EVENING EDITION.

ORGANIZE.

The committees ought to begin work at once. The enemy has been in the field for a month and is quietly and systematically planning and arranging for the campaign. We must begin work without delay. The platforms of principles representing both parties are before the country; the candidates have been chosen and they are all good ones as far as the Democracy is concerned. Now it is for the committees to do the work upon which depend so much of the success of the State ticket, and the eleven electoral votes of North Carolina.

We must urge what we so pertinaciously urged in 1880. We must insist upon a thorough organization That means the enrolment of every voter in every township and every ward; the making out of full poll lists with duplicates for adjacent townships; the appointing of sub committees to look after all voters, and the perfecting of all arrangements by which the stay-at-home electors can be induced to come to the polls and vote for good, honest, economical Government.,

The Democrats have made splendid beginning. In State and National Conventions they have selected men of character, men with clean hands and honest records, and there can be no excuse why all shall not vote for them. But there must be work and plenty of it. The enemy will work and will rely upon "soap;" but if the Democrats do their duty this year the majority in North Carolina will be 35,000, and in the Union from a half to one milfion in the popular vote. It will not surprise us, and mark our very words, if Cleveland and Hendricks shall receive 1,000,000 more votes than Blaine and Logan.

But we must not underrate our enemy. Blaine is a splendid organizer, and is a most magnetic, artful and engaging speaker. He will make a desperate effort to win. Millions the manufacturers and the plutocrats will be forthcoming to supply "soap" for the campaign. All over the land the 108,000 officeholders will be active and vigilant and ready. Their bread and butter depend on the success of the "tattooed man." The Republican officials in Washington will leave no stone unturned, no appliance unused, no effort unmade to keep out the prving. investigating Democrats.

If the Democrats should get control the light will be turned upon all that the corruptest party in Christendom has been doing for twenty years. With Grover Cleveland, with his patient methods, his business turn, his indefatigable labor, his sa- joint canvass, say we. gacity and his honesty of purpose, to When the writer was associated investigate the various Departments, the certainty of finding corruption to make every man ever connected aimed at Turner in some obscur with the Government from 1865 until now work like a beaver to keep out the inquisitors.

It is known that the Treasury Department needed overhauling when John Sherman was in charge. There vere known to be some extraordinary and contradictory statements in the way of figuring and it was aserted and believed that millions had been stolen and the figures altered to suit the amounts taken.

The campaign will be very vigorous and sharp on the part of the Blaine crowd. So the Democrats must organize. Gov. Jarvis is the best organizer in the State and he can teach the Democrats how to organize in a way to poll all the votes. If he would instruct a class of a half dozen wide-awake men and then they could be sent into every county beginning at Raleigh and working out steadily in every direction until the border counties were reached, showng the committees how the work must be done and taking all the necessary steps to perfect the plan, a great vote and a great victory would be the result. Let every county be organized as Gov. Jarvis organized Pitt county about 1870, and 30,000 vill be our smallest majority.

TWO PLANKS.

The Democratic plank says this: "The process of reform must be subject the execution to this plain dictate of

"All taxation shall be limited to the reuirements of economical government. he necessary reduction in taxation can and must be effected without depriving American labor of the ability to compete successfully with foreign labor and without imposing lower rates of duty than will be ample to cover any increased cost of production which may exist in consequence of the higher rate of wages prevailing in

This is all right. No Democrat will object to that. The Republicans cannot object for their Convention has about said the very same thing in different language. Hear the Republicans in their platform:

"The Republican party pledges itself to correct the inequalities of the tariff and to reduce the surplus, not by the vicious and indiscriminate process of horizontal reducion, but by such methods as will relieve the tax payer without injuring the laborer or the great productive interests of the

The corrupt party, after opposing fair Tariff reduction, finding public sentiment, even among manufacturers, demanding a razeeing of the infamous War Tariff, is forced to take ground in favor of reduction. It "pledges itself to correct the inequalities of the Tariff and to reduce the surplus." Of course to do this they must lower the present average of 43 per cent., which was just what the Democrats attempted in the last session and was defeated by the Republicans and their Democratic Protection allies led by Randall. But they oppose "vicious and indiscriminate process of horizontal reduction." Of course. The Democrata adopted that plan through necessity, and not because they thought it the best. But tell it not to the ears of intelligent free men, but this very Republican party has used this very same "vicious and indiscriminate process of horizontal reduction" since the war.

The only point we are specially concerned with just now is, that the pressure of public opinion in their own party as well as beyond, has forced the Republicans to promise Tariff Revision and Tariff Reduc-

The Republicans admit the existence of "inequalities in the Tariff" scheme. They also admit the surplus, which was created by their wn incapable and vicious legislation, and they promise "to reduce" t. But can such a party, with such a record, with such officials, with such candidates be trusted? Not in

NO JOINT CANVASS.

We do not believe that the Democrats are wise in asking for a joint canvass. Unless Gen. Scales speaks of dollars drawn from the coffers of there will be none to hear York but the negroes, and a few scallawags. Why then give him an opportunity to speak to tens of thousands of Democrats? For the life of us we cannot understand such tactics as that. In vain will York "orate" if he has no white audiences to workupon. The negroes will vote the old way, and all that a hundred Scaleses could say would not alter their action. Let York go over the State preaching social equality and what not to all who are green enough to go out to hear a very common-place demagogue harangue the multitude, but it will be the very height of blindness for the Democrats to help swell the size of his audiences. No with Hon. Josiah Turner in the editorship of the Releigh Sentinel someand rascality deep down, is enough times a very fiery article would be Radical sheet with a few negro and as many whites for readers Turner would say: "If I reply to what is said I will only advertise a sheet that without this would hardly be heard of out of its county. Let it go unnoticed and you pluck out, all, the stang." There is a lesson for the State Committee just here. They propose to advertise York, the very worst thing that can be done. He will only make by speaking to white audiences. Then by mixing the audiences in a heated campaign there is danger of rows and collisions that otherwise would be avoided. We put our conviction on record that joint canvasses are not desirable as parties are now constituted in North Carolina antenna Last

THE SILVER COINAGE.

It is interesting to note the accunulation of silver in the Treasury. During the last fiscal year there were oined 28,099,930 pieces. Since the ect of 1878 the sum aggregates 175,855,829. Of the coinage of the year $23,646,897 remained in the vaults. The Treasury now holds 135,560,916. The weight is eight nillion pounds. It is deposited in immense vaults in the mints and subtreasuries. One of these measures 9,000 onbic feet and holds 45 milions. Only $39,794,913, or 23 per cent. of the total, is in circulation. The silver, certificates in circulation amount to $76,427,011. Thus far the act of 1878 has added to the circulation as follows: silver, $4,500,000; paper, $23,800,000. The New York Times says:

"The deterioration of the currency by the admixture of silver certificates is shown by the following table, which gives the outstanding paper circulation of each class at the close of the last two fiscal

years.	A SERVE OF THE PARTY OF	11. 1 2 2 10 1

The percentage of silver certificates to the whole circulation increased during the year from about 8 4 5 to 11 1-14, and the increase must continue from year to year so long as the coinage of the dollars is kept

THE PRESS ON THE TICKET.

Strong Indorsements from Both Sides. Brooklyn Freie Presse.

As to the standing of the Freie Presse in the coming campaign we shall support Mr. Cleveland. There is not much more to be said of great differences in the principles of the Republicans and Democrats of today. Both platforms desire a reduction of the tariff in such a manner that the handicraft and the industry of the American workman shall be protected. But what we need during this time is a steady, honest, and strong hand to drive the "Pharisees and usurers" out of the temple of the Nation, and to erect a dam against the corruption that is threatening to overflow all the branches of the Federal Government. In this respect Mr. Cleveland gives us better guarantees than Mr. Blaine. Columbus (Ohio) Times.

Grover Cleveland without equivocation or reservation deserves the vote of every Democrat and every man who seeks to rebuke the corrupt freebooter of Maine. Why should Thomas A. Hendricks require introduction? He stands like Massachusetts of old in no need of enlogy. He admirably concludes a ticket which would have been as symmetrical if turned around.

Pittsburg (Pa.) Dispatch, Rep. There is no doubt that Gov. Cleveland, in personal character and cleanliness of record, was the most unassailable candidate that the Democracy could have offered. His career as Governor has shown him to be a practical reformer and superior to the temptations of using public office for the sustenance of a political ma-

Pittsburg Post, Dem.

Grover Cleveland is an ideal candidate. He combines lofty and conscientious convictions of official responsibility with intellectual power, proved executive ability, and demonstrated integrity. Of all candidates presented at Chicago he was the most available. He stands for the supreme issue of the hour, and will

Columbus (Ga.) Times. The party representatives have ominated perhaps the two very best men in the country for their ticket.

Brooklyn (N. Y.) Union, Rep. The attitude toward Cleveland of this great body of conscientious and self-respecting voters is not difficult to predict. His nomination was a triumph for the political principles which they regard as being most in need of vindication; he is as much the candidate of the Republicans to whom Blaine is a synonym for cor-rupt and reckless methods of government, as he is of the Democrats who desire to commit their party to progressive ideas in politics and a resoutely honest standard of conducting public business. They will not be greatly terrified by the possible con-sequences of Democratic supremacy in Washington when the choice is between the candidate of every corrupt schemer and jobber of his party and the candidate who is most abhorred by the schemers and jobbers of his pect of a Blaine administration is much better calculated to alarm prudent and sagacions men than the prospect of having Cleveland in the White House, even with a lungry horder of Democratic offices ekers surging around him.

From the Utica (N. Y.) Press, Dem. We fancy that few well informed persons could be found in this State, were search made to-day, who have any reasonable doubts that Grover Cleveland will, if he lives, be the next President of the United States. Whatever he may be, intellectually or politically, or may not be of either, he is the man of destiny to preside for the coming Presidential term over this great country.

Savannah Daily Times, Dem. Cleveland is Governor of New ork in fact, as well as in name. He s no puppet. If elected President he will be nobody's tool. He enjeys the confidence of the business men. He is a lawyer that would not require the opinion of an Attorney General to construe his duty. He would be a President such as we have not had since the olden days. With Governor Hendricks on the ticket with him, he should be able to weep Indiana and catch the discontented voters throughout the West and Northwest. The platform is one upon which all can stand.

Jacksonville (Fla.) Times-Union, Dem. The nomination of Grever Cleveand, of New York, for the Presilency by the Democratic National Convention at Chicago shows plainly the predominance of the reform ele-ment in the party. Cleveland is not man of violent methods. He is a teady-going, level-headed, shrewd. practical business man. The man nd the hour have come together, and we congratulate the American eople on the conjunction. Mr. Hendricks is one of the ablest and soundest statesmen of which the great State of Indiana can boast, and he is revered by the Democracy of the United States as one of its sagest dounsellors and wisest leaders. "Old men for council and young men for war." The two are united in our matchless National ticket. The name of Hendricks will be an inspiration in the West as that of Cleveland is in the East.

Harrisburg Patriot, Dem. The Democratic Presidential Contwo combine to form a ticket that goes beyond the reach of criticism, and will challenge the admiration of Democrats as well as independent voters in every State in the Union.

Buffalo (N. Y.) Express, Rep. (published at Cleveland's home). There are few good men in Buffalo who will not be glad to take Grover Cleveland by the hand and congratulate him on his distinguished and well-won honor. "Well won," we say, for, whatever others may have done in his behalf, he has himself rendered honorable and eminent public service, and has deserved all that a man may deserve of his party by doing with all his might, and for the most part unselfishly and with conscientious integrity, the work to which he has been called. The people of Buffalo have known Mr. Cleveland as one of their worthiest citizens, one of their manliest men-faithful to his clients, faithful to his friends, faithful to every public trust. If he were not a candidate for office, his fellow-townsmen, almost without exception, would not hesitate to say

TARIFF REFORM.

Philadelphia Record, Ind. Dem. The Chicago platform declares in favor of reducing the tariff to a revenue standard.

In making this reduction the platform declares that the duties shall bear heaviest on luxuries and lightest on articles of necessity.

The platform denounces the present tariff system because it "has paralyzed business, crippled industry and deprived labor of employment and just reward."

That there may not be any mistake concerning the direction which tariff reduction must take, the platform declares emphatically against a repeal of the internal revenue system, but declares that the revenues from the takes on whisky and tobacco shall be "sacredly devoted to the relief of the people from remaining burdens of the war."

Therefore, the surplus of one hundred million dollars yearly collected from the people can be lessened to "the needs of government economically administered" only by a substantial reduction of the tariff.

So much for the platform; but, as experience has proved, platforms are too often made to be broken. While the Chicago platform clearly presses the purpose of the Democratic party to reduce the burdens of takation, something more is requisite. It is necessary that the people shall send representatives to Congress who will carry out in good faith the pledges of the platform.

Three hundred and sixty-five times each year every mother's son of us has a struegle getting into his shirt.

If a shirt is worth getting into, if it is strong and well made, sure not to rip or tear. perfect fitting, then there is some compensation for spending so much of our exist ence in such a struggle. You may wrestle with the DIAMOND, but with its everlasting. stay-attachment and reinforced bosom, you will come out head first every time, covered with glory and with the best shirt in the land.

Dismal Swamp Lottery Co. of NORFOLK, Va.

my 2 D&W3m

The franchise of this enterprise is based upon the chartered right granted to the Dismai Swamp Canal Company, and its legality has been repeatedly tested before the Courts of the State, and now finally, to silence all question upon that point, has been carried before the Court of Appeals under a "writ of error" against advance decision. The purpose in view is the "improvement and extension" of the Canal, thus securing great public benefits.
