MORNING EDITION. DEMOCRATIC NATIONAL TICKET.

FOR PRESIDENT, GROVER CLEVELAND, OF NEW YORK. FOR VICE PRESIDENT, THOMAS A. HENDRICKS, OF INDIANA.

DEMOCRATIC STATE TICKET.

FOR GOVERNOR, ALFRED MOORE SCALES, of Guilford. FOR ATTORNEY GENERAL, THEODORE F. DAVIDSON, of Brunswick.

OUTLINES.

Col. R. T. Bennett was nominated for Congress by the Democratic Convention of the Sixth (N. C.) District.

COL. BENNETT FOR CONGRESS.

The Democrats of the Sixth District met yesterday in Convention at Lumberton and nominated Col. R. T. Bennett.

Col. Bennett is an unequal speaker. We have not heard him, but such is his reputation.

ELECTOR FOR SIXTH DISTRICT.

Robeson's favorite son, Col. Alf. Rowland, was chosen by the Lumberton convention.

Spirits Turpentine.

Waynesville News: A white convict named Ricks, from Spartanburg, S. C., was killed by a guard on the railroad west of here on Saturday.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

MUNSON—Children's suits. HARRIS—Life of Gen. Gordon.

LOCAL NEWS.

There were no cases for Court yesterday morning.

A great many think that the old stand, near the corner of Third and Dock streets, is the best place for the ratification meeting.

We saw a peach yesterday, grown in the garden of Mr. Alfred Alderman, which weighed 13 ounces and measured 11 inches in circumference.

In a game of base ball between the "Silver Lights," Capt. Geo. Bishop, and the "Golden Lights," Capt. Daniel Morgan Davis, the former scored 16 and the latter 14.

Senator Preston B. Plumb, of Kansas, spent last Sunday in this city, being the guest of Hon. D. L. Russell.

We saw yesterday a number of tomatoes grown by Rev. Frank H. Wood, in Fayetteville; who used as a fertilizer guano from the Navassa Guano Works of Wilmington.

A correspondent in the lower part of Brunswick says: "Times are hard; meat, meal and money scarce; but the people are working very hard and crops are very good."

Messrs. R. K. Bryan, Sr., of the Hickory Press, and Mr. R. K. Bryan, Jr., of the Fayetteville Sun, were both in the city yesterday.

Capt. H. B. Willis has been quite sick for a week or so.

Rev. Dr. Pritchard and family expected to leave for Cleveland Springs last evening.

Rev. Prof. James Willis, Principal of the Staunton, Va., Female Seminary, is here on a visit and stopping with Rev. F. W. E. Peschau.

Dr. S. Commissioner's Court. Sam. Craig, colored, was arrested yesterday and had a preliminary hearing before U. S. Commissioner Gardner.

Col. Bennett made a fine speech and was often applauded.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.

Proceedings of the Convention of the Sixth Congressional District at Lumberton—Nomination of Hon. R. T. Bennett.

The special train to carry to Lumberton the New Hanover delegation, left Wilmington at 6.15 a. m., and arrived at Lumberton at 8.45.

Arriving at Lumberton, it was soon discovered that Bennett would get a majority on the first ballot.

Mr. Cowan thanked the Convention and said the Convention was ready for business.

Mr. Kercher nominated Mr. B. F. McDaniel for Secretary.

On motion of P. L. Meares, the roll was called, and the usual committees were appointed.

At 12.45 p. m. the committees returned and reported. The committee on Credentials reported that every county was represented.

Mr. Platt D. Walker spoke to the question of expressing the voice of the Convention before proceeding to vote on the nominations.

Mr. P. B. Means moved that he be laid on the table. The Chair decided that the motion to lay on table prevailed.

Mr. J. T. Le Grand, of Richmond, made a thrilling speech on placing in nomination R. T. Bennett.

Mr. Covington, of Union, seconded, with a brilliant speech, the nomination of R. T. Bennett.

Mr. Robt. Robinson, of Charlotte, addressed the Convention in some very appropriate remarks, and in the name of A. M. Waddell, asked that R. T. Bennett be nominated by acclamation.

Mr. Paul B. Means moved that the roll be called and make a loving verdict that Mr. Bennett was voted for and nominated by the unanimous vote of every county in the District.

A nomination in the Southern Section of the City.

Between 2 and 3 o'clock yesterday morning the denizens in the neighborhood of Queen street, between Fourth and Fifth, were aroused by loud cries of murder, etc., from a female voice issuing from a dwelling, rooms in which are occupied by Mrs. Bishop, a widow lady, who is an employe in the cotton mills.

On the arrival of the Sea-Side club at the depot in this city last night they were met and escorted down Front Street by a large crowd, and heartily cheered and congratulated.
