The Macon, Ga., Telegraph says that Florida has unquestionably become a doubtful State. It goes into a statement of the causes that have led to this result. There is a want of harmony in the Democratic party. In 1880 the Democratic majority was less than 400. There are now over 2,000 Independent voters known to he in the State.

Col. W. H. Vilas, of Wisconsin, the Chairman of the Democratic Convention, made a speech within a Year that was reported in the Louisville Courier-Journal. If we remember correctly it was delivered in that city. It was on the Tariff mainly, and it was a speech of considerable splendor and ability. Several able men spoke, but none of the speeches were so fine as his. We wrote an editorial about it at the time, and copied some of his main points. He is a very strong Tariff Reformer, as his speech showed.

He was not our preference and we do not think him as strong a candidate

as some others, but he is the choice of the Convention and all good and House Struck by Lightning.

During the storm that passed over this city yesterday morning, about half-past 7 o'clock, lightning struck the residence of Messrs. Morris Bear and brothers, northeast corner of Sixth and Chesnut streets. The electric fluid entered above the porch and over the dining room, knocking in the facing of the window, tearing off the weatherboarding on the outside for the space of about ten feet, hurling the blinds into the room occupied by the housekeeper, knocking down the plastering and scatterng the debris in every direction. It then passed into the bath-room, tore up the weatherboarding, flooring and bath-tub and knocked down the plastering, after which it is supposed to have followed the pipe leading from the bath-tub into the yard. The carpeting and matting in the rooms through which it passed were considerably scorched, and every room in the spacious building was filled with smoke. The housekeeper had closed the window through which the lightning entered about three minutes before the crash came, and she and Mr. Isaac Bear had just left the breakfast table, and were standing on the Chesnut street side of the building when it was struck. The crash was immediately followed by the ignition of the gas meter behind the shutter of the door in which the two were standing, and Mr. Bear extinguished the fire with his hat. He did not then know that his own house had been struck by the lightning, but was under the impression it had struck close by. His attention was called to the fact by some one asking if anybody was hurt. Chesnut street, between Sixth and Seventh, appeared for the moment almost like a sheet of fire, and something like a ball of fire was seen to fall in a neighboring yard. The report was deafening. It is fortunate that the damage was not more serious. At

FEDERACY.

The Wilmington Light Infantry and Hon. Jefferson Davis-Correspon-

The following correspondence in reference to a certain resolution passed and toast at the late anniversary of the Wilmington Light Infantry speaks for itself. The ex-Confederate President has been for many years an honorary member of the Wilmington Light Infantry, and he will always hold a high place in the affections of the members of that company:

JUNE 12, 1884.

Hon. Jefferson Davis, Beauvoir, Miss. My DEAR SIR:-At the anniversary celebration of the Wilmington Light Infantry, held a few evenings since, a toast was offered to "Jefferson Davis-Our beloved honorary member."

In replying to it Col. Roger Moore offered the following resolution, which was unanimously adopted, viz.: "That the Secretary be instructed to write to Mr. Davis, saying, that we had thought of him on this occasion, and that every member of the company and their invited guests joined most heartily in the toast to the venerated and esteemed Southerner.

Permit me, sir, in forwarding these remembrances, to attest the unanimity of feeling existing among our members in their veneration and regard for you; their full knowledge of the trials you have experienced and the sufferings you have so nobly endured, in behalf of the South; their appreciation of the great honor you have reflected on the Southern people in bearing with such manly fortitude the results of the war for secession. In the remembrance of these things, let us hope that the future of our country may brighten each year-that instead of discord and antagonism between distinctive sections, each may, in a measure, depend upon the other for its material development; that with a harmonious combination of influences, she may surpass all other countries in the attainment of a position of wealth and renown. Allow me, sir, before closing, to give expression to the great admiration I have for you, an admiration imbibed in my early childhood and strengthened by maturer knowledge and reflection upon your life and character. It is a proud privilege I have in admiring that name, around which scling the hearts of a ditional glory upon the rarest and highest virtues possessed by that people Again extending to you the highest regard and best wishes of our Company, believe me, sir, with great respect, your obedient servant, F.*L. MEARES. servant.

MR. DAVIS' REPLY. BEAUVOIR, MISS., July 7, 1884. F. L. MEARES, Esq.—Dear Sir:-I received and read with feelings of deep gratification your letter informing me of the toast and resolution adopted at the anniversary celebration of the Wilmington Light Infantry. In the gallant defence made by our people of the inheritance their fathers left them, North Carolina rendered her full quota of service. The many fields dyed with the blood of her best and bravest testify as well to her valor as to her fidelity. Nothing could be more consolatory than to receive assurances that such a feeling as you express animates the great body of your noble people. It is worthy and characteristic of them to find in my misfortunes cause for increase of regard. A less magnanimous people would have turned in the day of disaster with criticism and reproach upon their leader. Please give my special thanks to Col. Roger Mocre for his kind consideration, and accept for yourself my cordial acknowedgment of the sentiments towards me which you so generously express.

Ever faithfully, Your friend and brother, JEFFERSON DAVIS.

WHO IS MRS. WINSLOW ?- As this question is frequently asked, we will simply say that she is a lady who for upwards of thirty years has unti-ringly devoted her time and talents as a female ringly devoted her time and talents as a female Physician and nurse, principally among children. She has especially studied the constitution and wants of this numerous class, and, as a result of this effort, and practical knowledge, obtained in a lifetime spent as a nurse and physician, she has compounded a Soothing Syrup for children teething. It operates like magic—giving rest and health, and is, moreover, sure to regulate the bowels. In consequence of this article Mrs. Winslow is becoming world-renowned as a benefactor of her race; children certainly do RISE UP and bless her; especially is this the case in this city. Vast quantities of the Soothing Syrup are DAILY sold and used here. We think Mrs. Winslow has immortalized her name by this invaluable article, and we sincerely believe thousands of children have been saved from an early grave by its timely use, and that millions yet unborn will share its benefits, and unite in calling her blessed. Therefore do not forget that H. C. Prempert's Fashienable, Shaving and Hair Dressing Saloon,
No. 7 South Front Street, is still in full blast, where Mr. H. C. Prempert, assisted by his two sons, can always be found to attend to those who wish a first-class Shave, Hair-Cut, &c. Corns extracted and Skin Diseases of all kinds cured.

Respectfully,
