Politicians get the honors-even from colleges. We know a lawyer in North Carolina of whom this may be said: he was educated at the University of Virginia; he is a scientific lawyer of the first rank; of whom the late C. J. Pearson said, "if there was any more learned lawyer in North Carolina he did not practice before the Supreme Court;" he is a scholar in Hebrew, Greek, Latin, German and French; he reads German as readily as men read English he is a mathematician; he is well read in theology, and has an extensive acquaintance with some departments of literature; he probably knows something of Italian and Spanish; he is a very devout Christian and is a great equity lawyer. He has no self-assertion. He would as soon think of putting his hands in the fire as to seek an honor of any kind. He never receives degrees from Colleges or Universities. He is overlooked. He has never been in politics. He would reflect honor on any institution that would honor itself in trying to honor him. Modest merit has a double claim to recognition. In these days it is a rare article and has no collegiate value.

Rev. Dr. Howard Crosby is one of the most gifted and distinguished of the New York ministers. He is a Republican. Here is what he is reported by the Times as saving:

"I dont't like the nomination of Blaine at all. I think Mr. Blaine is an unprincipled and reckless politician. He is just the man to involve the nation in difficulties with foreign countries if given loose rein, and would no doubt do so if elected. If the Democrats nominate any decent man, like Bayard or Cleveland, I shall certainly vote for him, although I have voted the Republican ticket nearly all my life, and voted the Whig ticket before I voted that, I was in the company of twenty ministers yesterday, and every one of them expressed the same opinion. I think the Democrats will get 20,000 Republican votos in New York city if they put up any decent man. If they put up a polical mountebank like Ben Butler I don't know what we shall the election of Mr. Walker Meares to be Superintendent of Public Instruction for the county was an exceedingly wise one, and we are glad to see our position endorsed by such competent authority as Mr. R. The Finance committee submitted its report, which was laid on the table for future consideration.

Several estimates for constructing the road to Wrightsville were considered and referred to the Executive Committee. Also. estimates for furnishing rolling stock were referred to the same committee. A communication from the President. G.

The Concert Monday Night. The following from a musical friend will give a more complete idea of the excellencies of the performance Monday night, as taken in detail, than was given in our notice Tuesday morning:

Last Monday night was an occasion long o be remembered by those who were fortunate enough to be present at the concert given in aid of the organ fund of the First Baptist Church, in which our local musical talent took a prominent part. Mrs. D. B. Kahnweiler, Wilmington's favorite singer and ever obliging artiste, is too well-known to need any additional praise at our hands. Her solos were skilfuffy and charmingly rendered. Mrs. A. D. Jenkins, new to our Wilmington people, made her first appearance, and at once sang herself into favor. She is a lady of winning appearance, and has a charming voice of much power and compass. Piano solos by Miss Chasten and Miss DeRosset were admirably rendered. The vocal quartettes by Messrs. Tilly, Welsh, Mitchell and Grant were

The instrumental music in the skilful hands of Messrs, Munson, Otterbourg, Willson, Smithdeal, Greenewald, Mitchell and Alderman demand more than passing mention. The overtures, "Poet and Peasant," and "Rocked in the Cradle of the Deep," were executed admirably. Mr. R. H. Grant's bass solo deserves special mention. Mrs. M. P. Taylor, quite well known as an artiste of superior ability, accompanied Mrs. Kahnweiler in her solos. Prof. VanLear and Mr. D. B. Mitchell were untiring in their efforts to make the concert a success, and certainly deserve great credit. We must not omit to mentiou the beautiful stage decoration so artistically arranged by the Misses Gore.

Personal. Rev. W. I. Hull, of the Fifth Street M. E. church, is very sick, though reported somewhat easier yesterday than he was the day previous. He has made many warm friends during his short stay in Wilmington, who deeply sympathize with him in his affliction and look forward with hope to his restoration to health.

Among the visitors in the city yesterday, and present during a part of the session of the Superior Court, we noticed Messrs. W. A. Guthrie and T. H. Sutton.

Prof. M. C. S. Noble was here Monday. Yesterday he was to commence as assistant to Prof. Moses the session of the Normal School at Goldsboro, which will last two weeks, when he will go to Newton.

Painful Accident. Mr. Willie Monroe, in attempting to climb a fence yesterday afternoon, stuck a large splinter in the upper part of his thigh fully two inches in length, and the surgeon found it imbedded in the flesh a half inch beyond the surface. It was extracted, but the wound is very painful.

For the Star. Commencement Monroe High School. The commencement of this school came off on the 29th, 30th and 31st of May. Literary exercises, consisting of recitations, declamations and essays, in which all acquitted themselves admirably, many winning especial applause. Little Jamie Moncoe, the youngest and smallest orator in the State, perhaps, brought down the house incessantly by the manner in which he spoke and acted a parody on Mary's lamb. The small size of the boy, his minute imitation of the lamb (?) and the deacon in church, took well. Many deserve especial notice, but space forbids.

Thursday Dr. A. W. Miller, of Charlotte delivered the literary address, on "Wo-man's Mission," which was pronounced by all who heard it the finest in thought, beauty and diction they ever heard on the subect. The orator proved his title to the highest place among North Carolina's ablest sons in forensic effort. Thursday night, the annual musical concert came off and was a fine success, showing careful training and assiduous practice. Friday night the promenade concert came off and was participated in by the majority of our pleasant citizens of all ages. The attendance; during the series of entertainments was large and remarkably orderly. Music was furnished by the Monroe Silver Cornet Band, which in itself was rare treat. The school numbered 153 this year, with 30 music scholars. Mr. J A. Monroe is principal, assisted by Prof. D. C. Anderson, of Georgia, and Miss Kate Pearsall, of Goldsboro. Mrs J. A. Monroe is principal of the music department, assisted by Miss Brownie Johnson, of Western North Carolina. Our farmers are busily engaged saving their extra fine crop of small grain. Al things are booming up here, and we will soon let you hear from us on politics.
