The Wilmington MORNING STAR has entered up-on the thirteenth year of its existence, and we take this opportunity to congratulate it upon its prosperity and deserved popularity. The remark-able success of the STAR is due to its strict atten-tion to business. The boast of the STAR (rightful-ly too) is that it always has the news, and this is the first thing in journalism. Otherwise the pa-per is all that the term of "good newspaper" im-plies, and its corps of editors and reporters are thoroughly educated newspaper men.
