A VISION OF BEAUTY.

It was a beauty that I saw.
So pure, so perfect, that the fame
Of all the universe were lame,
To that one figure could I draw
Or give least line of it at law!

A skein of silk without a knot! A fair march made without a halt!
A curious form without a fault!
A printed book without a blot!
All beauty and without a spot!

-PHILADELPHIA, July 28.-A meeting of Independent Republicanss was held here to-day. A permanent organiza-tion was effected under the name of the "Association of Republicans and Inde-pendents of the City of Philadelphia."

- Hon. F. O. Mason, for a long period Judge of Ontario county, New York and law partner of Hon. Charles J. Folger, will vote for Cleveland. Mr. Mason was a delegate to the Convention which nominated Gen. Garfield, and is a man of sound learning and high character.

— Albany, N. Y., July 28.—One of the visitors here is Charles Bankes, president of the Nebraska German Press Association. He says the Republicans will not get over 2,000 German votes in his State, and that, with proper organization, the Democrats can make the Republicans shake in their boots. "The Germans of the northwest," said Mr. Bankes, "are disgusted with Republican doctrines. They look upon Blaine as the endorser of prohibition and they will do all they can to defeat him."

— UTICA, N. Y., July 29.—At a meeting in the City Hall to night, to form a Blaine and Logan Club for the Fourth Ward, the proceedings were commonplace until ex-Judge William J. Bacon was called upon for a speech. Several speeches had been made indorsing Blaine and Logan, scarifying the Democratic party, and prophesying disaster to the country if the tariff was touched, when cries of "Bacon, Bacon," brought the venerable Judge to his feet. After saying that he rose with hesitation, and had even come to the meeting with that feeling, he deelared he could never vote for James G. Blaine or take an active part in any movement to aid in his election. He added: "Lifear I shall grieve some of my friends. I propose to maintain my self-respect, if not the respect of othmy self-respect, if not the respect of others. I need not say I make this avowal with pain, but I never yet voted knowingly for a man whom I was satisfied was not an honest man, and I never will. I know I differ from others, but I cannot vote for Blaine when in my inmost heart I do not believe him honest, upright and sincere."

POLITICAL POINTS.

- Mr. Dana still sleeps on his Democratic shoulder.—Philadelphia Times,

- It is estimated that about two and a half votes are made for Mr. Blaine every time one of his organs calls a college president a "mugwump." — Washington Post, Dem.

- The defeat of Mr. Converse in Ohio indicates that the Democrats of his District are not grateful for his efforts to increase the duties on wool.—Philadelphia Record, Ind. Dem.

- The question in the campaign of 1884 should not relate to the protection of American honor, but the election of an honest man to be President of the United States.—New York Sun, Ind.

Blaine, in his "Farewell Address," suggests that all our present prosperity in this country is to be attributed to the protective tariff. From this time forth we must dispense with singing the good old hymn commencing: "Praise God from Whom All Blessings Flow."—Eastern Stories on the Road.

Commercial Travellers at a Wayside Inn-Something to Put in a Gripsack. "Gentlemen, I almost envy you the positions you fill; your experience of the world; your knowledge of business; the changing sights you see, and all that, you know."

This warmly expressed regret fell from the lips of an jelderly pleasure tourist, last August, and was addressed to a semicircle of commercial traveller; seated on the porch of the Lindell Hotel, St. Louis, Mo.

'Yes," responded a New York representative of the profession, "a drummer isn't without his pleasures, but he runs his risks, too—risks outside the chances of railroad collisions and sceamboat explosions."

'What risks, for instance?"

"This, for instance," said Mr. W. D. Franklin, who was then travelling for an Eastern house, and is known to merchants in all parts of the country: "The risk—which, indeed, amounts almost to a certainty—of getting the dyspepsia from perpetual change of diet and water and from having no fixed hours for eating and sleeping. I myself was an example. I say was, for I am all right now."

"No discount on your digestion?" broke in a Chicago dry goods traveller, lighting his cigar afresh.

"Not a quarter per cent. But I had to give up travelling for a while. The dyspepsia ruined my paper. Finally I came across an advertisement of PARKER'S TONIC. I tried it and it fixed me up to perfection. There is nothing on earth, in my opinion, equal to it as a cure for

The Wilmington Stan has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gasette.

The Wilmington Stan has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington Stan is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jactson Reporter. The Wilmington Stan is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from ty pography up to editorial ability and independence.

Patersburg (Vq.) Index-Appear. The Wilmington (N. C.) Monaine Star is a mode of newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggerate its merits when we say it is the newsest (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (No.) Published to the South.—Richmond

The Wilmington STAR has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.— We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re-liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spley, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baplist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dal lies in the South.—Hobesonian. That magnificent beaming Star has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, crudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner. The Wilmington Stan has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer.

The Wilmington Star is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The Star is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's The Times cannot say a word too good for the many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times.

The Wilmington Stan, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Stan very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcreganton Rlade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newerger it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepta ble exchanges. —Hillsboro Recorder. ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Monnine Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.—Goldsboro Messenger.

MRS. W. E. STEBBINS. TESTED A QUARTER, OF A CENTURY-IT STANDS UNRIVALLED.

DR. J. BRADFIELD, Atlanta, Ga.: Dear Sir-I take pleasure in stating that I have used, for the last twenty years, the medicine you are now put ting up, known as Dr. Bradfield's Female Regulator, and consider it the best combination ever gotten tegether for the diseases for which it is recommended. With kindest regards I am, re-W. B. FERRELL, M. D. spectfully. ATLANTA, GA.

DR. J. BRADFIELD: Dear Sir-Some fifteen years ago I examined the recipe of Female Regulator and carefully studied authorities in regard to its components, and then (as well as now) pronounce it to be the most scientific and skilful combina-tion of the really reliable remedial agents known to science, to act directly on the womb and utetine organs, and the organs and parts sympathizing directly with these; and therefore, providing a specific remedy for all diseases of the womb, and of the adjacent organs and parts.

Yours truly, JESE BORNS

May mean "Poisoned with Potash." This is the case with hundreds who have been unwise enough to take Sarsaparillas, Potash mixtures, etc., until digestion is almost fatally impaired. Swift's Specific is a vegetable remedy, and restores the system to health and builds up the waste made by these poisons.

Victimized ! BUT FINALLY RELIEVED BY S. S. S. "I was suffering with Blood Poison, and treated everal months with Mercury and Potash, only to make me worse. The Potash took away my appetite and gave me dyspepsia, and both gave me heumatism. I then took Sarsaparilla, etc. All these Sarsaparilla mixtures have Potash in them. 10.20 P. M. This made me still worse, as it drove the post. 1.25 A. M. farther into my system. Smith, the largest merchant in Gainesville, Ga., says: "I suffered for years from thecombined effects of Erysipelas and Eczema. I continued to grow worse under medical treatment and by taking medicine containing Potash. S. S. S. cured me thoroughly and absolutely. My appetite, strength and flesh returned as I was cured with it." Let Truth Tell its Story! A MINISTER AND THE ORPHAN CHILDREN. Rev. L. B. Paine, Macon, Ga., writes: "We have been using Swift's Specific at the orphan's home as a general health tonic, and have had remarkable results from its use on the children and em ployes of the institution. It is such an excellent tonic, and keeps the blood so pure, that the system is less liable to disease. It has cured some of our children of Scrofula." Our Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed free to applicants.
