SUICIDE.

The Captain of a German Barque Jumps Overboard and Drowns Himself-Recovery of the Body-Inquest,

Our usually quiet community was somewhat startled from its equanimity yesterday morning by the announcement of the suicide of Capt. Wilhelm Knuth, of the German barque Emilie, which arrived here from Liverpool on Tuesday, the 18th inst. It was stated that he had jumped overboard and drowned himself, but it was tho must be some mistake about it the operation of dragging commenced when the body was soon recovered, and around the neck of the drowned man was a large anchor chain, between six and seven feet long, with a large piece of iron attached, weighing forty or fifty Nordmann, said that after the rest of the men had gone ashore; the captain came out of the cabin three different times, went forward and called him, and asked him if he had seen a certain hook some of the men had dropped overboard, to which witness replied that he had not, when the captain went back aft, each time seemingly satisfalling overboard. As soon as the other men came on board he told them there was something wrong with the captain, and after a short time spent in conmander's actions they retired. "In Paradise," which was played last night by John T. Raymond, at the Opera House, was received by a fair audience with much applause. There are many good points in this comedy-drama, one of its chief recommendations being its originality. The strictures on the slang expressions which are becoming so prevalent were particularly good. The play abounded in wit and humor, and produced uproarious laughter. Mr. Raymond was the centre of attraction, and gave universal satisfaction. Mr. John Noble, in the character of Bart Binks, made several good hits, and was one of the principal enjoyments of the performance.

Wednesday, Nov. 29th. The venerable pastor of the Fifth Street Church has served his present charge now for four consecutive years, and, according to the rules of the Church, will have to be assigned to another charge. The church under his ministration has been greatly built up and strengthened, a neat parsonage has been erected through his instrumentality, and he will have the consolation of knowing, when he departs for another field of labor, that he carries with him the nighest esteem and kindest wishes of the entire community. It is to be hoped that he will have a worthy successor, who will continue to advance the standard of the church and increase its power for doing good, thus carrying on the good work the present pastor has done so much to ma-

Exciting Runaway. Two horses attached to a truck started at the Front street depot vesterday and ran down Front to a point opposite the Purcell House. Two drivers of delivery wagons noticed the team coming "full tilt," and ran cut and seized the reins, while simultaneous with this bold action Sergeant Davis and Officer Bryan, of the police force, confronted the excited animals, when, after a little rearing and plunging, they stopped and became submissive. Within a few feet of where they were halted a delivery wagon was backed up in front of Capt. Boatwright's store, and if the horses had not been stooped just where they were, there would have been a collision, and the long shaft of the truck would most likely have been plunged into the horse's side with such force as to have caused his death. The runaway horses came very near running into a buggy occupied by Dr. Storm. The team belonged at the livery stable of Mr. J. H. Jones, and was not ROSADALIS FOR RHEUMATISM.—Messrs. H. Peck) and Son, of Streetsboro', O., writes us, June 5, 1882: "Why do you not advertise Rosadalis for Inflammatory Rheumatism? It is doing wonders here in curing the disease." Well, we do advertise it to cure Rheumatism, as any one can see by reading our circular. It is a splendid Blood Medicine, and it reaches the very root and seat of disease by being conveyed through the blood. Druggists, leading physicians and etizens of the highest standing unite in commendation of ROSADALIS.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW?—As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has untiringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do RISE UP and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DALLY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its herefits. share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. No Mother has discharged her duty to her suffering little one, in our opinion, until she has given it the benefit of Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup Try it, mothers—TRY IT NOW.—Ladies' Visior, New York City.
