A CLEAR HEAD.

"One year ago I was induced to try AYER'S PILLS as a remedy for Indigestion, Constipation, and Headache, from which I tad long been a great sufferer. Commencing with a dose of five Pills, I found their action easy, and obtained prompt relief. In continuing their use, a single Pill taken after dinner, daily, has been all the medi-cine I have required. AYER'S PILLS have kept my system regular and my head clear, and benefited me more than all the medicines ever before tried. Every person similarly afflicted should know their value. 132 State St., Chicago, June 6, 1882.

WHAT GEN. BUTLER SAID WOULD BE A CALAMITY TO THE COUNTRY.

But "Death is dead" was all the voice re-hast January He Warned the People Against Blaine. From his speech at the Jackson dinner.

Jan. 8, 1884. What is the hope of the Democracy in 1884? It is this: In the fact that all good men will recognize that it will be a calamity to this country if the Democracy does not win in 1884. * * * But if combined capital, if combination of party takes from the Democracy the guidance of its people for four years longer, God in his infinite mercy can only tell how this reform will be brought about four or eight years hence. I speak but a warning voice. I am looking in the faces of the representatives of the Massachusetts Democracy-good men and true; men who have fought many a battle in many a year without hope even of success, who fought for principle, * * * * Think a moment, my friends. Look outside and see what is in the future. And let us act together for the accomplishment of the success of the Democratic party; and let every man who is a patriot sink every personal consideration on earth to attain that great and good end. Let us work together. Everywhere we may find an opportunity to work. Never mind who is ahead or who is behind, but each one of us pressing on to this goal which I have named, and that alone. By that means we shall acquire a great end. Let us not inquire who is to be the standardbearer, but let us inquire where is the standard, that we may rush to it and sustain it in every shock of battle. That is the duty of every patriot; that is the duty of Democrat; and the great reward, which is the only thing that a public servant, a public man or a patriot could hope to win, the safety, the honor, the glory of his country, will be ours, and it will be more than anything else if we can point to our children and say: Your father in this great crisis of his country did his duty as a patriot and as a

- Indianapolis, August 17.-Somewhat unexpectedly the Hon. Thomas A. Hendricks and wife returned home from New York at noon. They came back refreshed and in improved health. Mr. Hendricks declined to talk of political affairs, but from a gentleman who accompanied him on the homeward trip, it is learned that he is much disappointed over his failure to harmonize the factious of the New York Democracy, and that he is not particularly sanguine as to the result of the

— Columbus, Ohio, August 17.—
Not since the organization of the Republican party has there been as little activity manifested by the party's leaders in this State two months before an election as there exists at the present time. At the Democratic headquarters great confidence is expressed by the Chairman that the Democrats will carry the State in October. The Republican have no information to give out, save that the outlook is promising. It is pretty well understood here that the Re-publican Committee have no funds on hand, and that contributions are small and slow in coming in. - It seems to be pretty clearly established that Gen. Butler had a conference with Secretary Chandler at Portsmouth on the 26th of July. Chandler then went to Bar Harbor, and in company with Eugene Hale, George M. Robeson and a confidential representative of Steve Elkins had a consultation with Blaine. Then Chandler in company with Robeson and Hale, again met Butler at Portsmouth. This was on the 4th of August, and two days later appeared Butler's brief letter announcing his purpose to stand by the nomi-tions of the Greenbackers and the anti-Monopolists. There can be no doubt that the old intriguer had a full understand-ing with the Blaine leaders, and through them with Blaine himself.

The poor fellow whose blood does not circulate vigorously, whose liver is half asleep, whose stomach is in poor order, and whose digestive apparatus has gone back on him, can never make his feet warm until he puts stomach, blood, liver and digestion in good condition. - Charlotte Democrat. The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year. As a daily journal of news it stands "up head."—Concord Register.

The Wilmington Star has entered its twenty-fifth volume. There is no better paper published in the State.—Lenoir Topic. The Wilmington STAR has entered upon its thirteenth year. It is one of the best papers in the State.—Warrenton Gazette. The Wilmington STAR has entered its thirteenth year. It has become one of the leading papers of the South.—Oxford Torchlight.

The Wilmington STAR is not only one of the best edited papers in the State, but for freshness of news and typograpical appearance cannot be beaten.—Jackson Reporter. The Wilmington Star is one of the very best papers in the South, in every department from typo graphy up to editorial ability and independence, Petersburg (Va.) Index-Appeal.

The Wilmington (N. C.) Morning Star is a mode of newspaper. Indeed, we think we do not exaggrate its merits when we say it is the newsest (secular) paper published in the South,—Richmond (Va.) Religious Herold.

The Wilmington Star has now entered upon its thirteenth year and twenty-fifth volume. One of the best conducted and edited papers in the South and, as a North Carolinian, we are proud of it.—Tarboro Southerner.

We like the STAR because it is thoroughly re-liable, candid, fearless, and so well and ably edited, newsy, spicy, and in fact a perfect news-paper. Long may the STAR twinkle.—Mt. Airy

Although at the head of the press in this State in all that makes a paper valuable to the reader, still it continues to improve. It is a STAR of the first magaitude. May its lustre never wane.—
The Free Will Baptist.

The STAR is so well and favorably known in this section of the State, that we can say nothing of which its thousands of readers do not already know. It is in every respect one of the best dailies in the South.—Robesonian. That magnificent beaming STAR has completed its twenty-second volume. It is one of the most brilliant, erudite and sparkling dailies south of the Potomac. The system in the get up of the paper surpasses them all.—Turboro Southerner.

The Wilmington Star has entered on its twelfth year. It is a most excellent newspaper, well edited, a compendium of all the news of the day, and an honor to its city, to North Carolina and to North Carolina journalism.—Charlotte Observer. The Wilmington Star is now taking the regular midnight Associated Press reports, and has besides increased the amount of its reading matter. The Star is an excellent paper. Its prosperity is not surprising since it is so deserving.—Charlot's

The Times cannot say a word too good for the Wilmington Star. It has just reached one of its many birthdays. As a newspaper it is a favorite with the State press and is sought after by the people. Long and prosperous life to it.—Peids-sille Times.

The Wilmington Star, we are pleased to notice, still continues on the high road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best of our exchanges, and consider it the peer of any journal published in the South.—Oxford Free Lance.

Why is it that all the papers with the name of star are such bright little journals? The Wilmington (N. C.) Star, the Washington Star, the Fredericksburg Star, New York Star, for example. There must be something in a name after all.—

Richmond (Va.) State.

The Wilmington Star, has entered uponits 12th volume, and we are pleased to notice still continues on the road to success. We esteem the Star very highly, regarding it as one of the very best newspapers that comes to this office. Its news columns are always a little fuller than those of any other of our exchanges, and its editorial deartment is conducted with much ability.—Mcreaning Blads. Artment is conducted with much ability.—Merganton Riade.

Humble in its beginnings, as was inseparable from an enterprise begun amid the wreck of fortune that attended the collapse of the Southern Confederacy, the Star has steadily "waxed" until it now beams resplendent in the full glow of a constantly brightening prosperity. As a newer aper it has few equals, and no superior, for appropriate selection and judicious arrangement, and we are proud to rank it among our most acceptable exchanges.—Hillsboro Recorder.

The Wilmington Morning Star has entered upon the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remarkable success of the Star is due to its strict attention to business. The boast of the Star (rightfully too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the paper is all that the term of "good newspaper" implies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men. May the healthy, moral influence of the Star never be retarded, and may its genial enterprising proprietor enjoy many more happy years of usefulness.

SWIFTS SPECIFICS S "I have cured Blood Taint by the use of Swift's Specific after I had most signally failed with the Mercury and Potash treatment" F. A. TOOMER, M. D., Perry, Ga.

"Swift's Specific has cured me of Scrofula of 12 years standing. Had cores as large as my hand, and every one thought I was doomed. Swift's Specific cured me after physicians and all other medicine had failed." R. L. HIGH, Lonoke, Ark.

"Give like a Christian, speak in deeds; A noble life's the best of creeds; And he shall wear a royal crown Who gives a lift when men are down. $10,000 would not purchase from me what Swift's Specific has done for me. It cured me of rheumatism caused by malaria.

ARCHIE THOMAS, Springfield, Tenn.

Statement of T. L. Massenburg, I have known much of the use of Swift's Specific, and have seen many of the worst cases of Blood Taint and Blood Poison cured with it, after having tried all other sorts of treatment; in fact, I have never known it to fall when taken proper-I have never known it to fail when taken properly. I can eite the case of a young man who had been treated by the best physicians for Blood Poison, but all to no purpose; and as the time for his marriage was approaching, he was nearly distracted. He finally took Swift's Specific, and was cured as sound as a new dollar.

Another who tried everything, and spent four months at the Hot Springs without benefit, was at last cured by this remedy. His case was like raising one from the dead. I could go on and tell you of a hundred cases,
