PUETIC GEMS FOR SUNDAY. God is a worker. He has thickly strewn Infinity with grandeur. God is love. He yet shall wipe away Creation's tears, And all the worlds shall summer in his.

. Alexander Smith.

I was a stricken deer, that left the herd Long since; with many an arrow deep in-My panting side was charged when I with To seek a tranquil death in distant shades. There was I found by One who had Him-Been hurt by th' archers.

-Cowper.

Thou who didst wrap the cloud Or infancy around us, that Thyself, Therein, with our simplicity awhile Might'st hold on earth communion undis-Who from the anarchy of dreaming sleep,

Or from its dream like void, with punctual care, And touch as gentle as the morning light Restor'st us daily—
Thou, thou alone

Art everlasting, and the blessed spirits Which thou includest, as the sea her waves. - Wordsworth.

RELIGIOUS MISCELLANY.

- A religion that does not bear fruit in our lives is worthless. - There are 81,717 clergymen and

17,267,878 Church communicants in the United States. - The receipts of the Southern

Presbyterian Church for foreign missions last year were $70,167.85—$3,840.25 more than last year. - Mrs. Ruth Fisk widow of the late Rev. William Fisk, D. D., the first President of the Wesleyan University, died at her residence at Middletown Conn., yesterday morning. - Dr. H. F. Johnson has made a Centenary donation of a handsome new building and other property to Whitworth College, Brookhaven, Miss., valued at $20,-000, To this was added $1,000 in cash by

Maj. R. W. Millsaps. - We knew a man who has had a little business difficulty with a member of the Church, and in consequen he refuses to go to church on Sunday. He reminds us of the Chinaman who, when he wishes to be revenged on his enemy, goes and com-mits suicide.—Methodist Advance.

- Among the themes of a sensational preacher in New York, we find these two very suggestive topics: "Orange peel on the sidewalk" "Giving the wink." We suppose the purpose of such preaching to be to have as little of the gospel as possible, and to afford a little innocent diversion for an hour .- Baltimore Baptist.

- Will some people never learn the difference between singing and screaming or howling? Wish they would—and wish others would consider the great impropriety-not to say the great rudeness of stopping in the church aisles to talk to their friends, while quiet and reverent people stand back to them, waiting for an opportunity to leave the church in a Christian-like manner.—St. Louis Christian

- Titles are not to be ridiculed nor despised. They are as harmless as poodle dogs, and in many ways they are useful. They help to preserve the equili-brium of society, and in many instances they are the heavy end of the concern and most important part of it. Where the titles are the heavy end, they balance up the other end and keep it from sinking into nothingness and oblivion. Many a man without his title would be but the shadow of weakness; with it he has the strength and noise of "Jupiter Tonans." You wouldn't lend that dead beat, simply as Dick Dodler, five cents; but, as "Colonel" or "General" Dick Dodler, you would be almost anxious to lend him five dollars. Many a minister without his D. D. would be voted a very "weak brother;" but the two D.'s help him more than two sticking plasters, and transform his dullest trash into profundity and eloquence. - United Spirits Turpentine.

- Mr. H. P. Tucker, of Raleigh is dead, aged 85-

-Wilson Advance: Mrs. Dr. Blow, of Greenville, was stricken with paralysis Sunday.

- Winston Leader: Good crops are reported everywhere. This will be a big year with us with full crops. -Stonewall Enterprise; The heavy rains we have been having lately have damaged the corn crops very much. - Louisburg Times: The crops in Franklin have improved more than fifty per cent. in the last two or three weeks.

- Elizabeth City Economist: From all we can gather, the superabundant and continuous rains have not seriously injured the old corn. - Asheville Citizen: We learn that the hotel on top of Roan mountain is largely patronized this year. The house is continuously full. - Clinton Caucasian: One of the defendants at the Inferior Court this week lives 33 miles from Clinton. How is

Sampson for a big county? - Raleigh Visitor: Died, in this city, this morning, after a long and painful illness, Mrs. Mary Alice Doyle, beloved wife of Mr. James Doyle, aged about 33

- Leaksville Gazette: The wheat crop in this section is turning out well. The farmers all seem in good spirits. The tobacco and corn crops are very promising

- Rockingham Spirit: Mr. John Norton, who resides in Laurel Hill township, whilst out fishing some days ago, slipped and fell on a log, severely and per-haps fatally snagging himself.

_ Maj. W. W. Vass has been Treasurer of the Raleigh & Gaston Railroad thirty-nine or forty years. He began very young. He is a native of Granville county and is as honest a man as lives.

- Salem Press; A barn of Mrs. Sheek, a widow lady, near Hall's Ferry, Davie county, was burned last Friday morning. Two mules, one horse and three or four hundred bushels of grain were destroyed. - We hear of a squash in Jones county which weighs 110 pounds and is still growing. Two weeks ago it measured five feet in circumference and three feet in length and is named Cleveland.—New Berne Journal. [It ought to be squashed at once.

-STAR. — Danbury Reporter and Post:
The county Exposition committee met
Monday and determined to have a county exposition here the 11th and 12th of September, when the collection for the State exhibit will be exhibited and rewards paid for wheat, oats, potatoes, &c.

Torchlight: Last year I met in Chowan county a reliable gentleman by the name of Bunch, who raises every year about 100 Bunch, who raises every year about 100 head of hogs, and who told me that he had never lost one from cholera, though the disease had often appeared among his herd. His remedy is Simmons Liver Regulator administered by drenching—quantity about double that given to a man.

— Clayton Bud: The Wilmington Star, the ablest edited daily paper in the State, says the Agricultural Department of North Carolina has clearly established its right to exist. — We deeply sympathize with Mr. Frank Jones in the loss of three of his little children. The oldest was about six years old; the second about four years and the third about ten months. One died Friday night, the second Sunday, and the third one Monday night.

- Goldsboro Messenger: The silver medal for the best solo pianist under fifteen years of age was awarded to Master J. Hiram Grant, of this city. For the best solo pianist, open to all, a silver medal was awarded to Miss L. M. Southgate, of Durham. The gold medal for the best solo cornetist to Prof. Robert Herndon, of Charlotte. The silver cup to the best lady vocalist to Miss Emma Lineback, of Salem. The gold headed cape to the best gentle-The gold headed cane to the best gentleman vocalist, to Prof. Pauli, of Raleigh.

- New Berne Journal: Rev. Mr. Cashwell is holding a series of revival meetings at Piney Grove Church, Jones county, with favorable results. Some ten or twelve persons having professed religion up to the last accounts. — Mr. Green, who keeps Clairmont bridge, aided by his son, killed this week, a water moccasin which measured five feet in length, and his immense size led them to perform an autopsy, which revealed the fact that he contained a cat fish 18 inches in length with a "head on him" two inches in breadth, besides fifty-two living snakes, measuring from one to two feet in length.

- Charlotte Observer: The fifth annual exhibition of the Poplar Tent Fair Association closed yesterday. It was nearly 2 o'clock before Senator Vance arrived with his escort from Concord and by that time fully 2,000 people were gathered to hear him. Senator Vance commenced by relating the duties which the political leader was called upon to perform these days. He is not only expected to keep the party going, but must be prepared to deliver Sunday school addresses, lecture for churches and charitable objects, and above all to deliver agricultural addresses, whether he can tell a notate from a turnio or a mule from tell a potato from a turnip, or a mule from a Jersey cow. The proprieties of the occa-sion, he said, forbade him to touch upon politics. He was sorry for it, as he never before wanted to make a stump speech so badly. At this juncture he was interrupted by loud cries of "Give us one," "Talk politics," etc., but he settled the whole matter by saying: "No, I will save it for campmeeting." He then made an excellent address on North Carolina.

- Raleigh News-Observer: PLY-MOUTH, August 14.—The Democratic Congressional Convention of the First District was held to-day, assembling at 2 o'clock P. M. There was no other candidate for the Congressional nomination save Hon. Thos. G. Skinner, and he was nominated by acclamation. For Senators Dr. P. H. Simmons, of Hyde, and Thedore Poole, of Martin, were chosen. For elector W. H. Lucas, of Hyde, was chosen. — REIDS-VILLE, N. C., August 14.—The reunion of ex-Confederate soldiers held here to day was, as might have been expected, a grand and brilliant success. The number of veterans of the war was the greatest ever assembled in the State since 65. It was estimated that no less than 1,000 of these "wearers of the gray" were present. At noon to-day the exercises began. The stand for the speakers, an immense one, was most elaborately decorated with flags of all kinds. Conspicuous in front was the shot-torn battle-flag of the 13th Regiment (Scales' own). This was flanked by State and National flags. That brilliant orator, J. W. Reid, delivered the address of welcome, and acquitted himself in such a manner as to win new honors. It was one of the most eloquent he ever de-livered. At its conclusion he read a poem livered. At its conclusion he read a poem written by Mrs. Sampson, dedicated to the North Carolina veterans. Mr. Reid introduced Senator Ransom. That distinguished soldier made a speech which was enthusiastically received. Gen. Scales was the next speaker. He was received with an outburst of cheers, and the affection and regard in which he is held by the people of the Piedmont section were most plainly recognized. Pointing to the battle scarred recognized. Pointing to the battle scarred flag which floated near him, he said he had in bygone days seen it go down time and again, but never in disgrace, always with honor. His allusions to the old soldiers brought tears to many eyes. Col. W. F. Beasley made a stiring appeal for aid for the Soldiers' Home. Speeches, well-timed and well received, were delivered by Mr. Cyrus B. Watson, of Forsyth, and Col. John R. Winston. Letters from Gov. Jarvis and Senator Vance were read. THE CAMPAIGN.

— Maj. J. W. Daniel, the elo-quent Virginian, is going to Ohio to do campaign work for Cleveland and Hen-dricks. He will probably remain in the State from September 15 to October 1.

- "Kill the Democratic Nigger" are strange words to be heard in the streets of this National Capital, but they are the words used by members of a gang of col-ored Republican rufflans on Wednesday evening last .- Wash. Post.

-"How am I agoin' to vote? queried Billy McGlory. Well, I've always been a Republican, an' it seems to me that Blaine is a pretty smart duck. Cleveland ain't fly. He's been in office a long while an' never coppered a d—n cent. I wouldn't vote for no such wooden-headed chump as that. What does a man want to get an office for if he don't get anythin' out of it ?' - From a N. Y. Times Interview.

SOUTHERN ITEMS.

- General Longstreet has gone back to his old business of keeping an inn at Gainesville, Ga.

- Dr. Basil L. Gildersleeve, of Johns Hopkins University, Baltimore, has been engaged to deliver a summer course of lectures on Greek at the University of the South, Sewance, Tenn.

- General John Breckenridge Castleman, of Kentucky, is one of the interesting characters at Old Point, Va. He likes to show an autograph note by Mr. Lincoln, written in 1868, when its present owner was a prisoner under sentence of death for trying to liberate the prisoners at Fort Douglas. The note runs: "When John B. Castleman is sentenced to be executed delay proceedings till further orders. A Lincoln.

POLITICAL POINTS.

- Miscellaneous ticket - Butler and Dans. Platform: "All is not gold that glitters."—Boston Post.

- We will never have any genuine politics in this country until the oldfashioned barbecue is revived. Baked shote, fresh buttermilk and home-made bread will win votes when everything else fails .- Atlanta Constitution, Dem.

- We hardly credit the story, however well it may seem to be authenticated, that Butler has been offered a seat in the Blaine cabinet, provided he will pull off his coat and help to make a Blaine cab-- F. P. Hobgood in Oxford inet possible, -Boston Post.

The STAE is decidedly one of the best papers in the State, as bright and newsy as ever. Long life to it,—Salem Press. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth rear—as good a paper as any people should want.

-Charlotts Democrat.

The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register. The Wilmington STAR has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington Stab has entered upon its thir-teenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette.

The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight. The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter.

The Wilmington Stan is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from ty pography up to editorial ability and independence. Petersourg (Va.) Index-Appeal. The Wilmington (N. C.) MORNING STAR is a modi-el newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exag-gerate its merits when we say it is the newsissi (secular) paper published in the South.—Richmond (Va:) Religious Herald.

The Wilmington Star has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—

Tarboro Southerner.

We like the Stan because it is thoroughly re-liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, sploy, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the Stan twinkle.—Mt. Airy Visitor.

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist. The Sran is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dai lies in the South.—Hobesonian.

That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Tarboro Southerner. The Wilmington STAR has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an bonor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington Star is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The Star is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's Observer.

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Reidsville Times.

The Wilmington Star, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider if the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of Star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—Richmond (Va.) State. The Wilmington STAR has entered uponits 12th The Wilmington STAR has entered uponts 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still contin nes on the road to success. We esteem the STAR very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deagreement is conducted with much ability.—Mcrander Blade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collarse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a neweraper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietarded, and may its genial enterprising proprie-tor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness. — Goldsboro Messenger.

MOTHER'S FRIEND

A Precious Boon to Woman, WORDS OF PRAISE.

I most earnestly entreat every female expecting to be confined to use Mother's Relief. Coupled with this entreaty I will add that during a ong obstetrical practice (forty-four years) I have never known it to fall to produce a quick and H. J. HOLMES, M. D.

A lady from one of the counties of Middle Georgia, who has been acting midwife for many years, writes: "I have disposed of all the Mother's Friend you sent me, and I am delighted with it. In every instance where it has been used its effects have been all that I could ask. I consider it a great blessing."

A gentleman writes: "My wife used your Mother's Friend at her fourth confinement, and her testimony is that she passed through it with onehalf the suffering of either of her former confinements, and recovered from its effects in much less time. She also recommended it to a lady friend who was about to be confined for the first time, and she says: 'I have never seen any one pass through this great trial with so much ease and so little suffering.'".

A QUICK-AND EASY TIME. A distinguished physician of Mississippi writes: Every one expecting to be confined should use the Mother's Friend, for during a long obstetric practice I have never known it to fail to produce a quick and safe delivery.

This remedy is one about which we cannot publish certificates, but it is a most wonderful liniment to be used after the first two or three Send for our treatise on the Health and Happi-

"I have cured Blood Taint by the use of Swift's Specific after I had most signally failed with the Mercury and Potash treatment."

F. A. TOOMER, M. D., Perry, Ga.

"Swift's Specific has cured me of Scrofula of 12 years standing. Had sores as large as my hand, and every one thought I was doomed. Swift's Specific cured me after physicians and all other medicine had failed." R. L. HIGH, Lonoke, Ark. "Give like a Christian, speak in deeds; A noble life's the best of creeds;

ARCHIE THOMAS, Springfield, Tenn.

Statement of T. L. Massenburg,

Macon, Ga. I have known much of the use of Swift's Specific, and have seen many of the worst cases of Blood Taint and Blood Poison cured with it, after having tried all other sorts of treatment; in fact, I have never known it to fail when taken properly. I can cite the case of a young man who had been treated by the best physicians for Blood Poison, but all to no purpose; and as the time for his marriage was approaching, he was nearly distracted. He finally took Swift's Specific, and was cured as sound as a new doliar.

Another who tried everything, and spent four months at the Hot Springs without benefit, was at last cured by this remedy. His case was like raising one from the dead. I could go on and tell you of a hundred cases.
