KELLY'S ATTITUDE - TILDEN · AGAIN.

Will John Kelly support Bayard 'The extract we published yesterday showed that he regarded the Delaware Senator as the man for the place. Will John Kelly support Cleveland? That is a very important question. Who knows?

The New York Star is his personal organ. He controls it. In a recent editorial that paper intimated that neither Cleveland nor Flower could carry New York, but that Tilden could. He, or his paper, intimated farther that no Ohio man can be elected, and it would "deprecate the nomination of any Ohio Democrat at Chicago," although the "noblest Roman of them all" was thus justly eulogized:

"Among all the statesmen whose possible nominations are canvassed by Democrats, there is none purer or abler than ex-Senator Thurman. He is a man of lofty aims, wide experience and unsullied record, and there is none under whom we would more gladly see the regeneration of our Govern-

It says Ohio will go for Blaine. Of Gov. Cleveland the New York Star said that it would support him against Blaine of nominated. That is very important. It pretends to believe that Cleveland cannot carry New York and yet it will support him if he is the nominee. There is nothing unfair in that. It is Kelly's judgment that Cleveland is weak, but he will be loyal to his party if he is nominated. Here is what the New York Star said:

"Should Grover Gleveland be nominated for the Presidency the Star will loyally sup-port him as against the Mulligan ticket, and a similar promise has been registered by the Tammany organization; but the main point at present is to determine whether he would be a strong and available standard-bearer. We are satisfied that he would not."

The important point is for Kelly to say over his own signature just what the Star, his accredited organ, has said. Now if Kelly will tell the convention in Chicago just what the New York Star has said above—that he will "loyally support" Cleveland if "he should be nominated for the Presidency" then either Cleveland or Tilden will be nominated. Kelly insists that Bayard is stronger than Cleveland in New York and we much incline to that opinion.

Chicego? Who knows? It is the common talk in New York that his letter is not final and was not meant to be final. Louisiana is for him, dead or alive. He will be nominated by that State. What will the other States that preferred him do about it? That is the question, and it is of great significancy and mo-

We copy from the careful New York correspondent of the Philadelphia Ledger, Rep.

"Within the past forty-eight hours there has been a free interchange of opinion between sundry well known leaders of that party at the Fifth Avenue Hotel (including Mr. Barnum, ex-Chairman of the National Democratic Committee), and it is no secret. that the business in hand was to place themselves in communication with Mr. Tilden, so that, with a full knowledge of his wishes, they could act understandingly at Chicago. A prominent politician, who is known to have been present at this meeting, thus 'lets the cat out of the bag' in the Tammany organ, the Star: 'On cross examination of Tilden's letter it is found that there is no statement which commits him to refusal of the nomination if it should be endered to him as a demand by the party All the Southern statesmen to whom I have talked so understand it. Those who took part in the conference have therefore come to the conclusion that, though there are several men who could probably beat Blame, yet as the Democratic party have a sure thing with Tilden, they can't afford to run any risk. This phase of the situation, I understand, has been presented to Mr. Tilden, and he has consented to consider it

"This is a highly important statement and probably no man at this moment is more thoroughly informed of the Gramercy Park programme than Mr. John

Read that again carefully and you will begin to have a better understanding of the political muddle. North Carolina delegates to Chicago will be very unwise to have themselves irrevocably committed to any man before they get to the Convention and hear from all the States. We venture to suggest that the true course is to go for the best man who can win, but be sure to go for an honest and upright man with no stain or suspicion of guilt upon his

The Independent Republicans of Massachusetts, Connecticut, New York and New Jersey will not vote for Tilden. Mark that.

Suppose Mr. Tilden is nominated and the excitement kills him before the election, how will it affect the party? Can a new horse then win?

"SOAP"-WHAT IT MEANS. Mr. B. F. Jones, the new Republican Chairman of the National Cemmittee, is worth his millions. He knows nothing of politics but he knows how to make money and how to spend it for his party. He bolted the Republican ticket two years ago but he is a High Protectionist, and is one of the great monopolists of Penn sylvania and Blaine is good enough for him. His concern is the next largest in the State. He is expected to raise the "soap" for the campaign, which is to be one purely of debauchery and purchase. With Blaine, all "tatooed" and besmirched, for a candidate, it is altogether in order that a corruption fund should solely be relied upon for the success of the g. o. p. in 1884. Jones is a iron man-a cast-iron man, and is not supposed to have conscience or scruples. The only thing he is expected to have is money-"soap"-as Chet Arthur pleasantly called the corruption fund in 1880. Jones has "barrels" of "soap," and so he is the 'soapy" man of the Republican party for 1884. The Protected monopolies mean to bebauch and buy up the voters, if it can, and Jones's selection as Chairman gives due notice of the intent of the g. o. p. and plan of campaign. But the plutocrats and monopolists may find themselves mistaken one time. It may prove a bad year for "soap."

The Washington Post asks the "soap man" some pertinent questions, a few of which we roproduce, as they contain truths under the form of inquiry. It says:

"Do you not know, Chairman Jones, as a Pittsburg iron man, that you and the rest of the Pittsburg iron men, tried last month to reduce the wages of your men ten per cent. below the low wages which you also tried to reduce last year?

"Do you not know, Chairman Jones, that you and your friends were preparing to rethat proposed ten per cent. reduction which was to go into effect the first of this very

"Do you not know, Chairman Jones, that thousands of laboring men in the iron works would have been out of employment this long summer, owing to the action of the Pittsburg iron men, of whom you are a leader, had not the Western iron men signed last year's scale and so forced you to do the same?

"Do you not know, Chairman Jones, that the duty on a ton of bar iron is over twice the price of all the labor used in making it? "Do you not know, Chairman Jones, that at this very moment trade is languish ing, employment is scant, and wages are poor to an extent unknown in Democratic "Do you not know, Chairman Jones, that there is now more discontent among workingmen as to their wages and condition than there ever was under a Democratic administration?"

But will Tilden be a candidate at | to suds before the campaign opens if he talks that much foolishness at the start. He shows some glimpses of returning sense when he says that Bayard is stronger than Cleveland. But then he goes into a very "soapy" condition when he talks of carrying New York, New Jersey, Indiana and West Virginia. He says nothing of Connecticut.

LOGAN AND THE ZUNIS. We do not intend to assault the reputations of men who are candidates only so far as Northern Republican and Independent papers furnish the evidence for doing so. That is to say, we shall not be a party to personal defamation but will copy the facts and evidences of guilt and corruption that are supplied by Congressional records or Northern papers of character. We would not wantonly and deliberately do injustice to Blaine and Logan as we never did wrong to Garfield. In 1880 we merely copied the evidence offered in a Court and the evidence furnished by the records of Congress.

Gen. Logan is accused by members of Congress of having acted badly in the matter of the Zuni Indians, the most civilized of all the tribes. Mr. Valentine, of Nebraska, has introduced the matter into the House at the instance of Mr. Logan. The Republicans in the House are diligently hunting for evidence in favor of the accused. It is said that the whole case will be thoroughly ventilated and the real facts will be probably exposed. The charge against Blaine is thus given by the Washington correspondent of the New York Herald:

"That in the fall of 1882 Senator Logan, in company with James Stevenson, of the United States Geological Survey, visited the village of Zuni, and about that time discovered that by a mistake in describing its boundaries, the only fertile valley the Indians occupied, and two of the four springs which furnished them with water, were left outside of their reservation, and ere subject to pre emption under the law; that at once upon his return to Santa Fe, his son-in-law and a friend, Capt. Lawton, of the Fourth Cavalry, located 'desert claims' upon the Zuni farms and springs; that their papers were sent to Washington and their claims were under consideration when it was discovered that the land in question was a part of the tract which it was intended to include within the reservation bounds; that when Gen. Logan's attention was called to the matter he declared that he had seen the land and liked it, and should get it if he could; that when the President issued a proclamation restoring the boundaries of the reservation Senator Logan raised an indignant protest against the correction of what he knew to be s mistake, and has never ceased in his efforts to have the President's decision reconsider ed and the restoration revoked.

APPROPRIATIONS FOR NORTH CAROLINA.

It will interest our readers to know that the improvements of the Cape Fear River have been carefully watched by Senator Ransom. Through him the appropriation has been increased from $75,000 in the House to $200,000. He has always shown himself the fast friend of the Cape Fear improvements. In fact, if he had not been in the Senate the last eleven years the improvements in the Cape Fear River would not have been an accomplished fact. We believe he is entitled to this commendation and it is heartily given and justly given. It affords us unmixed pleasure to say this because we have been unable on several occasions to approve of his votes upon public measures. He takes good care of North Carolina and for that he deserves the thanks of all. The other North Carolina appropriations are: Beaufort harbor, $20,000; Edenton Bay, $10,000; Trent River, $10,000; Neuse River (continuing improvements), from $5,000 to $20,000.

Total added in the Senate to the House appropriations $180,000. This is no doubt mainly owing to Senator Ransom. Senator Vance secured an amendment for Yadkin and Pee Dee Rivers for $10,000. So this makes $190,000 additional appropriation over what the House allowed. The House appropriated $110,000; the Senate added $190,000-total $300, 000 appropriated for North Carolina. This addition has passed the Senate. It now goes to the House for con-

It is well enough to keep our eyes on the progress of the Asiatic choiera in France. It is at Marseilles, and that ought to warn America. The New York Times says:

'Marseilles has been one of the chief cen-tres of distribution for Asiatic cholera. The epidemics of 1832 entered Western Europe by way of Russia and the Baltic and this by way of Russia and the Baltic and this country by way of Quebec. That of 1848 was imported from Havre to New Orleans. In 1866, however, it entered France by way of Marseilles, and was brought to New York by emigrant ships. There is quite time for its importation during the present seasons unless strict precautions are promptly taken at all our ports of entry."

The Blood of the Bayards.

Correspondence New York Sun. The Democratic managers should remember that Blaine will bid high for the votes of foreign-born citizens. How well the Democrats could counteract Blaine's influence with that "Soap" Jones says that Ben Butler would be a harder man to beat than Cleveland. CURRENT COMMENT. - "Money is to be poured into some of the Southern States as freely as it was into Indiana in 1880," says a Washington disphtch to the New York Sun, and Virginia is one of the Commonwealthe to be thus approached. We have no fear that our vote here can be bought, but money stimulates to fraud, and this will have to be provided for and guarded against in advance. That such methods should be resorted to is lamentable; but we must realize the fact that this is to be one of the modes of warfare against us, and exercise all possible vigilance to enforce the statutes made to protect the franchise against corruption. With a good ticket at Chicago we shall over-throw the enemies of honest government and get rid of Star Route influences in our politics .- Norfolk (Va.) Landmark, Dem.

It must be said of Governor Cleveland that through all the peculiar difficulties, embarrassments, temptations and excitements of a period in which he has been numerously mentioned in connection with the Presidency, he has never appeared to turn to the right or to the left to windelegates, and has been governor all the time and with all his might. So much is due to an efficient and independent executive. - N. Y. Mail and Express, Rep.

NORTH CAROLINA NOMINA TIONS.

Norfolk Virginian. The nomination of Gen. Scales for Governor argues well for the future of the party in the sister State. He has been in the civil and military service of North Carolina, and in each field always acquitted himself handsomely. His legislative experi-ence covers both State and Federal service. As a soldier he made an enviable record; in the United States House of Representatives he was esteemed as a prudent, wise and safe counsellor not only of his party, but in behalf of general public policy.

He will be elected. Charles Manly Stedman. didate for Lieutenant Governor, has long been regarded as one of the foremost lawyers in the Cape Fear section. We have known him long and intimately. He is a man of marked ability, strong and unyieldng in his convictions and open and aggressive in his methods. The whole State might have been probed with a search warrant without discovering a citizen and Democrat who would more fittingly respond to the necessities of the times and the party than Major Stedman.

WHAT THE DEMOCRATS SHOULD DO.

Boston Post, Dem. If one may judge from some of the alk he hears, the only thing for the Democrats to do is to nominate a ticket that will be acceptable to the Independent Republicans. This done, the defeat of the Republican team is assured. Now this is a great mistake. It is no more true than it is that the only thing to be done is to nominate a ticket that will be acceptable to the bummers and machine men of the Democratic party. What, then, should the Democrats do? Simply this: They should nominate men who will poll as nearly as possible the entire Democratic vote and secure the earnest support of the best element in the Democratic party. Any ticket that can do that will receive all the Independent votes that any Democratic ticket can command. The Independent Republican who would not vote for Bayard, Cleveland, Thurman or McDonald in preference to Blaine is a good deal more of a Republican than an Inde-

NORTH CAROLINA.

Washington Post, Dem. There are no political facts or figures to show that North Carolina would be in any sense a doubtful State this year, but if there were, the action of the recent Democratic State Convention would have settled the matter beyond all controversy. A united, confident and enthusiastic Democracy nominated a most admirable State ticket headed by Congressman Alfred M. Scales for Governor. Gen. Scales, if North Carolina newspapers, which certainly know, are to be credited, is as popular a man as there is in the Old North State. A Congressman before the war, a soldier through the war and a representative of the Fifth District in the House of Representatives for the last nine years, he has been tried in varied service and proved faithful in all.

SENSIBLE.

The Brooklyn Eagle, Dem., the most largely circulated evening jour-nal in the United States, says that Cleveland's only recommendation is his local strength in New York, and it adds: "It is further to be said that this local strength is something which in the nature of things cannot be accurately gauged outside of New York. Whether the governor can certainly carry his own State, at Chicago and in November, is a question to be decided here, and upon its decision depends the nomination of Grover Cleveland or somebody else.'

Gen. Francis C. Barlow, the well known New York Republican, says: "I desire to correct a conversation said to have been held with me and published yesterday, as it does me injustice. I never conversed with the reporter, directly or indirectly, about Mr. Cleveland, and what he has made-me say is the exact opposite of my belief and opinions."—New York Commercial Advertiser.

(By Cable to the Morning Star.) MADRID, July 1.—An important interview occurred yesterday between Hon. John W. Foster, the American Minister, and Senor Canovan del Castelleo and Senor J.
De Eldnaryn, Minister of Foreign Affairs.
The Spanish Minister showed a desire to arrive at an equitable commercial arrangement. Mr. Foster assured them that Ame rica was animated with amicable views re garding trade with Cuba, and as far as pos-sible would feel inclined to meet the views of Spain and Cuba. He declared that America had no desire to annex Cuba now, nor at any future time. America had no wish to assume further political responsi-bilities. He thought, however, that some-thing must be done for Cuba quickly. Mexico was already importing sugar into America free, and unless Cuba and the English West India Islands secured equal terms it was evident that their best market was lost.
