'My company has gone be-fore.' While tender hands are shrouding our own dead dust, friends will robe our souls, alive forever more. The saints, well known to the dying man, crowded about the bed of Christopher Thomas, eager to embrace him. Arise, let us go hence, and in the blooming prospect, lose the sorrows of the way." - The saying of Horace Greeley that he had never met a man who did not think himself competent to run a farm or newspaper in however many other things he might have failed is well known. It begins to look as if every one now thinks himself fully prepared to preach the gospel, judging from the advice heaped upon clergymen from all quarters and by all sects of people, concerning the subjects upon which they should preach and the topics they should pass by. And it is noteworthy that the ones most ready to give direction to ministers are those who know very little about the gospel and upon whom its effects, to say the least, are not apparent.-Presby-

The Wilmington STAR, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal-published in the South.-Oxford Free Lance.

The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still contin ues on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial de-gartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcr-ganton Flade. America SUGAR-P Porto R

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of for-tune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the STAR has steadily "waxed" un-til it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newsra-per it has few equals, and no superior, for apris-priate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most accepta ble exchanges. —Hillsboro Recorder.

ble exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder. The Wilmington Morsing Star has entered up-on the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remark-able success of the Star is due to its strict atten-tion to business. The boast of the Star (rightful-iy too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism: Otherwise the pa-per is all that the torm of "good newspaper" im-plies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be re-tarded, and may its genial enterprising proprie-tor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness. —Goldsboro Messenger.

artner into my system. A friend insisted I should take Swift's Specific, and it cured me of the Blood Poison, drove the Mercury and Potash out of my system, and to-day I am as well as I ever was."

Cured Thoroughly and Absolutely. John A. Smith, the largest merchant in Gainesville, Ga., says: "I suffered for years from the dombined effects of Erysipelas and Eczema. I continued to grow worse under medical treatment and by taking medicine containing Potash. S. S. S. cured me thoroughly and absolutely. My appetite, strength and flesh returned as I was cured with it."

Let Truth Tell its Story ! A MINISTER AND THE ORPHAN CHILDREN. Rev. L. B. Paine, Macon, Ga., writes: "We have been using Swift's Specific at the orphan's home as a general health tonic, and have had remarkable results from its use on the children and eni ployes of the institution. It is such an excellent tonic, and keeps the blood so pure, that the system is less liable to disease. It has cured some of our children of Scrofula." Our Treatise on Blood and Skin Diseases mailed
