

MORNING EDITION.

OUTLINES.

The national contest in Kentucky is concluded. The mousetraps at the Union Park Store Works struck against the Union of 10 per cent. in wages. The epidemic prevails in Manchester, Eng. The strike in the cotton mills there will terminate in favor of the workmen. A. D. Lockwood, a leading cotton manufacturer, died yesterday of heart disease at Providence, R. I. Ten men and a boy killed in a coal pit in Wales by falling on the bottom of the shaft. The bill for an appropriation of one million dollars for the improvement of the Mississippi river was further defeated in the House of Representatives yesterday. D. P. Hill, appointed as High Sheriff, was finally shot by three marked men in the house of E. N. Miller, near New York, N. Y., burned. Miller's wife fainting and died in a few moments. The Chalmers-Manning election in the House committee decided to seat Manning in the prima facie evidence of the case. New York market. Money 1 1/2 per cent. cotton dull and easier at 14 1/2 to 15 1/2. southern flour steady at 10 1/2 to 11. wheat, ungraded white at 10 1/2 to 11. ungraded red at 10 1/2 to 11. 35 sports turpentine dull and easier at 14 1/2 to 15.

Philadelphia has a Republican candidate who writes himself Henderson. John S. Wise, Mahone Representative from Virginia, says that he is the first choice of his party in that State. Representative Howitt says the bill started by the Philadelphia House concerning him is a lie and a piece of personal explanation.

Announcement report adverse to Gen. John Porter's claims will be made by the Republicans on the House Military Committee, but their report will embrace no new matter. The bill to pass it is said. Great fear for Porter.

Senator Butler repudiates all political announcements made concerning him and tells a Washington Post reporter that all recent stories are untrue and that nothing referring to the same and plans are to be credited to him signed by himself.

The total wealth of New York is $1,041,000,000, Pennsylvania, $864,584,000. According to the Tribune it will cost more to pay off the pension claims already granted by Congress than the whole wealth of the State of New York amounts to.

Mrs. Anderson said a very sensible thing when she declared that she would not marry any body but an American editor. She will get more puffs than ever when she returns. She is worth $150,000 now and she is likely to take care of some poor editor.

The Washington correspondent of the Richmond Dispatch writes on the 14th.

Sen. Roger A. Pryor opened the argument before the House Committee on Public Lands today against the forfeiture of the Texas Pacific land grant. His speech was worthy of his distinguished reputation as a lawyer, and he has not forgotten how to speak.

It is announced by the Washington Post that the newly elected Senator, Mr. Payne, will soon establish a literary bureau in New York, Washington and Cleveland. He is seeking the Presidency and this is the means he will adopt to further his plans.

A negro in Oglethorpe county, Ga., ran off with Mattie Martin, a school girl of sixteen. They went to Madison county and lived together. The people of the two counties are greatly excited and upon seizing the negro were about to lynch him. It was decided to jail him, but hanging at any time is not improbable.

Arthur is on a still hunt for the Presidency it seems. He is to make no positive effort to secure the nomination. Oh no. He will only work through his agents. A Washington special of a recent date to the Charlotte Observer says:

There is indubitable proof to show that the weeks back Chandler and Howe have been engaged in giving private instructions to special agents of the Postoffice and Treasury Departments and the pension office, looking to an insidious working up of an Arthur boom in the South. This is an Arthur boom in the South. This is an Arthur boom in the South. This is an Arthur boom in the South.

"When rogues fall out, etc." then the people will learn something.

TRAVELLING AGENT.

Mr. W. S. Fowler, of Rockingham, has been appointed travelling agent for the Star on the line of the Carolina Central Railroad. He will visit Laurinburg, Shoe Heel, Wadesboro, Monroe and other points at an early day, and will be glad to meet our subscribers and find them "ready for action."

The Richmond papers two or three days since announced the death of Mr. George S. Palmer. They stated he was in his 70th year. We had no idea that he was so old as that. We had the pleasure of meeting him during the war, and he spoke in high terms of the late Col. David M. Carter who was carried to Mr. Palmer's house from the battlefield of Seven Pines and where he was treated as a brother and nursed most tenderly. Mr. Palmer was much impressed with Col. Carter's very superior abilities. Mr. Palmer was a great friend of the soldiers and turned his fine residence into a hospital. North Carolinians especially will be pained to learn of his death as he did a great deal for them.

The New York Tribune says it will require $1,295,729,000--what a tremendous sum!--to pay the pension claims. Think of this ye taxpayers. Talk about surplus. Why here is the monster that can swallow it and make no face. And still new pension claims are being introduced, and men are clamoring to wipe out the whiskey and tobacco tax. The statesman will pause long before he will heed such a cry.

Spirits Turpentine.

At Asheville the mercury fell to 9 degrees below zero. F. McNinch, the old City Marshal of Charlotte, was selected.

There are one hundred and twenty-one papers and periodicals in North Carolina. High Point Enterprise: The school fund was apportioned Tuesday by the board and amounts to $1.55 per capita for the scholastic year.

Franklin Weekly: We hear that a move is on foot in a very quiet way to build the railroad from Henderson to Louisburg this summer, and it is to be called the Richmond, Oxford & Raleigh Railroad.

New Bernes Nut Shell: Rev. Dr. Milburn preached powerful sermons in Neuse Street Methodist Church yesterday morning and last night and on each occasion the Church was packed with sinners and highly interested listeners. New Bernes Journal: Mr. J. J. Simpson, an excellent, god-fearing and good Confederate soldier, who was wounded in the knee joint, the knee afterwards curing up stiff, fell and broke his knee over again last week, at Swainsboro, and is suffering considerably at the time.

Goldboro Messenger: Mr. J. P. Cadigan, quondam treasurer of the Middle North Carolina Railway, passed through this city last week returning from a trip through the far Western States, en route for New York. He is now travelling with a first-class minister company wonder where W. B. just is?

Raleigh Visitor: It is with feelings of peculiar sadness that we are called upon to chronicle the death of Mr. Robert Dobbin, Jr., which occurred at the residence of his parents on West Davis street at 11 o'clock this morning after a brief and painful illness. The deceased was about 38 years of age.

Monroe Express-Enquirer: In the death of Mr. L. Cuthbertson, of Sandy Ridge Township, which took place on the 7th inst., the county loses one of its best citizens. The property known as the Seborn still, situated about a mile west of town, was destroyed by fire on Tuesday night last. Besides the building about two barrels of whiskey and twenty-five bushels of meal were destroyed.

Shelby Answer: One of our prominent young men, Jasper Gardner, moved to Texas three years ago and was doing a prosperous business in Paris, Texas. Three weeks ago he was severely wounded by a pistol in the hands of a ruffian, the ball entering his side. Pneumonia attacked one week afterwards the wounded man, and the struggle for life and death began. On Sunday he breathed his last and his corpse was sent home.

Oxford Torchlight: We hear that Mr. Mills' retirement was announced at the Asylum the little children gentlemen described it to us as a most affecting scene. After having worked up the institution to its present cheerful prospects, it would be a pity for Mr. Mills to drop down the measurement. He is the father of the Asylum, and no man in North Carolina can ever better understand it needs and further its interests as he has done. Let him stand at his post and it will work out well.

Lumberton Robinsonian: Prof. C. H. Martin leaves tonight for Stanley county, where he is to take charge of Yadin Springs Academy, a flourishing school, and in a most delightful section. Dr. Millers is to preach in the Methodist Church next Sunday and lecture at Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday nights. He will certainly have very large audiences.

Mr. J. W. Campbell has returned from Texas where he has been sojourning for more than a year. He says that the "long Star" is a great State in some respects, but the old "North State" is far preferable in many ways.

Raleigh News-Observer: A reward of $500 is offered by the Governor for Anderson Adams, colored, who murdered William Wright, near Dobson, Surry county, on the 24th of December. We are authorized to state that Raleigh is to have a cotton warehouse and that it will be ready for use September 1st. The State Board of Agriculture meets here to-morrow. The law requires quarterly sessions on the third Wednesday in January, April, July and October for the transaction of routine business. To-morrow Col. F. C. Morehead will appear before the Board and advocate action in regard to the State's making an exhibit at the World's Exposition and Cotton Centennial, to be held at New Orleans, beginning next December.

For the last week the following failures in North Carolina were reported in Bradstreet's: Charlotte--J. M. Miller, grocer, has assigned; J. J. Thompson, hotel, has been closed under mortgage. (He was also of Thompson & Morton, of Wadesboro, who own it is said, about $2,000). Elk Park--W. M. Crowder & Co., general store, have failed. Kings--A. Harris, grocer, and Higgins, and P. Newman & Co., general store have assigned. Fair Bluff--B. A. Anderson, general store, etc., has assigned, preferring $3,000. Margarettville--Davis & Lauer, general store, has failed and is dissolved. The firm is J. H. Ball, general store, has assigned. Wilson--R. B. Byram & Co., jewelry, have assigned.

Charlotte Observer: We are told that there is a good deal of sickness, principally pneumonia, prevailing among the colored people about town, and in a great measure to be traced during the late cold weather. Lieut. C. D. Cowles, of the 23rd Regiment, United States Infantry, arrived in Charlotte yesterday with his family, on a four months furlough. He is visiting his father Col. Calvin J. Cowles.

On last Wednesday morning Oliver Adkins, colored, who lived in this city, went out on the Air Line freight train as a brakeman. When the train reached Adams Adkins was not with it, had nobody knew anything about him. Inquiries were made for him on the return trip to Charlotte, but nothing could be learned about the missing man, and subsequent searches along the track failed to reveal any trace of him. As the snow melted away, his body came to light, and was yesterday found at the Peachtree grade, where it had lain under the snow since last Wednesday.

Prof. Dabney writes to Science of North Carolina phosphates: Phosphatic rock has recently been discovered in the up country, which corresponds exactly to the water-worn nodules entering into the siliceous conglomerates of the lower Carolina. In the latter region, about Wilmington, and twenty miles above, we find the nodules embedded in, and forming the lower layer of, a ground and hardened oolite sand. This oolite has the same color of burnt powder characteristic of such phosphates. Higher up the country, in Sampson, Duplin and Jones counties, we find the oolite marl above, and the phosphatic rock below, in distinctly separate layers. Here the formation is such as to leave little doubt that the rock is phosphatic marl (according to Holmes' theory), and not true coprolites. It is found in large bedded slabs, six to eighteen inches thick.

Sam Smith, colored, whose case was continued over Tuesday morning, was before Mayor Hall yesterday morning to answer to the charge of setting disorderly in the neighborhood of the Carolina Central depot, a few days ago. He was found guilty and required to pay a fine of $3.

Julia Murray, colored, charged with being found concealed behind a store on Front street. It being pretty clearly established that she was not in the place she was found with any criminal intent she was let off on the payment of $5.

Thomas Johnson, John Beckett, J. B. Davis, Dorcas Frank and Virginia Brown, charged with shooting murder, engaging in loud and boisterous cursing and swearing and other disorderly proceedings, on Nutt street, near the corner of Hanover, between the two railroad depots, on Tuesday night last, were adjudged guilty and required to pay a fine of $3 each on all except Virginia Brown, who was fined $5.

Boysley Davis, colored, charged with stealing a lot of prunes from the store of Capt. J. L. Boatwright, on Tuesday afternoon last, was ordered to enter into bond in the sum of $50 for his appearance at the next term of the Criminal Court, in default of which he was committed to jail.

Military Matters. The resignation of Capt. J. L. Cantwell from the command of the Wilmington Light Infantry excited very general surprise and regret. He does so, he says, to serve as a private in the ranks, and he made an earnest request of the company to that effect before he tendered his resignation. The venerable commander (now ex-Captain) of the W. L. I., has a reputation throughout the State for his soldierly qualities. He is succeeded by an experienced officer, and our soldier boys will no doubt find in Capt. Beery a good and efficient commander, who will entitle himself to their full confidence and respect.

In our report of election of officers of the Wilmington Light Infantry in our last issue, we failed to note the unanimous election of Mr. N. F. Parker, as presiding officer of the company, a position which he has held for some years past with credit to the company and honor to himself. He also holds the position of Adjutant of the Second Regiment N. C. S. G., and is on the staff of Col. Albert Worth.

The name of M. S. Willard, Vice President, was also omitted.

Improvement of the Lockwood's Folly River. Mass Meeting. A mass meeting was held at Lockwood's Folly Bridge, Brunswick county, on Thursday, Jan. 10th, to consider the subject of the improvement of Lockwood's Folly River and Bar. The meeting was called to order by Mr. Joseph Stansland, whereupon Washington Holden, Esq., was elected Chairman and Mr. J. R. Mercer Secretary. Sheriff E. W. Taylor was introduced and spoke at considerable length on the importance of the proposed improvement, and was followed by Rev. A. A. Edwards. It was then moved and seconded that the memorial prepared for the purpose, asking Congress for a small appropriation to deepen the channel of the Lockwood's Folly River and make it navigable at any time of the tide, and to enable the memorialists to reclaim some of the thousands of acres of rich river and bottom lands, and the equally rich marsh lands, be forwarded at once to our Representatives at Washington.

Rev. Dr. Hawthorne--His Visit to Wilmington. Rev. Dr. Hawthorne, of Richmond, a native of Alabama, and bred to the law, will occupy the pulpit of the First Baptist Church next Sabbath, morning and night. The subject of the morning discourse will be "The proper use of Ideals in Religion." At night: "What the Pulpit has to do with Trade and Politics."

Lecture at Lumberton. Rev. Dr. T. H. Patchard, of the First Baptist Church, was expected to lecture at Lumberton last evening, in the Baptist Church of that town. The Robinsonian, alluding to the fact, says: "The Doctor has many admirers in this section who will be glad to again hear the distinguished North Carolinian."

Resolutions of Respect. At the session of the Wilmington, Wrightsville & Oaslow Railroad Company, held Tuesday, resolutions of respect to the memory of the late E. F. Martin, superintendent of the road, and sincere regret at his death, were submitted and passed.

Shooting Into a School House.

A colored school teacher, who holds forth in a small school house in Cape Fear Township, about eight miles from the city and near the county road, was situated in the midst of an earnest effort to impress upon the mind of one of his pupils an intricate problem in the mysterious domain elementary spelling book, on Tuesday last, by a sudden explosion, followed by the crash of a ball through the closed door fronting towards the road, which grazed the head of one of the children and struck the floor near his own feet. He rushed to the door and saw two country boys in a cart driving leisurely along in the direction of the city, while behind them was a colored man, who stopped, and in response to inquiries from the pedagogic, said he had his eye on the boys, and that as they were passing the school house, he saw a pistol pointed in the direction of the door, noticed a puff of smoke as the weapon was discharged and heard the report, but did not know the boys, nor of course which one fired the pistol. The schoolmaster was equally diligent in information as to the identity of the young Arabs, but he closed his school and put out for this city, passing the two boys in their cart on the way, and, upon arriving here, made complaint to an officer of the law; but, as he could not identify the offenders, no action had been taken in the matter at last accounts.
