be held at the office of Col. John L. Cantwell, on North Water street, this evening, at 7 o'clock. — In the country around about Wilmington there are abundant evidences of the killing nature of the recent frosts. The potato vines are all laid low. — The schooner Samuel McMane, Capt. Revell, arrived from Perth Amboy, New Jersey, yesterday, with another cargo of steel rails for the Cape Fear & Yadkin Valley Railroad. — The Norwegian barque Emblem, Capt. Simonsen, was cleared from this port for Antwerp, yesterday, by Messrs. D. R. Murchison & Co., with 2,281 casks spirits turpentine, valued at $44,708. — Sam Jenkins, colored, arrested for disorderly conduct at the theatre Monday night, was the only case for the Mayor's consideration yesterday morning, and he was sent below for three days. — Rev. Dr. Milburn, "the blind man eloquent," will lecture in Rockingham, Richmond county, on Monday and Tuesday evenings, the 12th and 13th insts. So we are requested to state. — Thanks to Mr. O. L. Chesnut, Secretary, for a complimentary ticket to the 19th annual Fair of the Sampson County Agricultural Society, to be held in Clinton on the 5th, 6th, 7th and 8th of December, 1883. — We learn that an unusually large attendance of delegates is expected at the approaching Presbyterian Synod in this place, which commences on Wednesday, the 14th inst., and that the session will be a very interesting and important one. — "Alvin Joslin." A late issue of the Syracuse Morning Standard thus speaks of Charles L. Davis: "Alvin Joslin" Comedy Company, which gives a performance here to-morrow evening. — Charles L. Davis and a good company played "Alvin Joslin" to a large audience at the Grand Opera House last night. The piece was well presented and delighted a crowded house beyond measure. Mr. Davis was called before the curtain at the end of the first and second acts and the orchestra, which can have but very few equals in the country, was applauded time and time again. The frequent peals of laughter demonstrated conclusively that the performance was appreciated. Each tableau was encoored, and in the last act, Mr. Davis, an eccentric, but very agreeable gentleman, came upon the stage with his $100,000 worth of diamonds. Harry C. Wells is the accomplished musical director of the company, Nathan Carl is the trombone soloist, Harry Hardy, the cornet soloist, who says that he is ready to meet Levy at any time, and Charles F. Lowe is the xylophone soloist. The performance will be repeated this afternoon and evening, and those who have not heard "Alvin Joslin" and the excellent music this company furnishes should not fail to take advantage of this opportunity. Personal. — From a letter received from Rev. V. J. Mills, who left here some months ago for Missouri, we learn that he has been admitted into the Conference of that State, and been assigned to a station in a small town, with one appointment in the country. He is pleased with his work. — Mr. Archibald Leitch, a native of Robeson county, but a citizen of California since the memorable '49, was here yesterday on a brief visit. He came down from Lumberton to see his old friend "Dick" Magruder, another old "forty-niner." Magistrate's Court. — Mary Lewis, colored, was arraigned before Justice Mills, yesterday, charged with making an assault upon W. H. Davis, colored, with an axe. Defendant was adjudged guilty and required to give bond in the sum of $50 for appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court. — W. H. Davis was next arraigned on the charge of committing assault and battery upon Mary Lewis and defendant was found guilty, judgment being suspended upon the payment of costs.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for today: For the Middle Atlantic States, local rains, followed by clearing cooler weather, southerly to westerly winds, and rising barometer. For the South Atlantic States, local rains, followed by cooler fair weather, southwest to northwest winds, stationary or rising barometer. For the East Gulf States, light local rains followed by fair weather, stationary or slight fall in temperature, light variable winds, and generally higher barometer. For the West Gulf States, fair weather, northerly winds becoming variable, rising temperature during Wednesday, rising followed in the northern and western portions by falling barometer. The Chase. — Yesterday morning the Wilmington Fox Club were out for a little sport, and they had it. The chase began about one mile from the city limits, and it was a very exciting one from the jump, at 8 o'clock, to the finish at 10, at which time the fox took refuge in a tree and thereby avoided so much as a scratch from the dogs; but the "boys" say they intend to "scratch" him on the night of the full moon, at which several ladies are expected to join in, and a lively time is expected. The fox (which is a very large fellow) is now chained, and will be let loose on the night indicated. Ladies and their escorts are invited. We understand that the famous dogs, "Joe," "Nannie," "Flora," "Mamy D.," "Danger" and "Old Doctor" were the favorites and held the lead throughout the run. Religious Exercises in the Country. — Mr. L. C. Carroll had a good audience at Mount Holly Church in Pender county, last Sunday. Just before the regular service began Mr. Jacob S. Allen, of Raleigh, delivered, by invitation, a Sunday school address, in which capacity he enjoys some reputation. Before concluding, however, Mr. Allen stated that the object to which he wanted to call particular attention was the purchase of a stove for the church, the want of one necessitating the suspension of the Sunday school during the winter months, now at hand. Much to the gratification of the members the amount necessary was readily raised, and, furthermore, a pledge from two young men to have a glowing fire and the church warmed on every Sabbath morning. The members are doubtless grateful for Mr. Allen's visit. The Cumberland Fair. — From a correspondent writing from Fayetteville we are glad to hear that, notwithstanding the short crops and the general gloomy condition of the farmers, the display of agricultural products bids fair to be good, and many entries have already been made in the live stock department. Dr. Walter C. Murphy arrived here yesterday morning, and embarked at 2 P. M. on the steamer A. P. Hurt for Fayetteville, carrying his pair of beautiful dapple greys to be in attendance at the fair. Several Wilmingtonians have also gone up. Delegates to Convention. — The following delegates have been appointed to represent the First Baptist Church of this city in the Baptist State Convention, which meets in Edenton on the 14th inst.: Rev. Thos. H. Pritchard, D. D., and Messrs. W. P. Oldham, G. R. French, Jas. W. Collins, J. W. Taylor, W. I. Gore, D. L. Gore and H. C. Evans. Address Before a Colored Body. — We are requested to state that Col. E. D. Hall, Mayor of the city, has consented to deliver an address before the Bancker (colored) Library Association, at their hall, in Evans' Block, Princess street, to-morrow (Thursday) evening. The address will no doubt be an interesting one. LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the City Postoffice, Wednesday, November 7th: —A—Henry Arnold. —B—Mary Ellen Beatty, Joshua Beatty, B. C. Barden. —C—J. C., if not called for within thirty days. — E. R. BRINK, P. M., Wilmington, New Hanover Co., N. C. A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and administering the Syrup to the baby, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering and the parents without sleep. Securing home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering, and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. Finding her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. The next all hands slept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offending by the deception practiced upon her, has since continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and sleepless nights have disappeared. A single trial of this Syrup never fails to relieve the baby, and overcomes the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.

IMMENSE AMOUNT OF GRATUITOUS ADVERTISING.—The Postmaster General of the United States seems to have been persuaded by the friends of the Louisiana State Lottery Company to enter upon a seeming crusade against this widely and favorably known beneficial, as well as benevolent institution. The New York World, of Sunday, Sept. 23d, alludes to the benevolence of the management, and intimates that Col. Graham, the Postmaster General, seems to be widely spreading the information that no one can assail the integrity of the Louisiana State Lottery, and the only thing to do is to communicate prior to Nov. 15th (next drawing) with M. A. Daubhin, New Orleans, La., who will give all information. PUGH, of Baltimore, recommends ROSALDIS to all persons suffering with diseases of the blood, as superior to any preparation he has ever used. Rev. DANBY BALL, of the Baltimore M. E.
