THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXIII.—NO. 86. WILMINGTON, N. C., THURSDAY, JANUARY 3, 1884. WHOLE NO. 5097

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

A government steam launch snagged and sank near Vicksburg, Miss.; the assistant engineer and two laborers were drowned. The public debt reduction for December is $11,743,337. Twenty-five buildings burned at Howard City, Mich.; loss $75,000. An order of the Postoffice Department changes the rate of postage on a number of articles that have heretofore been rated as third class matter. A steam tug boat and several coal barges sank near Pittsburg, Pa.; four men drowned. A hotel, the county jail and nine business houses burned at Newbridge, Minn.; loss $75,000. A steamer in the Grinnell Mill, at New Bedford, Mass., struck against a reduction of wages. The American Iron and Steel Association, in its review of the year's progress, shows the shrinkage of prices of pig-iron and steel. The funeral of the Archbishop Perche took place at New Orleans yesterday. At Ottumwa, Ia., a prisoner in the county jail shot the warden and escaped. N. Y. market: Money 2 1/2% per cent; cotton quiet at 10 1/2; southern flour quiet at 65 1/2; wheat, ungraded red $1.13, corn, ungraded 34c; spirits unchanged, spirits turpentine at 34c.

The New York World, following the misleading and incorrect statements of Protection parties, calls all men who favor tariff reduction "Free Traders." This is either gross ignorance or intentional deception. It names a goodly list of leading Republicans who are favoring tariff reform. Whilst certain Southern Democratic politicians and editors are doing all they can to help the Republican party keep intact the present onerous and unjust tariff, there are conspicuous and able Republicans who are urging reform. Among them are Mr. Jones, of the New York Times, Mr. Godwin, of the Nation, Horace White, of the Evening Post, Mr. Medill, of the Chicago Times, Mr. Bowles of the Springfield (Mass.) Republican, Haskell and Holmes, of the Boston Herald, Henry Ward Beecher, Carl Schurz, Sumner, Perry, Seely, William Allan Butler, Wells, &c.

Zachary, currently known as the "Anderson-Croftfield place," near Silk Hope, was entirely consumed by fire on Tuesday. All the furniture and everything in the house, including forty bushels of corn, was destroyed. Here are the failures for last week as reported in Bradstreet's for North Carolina, and the returns are not all in: Elizabethtown—W. B. Heister & Bro., general store, has assigned. Greensboro—S. D. McLean & Co., grocers, have assigned. Greenville—Haskett, Smith & Co., general store, has assigned. Liabilities $5,000; assets $5,000. New Bern—Gatlif & Lane, saloon, has assigned; J. L. McDaniel, grocer, has assigned; William Sutton & Co., dry goods, have assigned. Silver Hill—J. M. Prim, general store, has assigned. Liabilities about $1,800; assets nominal. Whiteville—Culbreth & Co., general store, has assigned. Liabilities about $1,000. Salisbury—Barnhart Bros., general merchandise, have assigned. Liabilities about $30,000.

A Postoffice Robbery Comes to Light. A colored youth, about 16 or 17 years of age, who was employed in the Postoffice in this city since summer, until about two months ago, was before U. S. Commissioner McQuigg, yesterday, on the charge of defrauding the mails. It seems from the evidence that a check was mailed by a gentleman of this city to a firm in New York. It failed to reach its destination, and inquiry was put on foot through the Postoffice Department, but did not succeed in discovering any trace of the missing check. About two months ago another firm in New York received the check, accompanied by a letter, ordering a gun and a false moustache, and requiring the goods to be sent by express, together with the balance of the money, to a person designated as "John Spindell." The check and letter were produced in Court by W. F. Crawford, Special Agent of the Postoffice Department, and the handwriting of the letter was identified by Postmaster Brink and Mr. Penny, one of his subordinates, as that of the young man in question, who had started to do his signature, but apparently ran his finger through the initials while the ink was wet and blurred them. The accused was required to furnish bond and security in the sum of $1,000 for his appearance at the next term of the U. S. District Court, which was furnished and he was discharged. The young man belongs to one of the most respectable and worthy families of his race in Wilmington, who are in much distress at what has happened.

Weather Indications. The following are the indications for today: For the Middle Atlantic States and South Atlantic States colder, freezing, generally clearing weather, northwesterly winds, rapidly rising barometer. For the East Gulf States, fair weather, northwesterly winds, becoming variable, slowly rising temperature towards Thursday evening; falling barometer, followed in northern portion by rising barometer. For the West Gulf States, fair, warmer weather, variable winds, falling barometer. For Tennessee and the Ohio Valley, clearing weather, slightly colder in eastern portion, warmer in western portion, westerly winds, generally higher barometer.

There is said to exist a good deal of uneasiness in Canada. It is thought it is said in London, is very anxious to avoid a war with France. George William Lane, President of the New York Chamber of Commerce, is dead. The papers continue to be filled with accounts of killings in the various sections of the Union. Barnum has a white elephant on the way from Siam. Forepaugh says he will have one also by the next show season. Ex-Gov. William Smith, of Virginia, has just celebrated his eighty-sixth birthday at his home at Warrenton. He was hale and hearty.

In New York the Methodist watch-night on New Year's eve, is being adopted by nearly all of the evangelical denominations. The following from the New York letter in the Philadelphia Ledger says: "The custom has been accepted in many prominent instances by the Episcopalians, who are usually very slow to accept innovations or novelties of that kind. St. Ann's, Brooklyn, of which Rev. Dr. Schenck is rector, leads in the movement, with sundry less conspicuous parishes following. The High Churchmen are more or less uneasy at this departure from the regular order of the services, as prescribed by the Prayer Book, but in the Diocese of Long Island at present that school of thought, for some reason or other, is at a discount. As the Ritualists for years past have had a midnight mass preceding Easter, however, the midnight services of the Low Churchmen preceding the New Year may be accepted, perhaps, as a new vindication of the doctrine or law of equivalents."

Wilson Mirror: We understand that Major Galtin has made arrangements to build a railroad across the banks opposite the Atlantic Hotel at Morehead City, on which to convey visitors from the sound to the beach. At her residence in Wilson, N. C., on the night of December 19th instant, Mrs. Martha Adams, widow of Jesse H. Adams, The deceased, was 65 years of age. We regret to announce the death of Freeman Ruggles in this place on the night of the 14th inst., in his 20th year. The serious ailment, of which we gave an account last week, resulted as we predicted, in the death of Billie Williams. He lingered until Saturday night in a state of unconsciousness, and consequently was not able to make any statement himself about the unfortunate affair. The reports are very conflicting, and it is very difficult to sift the grains of truth from the chaff of error which is now thrown around it. It seems, as we stated last week, that Williams was the aggressor.

Charlotte Observer: The firm of Barnhart Brothers, dealers in general merchandise, have made an assignment for the benefit of creditors. The amount of their failure is variously estimated at from $30,000 to $80,000. In their assignment they secure first-class creditors $7,800, and second-class creditors $9,800. Rev. H. Cone is among the secured creditors. The Northern creditors are left out in the cold and are secured nothing. Mr. W. H. Trott, proprietor of the hotel at Catawba, drops us a postal card containing a warning to hotel men to look out for an old woman who professes to teach the art of dress making, cutting, &c. She is more skillful as a board bill jumper than any other dress maker in the State. Caldwell wife of Mr. D. A. Caldwell, died in this city on Sunday night, aged 73 years. As this is the season when all thoughtful people are casting up their records for the past year, the reporter, with a feeling of awe, has compiled his record, and submits it with his most humble apologies, and promises that if spared he will try and do better during the present year. During the past twelve months he has wasted a life in reporting, marriages 40, didn't know it was loaded affairs 46, lynchings 7, suicides 6, hangings 2, railroad accidents 20, red snappers 5. He has had 1,000 (approximate) times, and told the truth on an average once a day. Had to take back or fight 33. Fought 0.

Personal. Mr. David Bell and family, of Fayetteville, spent Tuesday in this city, and left that evening for Florida, where they are to spend the winter. They were the guests while here of Mr. T. T. Seeders. Capt. Walter Cone, formerly of this city, but now a resident of Savannah, is here on a visit. RIVER AND MARINE. Steamship Benefactor, hence, arrived at New York yesterday. Norwegian barque Amal, Lunoe, hence, arrived at Liverpool December 29th. A new and handsome yacht put into this harbor yesterday and attracted much attention. She is the Etene, of 40 tons burthen, bound from New York for a cruise in the West Indies; the owner, Mr. Podelford, of Staten Island, New York, being on board. She is of the English cutter model, and is 68 feet long and 11 feet beam. She had severe weather on the passage and proved herself a sea-worthy boat. In coming out of Norfolk under a stiff breeze she sprung her mast, and has put in here to have it refitted. She is handsomely fitted up, and everything about her is in the latest style. She will remain here several days.

Virginia is preparing to make an exhibit at the great New Orleans Exhibition. The Legislature will be asked to make the needed appropriation. What is North Carolina going to do about it? There will be no Legislature before the Exhibition comes off.

Spirits Turpentine. Cotton receipts this far at Charlotte have decreased 1,298 bales. Raleigh Visitor: From the report of Maj. C. D. Heatt, Chief of Police, we learn that 731 arrests were made during the year 1883. E. City Economist: We hear that wild ducks are in clouds in Connecticut. We hear that Nag's Head will probably change hands in a few days. Capitalists from the North have the matter under advisement. Rutherford Enterprise: After another successful session Rutherford College closed its annual term of 1883 on Friday night last by George Applewhite. As a regular commencement day, the institution was closed with a short routine of exercises. N. C. Presbyterian: Rev. C. M. Miller writes us December 21st: Rev. C. M. Howard concluded his meeting at Watertown Saturday night the 13th inst. There were about fifty at the seat of prayer. About twenty-six, some of them converts of last year, decided to join some church. Greenville Reflector: Several burglaries have been attempted in Greenville in the past week. Our people should be on their guard. The clothing of Mr. J. C. Everett, of Belvoir township, accidentally took fire on Monday morning, and the unfortunate lady was so badly burned that it is thought she will not recover. Goldsboro Messenger: Arthur Williams was knocked in the head on Christmas day by George Applewhite. Applewhite is a lingering spirit that once figured among the Swamp Angels of Henry Berry Lowery. Sim Hicks, a colored boy, shot and dangerously wounded another boy of his own color on Christmas day. The shooting was accidental. Danbury Reporter: The Danbury people are living high now. The permisson crop is good. We learn that a great deal of pork has been lost to the warm weather this winter. It is time for them to stop the foolhardy way of neglecting corn, wheat, oats, &c., going in debt for fertilizer, and staking everything on a crop of tobacco. True tobacco is high this year, but few have any to sell worth the name. Pittsboro Home: A veil of sadness was thrown over our little town Monday afternoon by the announcement that Miss Jane Davis was dead. At Henry Frazier's, three miles north of Gulf, during a drunken debauch a few nights ago, Gaston McIntyre was dangerously cut with a knife by Lawrence Dark. At Gulf about 700 bales of cotton have been purchased this season. Last season about 800 bales were purchased. We regret to learn that the residence of Mr. Jonathan

Foreign Exports. The following comprised the foreign exports from this port yesterday: The Norwegian barque Iarna, Capt. Jorgensen, for Liverpool, by Messrs. Alex. Sprunt & Son, with 2,818 bales of cotton, weighing 1,082,599 pounds, and valued at $106,000; the Norwegian barque Keradita, Capt. Petter-son, for London, by Messrs. Dr. D. R. Murchison & Co., with 3,785 barrels of rosin, valued at $7,525; the Norwegian barque Candace, Capt. Johannsen, for Vienna, Austria, with 3,610 barrels of rosin, valued at $4,696; and the schooner Mary Lord, Capt. Lord, for Ponce, P. R., with 283,320 feet of lumber, valued at $3,966.48. Total $122,187.48. The Produce Exchange has been furnished with thirty-six new and handsome chairs, which will be a real comfort to the members at future meetings. The old ones have been packed away, and will be called into requisition on the occasion of a large meeting. There has also been added a fine revolving chair for the presiding officer and a splendid table. Death of a Former Wilmingtonian. Dr. William Ware, formerly a well known dentist of this city, who went to California in 1849, when the gold fever was raging so severely in Wilmington, died at Alameda, in that State, on the 10th of December, aged 79 years. Dr. Ware was never married. We learn from a letter received by a gentleman of this city, that he left a comfortable fortune.

Local Dots. We have gained four minutes of daylight. The mercury was down to 38 degrees at 12 o'clock last night. Mr. L. B. Huggins, one of our oldest citizens, died last night about 12 o'clock. Hon. Simon Wolf lectures at the Opera House to-night, his subject being "Egypt." Only one case of drunk and down before Mayor Hall yesterday morning, which enriched the treasury to the extent of $5. Mr. Jas. A. Fore has leased the Harrison Planing Mills from Mr. J. W. Taylor, and announces his readiness to furnish all kinds of lumber, especially ceiling, flooring, moulding, &c., at short notice. Deeds and Mortgages. During the year just closed the Clerk of the Superior Court, S. Van Amringe, Esq., admitted to probate 579 deeds and 226 mortgages; as against 477 deeds and 268 mortgages for the year 1883, showing an increase of 102 deeds and a decrease of 42 mortgages, as compared with the previous year.
