> "In all personal references the Queen invariably uses the plural number. 'Our beloved daughter Bestrice,' 'Our devoted attendant, John Brown, 'Our beloved uncle, the Emperor of Germany,' 'Our deeply lamented daughter Alice,' receive frequent allusion. There is scant reference to the Prince of Wales. Only once, in fact, does she speak of him at any length. This was on the occasion of his severe illness from tpphoid fever. The Queen makes long comments upon political events, and gives many opinions on men of the times. She often expresses an expectally high estimate of Lord Beaconsfield. She discloses Beaasfield's views on the results of the ger eral election of 1880, and also his ideas on the foreign situation about the time of his death. In this manifest preference for the ideas of the departed statesman, there is an obvious implication of criticism of the pol-icy of Mr. Gladstone. In snother part of the book the Queen gives an account of the growth of the friendship between herself and the Empress Eugenie after the fall of Napeleon. The Queen professes to hold the character of Napoleon, especially under misfortune, in very high estimation. The fraud in South Carolina and other Southern States is going on. The investigation into the conduct of United States Marshals is furnishing some instructive reading. The Springer Committee is groving itself an useful "institution," Marshal Blythe, of South Carolina, is coming to grief. It is charged that he only reported one-fifth of the fees and commissions in civil cases, cheated the witnesses out of their earnings, misapplied the funds in his hands and systematically swindled the Government in many ways. These are very serious charges. Suppose the Democrats could get into power and control every-department of the Government and were then to go into a thorough examination of all the transactions since the war what a revelation would be made of perfidy, of corruption, of peculation, of vice such as have been seen in no Government probably that has ex-

- Asheville Citizen: Gov. Jarvis has appointed Mr. James G. Martin. Assistant Adjutant General, with the rank of Major, in the North Carolina State Guards; also Messrs. F. R. Curtis and T. B. Young, aids, with the rank of Captain and Lieutenant respectively. — Yancey county puts in its claim to notice. J. H Roland, of Cane River, sold at the Banner Warehouse on Thursday, tobacco, the product of three acres, for which he received $664.39. This county is making rapid developments, especially in tobacco. The Secretary of the Asheville Tobacco Association reports for the month of January: Sold at the several warehouses during the moth, 488,309 pounds for $97,352.70, an average of $19.98 per hundred. This average is the highest yet obtained, and still places Asheville market ahead of any in the United States.

 Beaufort Telephone: We made a brief visit to the colored school at Washburne Seminary, which is under the control of the Casteret County Educational Association. We found about 185 pupils present and good order prevailing. Oysters come in very plentitully new and have for a week or two past, but the weather has been so warm that the demand for shipment is light and prices rule very low. A few weeks since oysters such as can now be bought for fifteen or twenty cents were selling for forty-five and fifty cents-Captain John Whitehurst died at his late residence on the Straits, on the 24th ultimo, having within a little over a month, lived to see the 84th year of his age. Mr. J. A. Robinson, who returned from the banks near Portsmouth on Saturday last in the schooner Etta, reports that about one-third of a three-masted vessel came ashore at Pilintary about ten miles south of Ocracoke Inlet. The mizzen mast, portions of the cabin, etc., drifted up, disclosing the fact that the schooner had a poop deck, was nearly new, was named Sallie Young, and belonged in Philadelphia. Goldsboro Messenger: Our es teemed friend, W. H. Miss Sallie Andrews, of Wilming ton, daughter of the late Col. W. S. G. Andrews, and a most courteous, popular and amiable young lady, has charge of the establishment. —Mr. N. B. Wright, farming on Dr. J. M. Kirkpatrick's plantation, in Grantham's township, met with a sad death on Wednesday of last week. He went out to feed the hogs, on the opposite side of the river, carrying his gun. On returning, it is supposed, in getting into his boat, the hammer struck the side of the boat and discharged the load through his head, killing him instantly. —A meeting of the Goldsboro Bar was held in the court room on Saturday evening, after the adjournment of the court, Hon. Throwing Rocks.

Charles Pertha, a colored youth, was arraigned before Justice Millis, yesterday. charged with throwing a rock and striking Thomas Douglass, a small white boy; but there was no evidence that Pertha threw the rock that struck young Douglass, and he was therefore discharged. We learn that crowds of boys are in the habit of throwing rocks in the locality where Douglass was hurt, in the southern section of the city, and that a determined effort will be made to put a stop to the practice.

The Difficulty on Monday.

In referring to the difficulty between Messrs. Frank Miller and G. W. Penny, in our last issue, we were inadvertently led into the error of stating that Mr. Miller had been committed to jail. The fact is that Mr. Miller at once furnished the necessary bond and was discharged from custody.

By the way, we are glad to learn that the injury to Mr. Penny is not supposed to be serious. The hammer seems to have rlanced on the skull which was not fractured by the blow. The condition of the wounded man was reported to be some-

WITH OLD TIME REGULARITY the 164th Monthly Drawing of The Louisiana State Lottery took piace on January 18th. The Commissioners, Gen'is Early and Beauregard, obtained the following result: Ticket No. 31,993 drew the 1st Capital of $75,000, sold in fifths costing each $1; one was sold to a gentleman in New York city, another to a newspaper man in Petersburg. Va.; the others scattered everywhere as usual. Ticket No. 20,006 drew the 2d prize of $25,000, sold in fifths also; one in Chicago, Ill., another in Washington, D. C., to a government employe, probably who does not seek publicity. Ticket No. 83,176 drew the 3d Capital prize of $10,000, sold in fifths also; one each held by Henry Munk, No. 276 Gratiot avenue, and Mr. Samuel Levy, well known citizens of Detroit, Mich. Nos. 12,144 and 64,251, 3d Capital prizes, drew each $6,000, sold in fifths, among others to W. M. Lakey, of Bell's, Grayson Co., Texas, through Merchants & Planters Bank of Sherman, Texas. Many winners seek to conceal the fact of their having drawn a prize. A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands slept well, and the little fellow gwoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the prejudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
