The Augusta Constitutionalist reaffirms its report concerning the dissatisfied Crofters in this State, and upon the authority of letters received by the British Consul at Charleston from Mr. Donald McIntosh, one of the Crofters, and Mr. J. VOL. XXXIV .-- NO. 120.

WILMINGTON, N. C., SUNDAY, AUGUST 10, 1884.

A hundred delegates of the German Progressive Union of Connectiout met in Convention at New Haven. In their address they declared that "Blaine is the personification of all that is corrupt in the Republican party. His whole career as a public man is tainted with jobbery and associated with measures hostile to the general good of the country. Therefore all voters are urged to cast their ballots and exert their efforts to elect Cleveland and Hendricks." The address will be submitted to each branch of the organization throughout the State for approval.

Our friend of the Raleigh Register did a good thing in having the speeches of Scales and York stenographically reported. We read the opening speech of Gen. Scales and it is a good one-better than the crude outline reports led us to suppose. We shall use portions of this report as our space may allow.

Ward Beecher is satisfied that Cleveland is maligned, and will take the stump for him. He says of the stories against Cleveland:

"You can say that I expect to brand the men who have promulgated them as black-mailers and liars, for I now expect the Gov-ernor acted the part of a manin this affair."

The six Greely survivors say they are ready to try it again. Is fame so sweet that they who have been snatched from the very jaws of death are willing to seek a death by starvation this early?

Kelly says Butler's candidacy very important, "complicates the canvass very much," and he will poll a large vote. Any man who can stand Butler need not make a wry face at Blaine.

THE STATE CANVASS.

Durham Reporter.

The speeches of Gen. W. R. Cox and Capt. Octavius Coke, at Stokes Hall, Tuesday evening, were listened to by a packed house, and made a very great impression upon the audi-

Charlotte Observer. In his speeches, when Pat. Winston can't exactly catch on to the words he wants, he throws in cuss words to fill up. - Senator Vance at Charlotte: "Fellow-citizens," he softly remarked, "we are going to clean them up-I feel it in my bones. Like the nigger at the circus, when I look at the prospect before me, I'm so glad I'm alive that I'm almost dead. I feel victory in every fibre. I am in better hopes and in bet-ter heart than ever before, and am even more hopeful of victory than I was in 1876. I have considered the course of politics, mapped out politi-cal events and observed the signsstudying it from a scientific stand, point, and I never before felt so confident of victory. One great inspiration in the first place is the remarkable unanim ty of feeling everywhere, the great and universal desire to subordinate all small bickerings and local quarrels to the effort to secure National and State Democratic victory." As an instance, the Senator cited Carteret county, where a Democratic club has just been organized numbering as members every Democrat old enough to vote, and where they talk of winning the coun-

A Short Railroad.

A wooden railroad, or tramway, is being constructed by a number of the leading citizens from the Pireway section, in Columbus county, to Calabash, a small seaport village in the lower part of Bruns wick, near the South Carolina line, a distance of nine or ten miles. The rolling stock of the new road will consist of an engine and four cars, and is intended to better facilitate the transportation of the large productions of the Pireway section to a suitable locality for shipment. The road is expected to be ready for use early in October.

CAROLINA YACHT CLUB.

The Third Regular Regatta-Yachts Entered, Sec.

The third regular regatta of the Caro lina Yacht Club will take place over the Wrightsville course on Tuesday, the 12th inst. It is hoped that the elements will be more propitious on this coming occasion than they happened to be when the las race was attempted to be run. It is seldom the club has been called upon to encounter such difficulties as encompassed them on all sides on that memorable occasion. We look for better luck for our brave yachtmen on Tuesday, and trust that, though the excitement may not be raised to fever heat in the coming regatta, as it was in the last, the spectators may have the satisfaction of seeing the boats all sail through and the flag of victory fall into worthy hands. The following yachts have been entered for the race: Yacht Mabel, Commander G. H. Smith. Yacht Glide, Commander ----Yacht Rosa, Commander Pembroke ones. Yacht Madge, Commander Wm. L. Smith. Jr.

Yacht Mascotte, Commander W. L. Pars Yacht Lettie, Commander Jno. J. Fowler. Yacht Contest, Commander H. Fennell, Yacht Hard Times, Commander J. H.

With perhaps other yachts which will be eresfter announced.

The boats will rendezvous at 12 m., and the race is expected to be called at 1 p. m. If the weather should prove favorable there will be a large crowd in attendance.

Fight in a Bar-Room—A Colored Man Seriously Stabbed,

John Gibson, colored, a stevedore, was seriously wounded in an affray that occurred about 9 o'clock last night, in a barstreets, kept by Josea and Fred Hawes, colored. Gibson was cut in three placeshis upper lip was laid open, a severe gash made in his right side and a long cut across his abdomen from which the intestines protruded. The cutting is charged upon Fred Hall, colored, a carpenter, and was caused by a quarrel over a game of cards. Hall was arrested by Officer Millis, who happened to be in the vicinity, soon after the affray, and was taken, with the wound ded man (Gibson) to J. C. Hill's office, where Gibson's wounds were sewed up by Dr. Macumber and a commitment was made out for Hall who was then sent to fail to await the result of the injuries inflicted on

Hall alleges that a general attack was made upon him by Gibson and several other colored men in the place, and that he was knocked down and beaten with a chair, He does not admit the cutting. The weapon used could not be found.

Y., says that his daughter was taken with a violent cold which terminated with Pneumonia, and all the best physicians gave the case up and said she could live but a few hours at most. She was in this condition when a friend recommended DR. WM. HALL'S BALSAM FOR THE LUNGS, and advised her to try it. She accepted it as a last resort, and was surprised to find that it produced a marked change for the better, and by persevering in its use a cure was effected.

Wm. H. Green, Agent, Wilmington, N. C.

A DOWN TOWN MERCHANT, having passed several sleepless nights, disturbed by the agonies and cries of a suffering child, and becoming convinced that Mrs. Winslow's Soothing Syrup was just the article needed, procured a supply for the child. On reaching home and acquainting his wife with what he had done, she refused to have it administered to the child, as she was strongly in favor of Homeopathy. That night the child passed in suffering, and the parents without sleep. Returning home the day following, the father found the baby still suffering; and while contemplating another sleepless night, the mother stepped from the room to attend to some domestic duties and left the father with the child. During her absence he administered a portion of the Soothing Syrup to the baby, and said nothing. That night all hands sleept well, and the little fellow awoke in the morning bright and happy. The mother was delighted with the wonderful change, and although at first offended at the deception practiced upon her, has continued to use the Syrup, and suffering crying babies and restless nights have disappeared. A single trial of the Syrup never yet failed to relieve the baby, and overcome the projudices of the mother. Sold by all Druggists. 25 cents a bottle.
