TO AN APPLE BLOSSOM.

Oh, beauteous blossom, pure and fair, How sweet thy fragrance on the air!
I see thy petals, tinged with pink,
Unfolding with the dew they drink
Until, their end fulfilled, they fall In showers o'er the garden wall.

The bud succeeds thy timely end, And soon the sturdy limbs will bend With pellets hard and full, as green As any verdure ever seen; Temptation sore to every boy Who would forbidden fruit enjoy.

And when I think, with heavy heart, Of all the pain they can impart, I wonder why such misery sore Should germinate within thy spore, Oh, beauteous blossom, pure and fair, That with such fragrance fills the air! -Boston Post.

WERKLY STAR, One Year, postage paid. . $1 50 " Six Months, " " " Three Months " " NOTICES OF THE PRESS:

The STAR is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it.—Salem Press. The Wilmington Star has entered en its twelfth rear—as good a paper as any people should want.

- Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register. The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thir-teenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington Star has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington STAR is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence, Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Morrive Star is a modi-el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exag-gerate its merits when we say it is the newsiest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (secular) paper published (Va.) Religious Herald. The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re-liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the pa-per surpasses them all.— Tarboro Southerner. The Wilmington STAB has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington STAR is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The STAR is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington STAR. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Peidsville Times.

The Wilmington Star, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.— Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial degartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcranton Riads.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Stan has steadily "waxed" until it now beams respicated in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newerager it has few equals, and no superior, for appriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepts ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Monnine Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.

be good for nothing." It is not claimed, as is the case with many so-called remedies, that SWIFT'S SPECIFIC'is a cure-all, or can remove all the ills to which flesh is heir; but as a TONIC AND HEALTH RENEWER, and for BLOOD & SKIN DIS-EASES, and for troubles dependent on IMPURE and IMPOVERISHED BLOOD, it is without a rival!

The Mightiness of Truth! LET THE PACTS SPEAK IN STENTORIAN TONES. "Fat as a Pig."

"My baby six months old broke out with some kind of skin humor, and, after being treated five months by my family physician, was given up to die. The druggist recommended Swift's Specific, and the result was as gratifying as it was miraculous. My child soon got well, all traces of the disease are gone, and he is as lat as a pig."

An Editor's Experience!

LAID ASIDE FROM JOURNALISTIC WORK. After trying numerous remedies for Rheumatism, but without permanent relief, I was advised to use S. S. S., which had given permanent relief to others suffering from rheumatism. After taking half a dozen bottles I found that the disease king half a dozen bottles I found that the disease was entirely driven out of my system, and a permanent cure secured. This was over a year ago, and since then, even during our most severe weather, with sudden changes, I have never suffered a return of the old attacks which disabled me from editorial work.

It is very seldom, indeed, that I recommend anything to the public in this manner, but I feel it due to your valuable preparation, that has given me such long desired and much needed relief, to state these facts thus publicly. I am sure that but for your Specific I should have been laid aside from journalistic work, as the severest attack was in my right arm and hand.
