

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The French Admiral at Touqua has been instructed to resume offensive operations with the utmost vigor. — Mario, the famous humorist, is dead. — Chicago has been selected as the place of meeting of the Republican National Convention in 1884. — A block of buildings owned at Hubbard City, Texas, by an inventor. — The Postmaster General proposes to exchange for the present three and six cent denominations of stamps and stamped envelopes for others of different denominations. — J. K. Moore & Co., cotton merchants, New York, suspended payment, with liabilities of $400,000. — A convention of schoolmen is in session at Atlanta, discussing the educational situation. — The man who presided at the trial of O'Donoghue for the murder of Carey, has given his name to the British Home Office that it may be used in a book containing the description list of a missionary society sent yesterday afternoon on Market street. The leader will be liberally rewarded for returning it. See advertisement. — Two business blocks at St. Paul, Minn., burned, loss $200,000. — The annual report of the Richmond & Danville Railroad Company exhibits an increase in business as compared with last year. — The New York market. Money 1/2 @ 1/4. Southern bonds at 104 @ 104 1/2. Wheat, No. 3, 50c. Corn, No. 2, 35c. Spirits turpentine steady at 33c. — Name wears he is no candidate, and would not accept the nomination for the Presidency. But who will be Blaine? — The annual pouring in of a deluge of petitions presented in the House on Monday. — Secretary Folger is reported as declining retiring from the Treasury Department. — Millions after all went into the Republican caucus. He was compelled to show his hand, as straddling would imply or please. — President's estimates the cotton crop of 1883 at 3,492,000 bales—a decrease of 18.1 per cent. compared with 1882, when the crop was 4,992,000 bales. — New Haven is sick of the Salvation Army and the Mayor has notified it that it must stop its noise in the streets. There are seventy members in that city. — Charles A. Dana, it is reported, will edit $500,000 annually for editing the New York Sun. He would be high if $1,000,000 were the object he to induce the Democratic party. — The wholesale mercantile houses in New York complain of the unsatisfactory condition of business. They say the margin of profits is small and trade is torpid and unhealthy. — There is a very hot fight for the Ohio Senatorship between Pendleton and Payne. It is said Pendleton is stronger in the House and Payne in the Senate. — Logan, Blaine and Wharton Barber all Republicans and Protectionists, have schemes for dividing the surplus and all are tainted with the same disease—to keep up the surplus. The people will none of it. — Four respectable women in Baltimore were in great peril on Monday. A fire had imprisoned them within a house and they had to jump for their lives from the second-story balcony. Miss Carrie Martin received injuries that will probably prove fatal. — The last National Convention held has just adjourned at Cincinnati. It was the Butter, Cheese and Egg men in council. About Christmas the egg and whiskey men will meet in council and will not adjourn until the holidays are ended. — Two roughs fought a prize fight near Wilkesbarre, Pa. They fought on rounds, and both were terribly punished. Their names are Thomas McGarrin and Michael Cox. The latter whipped, but his face was pounded to a jelly. — The Columbia Register, a sound Democratic paper, has this to say: It is doubtful if Senator Butler's bill to abolish the internal revenue will have much showing. We feel very certain that it ought not to have, and that the proposderance of sentiment in this State is that it will be a great wrong to take off the tax on whiskey and tobacco and keep it on the necessities of life.

So the great poet, Alfred Tennyson, has yielded to the importunities and condescended to be created a Baron, which is the lowest order of the peerage. He will be able to take a seat in the House of Lords. His title will be Lord Tennyson D'Eynort. This we regret. Poe said of Tennyson in 1847, when he had not published his greatest poems, that he was not sure that he was not the greatest poet God ever made. He is not that, but he is indeed a great poet. The peerage could not possibly confer honor on such a man. Think of Shakespeare or Milton being ennobled. Bah!

Some of the Protection papers have started a new objection to Speaker Carlisle. He does not believe in a nation spelt with a big N. He, in other words, is not a consolidationist, but believes that under the Constitution the people have the right of revolution. Hurrah for John Griffin Carlisle!

Hon. Carl Schurz has retired from the New York Evening Post. The cause of his retirement is announced to be "serious differences of opinion between himself and his associates concerning the treatment of important public questions in the editorial columns." Mr. Schurz is a Free Trader.

The Protection Democrats are now trying to grapple with the great problem of making Carlisle and Randall agree in opinion. But there is an immense distance between High Protection and a Constitutional Tariff for Revenue only. The Pennsylvanians understand this and they were hot for Randall.

The last Norfolk Landmark appeared in a new and handsome attire. It looked as neat as if it had just attained its majority instead of being a veteran in the service of Virginia and the South. James Barron Hope still directs its course and we hope will do so for decades to come.

Spirits Turpentine.

Pamlico is to have a pole-punching on the 30th of December. — The Statesville American has a new head and new management. — Statesville American: Statesville ships more than a million pounds of dried fruit. — Rocky Mount Reporter: With much pleasure we note that our clever and genial friend, John M. Wester, has been appointed to fill the vacancy made by the resignation of mayor of Tolson. — Rutherfordton Banner: Taylor Webb, a good citizen of Cool Spring township, died at his residence at Burnt Factory on the 18th ult., after several weeks illness contracted at Rock Spring camp-meeting. — Durham Recorder: Nearly one million pounds of tobacco were shipped to Durham last week from other markets. This shows the value of our market. The manufacturers of Durham will consume not less than seven million pounds of tobacco this year. — High Point Pioneer Farm and Nursery: Prof. Carr, of Trinity College, came near meeting with a serious accident last Tuesday evening. While riding in a sulky, near Jamestown, his horse became frightened, threw him out and ran away completely demolishing the harness and sulky. The Professor was very much shocked and bruised. — Asheville Daily Register: There are 97 public schools in the county, 17 of which are colored, the remaining 80 white. There were enrolled in the white schools 5,047 scholars, in the colored 457. The average length of school term is thirteen weeks. The average amount paid teachers as salaries is $26 to the white and $23 to the colored per month. — Mocksville Times: Monday and Tuesday were regular hog slaughtering days. Mr. B. Bailey killed four that weighed each 300, 330, 330, 330; C. A. Clement, four that averaged 330 pounds each. — Two parties of rabbit hunters were out on Saturday last. One party succeeded in bagging 41 rabbits, while the other numbered their pile at 108. — Raleigh Visitor: We are informed that a few days ago Mrs. Wiley Glenn and son were driving over the county bridge across Neuse river in New Light township, that the mule backed and the railings of the bridge being rotten, the mule, buggy and Mrs. Glenn and her son were backed off and fell about fifteen feet. Mrs. Glenn was seriously hurt and is not expected to recover. Her son was hurt but has recovered. — Lumberton Robesonian: Rev. W. T. Jordan and Prof. C. H. Martin, left last Monday on a hunting expedition. They will be joined by some Columbus gentlemen, and their destination is, we believe, the country below Smithville. — A mule attached to a buggy, occupied by Mr. J. D. McAllister, wife, and little boy, run over a stump and threw all three out on the ground. Mr. McAllister was quite badly ground. — Greensboro Workman: We are authorized to announce that Rev. Dr. Miller, who so delighted the citizens of Greensboro, will lecture at Trinity College, December 13th, 15th and 17th, at night. — Among the contributors to the Oxford Orphan Asylum on Thanksgiving Day was

Mr. Julian S. Carr, of Durham, who subscribed for his company one hundred dollars. — Rev. John S. Inskip, of Philadelphia, who was seized with paralysis some time ago, is now reported to be partially recovered and is able to walk about the house and garden.

Morganton Mountaineer: We are informed by gentlemen from Caldwell that Lenoir was thrown into a state of the greatest excitement last Thursday by the attack of a dog supposed to have hydrophobia, which bit several children in that place and produced the greatest consternation on the streets until it was killed by the citizens. It bit one of Coleman's children, and then went into town where it bit Geo. Moore, a son of Capt. M. V. Moore, and a little daughter of Capt. Faucette. It also attacked one of Col. Ciley's children, but did not succeed in biting it. The dog was killed, but not until in addition to the children, it had bitten several cows and other animals around town. Capt. Faucette's little daughter was badly bitten.

Raleigh News-Observer: Major J. W. Wilson, superintendent of the W. N. C. Railroad, was here yesterday, and says that the laying of the track from Pigeon river toward Wayneville will begin next Saturday, and at the same time the relaying of the old track with steel rails will commence. The grand lodge of colored Masons meets at Kingston today. — Robert Fraut, colored, who was to be hanged at Goldsboro on the 30th inst., has been reprieved by Gov. Jarvis until February 29, 1884. He murdered a white man named O'Neal. — We are pleased to learn from the New Bern Journal that the efforts to restrain the collection of taxes for the grade at New Bern has not met with success. Judge Shepherd denied the motion for an injunction. This is well.

New Bern Journal: We learn that the lease committee appointed at the last stockholders' meeting of the W. N. C. R. R. Co. have been called together at Goldsboro to-morrow to consider propositions for leasing the road, which will be made at the stockholders' meeting on Thursday. We are called upon to chronicle a sad accident which happened in Jones county near Pine Grove Church on Saturday last. Little Amos Simmons, a son of Joseph J. Simmons, a prominent farmer in the county, aged about seven years, fell from a wagon while it was being driven down a hill near the house, the wheel passing over his head, killing him instantly. — S. H. Taylor, of Pitt, brought in his rice this morning, and sold it at $1.02. Mr. Taylor gave us a bird's-eye view of his manner of farming. He planted seven acres in cotton and realized seven sales, he raised 75 bushels of corn, and 30 bushels of rice. His force consisted of himself and two small boys.

Charlotte Observer: Mr. W. S. Hemy formerly of Union county and now connected with the Rutherford Enterprise, proposes to establish a newspaper at Wayneville, Haywood county, the first number of which will be issued in January. — The Rev. C. H. Mead, representing the National Temperance Society, is engaged this winter in temperance work in Wayneville. He is a native of New York. He has just closed an interesting series of meetings in Raleigh, and will be in Charlotte on Thursday next, and for several days following. — Seventeen days ago he reported the marriage at the residence of Esquire McComb, in this county, of Dr. B. B. Horton, of Wadesboro, to Miss Sallie McComb, one of the fairest young ladies of Mecklenburg. The bride and groom attended a reception at the residence of Capt. Wm. Nesbit, in this city, after which they left for their home in Wadesboro. A few days afterwards Dr. Horton was attacked with pneumonia, and on last Sunday he died. Dr. Horton was about 65 years of age and was held in great esteem by his fellowmen. — For several days past indications among the colored people of some very disgraceful doings of a party of Davidson College students at the depot in that place, several days ago, when a number of ladies and clergymen were subjected to burning indignities. It is said that the preachers were returning from the Conference at Statesville that the affair occurred. From all accounts it was the most revolting conduct and the faculty should take the matter in hand and deal with it as the merits of the case demand. On board were several very nice ladies and two or three grave ministers on their way from Conference. A number of students came aboard and took possession of the aisle of the car and some seats, and for ten or fifteen minutes abused themselves off in a most unbecoming manner. Some of them were oddly dressed and all seemed to vie with each other in bad behavior. They made frequent allusions to the Conference at Statesville, called each other brother, and sang what seemed to be a caricature on Methodist songs at revivals.

THE CITY. — NEW ADVERTISEMENTS. — MUNKER—Shirts, &c. — A. DAVID—Holiday trade. — D. L. GORE—Mules for sale. — HARRISON & ALLEN—Hats. — LOST—Subscription list book. — HEINRICH—Christmas goods. — J. B. FAHRER—Sewing machines. — MASQUERADE BALL—At Smithville. — BRETTING—Navassa Guano Company. — MORTON, DAVIS & CO.—Stuart's whiskey. — MUNDS BROS. & DELOSSET—Fancy goods. — Local Notes. — Frost again yesterday morning. — Receipts of cotton yesterday 564 bales. — The police look nobby in their new uniforms. — Full moon to-night at 14 minutes after 10 o'clock. — Nothing doing in magisterial or police circles yesterday. — Market and Front streets are brushing up for Christmas. — The streets, as a general thing, have a very cleanly appearance. — The Christmas horn is beginning to be heard in the land again. — There were a great many people from the country in the city yesterday, as well as quite a number of strangers from a distance. — The stockholders of the Navassa Guano Company of Wilmington, will take place at the office of the Company, in this place, this morning at 10 o'clock.

Weather Indications.

The following are the indications for today: For the Middle Atlantic States, warmer fair weather, southwesterly winds, veering to northwesterly, and falling preceded along the coast by rising barometer. For the South Atlantic States, slightly warmer fair weather, light variable winds, rising followed in the northern portions by falling barometer. For the East-Gulf States, slightly warmer fair weather, followed in the southwest half by local rains, northeast to southeast winds and lower barometer. For the West Gulf States, slightly warmer cloudy weather, local rains, north to east winds and lower barometer. For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, warmer fair weather, variable winds, westerly, and lower barometer.

Superior Court. The case of F. J. Swan, plaintiff, against L. A. Hart and J. C. Bailey, defendants, to recover certain property in possession of the latter, or their heirs, and claimed by the former, which has been before this court for the past ten days, came to a close yesterday, the decision being adverse to the plaintiff, through his counsel, craved an appeal to the Supreme Court of North Carolina.

The case was a very intricate one, involving a considerable amount of property, and an array of talent was brought into requisition which has seldom been employed upon any single case in our Courts before. The argument was opened on Thursday last by M. Q. Waddell, Esq., for the plaintiff, who was followed by Col. D. K. McRae for the defendants. Col. McRae by Hon. D. L. Russell for the plaintiff, Judge Russell by Hon. Geo. Davis for the defence, and Mr. Davis by Maj. D. J. Deane for the plaintiff. The arguments were all very able and exhaustive ones, as may be readily conceived from the character and ability of the counsel on either side. There are four more of these cases, in which F. J. Swan is plaintiff and various parties defendants, one of which is pending in Columbus Court and the other three have been continued over.

Foreign Exports. The following shipments were made from this port yesterday: The Norwegian barque Turist, Capt. Jensen, for Havre, France, by Messrs. Paterson, Downing & Co., with 2,313 barrels of turp., 700 do pitch, 5 do gum thus, 30 do rosin and 5 casks spirits turpentine, valued at $6,899; the German brig Express, Capt. Fretwurst, for Liverpool, by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, with 1,092 bales of cotton, weighing 560, 063 pounds and valued at $48,000; and the schooner Lisie Major, Capt. Foster, for St. Marc, Hayti, by Messrs. Jas. H. Chadbourne & Co., with 92,799 feet of lumber and 30,000 shingles, valued at $1,321.69. Total $56,020.69.

A Black Man Turning White. Mr. J. W. Underwood, of Sampson came into our office yesterday to exhibit to us one of those inexplicable freaks of nature which is occasionally found in this country of ours, in the shape of a colored man named Higon Melvin, who, after a severe spell of sickness, about twelve years ago, commenced gradually turning white, whereas before he was coal black. The skin of a good portion of his limbs and face is now as white as anybody's, and the transformation steadily progresses. In the case of Melvin the black gradually fades out and the skin does not peel as in some cases. The contrast in the colors is very striking.

Mayor's Court. The only case before the Mayor's Court yesterday morning was that of a naughty little son of a very respectable colored family here, who was arrested at the instance of W. W. Frye, the colored agent of the National Republican and other Republican papers, who has an office on Second street, near Princess. He charged the little fellow with insulting him by calling him "Jumbo" on the public streets, while he had denied the soft impeachment, declaring that he only asked the complainant for five cents that he owed him for going on an errand. The case was dismissed.

Excursion and Ball. The steamer Minnehaha has been chartered by a number of our young men, and will make an excursion trip to Smithville this evening, for the accommodation of those who desire to attend the ball to be given at that place, leaving her wharf at 6 p. m., and arriving on the return trip at 6 o'clock Friday morning. Perfect order is guaranteed and a pleasant time is expected. The fare for the round trip will be 75 cents.

Rocking a Train. The Southern Train, who came in on the other train Tuesday night, says some one threw a rock through a window of the car, between Cerro Gordo and Flemington, and the shattered glass struck him on the side of the face in a shower, but luckily did no damage further than to hurt his eyes to some extent, some of the fragments having entered them. No clew to the party who threw the rock.

This Evening. It was inadvertently stated in our last that "The Rajah," from the Madison Square Theatre, would be put on our boards yesterday evening. This was an error. The performance takes place this (Thursday) evening, as advertised. The press everywhere speak in very favorable terms of it.

The Rajah.

The original Madison Square Theatre Company arrived here this morning and will appear at the Opera House to-night. The press all over the country are unanimous in the praise of their excellence. All who have not already secured seats should do so at once; for from the appearance of the box sheet yesterday the indications are that the house will be filled.
