DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR: ALFRED MOORE SCALES, of Guilford. FOR LIEUTENANT-GOVERNOR: CHARLES M. STEDMAN, of New Hanover.

OUTLINES.

The situation in the cholera infected districts of France continues to improve. The illness of President Grevy causes his friends great anxiety...

According to the Butler organ, the New York Sun, the following is the list of Republican newspapers now supporting Cleveland:

The males in the United States are increasing more rapidly than the females. In 1770 the native females were in excess of the males...

A negro was hanged and shot at Blakeley, Ga., for an attempt to rape a lady, the wife of a young lawyer by the name of Willis.

We warned the Southern Democrats last winter against the N. Y. Sun. It is a real foe to the best interests of the party...

Spirits Turpentine. Raleigh had 14 internments last week. Kinston Free Press: The rains, we are sorry to learn, have injured crops much in Jones county.

THE MORNING STAR.

VOL. XXXIV.—NO. 110. WILMINGTON, N. C., WEDNESDAY, JULY 30, 1884. WHOLE NO. 5275

Think of it, that more than 100,000 persons were in the Liberal procession in London and more than 40,000 took part in the meeting held at Manchester last Saturday.

A staff correspondent of the Charleston News and Courier has been interviewing John Kelly at Saratoga. He reports the Tammany chieftain as saying:

"I shall vote for Gov. Cleveland and I hope he will be elected, but I am afraid that his conduct, which Governor has estranged a portion of the workmen in New York...

When Blaine edited the Kennebec (Maine) Journal he made it red hot against the Catholics. He fomented religious persecution by his course and bent all of his energies in "firing the American heart against Irish and German voters..."

The Herald prints a letter from Miss Florence Nightingale, the celebrated English organizer of hospital nurses. She was born in 1820 and became famous during the Crimean war.

According to the Butler organ, the New York Sun, the following is the list of Republican newspapers now supporting Cleveland:

The males in the United States are increasing more rapidly than the females. In 1770 the native females were in excess of the males to the number of 17,598; in 1880 the native males exceeded the native females 300,688.

A negro was hanged and shot at Blakeley, Ga., for an attempt to rape a lady, the wife of a young lawyer by the name of Willis. He was his coachman. Her screams and stubborn resistance saved her.

Smithfield Herald: Maj. C. M. Siskman, candidate for Lieutenant Governor, and Capt. B. H. Bunn, Presidential elector, have been invited to address the Johnston county Central Campaign Club, in Smithfield, on the second Saturday in August.

New Bernes Journal: We learn that the watermelon crop of Bogus Sound has been quite remunerative so far this season, though not so large as last year.

Raleigh Visitor: A little son of a colored man by the name of Webster, who lives on the farm of Mr. Kimbrough Jones, while climbing a tree on Saturday last, fell out and was instantly killed, his neck having been broken by the fall.

Edenton Enquirer: A Mr. Starkey Askew, living at 1777 York St. in Hertford Co., married last December a Miss Lowe. For a while they lived happily together, but the evil hour came and very soon destroyed his happiness.

Clinton Caucasian: The members of White Oak Church, six miles from town, are erecting a new and beautiful house of worship.

Beaufort Telephone: The crop prospects in Carteret county afford us a theme which is pleasant to consider.

Goldsboro Messenger: A telegram from Gov. Jarvis on Saturday morning contains the gratifying news that ex-Gov. Z. B. Vance will be with us on Tuesday night, and has consented to be one of the speakers at the mass meeting.

Charlotte Observer: The doctors had some hard work yesterday afternoon in saving the life of the little three-year-old child of Mr. John Dero, who lives on O Street.

It is said upon good authority that this road is making money faster than all the others. Its finance report shows that at present it has made in clear profits $7,000 more than it made up to this time last year.

LIST OF LETTERS Remaining in the City Postoffice, Wednesday, July 30, 1884. A—Chaf Armstrong. B—Pelius Block, Mary Bowens, Matthew Blocker.

Deceased was aged thirty seven years and six months. He was a native of Lamstedt, Hanover, Germany, and has been a resident of this city some sixteen years, about seven of which he has had charge of the "Adrian" team.

The flags of the German Imperial Consulate, the German shipping in port and at the Engine House, were at half-mast as a token of respect for the deceased.

The funeral took place from the late residence of deceased, in the Howard Relief Engine House, and the remains were escorted to their last resting place by the various white fire companies of the city and the members of Germania Lodge No. 4, K. of P., to which lodge he belonged.

Lynch Law Near Shallotte, Brunswick County. A correspondent in Brunswick writes us that a man went to the house of Mr. Jim Hewett, one night recently, after he had gone to bed, and called him up, telling him he was from Columbus county and was on his way to Shallotte after the doctor, but had taken the wrong road, and requested Mr. Hewett to put him on the right track.

LOOK OUT FOR FRAUDS.—Benson's Capelin Pills are a widely imitated. Word Captains take on the genuine. Be careful. 2c.

TO TRY GREATLY WITH FORTUNE IS NICE. To try with fortune, if at no great risk, is one of the pleasantest of pastimes. The wild gambling in stocks on Wall Street brings to the speculator not near as healthy an exercise as the investment in the drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery, New Orleans, La., or the investment in the drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery, New Orleans, La., or the investment in the drawings of the Louisiana State Lottery, New Orleans, La.

ALL OF ONE MIND.—DR. R. WILSON CARR, of Baltimore, says he has used ROSADALIS in cases of Scrophulous and other diseases with much satisfaction.

DR. T. C. PUGH, of Baltimore, recommends ROSADALIS to persons suffering with diseased blood, saying it is superior to any preparation he has ever used.

REV. DANIEL BAILL, of the Baltimore M. E. Conference South, says he has been so much benefited by the use of ROSADALIS that he cheerfully recommends it to all his friends and acquaintances.

ADVICE TO MOTHERS.—Are you disturbed at night and broken of your rest by a sick child suffering and crying with pain of cutting teeth? It is a very common ailment, and one that is easily cured. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething. Its value is incalculable. It will relieve the poor little sufferer immediately. Depend upon it, mothers, there is no mistake about it. It cures drowsiness, fever, inflammation, and restores the bowels, cures wind colic, softens the gums, reduces inflammation, and gives tone and energy to the whole system. Mrs. WINSLOW'S SOOTHING SYRUP for children teething is pleasant to the taste, and is the prescription of one of the oldest and best female physicians and nurses in the United States, and is for sale by all druggists throughout the world. Price 25 cents a bottle.
