Rev. Kenneth McDonald preached two very acceptable sermons at the Second Presbyterian church on Sunday.

Rev. R. T. Bryan, a young student and destined for a missionary in China, occupied the pulpit of the First Baptist church in the absence of the pastor, Dr. Pritchard, on Sunday. His sermons have been very highly spoken of.

Bishop Northrop preached and admin istered the rite of confirmation at St. Thomas' Catholic church Sunday morning. Rev. James W. Craig preached at the Fifth Street church Sunday morning, and Sunday night Rev. E. S. Alderman, of the Baptist Theological Seminary at Louisville, occupied the pulpit.

Rev. Wm. Stoudenmire, of Oakland. Me., delivered two very able discourses at St. Paul's Lutheran Church on Sunday.

Grapes Ripening. Grapes are already beginning to ripen at Capt. S. W. Noble's vineyard, near this city, as we learned yesterday by ocular demonstration. In fact, Capt, Noble claims that grapes can be made to ripen here in New Hanover county as soon as anywhere in South Carolina, Georgia, Alabama, or any other grape growing State. Earliness in ripening is one important feature in successful grape culture, and we are glad to know that our county can compare with any section in this respect.

Resolved, That we, the representatives of the Democracy of New Hanover county, have witnessed with profound satisfaction the favorable recognition by our brethren in other parts of the State, of the claims of this section upon the consideration of the party, and have seen with pride and gratifieation the numerous references to our distinguished friend and fellow-townsman. Maj. Chas. M. Stedman, as a suitable and prominent candidate for the office of Governor, and we desire to tender our cordial appreciation of these friendly manifestations. Resolved, however, That inasmuch as Maj. Stedman's name will not be before the Convention for that high office but because our people and our section greatly desire the benefit of his able and useful services in behalf of the State, we do present him for the office of Lieutenant Governor, and our delegates are hereby requested to urge his nomination as fit and worthy to be made, and to use their best endeavors to effect the

Resolved, That having undiminished confidence in the ability, patriotism and integrity of the Hon. Alfred M. Waddell, and believing that, in his election as the representative of this District in the lower House of the Congress of the United States, the people of the district would secure the services of a representative, who, by reason of his great experience in public affairs, extensive acquaintance with the public men of the country, intimate knowledge of the method of dispatching public business and great abilities, would reflect credit upon the people of the District and State, greatly aid n the purification of the public service and in the return to the practices and principles of the Fathers of the Republic, we do most cordially present his claims to the Democratic Convention of this District and urgently request our delegates to the Convention to use all honorable means to secure his nomination.

The resolutions were put to the meeting and unanimously adopted.

H. A. Bagg, Esq., moved that all further matters pertaining to the county be left to the executive committee, to be hereafter chosen, as is customary.

Capt. W. M. Parker moved that the thanks of the Convention are tendered to the outgoing chairman and members of the County Executive Committee for the zeal and fidelity with which they had executed their trust.

Maj. J. W. Dunham, in response to loud calls, addressed the meeting in a short but thrilling speech. At the mention of the name of Grover Cleveland the meeting applauded enthusiastically. He paid a compliment to the "Sage of Gramercy"-Samuel J. Tilden-and was confident that with either Cleveland, Thurman or Bayard, the Democracy of the country would come out of the contest with victory perched upon their banner.
