Grand Trades Union Demonstration in London - Cholera Increasing in Paris-Virulent Character of the Toulon Epidemic.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] London, July 21.—The procession of trades unions and others, to take part in the demonstration in favor of the franchise, at Hyde Park, this evening, formed on the Thames embankment, preparatory to the march to the Park. The weather was rainy up to 3.30 p. m., but about that hour the clouds broke away and the sun shone out. All approaches from the stand to the embankment were thronged. Thousands of people from all parts of the country covered the embankment between Charing Cross and Westminster. Scarlet banner ettes indicated to the various trades unions the places where they should assemble. The great crowd manifested the utmost good humor, and the best of order prevailed. No attempt was made to interfere with the procession, Radical political pamphlets found ready sale among the throng. The Prince and Princess of Wales witnessed the procession from Whitehall. At noon the organized trades unions assembled at Sloan Square, Paddington Green, Euston Square, Islington Green, Green, Euston Square, Islington Green, Clerkenwell Green, Finsbury, Circus Obelisk, Black Friars and Grosvernor Gardens, and proceeded to the embankment. Political delegates wore colors. The streets along the line of march to the embankment and the bridge across the Thames were packed, and traffic was greatly impeded. Much chaff was indulged in by spectators, especially when those in by spectators, especially when those taking part in the procession were more than usually adorned. Several thousand agricultural laborers from Kent and Sussex were marshalled at Black Friars bridge. As the procession was starting from the embankment, several loud explosions were heard near the government offices. The crowd were greatly frightened and thousands made a rush towards Whitehall, be-lieving that the explosions were due to dynamite. The scare was ended when it was found that the explosions were nothing more than a salute which the Horse Guards were firing in honor of the birth of the Duchess of Albany's son.

dilly. Before the procession started the embankment became a surging mass of humanity. Viewed from Hungerford bridge it presented an unbroken array of human heads, relieved only by blue banners and trees along the embankment. The trade societies carried emblems of their respective crafts. Noticeable among these was a banner borne by the Tylers, which represented Adam and Eve after the fall. The agricultural laborers were loudly cheered.

The resolution prepared for submission to the meeting protest sagainst the rejection of the franchise bill by the irresponsible and unrepresentative House of Lords, expresses approval of Gladstone's action, and declares that the continued existence of unchecked power of impeding the popular will, which the Lords exercise, is not conducive to the welfare of the people or the peace and prosperity of the country.

A tombstone was carried in the procession, incribed, "To the memory of the House of Lords, day 1884." Dense masses of spectators along the route, interfered with the progress of the procession. It took a full hour and a half to clear the embankment and the end of the procession had not left Parliament street when the head had entered the Park. Right Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, President of the Board of Trade, and other ministers, witnessed the procession. They were cheered. Some of the bands in the procession played the "Dead March in Saul." When the procession had arrived at the Park speeches were made and the resolutions previously prepared were submitted and adopted. There was a heavy rain toward the close of the Paris, July 21.—Cholera in Paris is on the increase. Eight cases were reported today; two.of which were fatal. At Toulon the epidemic is assuming the most virulent character; nearly all the victims are dying suddenly. Rumors were current in the Chamber of Deputies to day to the effect that Admiral Courbet had captured Foo-Choo.

James Augustus Edwards, a Chiropodist, Wanted in Richmond for Bigamy and Attempted Murder.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] RICHMOND, July 21.—A chiropodist Groceries. arrested yesterday in Atlanta, Ga., as a fugitive from justice from this city. He is held there on a charge of bigamy and the attempted murder of one of his wives. It appears that in May last he married Miss C. Boatright, here, and a month after— C. Boatright, here, and a month after—she having meanwhile willed her property to her husband—he sought to induce her to take a liquid, as he said, to quiet her nerves. She refused, and then he tried to force her, but being interrupted by a servant, he threw the liquid out of a window, and then left her. Suspecting that he wanted to poison her, she obtained a warrant for his arrest, but he had fied. The case was put in a detective's hands, with the above result. A telegram from the Chief of Police of Atlanta states that Edwards has a lice of Atlanta states that Edwards has a wife there; hence the double charge of bigamy and attempted murder. An officer, with the necessary papers, will be sent to Atlanta to bring the prisoner here for trial. Edwards hails from Tarboro, N. C.

U. S. Marshal Longstreet's Resignation Called for-Arrangements of the Republican National Committee to Collect Money for a Campaign Fund. (By Telegraph to the Morning Star.)

WASHINGTON, July 21.—The President has called for the resignation of Gen. Jas. Longstreet as U. S. Marshal for the Northern District of Georgia. This action is based on the recommendation of the Attorney General who had preferred 'charges against him for carelessness and inefficiency and asked for his immediate removal. It is generally understood that he will be succeeded by John E. Bryant.

The commission of Jno. Jarrett, as Commissioner of Labor Statistics, is still withheld by the President, and it is believed that his chance of securing the place is growing less. Jarrett was formerly at the head of the Amalgamated Iron and Steel

The Republican National Committee have decided to establish a sub-committee in this city, whose duty it will be to collect money for the campaign fund. Members of the sub-committee will not be in any way connected with government ser-vice, thus being exempted from operations of the civil service law. They will extend their work in all directions. Government officials will not be assessed, but it is said that if any one makes voluntary contribution the transaction will be considered private and confidential.

The Star, this afternoon, says: Senator Mahone, it is understood, will ask for an Duchess of Albany's son.

The route of the procession lay along Parliament street, Whitehall, Charing Cross, Pall Mall, St. James street and Picatross, Pall Mall, Pall Ma passed the apportionment bill without the necessary two thirds vote; being two thirds of those present, instead of two-thirds of the whole Legislature.

Strike of Bricklayers and Laborers-An Rimira Banking House Closes its Doors.

[By Telegraph to the Morning Star.] New York, July 21.—About 2,000 bricklayers, 3,000 laborers and 200 hod hoisting engineers and framers struck this morning because their employers refused to grant their demands that-nine hours shall constitute a day's work instead of ten.
Those employers who denied the request of their workmen say that they can get other men to take their places, and that whether they can or not, it will be but a few days at the outside, before the men will be willing to return to work under the old terms. The bosses who granted nine hours think the others are foolish not to do the same thing, as they will have to yield in the end. Messrs. Andrews & Son, who have the new Cotton Exchange job, agreed to nine hours, and all their men are working as usual. The firm has in its employ at present nearly 200 bricklayers and about the same number of laborers. They are all at work. Robert L. Darragh, who is erecting buildings on Broadway, acceded to the demand of his employes and none of his men struck. Other large contractors notified their employes on Saturday that they could go to work on the understanding that nine hours would constitute a day's work. As fast as the men struck this morning they reported at the headquarters at their respective Unions. About thirty five employees allowed their men to go to work on their own terms. Hugh McMahon, who has charge of the erection of the Cotton Exchange, said to-day: "The building trade is very lively just now, and I don't think the boss builders can afford to have their men go on strike for any length of time without suffering great loss. I am pretty sure that nearly all the large builders will grant the demands of their men and avoid any trouble with them." The strikers claim that they can stand it longer than the em-ployers, and they will hold out for six months if necessary. It was reported by some of the strikers that on many of the obs the men had not been out ten minutes before they were told to go to work again and that a large number of bosses had held out until noon-time and then yielded, thus leaving not over 2,000 men altogether on a Raleigh Register.

Early in February—as soon as the printers re-ceive the necessary material—the publication of RALEIGH REGISTER, a North Carolina Democratid newspaper, will be a North Carolina Democratid newspaper, will be commenced.

The Resister will be printed weekly until the great political campaign of 1884 begins. It will then be issued twice a week, or as often as may be useful or necessary to the Democratic party in North Carolina. It will be printed from new and beautiful type, on good white paper, and though it may not be large enough to hold all at once all the good things that glowing prospectuses sometimes promise, yet the application of a thorough knowledge of how to use them will put into its thirty-two broad columns all the news, much good reading, and a complete history of what is done in North Carolina. Mr. Hale will be editor of the Resister.
