Distressing Accident. Rev. Daniel Morrelle met with a very distressing accident on Saturday night last, by which he is temporarily deprived of the use of his only remaining leg. Mr. Morrelle had disrobed, about 10 o'clock, for the purpose of retiring for the night, and started to limp or hop across the room to his bed, when his leg gave way under him and he fell upon it, fracturing the bone just above the ankle. Surgical attention was quickly to hand and he received every possible attention. Yesterday we understood he was resting easy and was very cheerful under the circumstances. He was to have conducted services at S1. Mark's Episcopal Church on Sunday morning. Much sympathy is felt for the reverend gentleman on account of the unfortunate accident.

Fatal Accident on the Track.

An old colored man, upwards of 70 years of age, named Robert Languin, was walking on the railroad track a short distance above Boney bridge on Saturday evening. about 6 o'clock, and, being on the lower track, he seemed to have gone upon the other track because he thought he would be more out of the way of danger from passing engines. It appears, however, that he gained the upper track just in time to be struck by the tender of a backing yard engine which knocked him off the track and caused injuries from which he died yesterday morning, about 6 o'clock. The unfortunate man is said to have been a little deaf, and did not hear the whistle which was sounded to warn him of his danger. He was an employe in the railroad shops.

was the regret of all when the curtain fell for the last time. Many comedians would do well to imitate Jefferson, both in select ing and rendering their plays. Jefferson has no rival in comedy and stands among comedians facile princeps. In the character of Bob Acres he took the entire house by storm and showed that he fully merited the high admiration in which our people here always held him. Mrs. John Drew, as Mrs. Malaprop, scored quite a victory for herself, and she is entitled to much praise for the faultless manner in which she acted her part.

After the performance an informal presentation of Mr. Jefferson to members of the old Thalian Association took place in the Mayor's room at the City Hall. There was a pleasant interchange of recollections of the past; Mr. Jefferson remarking upon being introduced by Col. Hall that he recalled his visit to Wilmington, thirtytwo years ago, with a great deal of pleasure. The gentlemen present were Col. Hedrick, Col. Don McRae, Col. J. G.
